

Murray

Victor Wehrlein has been quite ill and confined to his bed for several days with bronchitis.

Mrs. Anderson Lloyd and Mrs. Victor Wehrlein were shopping in Plattsmouth Saturday.

Miss Opal Homan of Weeping Water was visiting her sister, Miss Ruth Homan, who is employed at the Hotel Murray, on last Sunday evening.

Gus Brubacher and family were enjoying a visit on last Sunday at the home of the parents of Mrs. Brubacher at Auburn, on last Sunday.

A. G. Long was looking after some business matters in Plattsmouth on last Monday morning, driving over to look after some business matters.

L. J. Hallas and the family were visiting for the day on last Sunday at the home of his parents in Plattsmouth, they driving over to the county seat in their car.

John Eppings and the good wife of Murdock were visiting in Murray on Monday of this week, driving over to visit with Mr. and Mrs. Earl Lancaster and family.

Joseph Long and family were visiting for the day on last Sunday at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Eva Fred, south of Nehawka in Otoe county and remained until during the morning Monday.

Ralph Kennedy and James Gruber, and Dr. J. P. Brendel took Charles Ritcher to Omaha on last Sunday night at the time Mrs. Eva Fred, to the hospital, where he passed away shortly following their arrival.

Dr. J. P. Brendel last week purchased himself a new car of the Universal kind and a coach model which sure is a fancy one and will surely serve this gentleman and his family nicely for their transportation.

Little LeVina Troop and mother, Mrs. Robert Troop, Jr., returned to their home Sunday. LeVina has been ill in the hospital for some time, and from there was moved the Plattsmouth but is now home, well and happy.

Mrs. J. E. Hatchett and daughter, Miss Laurene, who have been visiting for the past two weeks at the home of Mr. and Mrs. J. E. Wossen of Havelock, returned home on last Sunday evening after having had a fine visit.

Mrs. Churchill remains much in the same condition, and while she is making some improvement it would be liked to have the returning health come more quickly. Her many friends are hoping she may soon be out and about again.

Lee Nickles and sister, Miss Etta, both of Plattsmouth, were guests of B. E. Nickles and wife and daughter, Bertha, for the day on last Sunday, and were also joined by Mrs. Myra McDonald, who all enjoyed a most delightful visit and fine dinner.

Will S. Smith and wife and Miss Beatrice Ray, who were over to Plattsmouth on last Sunday where they were visiting at the home of Attorney and Mrs. C. A. Rawls.

Font T. Wilson and family were over to Cedar Creek on last Sunday where they enjoyed a very pleasant visit at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Levi Wilson of that place.

Will Handle Feeds. The Farmers Elevator which is conducted by Sam Latta, will in the future handle a full line of excellent feeds, and also carry tankage and ground feeds of all kinds. Watch for an announcement of the line in the coming next week paper.

Ladies Aid Will Meet. The Ladies Aid of the Christian church will meet at the church on Wednesday, February 5th, at which time a very worth while program will be had and a most enjoyable time, with the work by the ladies and as well the social hour which will also be greatly enjoyed. The hostesses for the occasion will be Mesdames Fred L. Hill, W. L. Seybolt and J. F. Brendel.

Were Making Quilts. A number of the ladies of the Ladies Aid society of the Christian church were gathered at the home of Mrs. W. L. Seybolt, where they were engaged in making quilts. One of them facetiously said that the crowd was somewhat stuck up. We rather think that was correct as they did not always in their quilting miss their thumbs and fingers.

Three Classes Hold Party. The members of three of the classes of the Bible school at the Christian church of Murray held a party last Saturday night at the church parlors where a very worthwhile time was had. The classes were those taught by Mesdames W. E. Milburn, Wm. Sporer and J. E. Hatchett. Games were the event of the evening, and refreshments also enlivened the occasion. There were besides the teachers, Misses Hazel and Mary Vest, Ruby and Irene Worthan, Dollie and Catherine McCulloch, Maxine Hanna, Effie Pointer, Dorothy Hewett, Harriet Milbern, Wilda Johnson, Ruth and Shirley Webber, Howard and Wm. Pointer, Richard and Stewart Milbern, Jimmie Hessefflow, Raymond Lancaster, Rudolph and John Stoll, J. P. Dougliss, Junior Hewitt.

