UNION NEBRASKA

Jack Sittman of Avoca was a visitor in Union on last Monday, and was while here, a visitor with his friend, Frank W. Martin.

R. E. Hastings and Daniel Lynn were out fishing for a few days and trying their luck, finding the fish biting very well and each time were able to catch a good mess of fish.

Charles W. Tigner and wife of Culbertson were here for a week, they coming on account of the death of John Tigner, father of Charles, and also remained to visit for a time.

Charles Atteberry has erected at his place of business two very pretty signs, one on the inside and one on the outside, announcing the carrying for sale of the U. S. tires. Better drop in and see them.

On last Sunday the Rev. W. A. Taylor accompanied by Reuben Stine and son, George, went to near Louisville where the Rev. Taylor conducted the funeral of the late John B. Tigner, who died at the home of his son, James Tigner, near Louisville Friday, the interment being at the West Union cemetery.

During this week Mrs. Jennie Frans moved from the place where she has been residing, to her new home across the street and adjacent to the home of her son, D. Ray Frans, and which but a short time since was built for Tony Sudduth and wife by Joe Bauer, and an excellent home.

The family of R. E. Foster are out of quarantine, they having gotten over the small pox and are feeling very fine thank you. They are pleased to be allowed to be out again.

Mr. and Mrs. W. E. Moore and the kiddies were pleased last week when Grandfather and Grandmother P. K. Moore arrived from Lushton to visit with their son and family, and were accompanied by a daughter and husband from Lincoln. All visited for the day, and in the afternoon Mr. Moore and daughter and husband returned to their homes while Grandmother Moore remained and will stay for the week and will be taken to her home in Lushton by the son and family for the coming Sunday.

The Cows Always Eat.
Frank W. Martin, who has ten cows which he milks for a Livelihood, and speaking about them, Frank says that the cows always eat, for they have to do so in order to produce the milk. He also says that when they produce enough milk to feed themselves and also enough to sell, that he eats too.

Come to Church.
We do not say in the wildwood, but in Union, the Baptist church gives you a cordial invitation, with Bible school at ten o'clock and preaching services at eleven. The Baptist young people also meet in the evening. All are cordially invited to attend all these meetings.

Methodist Church Notes.
Bible school in the morning, ten o'clock, preaching at eleven, and in the afternoon, Epworth League at 6:45 and evening service at 7:30.

Time to Paint, Spring.
The trees paint themselves green in the spring, and the fields also are garbed in an emerald hue. All nature is setting the example, why not the house and the barn and all the out buildings get in touch with mother nature. See the ad of D. Ray Frans paint at a remarkably low price.

The Dawn of Easter.
This is to be the cantata which will be rendered by some 18 voices selected from the two churches of Union and who are practicing every Friday evening. It is understood that the cantata will be given on Easter morn at the Baptist church.

Florence Bartlett Much Better.
Charles Greene and wife were over to Omaha on last Sunday where they visited Miss Florence Bartlett, a niece of Mr. Greene, who has been very sick for some time in the hospital at Omaha and who they are very well pleased to report she is showing some improvement.

Taken With Small Pox.
Leonard J. Austin was taken with the small pox on last Monday evening and the home was placed under quarantine on Tuesday morning. The catching of the disease works a hardship on the Austin family as Mr. Austin needs to work when he can get it and just now he has had plenty of work. It is hoped that he will soon be able to return to his work again.

Visits Father in East.
On last Friday Phillip F. Rihn departed for Highlands, Illinois, where his father and mother-in-law reside, and remained until Monday noon, and with two visitors, Messrs Newman and Morrow, they explained the purchase of calendars for the city which would be paid for by the business men and all be alike. The matter was considered at length and finally a committee was appointed consisting of Rihn, Frans and Stites to look after the matter. This move is expected to save much for the business men and also to provide a good calendar for every one in town and the adjacent vicinity. The sale of tickets for the entertainment which will be put on by the Men-o-n-c., on March 27th was reported as being very good.

Business Men's Dinner.
There was a goodly crowd at the dinner of the Union Business Men's club at the Clark hotel on Tuesday

Visiting Folks Here.
Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Brennenstahl, the parents of Mrs. Whitworth, arrived in Union last Monday and will visit for a week. Mr.

Brennenstahl was for many years an engineer on the Rock Island railway and was pensioned a short time since. They are making their home at Trenton, Mo. They will visit here for some time.

Returns from Stay at Hospital.
Davis Andrews, the brakeman on the branch line of the Missouri Pacific and running from Union to Lincoln, was able to return home after a stay of a few weeks in the hospital at St. Louis, where he was taken following his accident.

Obituary.
John Davidson Tigner was born at Pattersons Mill, Pennsylvania, May 29, 1850, residing there until he was 22 years of age, at which time he departed for Ohio, where on March 14, 1872 he was united in marriage to Miss Sarah Josephine Campbell.

After their marriage they returned to Pennsylvania, where they resided for 12 years, then removed to the state of Nebraska in the year 1884, settling in Cass county, where he has resided ever since.

To this union five children were born, four sons and one daughter: James M. of Louisville, Charles W. of Culbertson, Harry C. of Nehawka, Fritz C. of Union and Jessie C. Fitch of Union.

His wife preceded him in death having been called to her reward March 11, 1927.

After the death of his wife he made his home with his son, James, where he passed away Friday, March 14, 1930, at the age of 79 years, 9 months and 22 days.

He leaves to mourn their loss his five children, all of which were present at the last sad rites, also 12 grandchildren, two grandchildren dying, one infant son of Fritz C. and the other a three-year-old daughter of Charles W. Tigner.

The funeral services were held from the home of his son, James M. Tigner, Sunday, March 16th, at 12 a. m. and conducted by the Rev. W. A. Taylor of Union, and interment being made in the West Union cemetery.

Old Settler Dies.
Nicholas Opp was born in Niederhouser, near Coblenz, Germany, on April 3, 1856. He came with his parents, to Nebraska in April, 1868. In 1872, Mrs. Opp was confirmed in
