Alba Dobson, and son, Merritt, of near Nehawka, while returning from a trip to Plattsmouth where they were to obtain licenses for the car of Merritt Dobson, they stopped in Murray and were visiting for a time with their friends and family physician, Dr. G. H. Gilmore.

One of the very saddest of the sad events in the death of the late Miss Bertha Lancaster was the funeral where the parents and the brothers and sisters of the deceased, and the young man, Mr. Ray Watson, who was in her company when the accident occurred, were called on to take their leave of the mortal remains of the one they loved.

On Monday of this week, Robert Troop and wife, were compelled to take their little daughter, Livia, to the Immanuel hospital at Omaha, where she is to be treated for flu and pneumonia. Little One Doing Better.
Little Betty Everett, the daughter of John Everett, who on the day following Christmas, while eating peanuts, got a kernel in her windpipe, unknown to her, and having developed a fever, was brought to Dr. Gilmore, who pronounced the malady pneumonia, and which it developed to be. She was taken to Omaha, where Dr. Callas took an X-ray and found the obstacle which he removed. This was on January 6th and had been in the little one's lungs for nearly two weeks.

Celebrated Birthday Saturday.
At the home of Mr. and Mrs. Ivan Balfour on last Saturday was held a gathering celebrating the passing of the birthday anniversary of Robert Ferguson, the father of Mrs. Balfour, and a most enjoyably time was had. Mr. Ferguson was seventy-nine years of age, and has made his home in Otoe county for many years and has struck many a hard blow to time that portion of the country into the high state of civilization which it now is. There were there for the occasion and to assist in the celebration of the event Mr. and Mrs. Charles Ferguson and family, Wm. Sporer and family of Murray; Martin Sporer and wife and their little daughter, Mary Kathleen, Chester Sporer and wife, Mr. and Mrs. A. G. Long and Robert and Dayle, Ralph Kennedy and family, Clarke Balfour and family, the latter from near Nehawka; and Uncle Wm. Balfour. A most enjoyable program was had in which Wm. Balfour, the famous violinist, played and which was seconded on the piano by Mrs. Ralph Kennedy. Ralph Kennedy, who is a violinist also contributed his portion to the excellent gathering. A sumptuous evening dinner was enjoyed, which added much to the occasion.

Was Earnest Church Worker.
Miss Bertha Lancaster, who united under the preaching of the Rev. W. A. Taylor, with the Christian church, one year ago, and who was received into fellowship by the Rev. H. L. Grassmuech and was baptized at the Christian church of Plattsmouth, one year ago on Monday, became a most earnest worker, was elected secretary of the Bible school and was always looking after the interests of the church and Bible school. The ladies made Christmas bags for the kiddies and needed more of the material. Mrs. Wm. Sporer, while at Omaha, obtained a quantity amounting to 19 cents, which she did not expect to report and Miss Lancaster, who was secretary and treasurer of the church, in some way heard of the purchase and desiring to have all accounts settled with the year end, went to the home late New Years eve and rapping on the door, called Mrs. Sporer to the door and paid the account. This was just before she went for the ride in which she met with the fatal accident. This showing she was faithful to all duties which fell to her to the very last.

We can never forget or repay the kindness. Please accept our feeble thanks for all the kindness which has been shown and may the good Lord soothe your sorrows by the kind ministrations of loved ones, as you have with us.—Earl Lancaster and Family.

In this issue will be found a statement of the Murray State Bank, which shows the excellent condition of the bank and as has been in truth "a good bank in a good community." This is true in every sense for this is one of the very best of communities, and a good place to do business and an excellent place to live, a good place to give the children a good education. At the same time the Murray State Bank meets every requirement. It will be seen that the funds of the bank are invested most safely. Besides good condition of the resources, and the very conservative manner of showing the disposition of the liabilities always showing actual worth. They are carrying as a portion of this item of $3,515 which shows a care for the best operation of the banking business. Murray and community should be well pleased with such a good statement.

Miss Cassie Williams who has been for some time employed in the Veterans Bureau for the government at Omaha, has been given a promotion to the Rainbow Division, as stenographer, and at a very substantial increase in her salary.

Gibson where they took a train for the west and where they will spend the next few weeks in visiting over the west with friends.

While George Baker was driving along the road near Weeping Water and J. J. Roberts was also coming with a load of coal, the car of Mr. Baker, as cars sometimes do, took a scot and hitting the wagon of Mr. Roberts, broke one wheel and otherwise injured the wagon, but doing little or no injury to the men. The car was also greatly damaged.

John S. Williams and wife and their daughter, Miss Hazel, were enjoying a visit at Omaha on last Sunday, they driving over and visiting with the two daughters, Misses Cassie and Vera who are both employed there, and also in the evening all attending a show at the Orpheum and returning home later in the evening after enjoying the day most pleasantly.

J. E. Renner, while at work had the misfortune to get a splinter in his right hand which caused some blood affection and has kept this hustler from work for a number of days. During the past year Jakes seems to have had plenty of ill luck, and has been off from his work a great deal as well as suffering from blood poisoning which he had at different times.

