The Murray Drug Company

George Nickles was called to Weeping Water on last Monday to look after some business matters for a short time on last Monday while on their way to Omaha to look after some business.

Wayne Lewis was a visitor in Murray for a short time on last Saturday coming down from his home at Fremont to look after some matters for a short time.

John Eaton living southeast of Union in what is known as Schlota Bottoms was a business visitor in Murray for a short time on last Monday afternoon.

L. D. Hlatt and family of Plattsmouth were enjoying a visit on last Sunday at the home of Dr. and Mrs. J. F. Brendel where all enjoyed the visit very much.

Mrs. James E. Gruber, who has been visiting for over the week end at the home of W. B. Porter, Jr., and wife of Omaha, returned home on last Monday evening.

Mrs. John Campbell was a visitor for over the week end at the home of her son, James Campbell and wife in South Omaha and returned home on last Monday evening.

Charles Burrows has been on the sick list and not able to work for a number of days past but is feeling much improved and hopes again to be at work in a short time.

E. G. Ruffner from southwest of Mynard was a business visitor in Murray on last Monday getting steel posts for the construction of fence to enable him to pasture staks.

C. H. Boedeker, Jr., who has been spending his vacation in Murray, and enjoying the time splendidly departed for Monmouth, Ill. where he will again take up his studies.

Uncle Alex H. Graves who has been rather lame for some time and unable to be out on the street and walking about early this week, which is pleasant news for his many friends here.

Miss Dorothy Todd who is attending school at Ames, Iowa, and who has been spending the holidays with the home folks here, returned this week to her studies at the school in Iowa.

John C. Valley and the family spent the New Years at the home of Mr. and Mrs. T. J. Brendel where all enjoyed the visit greatly as well as the very fine dinner which Mrs. Brendel served.

With no regrets in his heart for the condition, but Kelly Rhoden completed the gathering of his corn last Saturday and if you saw the stalks which he was wearing you would know he was glad.

Another car of Checkboard feed was unloaded in Murray on Monday of this week which makes the stock of this excellent feed so that every one desiring the feed can find it at the Allen Poultry station.

W. L. Seybolt and wife were enjoying a very fine visit last Saturday afternoon and evening at the home of Mr. and Mrs. George Edmiston at Nebraska City, they driving down in their car for the occasion.

M. L. Ruby and wife who have been visiting at the home of James E. Gruber for the past two weeks, departed on last Monday for their home at McCook, having enjoyed their stay here very much.

While Glen Thompson was attempting to entice the car to operate, the animal kicked, injuring the handy ers elevator company at the Modern Woodman hall in Murray on January 6th, when there will be an election of officers of the company and such other business as may lawfully come before the meeting.

Misses Beatrice Rawls and Beane De Les Denter were over to Omaha for over the week end where they were the guests of their friends, Miss Florence Bartlett, and on their return were accompanied by Florence who were visited with her friends in Murray for a short time.

Jack Douglas who was severely injured some time since when his truck slipped down hill and injured him, is getting along nicely now and was able to take up his work on the truck again the first of this week. During the time that Jack could not work, John Gilmore looked after the work and did sure very fine work and even rustled so hard that he increased the business.

Fred W. Meisinger needed a new hay rack so he brought his wagon to town and leaving it at the home of Fred L. Hild and Thomas Nelson manufactured an extra fine rack on the wagon and also a hog trough which was fastened to the floor of the rack, so that it would not lose when Fred pulled it home with the family car. This makes some twelve racks which has been made at the lumber yard during the summer.

Mr. and Mrs. E. S. Tatt and Dr. G. L. Taylor and family were over the Plattsmouth last Sunday evening where they were the guests at the home of Lee and Etta Nickles, at a six o'clock dinner which was given in honor of Mr. and Mrs. J. D. Wurdeman and F. J. Wurdeman and wife the latter nephew and niece, with Mrs. J. B. Wurdeman was sister of Mr. and Mrs. Etta Nickles. A most enjoyable evening was spent. On the following day Mr. Wurdeman returned to his home a Leigh, while the remainder of the folks remained for a longer visit also visiting in Murray at the home of George Nickles, and were accompanied by Lee Nickles on Monday afternoon.

Monday morning when they returned to Falls City.

Pure Bred Duroc boars.—Albert Young, Murray, Nebraska.

The Murray Study Club.
The Murray Study club met at the home of Miss Beulah Sans Thursday December 19th with 40 members and two visitors present. The meeting was called to order and the roll called answered by Christmas verses and stories and legends, after which the usual business was attended to.

