

MURDOCK ITEMS

Dr. S. B. MacMarrum and family of Omaha, made a New Years call at L. Neitzel's and were just in time for dinner.

Katherine Neitzel returned to her school at Wood Lake after spending her vacation with L. Neitzel's, her grandparents.

Uncle Charles Kupke has been having a siege with the grip, but is feeling much better at this time.

John Eppings and family were over to Murray for New Years day, and were visiting at the homes of Earl Lancaster and Jarvis Lancaster and family.

Miss Henrietta Bauer was enjoying a visit at the home of her sister, Mrs. Lem Mullinger, of Lincoln, for the New Year and remained for over the evening.

Joy Miller, of Elmwood, nine years old, was a visitor in Murdock for the afternoon of New Years day, riding over on his bicycle and enjoying a very fine time.

A little son of Mr. and Mrs. Harry Davis, is at the home of his grandfather, G. V. Pickwell, sick with the grippe, but is reported as getting along nicely at this time.

Henry A. Guthmann and the family were enjoying a very pleasant visit on New Years day at the home of Mrs. F. R. Guthmann, at Plattsmouth, mother of Mr. Guthmann.

Emil Kuehn, who has been allotted territory in Texas, where he is to work, departed for the south on last Tuesday afternoon and will expect to be away for the remainder of the winter.

W. O. Gillespie and A. H. Ward were over to Elmwood on last Wednesday, New Years day, where Mr. Gillespie went to have a bridge fitted in his mouth, thus making him a good set of teeth again.

Mr. and Mrs. W. O. Gillespie entertained for dinner and supper on New Years and had as their guests the family of A. H. Ward and Uncle Henry Barishman. All enjoyed the occasion very much.

H. W. Tool and the family were enjoying a visit with friends at Lincoln on New Years eve, they driving over to the big town to look after some business matters as well as to visit with friends.

David and Eldon Elchoff, who are attending school at Lincoln were home for the New Years holidays and enjoyed the short vacation as well as the visit with their home folks and other friends.

Paul Stock, Lewis Bornemeier, August Kupke and Wm. Deckmann were all shelling corn and delivering same to the Murdock elevator during the past week. There is being a good deal of corn offered at this time.

Clarence Weatherfield and wife, of near Auburn, were visiting in Murdock during the past week and were guests at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Shelby Bridgeman, the ladies being sisters. All enjoyed the visit very much.

Mrs. George Mills is kept to her bed by a severe attack of pneumonia, but is getting the best of care as well as nursing, and while she is very sick, it is expected she will soon be on the highway to her former good health.

Chester Elsemere began the painting of the new edifice of Otto Miller last week and is hoping for good weather until he shall have gotten the exterior completed. The interior can be attended to at any time with good heat.

L. Neitzel, to make the home more cheery and provide entertainment there, purchased an all electric radio, which he had installed in the home, thus adding much convenience, as all that has to be done is to plug in a light socket and the game is on.

O. E. McDonald and wife and Wm. Meyers and wife were over to Murray on last Monday and from there they went to Union and Nebraska City, where they were both looking after some business matters as well as enjoying the very pleasant ride.

Fred Stock, Jr., has been having a serious time with a case of measles, as the disease goes harder with a grown person than with a younger one. Fred has had his full share of the disease, but is getting along nicely now and it is hoped he is on the road to recovery.

Monday of last week was a very pleasant day for Harry Dehning, as the work was gracious to this happy couple in that it made them a present of a very fine baby girl. The mother and the young lady are getting along nicely while the father it is thought will pull through.

Harry A. Williams and wife, with their two daughters, Miss Cora Williams, of Elmwood, and Mrs. Carl Schneider, of Indianola, who was visiting for the holidays at the home of her parents, Harry A. Williams and wife, were all enjoying a New Years dinner and visit at the home of Mr. and Mrs. E. W. Thimman.

Otto Elchoff and family, Daniel Paska and family and Leonard Lau made up a very merry New Years party, when they went to Omaha and enjoyed the midnight show at one of the play houses, they attending the Orpheum. They had a very pleasant time and enjoyed a good show and drove home after the pleasant evening.

The telephone exchange at Murdock reports a good business, and with the rebuilding of the lines, which has put the exchange in position to render better service, the work is more of a pleasure and growing with each year. The business is expected to increase and this is expected to be even a better year than last year.

Following a game of basketball, which was played at the Murdock high school and while the boys were scuffling about the room, Ralph Bornemeier had the misfortune to fall and in doing so his head struck on the corner of the seat, with the result that a very serious gash was made in the scalp. It required some four stitches to close the incision.

