

The Plattsmouth Journal

PUBLISHED SEMI-WEEKLY AT PLATTSMOUTH, NEBRASKA
Entered at Postoffice, Plattsmouth, Neb., as second-class mail matter

R. A. BATES, Publisher

SUBSCRIPTION PRICE $2.00 A YEAR IN FIRST POSTAL ZONE
Subscribers living in Second Postal Zone, $2.50 per year. Beyond 600 miles, $3.00 per year. Rate to Canada and foreign countries, $3.50 per year. All subscriptions are payable strictly in advance.

"Heaven or hell, this country is facing something."

There is too much happening that calls for scare headlines.

The burglar does his hysmaking while the sun doesn't shine.

In the old days people used to drop in for a visit; now they visit for a drop.

By the way, what has become of that great statesman, Cannon, of Virginia?

According to the box scores, some baseball clubs are having their ups and downs.

The solution of the Lingle killing is going to be exactly the same as in the Rothstein murder.

In Chicago it is now proper, of course, for gangsters to refer to their descendants as off-shoots.

What's bothering the average tired citizen these days is how he can take a $75 savings bank account.

As we get it, a foul in the boxing game is like one in baseball, it has to be caught to make it an out.

These are the days when your life in the country begins to agree heartily with the relative from the city.

It's funny about not letting the people in the District of Columbia vote on who will be their guests.

Oratory seems to be definitely on the wane: Virtually all the non-stop flight records are now held by aviators.

Some concerns have only one vice-president, and in other cases the boss has as many as six married daughters.

Now supposing Hoover denies that he favors Morrow for president in 1932.

All hope of a cool summer vanished when the Senate met in special session.

The law of supply and demand ought to be enforced upon the weather.

We gather from the news photos that Gandhi has taken them off for the summer.

"Americans are called worst hypocrites on earth." The words of a hypocrite, no doubt.

Have you heard about the college which invited Will Rogers to deliver its baccalaureat address?

What's bothering the average tired citizen these days is how he can take a $75 savings bank account.

As we get it, a foul in the boxing game is like one in baseball, it has to be caught to make it an out.

These are the days when your life in the country begins to agree heartily with the relative from the city.

It's funny about not letting the people in the District of Columbia vote on who will be their guests.

Oratory seems to be definitely on the wane: Virtually all the non-stop flight records are now held by aviators.

When a man says he doesn't feel very well the safest diagnosis is that he has been hitting the hooch too hard.

This is the month when parents send their little Junior to summer camp on the theory it will do them good.

Mention law enforcement, and the average man promptly concludes that you are going to talk about prohibition.

The town drunkard used to be considered worthless, but now he's very valuable as a guide to where it can be got.

A novelist asserts that an extravagant girl usually makes a poor mother. First, however, she makes a poor husband.

We bet the same fellow who originated the humorous term "painless dentist," also invented the expression, "easy payments."

Red Cagle has crowded football, matrimony and newspaper reporting into one short month. Some men can stand a lot of punishment.

Eastern educator says many other laws are broken because of prohibition. Yes, not counting the laws broken in enforcing prohibition.

All we ask of Mr. Hoover is that he appoint us on a commission to investigate the summer climate of Glacier Park, or some place like that.

American motorists are expected to spend around $300,000,000 in Canada this summer. The great dominion north of the border has unrivaled attractions as a vacation land—and we're not speaking of its liquor laws, either. Citizens of the United States are discovering the fact in increasing numbers every year.

However, Canadians do a good deal of touring, too, and a lot of them cross the border to do it. In 1929, according to dominion government figures, Canadian tourists spent more than 111,000,000 in the United States, and more than 619,000 Canadian automobiles went south over the boundary. The figure probably will be higher this year.

Here is reciprocity of the finest sort. That famous unfortified frontier is in no danger as long as the two nations exchange friendly visits on such a scale.

We assume that the other Chicago newspapers will take their own ways and means, regardless of the Tribune, to bring out all the facts. That is necessary on account of their own good name and future standing. It is of importance to the press in general, which is deeply interested in the situation and its outcome.