Howard E. Brookings of the Liberty theatre is one of the latest to purchase one of the new creations, a Chevrolet six sedan of the Dowler Brothers and sure is a tickled man on account, just as much so as the boy of fifty years ago was with his first pair of red top boots. Floyd Ranney also has added to his means of transportation a new Chevrolet coach. He is feeling he has one of the most wonderful wagons.

Sister Dies at Clay Center.
Harry Thimgan received the sad news of the passing of his sister, Mrs. Reuben Noyes, who has been afflicted with gall stones, which she has been receiving treatment for, but to no effect as she died a few days since. Doing Excellent Work.
Mrs. H. L. Richards who is an accomplished photographer, has established herself at the home, using one of the rooms of the dwelling for a studio, and is doing a fine business in photography. This is evidenced by the display of work which she has at the hardware store, one of the windows being filled with the samples of her work. There have many people come from out in the county for work, and some even from Lincoln and Omaha, on account of the excellence of the work.

Received Severe Cut.
While assisting in the unloading of a car load of new Chevrolets, A. R. Dowler of the Dowler Brothers, sustained a very severe scalp wound when the lifting apparatus slipped and allowed the car they were handling to slip, catching his forehead with an axle which was extending, crushing him to the floor and producing a very severe laceration.

He however, was not so severely injured as he might have been, as the chain caught before the full weight of the car could come on his head, and he was immediately removed from the perilous position.

Holding Revival Services.
The Rev. C. Snyder who is an evangelist of much moment, and an excellent speaker, is conducting a series of revival meetings for the Menoire church and is having much interest manifested. It is hoped that this move may prove of much good to the church, the community and every individual who shall attend.

Cause of Much Joy.
Tuesday morning, Mr. E. Marshall received a message from Denver, announcing the arrival of a granddaughter, which had arrived at 3 o'clock that morning with the mother, their daughter, Mrs. E. F. Klein, and the young lady doing nicely. The advent caused much joy to the grandparents here, which was shared by their many friends as well.

Purchases New Auto.
Otto Nabel, the baker at the John S. Williams bakery of Weeping Water during the first of this week purchased from the Dowler Brothers garage one of their very latest Chevrolet six coupes, and a very fine car at that. Mr. Nabel has acquired the art of driving and surely enjoys the novelty of piloting his own car. Mr. Nabel, who is an expert workman in his line as baker, earns good money at his trade, and is able to own, enjoy, and maintain a good car which he has. But if he had remained in the old country it would have taken him about thirty years to have saved up enough money to have made the purchase.

Bible School Lesson Study!

Sunday, January 12th C-16 By M. S. BRIGGS

Read Matthew 3rd and 4th chapters.

"My Beloved Son"
John, who was the forerunner of the Master, was preaching in the wilderness of Judea, and there were coming unto him people from all over that portion of the country, for he was giving some straight truths. He was proclaiming the "coming of the kingdom," and said unto his listeners, "Repent, for the kingdom of Heaven is at hand."

There were coming to him and listening to his preaching Pharisees and Saducees, and John the Baptist had said unto them: "Ye generation of vipers, who has warned you to flee from the wrath to come?" for they had been sticklers for the law and had denied the very truth thereof. They had not come in the spirit of the law and were indeed hypocrites, which John called them. Many were attending the service and were baptized in the river Jordan.

Then cometh Jesus from Galilee to Jordan to be baptized of John. When Jesus asked to have the baptism given him, John did not feel competent, as he knew this was indeed the son of God, and said, "I have need to be baptized of you; how comest thou to me?"

God Calls Him His Son
Jesus said unto John, "Suffer it to be so, for thus it becometh us to fulfill all righteousness." And so John consented and baptized Jesus. Following the baptism, as Jesus was coming out of the water, a voice—the voice of God—said, "This is my beloved son in whom I am well pleased." This declaration, coming from the Father in heaven, the Creator and director of the universe, we have it from the highest authority that this Jesus is the very Christ, the Son of the living God and the Savior of the world. We need no further testimony that this is true. But with the first six months of this year, there will be given every week a testimony that Jesus is the very Son of God.

The Devil Tries His Wiles
Then was Jesus led up by the spirit into the wilderness to be tempted of the devil, and there he was for forty days and had nothing to eat or drink, and when the forty days was accomplished, he was truly very hungry, and the devil taking advantage of his knowledge of the fact said, in a torturing manner: "If you be indeed the Son of God, command these stones to be made bread, and do not suffer from hunger. While the pangs of hunger were acute, Jesus said: "Man shall not live by bread alone, but by every word that proceedeth out of the mouth of God."

The devil then taketh him to the city and placing him on the pinnacle of the temple, said: "If thou be the Son of God, cast thyself down, for He has declared he will give his angels charge over thee to protect thee, lest thou cast thy feet against a stone, and they will bear thee up on their wings." Jesus said, "Thou shalt not make trial of the Lord, thy God."

Then said the devil, when he had taken Jesus to an exceedingly high mountain, showing Jesus the entire world and the glory of it, "If you will fall down and worship me, I will give you the entire world. Then said Jesus to the devil, "Get thee hence, Satan; for it is written, 'Thou shalt worship the Lord thy God and him only shalt thou serve.'"

Then the devil left him and the angels ministered unto him. Well, shall we pray?
"Lead us not into temptation; but deliver us from all evil."