The leader, Mrs. Gilmore, changed the subject of the meeting to a Christmas lesson. The lovely story of Christmas was given by her followed by a story of the carols by Mrs. Boedeker, the singing of them and two numbers by the club quartette, Mrs. Will Seybolt, Mrs. Dick Pittman, Mrs. Milbern and Mrs. Boedeker.

Mrs. Stewart gave a book review of "Faith of the Little Shepherd." Mrs. Vantine read an article on Christmas legends that was very good.

A very interesting debate was given by Mrs. Spangler and Mrs. Ferris on the question, Resolved: "It is right to teach the Santa Claus myth." By applause the victory was given the affirmative.

Mrs. Todd led in a short Parliamentary drill.

A lovely dinner was served by the hostesses, Miss Sans, Mrs. Marcell, Mrs. Delbert Todd, Miss Rainey and Mrs. T. J. Brendel, which everyone enjoyed immensely. Afterwards gifts were exchanged and an afternoon long to be remembered ended. The next meeting will be with Mrs. G. L. Taylor on January 16th.

Presbyterian Church Notes.

Morning worship at 11 a. m.
Evening service at 7:30 p. m. (Young people's meeting).
Wednesday evening prayer meeting at 7:30.

You are cordially invited to worship with us.
J. C. STEWART, Pastor.

Many Are Vaccinated.
There is much concern about the matter of catching the small pox, and many people are being vaccinated to prevent the untidy catching. Dr. G. H. Gilmore is vaccinating some fifty patients in forty-eight hours. It hardly seems so serious but it is well to be on the safe side.

Preached Here Sunday.
Dr. Lockhart, a member of the faculty of the Cotner University, accompanied by his daughter, was in Murray on last Sunday coming here to all the appointments of the Rev. Robert E. Hanson, who on account of his vacation was spending a short time at the home of his parents at Clay Center. The people of Murray like the ministrations of Rev. Hanson very much and were pleased with the very fine discourse which was rendered by Dr. Lockhart.

Received Serious Injury.
While working with a mower, getting it in condition to store and limbering the machine up, Roy Howard accidentally allowed his hand to slip into the machinery with the result that the middle finger of the left hand was so crushed that the nail of the finger had to be removed by Dr. Brendel. Roy will have to take an extended lay off from his work for some time.

Enjoyed Homecoming.
At the home of Mr. and Mrs. Walter T. Valley, northwest of Murray were gathered all the members of the family with the single exception of Frank T. Valley and his family, and they had assayed to come but their car acted refractory and they had to abandon the trip. An excellent dinner was served at the home with the additions of the sons-in-law and daughters-in-law and the kiddies made a large crowd which made the most of the occasion one of greater enjoyment. There were there for the occasion a most merry crowd of children and grandchildren who has come to make a happy Christmas for the grandparents.

Father Very Sick.
Word was received of the very serious illness of W. C. Ray of Bethany, Mo., father of George Ray, and who has visited here for a number of times and is well known by many of the people of Murray. Mr. and Mrs. George Ray departed as soon as they received the news of his illness, and arrived at his bedside as soon as possible to render what service they could to the aged and feeble being about ninety years of age. Word had not been received since their arrival as to his condition when the writer was speaking to Mr. Thompson.

Enjoy Meeting in Omaha.
Joseph McManus and wife of Medina, Mo., and uncle and aunt of Miss Lois McManus and Harry McManus, came to Falls City where they visited for a time with Thomas McManus and wife, and following they on last Friday went to Omaha where they visited with another brother, J. P. McManus, and on their way picked up Miss Lois, taking her along, they all visiting in Omaha for Saturday and Sunday. Harry was able to slip away on Saturday night and joined the happy party at Omaha where the entire family were together, Harry returning to Murray late Sunday night and Miss Lois coming on with the folks

The Babe of Bethlehem.
Prophets has told of the coming of the Saviour of the world, for many years, and where he should be born and about when, so that the world was looking for the coming of the Messiah. We studied how the shepherds were apprised by the birth, and how they came and worshipped him. Now comes the birth of Jesus the Christ after seven hundred and twenty-five years after the Israelites were carried away into Assyria. With their carrying away, there went also the prophecy that a Saviour should come, away over in Persia, the fact was remembered that a Saviour should be born, and three wise men from the east came to pay homage to the Christ who should redeem mankind. They had been guided by a star and inquired diligently of the prophets and were told he should be born in Bethlehem. Being guided by the star they found the child and his mother in a manger and brought gifts, gold, frankincense and Myrrh.

Depart Another Way.
Being warned by God in a dream they returned to their country another way, not via Jerusalem and Herod, who has said he wanted to worship the Christ, when he did not