Miss Elsie Dicksman, who has been attending a school of nursing at Battle Creek, Michigan, having completed her course some time since, and who has been working there since completing her studies, came home for the holidays. Miss Dicksman has received flattering offers from a number of places in California, Iowa and Illinois, but as yet has not determined just which one she will accept.

Edward Gullstorf and mother, Mrs. Barbara Goetz, and Mr. Gullstorf's small son, John, were over to Plattsmouth, where they were doing some trading and securing a license for the auto for the coming year, as well as seeing the new bridge which spans the Missouri below the Burlington bridge. They were a bit surprised at the magnitude of the structure and at the cool breeze which swept the place as a storm was brewing.

We have the only self sealing burial vaults, automatically seal, fitting, excluding water or any other substance. We deliver them on call to any place in Cass or Otoe counties.

MILLER & GRUBER, Plattsmouth, Nebr.

Dies at Lincoln The little granddaughter of Mr. and Mrs. A. J. Bauers, but seven months of age died at the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Vernon Ferguson, Monday. Everything possible was done for the little one, but notwithstanding, she passed away. The funeral was held on Thursday and interment was in the Wabash cemetery.

New Years Day On New Years day, last Wednesday, most of the business houses of Murdock were closed, the owners and employees being away to enjoy the day. This made the town seem a little quiet, and especially so in view of the good business that has been done here during the past year. The closing of 1929 finds three new homes two of which are ready for occupancy, those of Herman R. Schmidt, and excellent houses at that. One which is closing up the work very rapidly is that of Otto Miller, which occupies the site where the former Methodist church stood. With this and the grading of the streets, the town has made some advance in the making of a better town. The merchants have enjoyed a good business and are well satisfied with the passing of the year. The Bank of Murdock has been doing a good business and is well satisfied and is looking to the future, believing that a better year is on the way. The H. W. Tool Lumber Company has enjoyed a good business and sold many good houses, which increased their volume of business. H. W. Tool has also created a very unique and useful household article, the Kitchen Kob Cabinet, and many of these have been manufactured and sold during 1929. E. W. Thimman and H. W. Tool has also manufactured a number of truck stock loading chutes, all of which have added much to the volume of business.

Will Have New Cream Station There are preparations under way for the opening of a new cream station in Murdock in the near future, which is to be in the place where George Kunz last had the Beatrice Cream station. Henry Heinemann is placing a new foundation under the building and otherwise making it habitable, and when he has completed his work, the cream station will be established.

Watched the New Year Come The Young Peoples class, and as to that, a number of others of the Murdock church provided entertainment for New Years eve, and with music and singing and a varied program, the time was most agreeably and pleasantly spent. Until the old year 1929 had an opportunity to get away and the new one was smiling in its place.

Trinity Church Services. It was a rare privilege for the pilgrim to worship New Years day with Trinity Lutheran church, where Rev. G. A. Zoch feeds the flock. A large and appreciative audience attended the New Year right, by having the pastor, pointing out for them a course, to pursue in order to make this year, more successful, than last. He pointed out to them that New Years resolutions were proper, if kept. Their slogan for 1930 should be, according to John 9.4 "Work," while it is day, the day of opportunity. Work for the benefit of the soul, to grow in grace, and knowledge of the living God. Work in the family, to raise the standard of the admonition of the Lord, teach them the way of salvation, work in the church, to save souls for the Kingdom; work to bring light to those in darkness, that they may find the way to God.

A summary of the work the church had done in 1929, was read by the pastor, at the close of his service, which showed progress in every department. Gain in membership, which is now 212, gain communicants, in finance all of which was very gratifying, but all this should be done, Trinity church has a real leader in their pastor and the pastor has a live, active membership, that follows their leader. Great things can be done, if the people have a mind to work.

Entertained His Many Friends John J. Gustin, who believes in being good to his friends, gave a dance on New Years eve, at the Modern Woodmen hall, which was attended by a large number of merry people who danced the old year away and welcomed 1930, with much merriment.

Read the Journal for News In 1930, more than ever before, the Journal will be striving earnestly every day to give its readers all the worth-while news events in Cass county. If you want the paper that gives its readers all the news, and comes to your mail box twice weekly, instead of once, get your subscription paid up and assure yourself of good reading in 1930.

Ask for Arm Signals. Has the driver on an arterial the exclusive right of way? What are the left turn signals for a right turn? Stop? Where should the auto license certificate be carried? Where should the driver's license be carried?

6 STATE SEATS AWAIT VOTING Lincoln, Jan. 3.—There will be at least two vacant seats in the state senate and four in the house of representatives, should the Nebraska legislature be convened in extra session, unless Governor Weaver orders special elections held before hand in the districts where the vacancies exist.