Everybody Mourns for Charles. Charles and Joe, or as they were better known as "Chuck" and "Joe," had in every person in Murray and extending many miles outside of town, a friend. They were lively boys and full of mischief of a harmless nature, and who would not have them full of fun, and stirring. The death of Chuck has cast a gloom over the entire community and everybody and they were all friends of the two young lads are sympathizing with the folks of the boys. Everyone seems to take it as a personal loss.

The funeral was held from the Presbyterian church and the oration delivered by the Rev. J. C. Stewart, pastor of the church where the boys attended Bible school. The building was overcrowded by the many who were anxious to honor this young man whose life was snuffed out so quickly. The accident coming as it did, was seemingly unavoidable. Mr. and Mrs. Frank Mrasek had gone to Plattsmouth to attend a play at the Ritz theatre, and had asked the lads to accompany them. They making their home with Mr. and Mrs. Mrasek, the foster parents wanting to make the boys as happy as possible, rather insisted that they also go along. The boys said well the show will always be there but the coasting is good and the snow will go as soon as it gets warm. So the boys were allowed to stay. When the accident occurred, the boys were coasting down hill and near a car going in their direction, whose bright lights blinded Mr. David Lancaster and his brother Raymond, who was with him in the car that ran over little Charles. The accident was unknown to David, until his attention was called by Raymond saying we ran over something. They stopped to see and found the awfulness of the accident.

Everyone realizes that the accident under the circumstances was an unavoidable one, and Mr. David Lancaster has so been assured by Mr. Mrasek. Still David and his family are feeling very bad over the terrible loss of the catastrophe. It seems as though misfortune has continued to follow the Lancaster family no matter what they do and be as careful as they can. Herman Ritcher, father, his brother, Paul, uncle of Charles, and grandfather Ritcher are all feeling very sad over the very sorrowful accident. The burial was made in the Lewiston cemetery southeast of Murray.

Lewiston Study Club Meets. The monthly meeting of the Lewiston Study club was held at the home of Mrs. Perry Nickels, Thursday, January 23. It was an all day meeting and the forenoon was spent trying to follow the Lancaster family no matter what they do and be as careful as they can. Herman Ritcher, father, his brother, Paul, uncle of Charles, and grandfather Ritcher are all feeling very sad over the very sorrowful accident. The burial was made in the Lewiston cemetery southeast of Murray.

The ladies all prepared dishes for lunch and when all was placed on the table it made a tempting array. The guests of the day were by Mrs. Whiteneck, Alice Todd, Bertha Nickels, Mrs. Cogdal, and Mrs. Bud Nickels.

The afternoon meeting was opened by Mrs. Hendricks, leading members in Nebraska slogan song, followed by the "Lord's Prayer." As matters of new business it was decided to send a card of sympathy to the Lancaster family and to give a shower for Julia Wehrlein before she moves to her new home.

The song of the month "Lead Kindly Light" led by Mrs. Campbell. The regular lesson was led by Mrs. Blanche Kelt, the subject being: "Labor Savers and how to use them." The topic created much interest and was helped greatly by each member answering the roll call by telling about some pet kitchen tool.

The meeting adjourned to meet in February, the place as yet undetermined.

FLU (Infectious Bronchitis) causing acute inflammation of the air passages of the lungs. Hoarse cough, sneeze and run for breath. Very noticeable when the victim comes out from sleeping quarters. Often fatal when neglected. (Head further enlarged.)

Every Cough Costs You Money

At first sneezing, coughing or gasping for breath, feed Lee's Flu-Koff Emulsion in thick soup or soured grain (oats preferred), and spray Lee's Vapo-Spray around the heads of the hogs or in the bedding. Thousands of hog raisers completely control colds and flu with these remedies.

Physicians Helped Develop Remedies

Vapo-Spray is a combination of healing oils and the breathing-in action of the irritated breathing passages. Flu-Koff is like a cough syrup for people—alleviates the cough, reduces temperature and over-inflames. For physicians assisted the 12 veterinarians of the Lee Staff in perfecting this wonderful double treatment. Don't let colds or flu rob you of your profit. Come in and get these medicines today. Fully effective for poultry—keep them on hand for all emergencies. Ask your dealer for a copy of the 1929 "Lee Way" book, free.

