highway 75 which took up the late Unconscious Youth Found This Side of Platte River Bridge Last Night

A homesick youth, longing for the opportunity of seeing the home town down in southern Missouri, his trustfulness of strangers and a few dollars combined to culminate in the slugging and robbing of Jerry Scott, 18, of Caruthersville, Missouri, on highway No. 75 a few miles north of this city.

The assault and robbery was discovered last night at 9:30 when deputy Sheriff Rex Young and wife were returning home from Omaha and when a short distance this side of the Platte river bridge noticed the body of a man lying along the roadway and Mr. Young investigating discovered the youth who was just recovering consciousness from the effects of his experience.