If the Chicago situation were a mere newspaper fight it would have little significance for other newspapers or the public. But it involves charged or insinuated alliances between the press and the criminal gangsters who are engaged in crime as an organized business, often in alliance with and under the protection of public officials. This is of profound interest and significance. It marks a possibility of gang control which heightens its menace beyond words.

If the press deserts its post as the guardian of public interest and safety and becomes the ally of criminals and corrupt officials the last hope of redemption fades. Any tendency in this direction, therefore, is significant and important to the public. That is the reason the Chicago situation is being watched by press and public everywhere with intense interest. We expect all the newspapers of Chicago to do their duty. Surely there is one that will honestly and fearlessly attack the corrupt combine. For the sake of Chicago, the public and the press let us have all the facts.—St. Louis Post-Dispatch.

From a close perusal of Mr. Coolidge's articles, we are slow gathering a clear conception of his credo. He believes, he said, in the eternal truth that "certainty is the basis of business confidence." Is it not logical to attribute to him a belief in various?—such as: Haste makes waste. A stitch in time saves nine. A rolling stone gathers no moss. Truth crushed to earth will rise again. The course of true love never runs smoothly. Honesty is the best policy. The worm will turn. Murder will out. A fool and his money are soon parted. When poverty flies into the door, love flies out of the window. Brevity is the soul of wit. Look after the pennies and the dollars will take care of themselves. Procrastination is the thief of time. It never rains but it pours. Hell is paved with good intentions. It's a long lane that has no turning. Eternal vigilance is the price of liberty. And it isn't the heat, it's the humidity.

CHICAGO'S AMAZING SITUATION

The Lingle murder in Chicago, which exposed a dirty mess concerning the gangster alliances and graft activities of a reporter of the Chicago Tribune, has developed into an amazing newspaper situation.

The Chicago Tribune, in a leading editorial, accuses the publishers of the other Chicago newspapers of changing from an attitude of co-operation in the investigation of gangsterism and graft prompted by the murder to that of obstruction and hostility. The Tribune refers to newspaper reports that there are dishonest reports on other Chicago newspapers and the plain inference is that the other newspapers are tarred with the same stick that blackened the Tribune, and the publishers want to prevent public disclosures touching corrupt activities on the part of their own employees. There is a fight on among the Chicago newspapers, and the Tribune asserts it goes beyond mere newspaper jealousies and touches the effort to expose the tangled mass of gangland crime and alliances.

In weighing the gravity of the charge, the Tribune's position must be taken into account. It is the only Chicago newspaper definitely proved to have had a reporter on its payroll who was the pal and partner of criminal gangsters and shared in their loot. He was on the Tribune's payroll for many years. Although he was known as the gang reporter, there is no evidence of his service to the newspaper or the public in obtaining and printing information about gangsters or their activities. To the contrary, the evidence shows that he served the gangsters and worked with them. The evidence indicates that his newspaper connection was of great value to him and his criminal partners. How else could he have gained the power and influence he exercised over police and other officials for the benefit of the gangsters? How the Tribune could for years be ignorant of the exercise of power and the criminal connections and activities of its reporter is an unsolvable puzzle to newspaper men. Why did it retain him, with his record and reputation?

The Tribune must clear its own skirts, and unless that is done it will reap little benefit by disclosing dirty linen in other newspaper closets.

We assume that the other Chicago newspapers will take their own ways and means, regardless of the Tribune, to bring out all the facts. That is necessary on account of their own good name and future standing. It is of importance to the press in general, which is deeply interested in the situation and its outcome.

If the Chicago situation were a mere newspaper fight it would have little significance for other newspapers or the public. But it involves charged or insinuated alliances between the press and the criminal gangsters who are engaged in crime as an organized business, often in alliance with and under the protection of public officials. This is of profound interest and significance. It marks a possibility of gang control which heightens its menace beyond words.

If the press deserts its post as the guardian of public interest and safety and becomes the ally of criminals and corrupt officials the last hope of redemption fades. Any tendency in this direction, therefore, is significant and important to the public. That is the reason the Chicago situation is being watched by press and public everywhere with intense interest. We expect all the newspapers of Chicago to do their duty. Surely there is one that will honestly and fearlessly attack the corrupt combine. For the sake of Chicago, the public and the press let us have all the facts.—St. Louis Post-Dispatch.