Woman Judge Opposes Ending of Jury System

Defects Can Be Remedied, Says Florence Allen of Ohio Supreme Court

Columbus, O.—The American people are just about as apt to dispense with the flag and the Constitution as they are to abandon the jury, in the opinion of Judge Florence E. Allen of the Ohio Supreme Court, the only woman member of a court of final jurisdiction in the United States.

"The jury is by far the best agency ever discovered for settling questions of fact, and it stands today as the greatest bulwark of human liberty," Judge Allen said. Defects generally attributed to the jury are really caused by weaknesses in other phases of our legal system, she maintained.

"The American people are possessed of an extraordinary mobility of mind," Judge Allen continued. "Sometimes this quality manifests itself in some excellent achievement. In many cases, however, our versatility and adaptability constitute a real danger. It is our tendency, when some phase of our political institutions is under attack, to say 'Away with it; it is not working well; let us abolish it!'"

When graft is found in city or state government, we are apt to say: "Change the plan under which the city or state is operating," instead of proceeding to check corruption at its source.

Turning to criticism of the jury system, Judge Allen said that the trouble is to be found in "the law's delays and the cumbersome and technical features of our judicial system, which have too often proved a hindrance to the genuine establishment of justice." She especially cited "irritating and unjustified postponement of cases" and "unwarranted reversals of judgments upon technicalities."

"It is a significant fact," she declared, "that in the countries where respect for law is generally conceded to exist in the highest degree, such as Great Britain and Canada, the jury system exists. Instead of abolishing the petit jury in those countries, they have remedied its defects."

FOX RECEIVERSHIP IS TO BE WITHDRAWN

Los Angeles.—H. B. Franklin, manager of Fox west coast theaters, said the petition filed in Seattle Friday for a receivership for the Pacific northwest theaters would be withdrawn Monday. He said J. G. von Herberg, attorney for the petitioners had agreed to the withdrawal. Franklin said the agreement was reached after an explanation by him of the dividend policy of Fox west coast theaters, of which the Pacific Northwest Theaters is a subsidiary. The latter group operates in Oregon and Montana as well as Washington.

Livestock in the State is Showing Gain

Cattle, Hogs and Sheep Seem to Be Gaining—Horses and Mules Decreasing.

Cattle, hogs and sheep are increasing in number. Horses and mules are decreasing, according to the annual estimates of the State and Federal Division of Agricultural Statistics. Cattle production is nearly normal while hog and sheep production is above normal. The total value of livestock on farms is $313,060,000 as compared with $317,206,000 last year. Sheep made a new record.

Cattle are increasing in number, the present production being nearly normal. There are 3,048,000 head on farms now as compared with 2,931,000 head last year and 2,765,000 head in 1928. The high point of the past decade was reached in 1924 with 3,336,000 head and the low point in 1928, with 2,660,000 head, the 1920-1929 average being 4,076,000 head. The revised estimate for milk cows is 612,000 head in 1928, 619,000 head in 1929 and 638,000 head at present.

Cattle and hogs furnish a large percentage of the farmer's income. The cattle production is nearly normal and hog production is above normal. The cattle feeding business in Nebraska range section marketed slightly more cattle last fall than in 1928 despite the fact the lowered prices last fall reduced shipments which is in sharp contrast to the fall of 1928 when abnormally high prices stimulated shipments. Market receipts averaged 1,480,000 head during the past 10 years, ranging from 1,206,000 head in 1921 to 1,864,000 head in 1925.

The dairy business, as evidenced by absolute production records has been stationary during 1928 and 1929. There was some increase in 1926 and 1927, but the bulk of the increase came from 1920 to 1926. However, importation of milk cows has increased from 8,000 head in 1925 to 12,000 head in 1929 according to records of the Nebraska Dept. of Agr. The very marked reduction in butterfat prices before the close of last year, if continued, will undoubtedly curtail milk production. The long time aspect of the dairy industry appears favorable.

All cattle are valued at $167,073,000 as compared with $173,954,000 last year. Milk cows are valued at $50,402,000 against $51,996,000 a year ago. The average price of milk is $79 against $84 last year and $59.41 a year ago.

