ing election of officers which will be during this week.

The firm of Rihn and Greene have installed in their market division, a new meat slicer which operates on all meats with the exception of fresh meats which are not firm. It makes all the slicing uniform and does the work neatly and quickly.

Miss Louise Foster, who is attending school at Omaha, was a visitor at home for the holidays, returned to her studies in the big city on last Monday, and was accompanied by her aunt, Miss Mary E. Foster, of Omaha, who was spending last Sunday at the home of her brother, R. E. Foster and family.

Clifford Garrison who has been having much trouble with his tonsils of late had them removed at the Clarkson hospital at Omaha, on last Monday morning and is reported as getting along as well as could be expected. His many friends are hoping he will soon be able to return home well again and with no trouble in this direction.

The Rev. W. A. Taylor, knowing that the wife was left alone a good many times when he was called away, has provided the entire world for her company. He presented her with a radio for her birthday, which occurred a few days since, and now she has access to the entire world, for she was able to listen to addresses from the old country as well as America. However, America is the best of all.

Frank Bauer and Jack Roddy hitched up the Model A and departed towards the south pole last Sunday but after having reached Nebraska City, they crossed into Iowa and followed the old Indian trail to Sidney, then hitting the new pavement for Glenwood, finally found themselves at Pacific Junction, and later at the east end of the new bridge at Plattsmouth and crossing, they sure had a thrill, for Frank rode in the clouds in an auto. After crossing to the Nebraska side, they scooted up and down the hills south of Plattsmouth and going down steep banks, then up a small mountain side, they finally got to town at Plattsmouth, where they each got a cigar and then came home.

Purchase Home in Union. Mr. Ray Frans and brother, Rue H. Frans, the latter of Syracuse, have just purchased the property which was last year built by Tony Sudduth, and which will be used by Mrs. Jennie Frans as a home after March 1st, when Mr. Sudduth gives it up. This will make it very convenient for Mrs. Jennie Frans, as she is practically in the same yard with her son, D. Ray Frans.

Dies in the East. Mrs. Lella L. Walker, a cousin of Mrs. Jennie Frans and Mr. L. P. Fitch of Union, and having made her home in Luray, Virginia, all her life, passed away on December 26th, the day after Christmas, she being in her sixty-fifth year. Mrs. Walker was a milliner having been engaged in the business for the past twenty-five years. She has always been very active in business and was president of the Page Memorial hospital at Luray. During the past two years she has been in rather poor health and had a cancer in her throat. She was identified with the Methodist church all her life and always a teacher in the Bible school where she has lived.

First Sunday Closed. Last Sunday, the first Sunday of this year, and the first one as well of the closing of the business houses, was the beginning of the taking of the obituary from the way of better church attendance. Speaking of the beginning of the practice of closing the business houses, R. D. Stine said this will allow the men to accompany their wives to church which they have not had an opportunity to do as long as there was a place to loaf on Sunday. Mr. Stine said also that he would also like an opportunity to attend church once in a while.

Holds Funeral at Wabash. The Rev. W. A. Taylor was called to Wabash to officiate at the funeral of an infant, Miss Donna Frances Ferguson of Lincoln, she being the granddaughter of Mr. Wilson of Wabash and Mr. and Mrs. J. A. Bauer of Murdock. She was the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Ferguson who make their home at Lincoln. The funeral services were conducted by the Rev. W. A. Taylor of Union, at Wabash, and interment made at the Wabash cemetery.

Baptist Hold Fine Services. At the Baptist church during the hour of the Bible school as well as the morning services, there was a goodly congregation, and much interest evinced. The discourse by Rev. Taylor was excellent and the violin solo by Miss Margaret Aura pleased all. Come again and enjoy the service, we are glad to welcome you.

Return to Their Studies. On last Monday morning, Joe

Banning took his daughter, Miss Nola and Miss Dorothy Foster to Nebraska City, where they took the train for Columbia, Missouri, where they are attending school. They have been enjoying a very fine visit at the homes here and were loath to return to their studies but after the fine visit they are looking for the time when they are to return after the closing of the school year.

Entertained at Watch Meeting. Miss Ruth Moon and mother entertained on last Tuesday evening at a very pretty affair, at their home where a program and merry making was the rule, when they held a watch meeting and watched the departure of 1929, who walked off the gang plank with tottering but not uncertain steps, just as the infant 1930 appeared in the foreground on the other side of the party's playground. Regrets were expressed and a fond farewell declared as the old man, 1929, departed, while the new comer was received with manifestations of joy. Those there to assist in the enjoyment of the occasion were L. H. Banning, Professor and Mrs. Wells, Misses Margaret Aura, Sarah McQuinn, Olive Lewis, Jane Robb and Mary Chase, also Messrs Fulton Harris, Herbert Ehlers, Paul Whippet, Donald McQuinn.

Mrs. Wm. Craig Better. Mrs. Wm. Craig who has been rather ill for some time past is reported as being quite a bit better at this time and with Mr. Craig are enjoying a visit from their daughter, Maude, or rather Mrs. G. H. Beaudette of Roselle, who arrived in Union on last Monday for a visit of a short time with the parents and sister, Mrs. C. D. Austin and family here.

Ladies Are Meeting. As we go to press the Ladies Aid of the Methodist church are meeting with Mrs. James C. Roddy, where they are looking after some of the business of the church as well as having a very enjoyable social time.
