The title of this little pageant which we unfold before you might well be termed "The March of Progress."

In 1923 Soennichsen's established a Dry Goods and Furnishings store founded on the principle of Cash sales and such display of merchandise that the customer could see and inspect goods for himself without the necessity of a large force of expensive salespeople.

In 1927 we followed with the establishment of a Self-Serve grocery—the first strictly Cash and Carry store in Cass county, founded on the same principle of "Savings to the Customer."

Since then we have twice had to increase our floor space and shelf facilities to take care of a constantly increasing trade.

Now we are making another stride forward in the equipping of a most up-to-date meat department that will enable you to make ALL your purchases under one roof at the same small margin of profit that has made our Dry Goods, Furnishings and Grocery sales increase so rapidly year after year.

To serve you in this new market, we have spared no expense in the way of equipment. Our new Northey all-steel and porcelain low-temperature display case is the most efficient and beautiful of the many put out by the Northey people—the first of its kind in Nebraska. This, coupled with our large Northey refrigerator room and the glass-door Northey provision refrigerator—all operated by Frigidaire units—gives us the largest refrigerated capacity of any store in Cass county.

We want you to see this new equipment Saturday—opening day—and patronize our Meat Department which is under the personal direction of Vernon Arn, an old experienced meat cutter.

See the list of exceptional bargains in MEATS and GROCERIES we have for you, shown to the right in this ad.

Greenwood is Again Stirred by Waring Faction

Marshal Trunkenzoltz Has Peace Bond Application Filed Against Him Today by Rouse

From Wednesday's Daily—
This morning more fuel was added to the raging storm of community troubles that has beset the usually peaceful little city of Greenwood—this time the revival of the previous troubles being the application of William Rouse for a peace bond against George Trunkenzoltz, marshal of the town and against whom Rouse filed charges of assault, Saturday.

The complaint of Mr. Rouse asking that the marshal be placed under a peace bond was made before Justice W. E. Newkirk at the Greenwood justice court and the marshal was haled before the court to answer to the charge and to supply bond for the hearing of the case.

This follows the arrest of Rouse Saturday by the marshal who alleged that Rouse was intoxicated and in which both parties became involved in a quarrel, it being contended by the marshal that Rouse had threatened and struck him with a corn knife and Rouse contending that the marshal struck him without provocation.

These outbreaks cover a long period of trouble that has followed each arrest that has been made by the marshal and an intense feeling has been stirred up among the residents.

FUNERAL OF MRS. CLINE

The funeral services of Mrs. Harry Cline, formerly Miss Mary Martens of this city were held Sunday afternoon at the St. Paul's Evangelical church and with a very large number of the old friends attending the services and to pay honor to the loved friend who had gone to the last long rest.

The pastor of the church, Rev. O. G. Wickmann, paid a very fine tribute to the departed lady and to those who remained to mourn her going, he left a message of home and comfort.

The choir of the church gave two of the old hymns, "Asleep in Jesus" and "Face to Face" during the services.

At the close the body was borne to Oak Hill cemetery to be laid to the last long rest, the pall bearers being friends and neighbors from Omaha, where Mrs. Cline had lived in recent years, Tom Murphy, Harry Bennett, Charles Potter, Fred Melotz, Hiram Miller, James Minor.

Mary Martens, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Henry Martens, was born in Plattsmouth fifty-seven years ago, spending her younger days here where she attended school and later was engaged in clerical work in the local stores. Later Miss Martens decided to take up nursing and entered training at the Presbyterian hospital at Omaha from which she graduated and was for ten years engaged in this profession, entering the Red Cross for work in this country during the war. She was married in this city on July 12, 1920, to Mr. Harry Cline of Omaha, the ceremony being performed by the Rev. O. D. Baltzy of the Kountz Memorial church. The deceased is survived by the husband, aged mother, two sisters, Miss Amelia Martens of this city, Miss Henrietta Martens of San Francisco; two brothers, Fred Martens of California, and Herman Martens of Chicago.

The following tribute was sent to the departed by a member of the Plattsmouth Club: "In Omaha, of which the deceased was a member. Say not she's dead, it is not death. But glorious life she's met 'Tis hard for us to understand We grope with lashes wet In darkness of despair so deep There seems no ray of light, Yet ever Faith bids us look up And see that all is right.

Our loss must be her gain, we know She's freed from earthly pain And if 'twere in our power, we'd not Call her to us again—

For rest and peace and joy are hers, And with her old time smile She'll greet us, when we join her there.

In Heaven's "afterwhile." M. S. J. June 14, 1930.
Relatives from out of the city to attend the funeral were: Richard Wurl, an uncle of Mrs. Cline, of Omaha, Nebraska; Jacob Vogel and Mr. and Mrs. Carl Vogel of Clarkston, Nebraska, Mr. and Mrs. Paul Wurl of Pampa, California and Otto A. Wurl and son, Otto, Jr., of Council Bluffs.

Officers Training Camp Opens at Fort Crook

Five Mid-West State College Students Are Members of the R. O. T. C. in Training.

Equipment was distributed Monday to 153 officers of five midwestern university R. O. T. C. units, enrolled for the annual six-week infantry camp and training course at Fort Crook. Lieutenant Colonel F. F. Jewett, commandant at the University of Nebraska, is chief instructor. The University of Nebraska has the largest delegation, with 82 representatives. The University of Iowa has 33, University of South Dakota, 26; Creighton university, 11, and the University of Illinois, one. Activities for the six-week period include a strenuous athletic program, study of combat methods, scouting and patrolling. Marksmanship tests will be given on the rifle range at Plattsmouth. A parade will be held every day.

Reveille will be sounded at 5:45 a. m. and taps will be sounded at 11 p. m. Officers are free to leave camp every night between 6 and 11 o'clock, and each week-end from 6 o'clock Saturday night until reveille Monday morning.

Another camp, just north of the school officers was set up Monday for 17 reserve officers of the 7th Corps area, of which Omaha is headquarters. Under direction of Lieutenant Colonel Gingrich these officers will be given special training for two weeks in military tactics, and will be required to take pistol tests for record. Officers of the fort will serve as the school faculty.

Members of both camps met Colonel C. A. Trott, commander of Fort Crook, Monday morning. They will begin the regular routine work at once.

STUDY CLUB ENTERTAINS

It has been the custom the past two years for the Lewiston Study club to divide their membership into groups, each group to have a party for the members and their families some time during the year.

Monday evening, June 16th Mesdames John Hendricks, Jarvis Lancaster and Elmer Whiteneck were hostesses for the club party at the home of Mrs. Whiteneck. Games and stunts from the extension department of the university were played and prizes given to the winner of each.

A lady (?) in costume played the guitar and led in singing various songs, both old and new.

After a delicious lunch some of the newly elected officers were "initiated" after which all departed voting a jolly evening after a year of hard study.

The next meeting will be a formal afternoon affair at the home of Mrs. George Park—a short program, business session, report of the year's work and installation of officers with a number of guests from other clubs. All members are kindly asked to be present.

MRS. J. W. HENDRICKS, President.