Swine total 5,434,000 head as compared with 5,327,000 head a year ago and 5,492,000 head in 1928, and the 1920-29 average of 4,765,000 head. Market receipts totaled $520,000 for the past year as compared with 4,990,000 the average of the past ten years. Present production is above normal. The combined survey and surveys indicate a slightly larger number for the hog crop year ending Oct. 31, 1930. The average value per head is $15.25 as compared with $14.95 a year ago, and the total value, $82,853,000 against $79,715,000 last year.

Sheep set a new high record with 1,208,000 head as compared with 1,050,000 head last year and the 1920-29 average of 791,000 head. The increase during the past two years has been 43% over the average number. While there has been some increase in native sheep, the large increase came from sheep shipped in for feeding. Nebraska has a record number of sheep on feed with 950,000 head, or over 35% of the total sheep on feed in the Corn Belt states. The Southwestern section has 400,000 sheep on feed. Market receipts reached 1,513,000 head last year as compared with the 10-yr. average of 1,224,000 head. The average value of sheep is $8.16 against $9.48 last year and the total value, $9,860,000 as compared to $9,955,000 a year ago.

Horses are still declining in number. The present estimate of 757,000 head compares with 772,000 head last year and the 1920-29 average of 859,000 head. The average value is $60.53 against $60.59 a year ago and the total value, $45,819,000 as compared with $46,778,000 a year ago. The present number is the lowest since 1901.

Mules seem to be on the downward trend also, after maintaining about the same number for the past 14 years. The present number is 38,000 head as compared with 101,000 head last year and the 1920-29 average of 114,000 head. There are still about twice as many mules as were on hand in 1901. The average value of mules is $76.07 against $76.28 a year ago, and the total value, $7,455,000 as compared to $7,704,000 a year ago.

Bible School Lesson Study!

Sunday, January 26th C-18 By M. S. BRIGGS

Read Mathew Sixth Chapter. Know the Lord's Prayer.

There is a story told of two lawyers who were discussing the Bible, and each deputed that the other knew what he was speaking about, and they were both right. One bel the other that he could not repeat the Lord's Prayer. The stakes being posted, the challenged began.

"Now I lay me down to sleep, I pray the Lord my soul to keep. And if the Lord my soul to take," The other said "like the money, I didn't think you knew it." Just now what do we know about the Lord's Prayer? Christ said Mathew 6:9 to 13. After this manner pray ye:

"Our Father which art in heaven, Hallowed be thy name. Thy kingdom come. Thy will be done, on earth as in heaven. Give us this day our daily bread. Forgive us our debts, as we forgive our debtors. And lead us not into temptation but deliver us from evil. For thine is the kingdom, and the power and the glory, forever. Amen."

The Master than said, "If you forgive men their trespasses, your heavenly Father will also forgive you." He also said, "But if ye forgive not men their trespasses, neither will your Father forgive your trespasses." Now to know the Lord's Prayer is more than to be able to repeat it. To really know the prayer which the Master taught his disciples to pray, we must wholly live every petition contained therein.

Are We Square Shooters? Do we shoot square? In every day life do we all try to give true value for what we receive. We are not doubting mankind, but we are questioning, are we as square as we are wanting our neighbor to be with us? We ask our Father to "Forgive us our debts as we forgive our debtors" we are asking this and nothing more unless we are forgiving, for it is in this manner only that we ask, forgive us as we forgive. And Christ says as we forgive so only are we forgiven. This petition is most just, and we only pray, when we are sincerely asking, we cannot not come before the Father. Unless we pray with sincerity, we are not praying at all. We have to have that honesty which this prayer considers, or we are not praying at all, we are not reaching the Father's ear, for when we pray in truth, we are making ourselves the better, still better than when we pray for our fellowmen, for his farm near that place.

Elmer Sundstrom, manager of the Lyman-Richey Co. and Harvey B. Kopp of the Home Hardware bank were down from Louisville today where they attended to some business matters.

John Bajcek of Havelock, who has just returned home from a visit in Florida, departed this morning for his home, while at Miami, Florida. Mr. Bajcek had the pleasure of a visit with Adolph Cechal, who has made his home there for the past few years.
