Passing of Well Known Young Man of Near Nehawka

Funeral Services of Herbert Engelkeimer Held Saturday at Eight Mile Grove Church

The funeral of Herbert Engelkeimer was held on Saturday afternoon at the family home and at the Eight Mile Grove Lutheran church. At the home there was a short German service held by the pastor, Rev. A. Lenz and with a German hymn by the choir composed of August Peteroff, Mrs. August Peteroff, Mrs. Julius Engelkeimer and Reuben Meisinger. Mrs. Lenz being at the organ. At the church there were both English and German services, the English theme being taken from the 119 psalm and the German from Luke 5:11. The English choir composed of Verna Meisinger, Hilda Friedrich, Selma Kreeger, Fred Kroeher, Glen Kreeger, Arthur Hill and Reuben Meisinger, gave two numbers, "Asleep in Jesus" and "Till We Meet Again." The German choir also gave one of the old hymns.

The interment was at the Oak Hill cemetery in this city and the pall bearers were John Hill, Raymond Hill, Clarence Engelkeimer, Roy Engelkeimer, Harold Puls, Leonard Lutz.

Herbert Henry Engelkeimer, son of August Engelkeimer and wife, Mathilda, nee Kirchoff, was born at the home place near Nehawka on November 15, 1903.