From a close perusal of Mr. Coolidge's articles, we are slow gathering a clear conception of his credo. He believes, he said, in the eternal truth that "certainty is the basis of business confidence." Is it not logical to attribute to him a belief in various?—such as: Haste makes waste. A stitch in time saves nine. A rolling stone gathers no moss. Truth crushed to earth will rise again. The course of true love never runs smoothly. Honesty is the best policy. The worm will turn. Murder will out. A fool and his money are soon parted. When poverty flies into the door, love flies out of the window. Brevity is the soul of wit. Look after the pennies and the dollars will take care of themselves. Procrastination is the thief of time. It never rains but it pours. Hell is paved with good intentions. It's a long lane that has no turning. Eternal vigilance is the price of liberty. And it isn't the heat, it's the humidity.

From a close perusal of Mr. Coolidge's articles, we are slow gathering a clear conception of his credo. He believes, he said, in the eternal truth that "certainty is the basis of business confidence." Is it not logical to attribute to him a belief in various?—such as: Haste makes waste. A stitch in time saves nine. A rolling stone gathers no moss. Truth crushed to earth will rise again. The course of true love never runs smoothly. Honesty is the best policy. The worm will turn. Murder will out. A fool and his money are soon parted. When poverty flies into the door, love flies out of the window. Brevity is the soul of wit. Look after the pennies and the dollars will take care of themselves. Procrastination is the thief of time. It never rains but it pours. Hell is paved with good intentions. It's a long lane that has no turning. Eternal vigilance is the price of liberty. And it isn't the heat, it's the humidity.

From a close perusal of Mr. Coolidge's articles, we are slow gathering a clear conception of his credo. He believes, he said, in the eternal truth that "certainty is the basis of business confidence." Is it not logical to attribute to him a belief in various?—such as: Haste makes waste. A stitch in time saves nine. A rolling stone gathers no moss. Truth crushed to earth will rise again. The course of true love never runs smoothly. Honesty is the best policy. The worm will turn. Murder will out. A fool and his money are soon parted. When poverty flies into the door, love flies out of the window. Brevity is the soul of wit. Look after the pennies and the dollars will take care of themselves. Procrastination is the thief of time. It never rains but it pours. Hell is paved with good intentions. It's a long lane that has no turning. Eternal vigilance is the price of liberty. And it isn't the heat, it's the humidity.

From a close perusal of Mr. Coolidge's articles, we are slow gathering a clear conception of his credo. He believes, he said, in the eternal truth that "certainty is the basis of business confidence." Is it not logical to attribute to him a belief in various?—such as: Haste makes waste. A stitch in time saves nine. A rolling stone gathers no moss. Truth crushed to earth will rise again. The course of true love never runs smoothly. Honesty is the best policy. The worm will turn. Murder will out. A fool and his money are soon parted. When poverty flies into the door, love flies out of the window. Brevity is the soul of wit. Look after the pennies and the dollars will take care of themselves. Procrastination is the thief of time. It never rains but it pours. Hell is paved with good intentions. It's a long lane that has no turning. Eternal vigilance is the price of liberty. And it isn't the heat, it's the humidity.

From a close perusal of Mr. Coolidge's articles, we are slow gathering a clear conception of his credo. He believes, he said, in the eternal truth that "certainty is the basis of business confidence." Is it not logical to attribute to him a belief in various?—such as: Haste makes waste. A stitch in time saves nine. A rolling stone gathers no moss. Truth crushed to earth will rise again. The course of true love never runs smoothly. Honesty is the best policy. The worm will turn. Murder will out. A fool and his money are soon parted. When poverty flies into the door, love flies out of the window. Brevity is the soul of wit. Look after the pennies and the dollars will take care of themselves. Procrastination is the thief of time. It never rains but it pours. Hell is paved with good intentions. It's a long lane that has no turning. Eternal vigilance is the price of liberty. And it isn't the heat, it's the humidity.