Teachers Urge Adding of New Summer Month Columbus, O.—Declaring that nowhere would the revised calendar be more welcome than in the field of education, the National Council of Geography Teachers of the United States, in convention here, adopted a resolution favoring establishment of the proposed 13-month calendar, the extra month to be inserted between June and July.

Geographers Say 13-Month Calendar Would Lead to Greater Uniformity. The educators agreed that comparative studies of school work and school expenditures could be based on factors of greater uniformity if the revised calendar were adopted and therefore would be more reliable.

With so many varied industries dependent upon accurate statistical information, particularly of an agricultural nature, it is vitally important that it be very accurately and completely compiled to disclose the trends from time to time. The revised calendar of the variable time element, which is so evident in the unequal lengths of the months make statistical data incomparable, one month with another.

Wherever natural science is called upon to furnish data, where time is an element, as in the case of meteorological observations, crop production, etc., the irregularities of our calendar cause no end of trouble in summarizing the data.

"Simplification of the calendar is especially important to employees as classed under the Department of Labor and those whose remuneration is based upon some division of the year. The movement to place holidays on Monday will extend the worker's week-end vacation one more day and will be of especially interest to him. Equal week periods will tend to preserve a better balance between earnings and expenditures, especially as related to the worker's household economy."

DEATH OF MRS. SEGRAVE From Saturday's Daily.—The death of Mrs. Margaret Segrave, 74, occurred yesterday afternoon at the home of one of the city, following an illness that has covered a period of several weeks and during which time the patient has been gradually failing until death came to relieve her sufferings.

The funeral of Mrs. Segrave will be held at the St. John's Catholic church on Tuesday morning at 10 o'clock. There will be a prayer service at the home on Sunday at 4:30 p. m. The interment will be at the Oak Hill cemetery.

RETURNING FROM HOSPITAL From Saturday's Daily.—The many friends of W. H. Seybert in this city will be pleased to know that this long time resident here has so far recovered from his recent illness and operation that he was able to come home this afternoon. Mr. Seybert has been at the Mercy hospital at Council Bluffs was returned at home greatly improved and feeling well on the way to complete recovery.

DRAWN DOWN FINE From Saturday's Daily.—This morning in the county court Duane Garrison, young Weeping Water lad, was arraigned in a charge of having stolen a revolver from a car in one of the garages at that place. The young man entered a plea of guilty to the charge and was given a fine of $25 and costs, which was returned at home and allowed to return to his home.

RETURNS FROM VISIT Mrs. Jean Mason and daughter, Lucille, who have been visiting at Glenwood and Malvern, Iowa, which relatives and friends have returned home. They spent some time at the home of the John Cozad family and with Mrs. L. O. Bennett over in Mills county, and report a very fine time.

Seekers After Drivers License Must be Schooled

Many Questions to be Propounded to Those Who Seek Licenses in the Future

The various county treasurers over the state will in the future have to serve as heads of a schooling for the applicants for drivers license, as those who apply from now on will have to undergo an examination when they seek the necessary permits to drive. This of course does not apply to those who have already secured their permits before the first of the year.

The questions cover all of the details of auto driving and the following are some of the questions that must be answered.

Have you ever paid a fine for violating any traffic laws? What are the speed limits on country, arterial, business and residence district highways? An examination in the absence of stop signs, which car, at an intersection, has the right of way?

Is it lawful to pass another car, going in the same direction, at an intersection? On the crest of a grade? On a curve? On approaching a railroad crossing what precautions should the driver take? Is it lawful to enter a main or arterial highway without stopping? What procedure does the law require when you hear a siren? What is the penalty for reckless driving? For driving while intoxicated?

Ask for Arm Signals. Has the driver on an arterial the exclusive right of way? What are the left turn signals for a right turn? Stop? Where should the auto license certificate be carried? Where should the driver's license be carried?

6 STATE SEATS AWAIT VOTING Lincoln, Jan. 3.—There will be at least two vacant seats in the state senate and four in the house of representatives, should the Nebraska legislature be convened in extra session, unless Governor Weaver orders special elections held before hand in the districts where the vacancies exist.

The death of State Senator Harry Johnson of Holdrege, which occurred in December, and the resignation of Senator Dwight Griswold of Gordon at the time of his election as state president of the American Legion last August are responsible for the empty places in the upper chamber.

Among the house membership, W. H. McGaffin of David City resigned last July to accept appointment from the Butler county board as clerk of the district court; Adam Sloop of Omaha died; Harry Ashton of Seward has removed to California and Dr. A. McMillan, colored, moved from Omaha, is now in Africa as a medical missionary working among the members of his race.

This reduces the present senate membership to 31 and that of the house to 95. Under the state law, legislative vacancies that occur during a session may be filled by appointment of the governor; but otherwise this can be done only at a special election within the respective districts.