From a close perusal of Mr. Coolidge's articles, we are slow gathering a clear conception of his credo. He believes, he said, in the eternal truth that "certainty is the basis of business confidence." Is it not logical to attribute to him a belief in various?—such as: Haste makes waste. A stitch in time saves nine. A rolling stone gathers no moss. Truth crushed to earth will rise again. The course of true love never runs smoothly. Honesty is the best policy. The worm will turn. Murder will out. A fool and his money are soon parted. When poverty flies into the door, love flies out of the window. Brevity is the soul of wit. Look after the pennies and the dollars will take care of themselves. Procrastination is the thief of time. It never rains but it pours. Hell is paved with good intentions. It's a long lane that has no turning. Eternal vigilance is the price of liberty. And it isn't the heat, it's the humidity.

From a close perusal of Mr. Coolidge's articles, we are slow gathering a clear conception of his credo. He believes, he said, in the eternal truth that "certainty is the basis of business confidence." Is it not logical to attribute to him a belief in various?—such as: Haste makes waste. A stitch in time saves nine. A rolling stone gathers no moss. Truth crushed to earth will rise again. The course of true love never runs smoothly. Honesty is the best policy. The worm will turn. Murder will out. A fool and his money are soon parted. When poverty flies into the door, love flies out of the window. Brevity is the soul of wit. Look after the pennies and the dollars will take care of themselves. Procrastination is the thief of time. It never rains but it pours. Hell is paved with good intentions. It's a long lane that has no turning. Eternal vigilance is the price of liberty. And it isn't the heat, it's the humidity.

From a close perusal of Mr. Coolidge's articles, we are slow gathering a clear conception of his credo. He believes, he said, in the eternal truth that "certainty is the basis of business confidence." Is it not logical to attribute to him a belief in various?—such as: Haste makes waste. A stitch in time saves nine. A rolling stone gathers no moss. Truth crushed to earth will rise again. The course of true love never runs smoothly. Honesty is the best policy. The worm will turn. Murder will out. A fool and his money are soon parted. When poverty flies into the door, love flies out of the window. Brevity is the soul of wit. Look after the pennies and the dollars will take care of themselves. Procrastination is the thief of time. It never rains but it pours. Hell is paved with good intentions. It's a long lane that has no turning. Eternal vigilance is the price of liberty. And it isn't the heat, it's the humidity.

From a close perusal of Mr. Coolidge's articles, we are slow gathering a clear conception of his credo. He believes, he said, in the eternal truth that "certainty is the basis of business confidence." Is it not logical to attribute to him a belief in various?—such as: Haste makes waste. A stitch in time saves nine. A rolling stone gathers no moss. Truth crushed to earth will rise again. The course of true love never runs smoothly. Honesty is the best policy. The worm will turn. Murder will out. A fool and his money are soon parted. When poverty flies into the door, love flies out of the window. Brevity is the soul of wit. Look after the pennies and the dollars will take care of themselves. Procrastination is the thief of time. It never rains but it pours. Hell is paved with good intentions. It's a long lane that has no turning. Eternal vigilance is the price of liberty. And it isn't the heat, it's the humidity.

From a close perusal of Mr. Coolidge's articles, we are slow gathering a clear conception of his credo. He believes, he said, in the eternal truth that "certainty is the basis of business confidence." Is it not logical to attribute to him a belief in various?—such as: Haste makes waste. A stitch in time saves nine. A rolling stone gathers no moss. Truth crushed to earth will rise again. The course of true love never runs smoothly. Honesty is the best policy. The worm will turn. Murder will out. A fool and his money are soon parted. When poverty flies into the door, love flies out of the window. Brevity is the soul of wit. Look after the pennies and the dollars will take care of themselves. Procrastination is the thief of time. It never rains but it pours. Hell is paved with good intentions. It's a long lane that has no turning. Eternal vigilance is the price of liberty. And it isn't the heat, it's the humidity.

From a close perusal of Mr. Coolidge's articles, we are slow gathering a clear conception of his credo. He believes, he said, in the eternal truth that "certainty is the basis of business confidence." Is it not logical to attribute to him a belief in various?—such as: Haste makes waste. A stitch in time saves nine. A rolling stone gathers no moss. Truth crushed to earth will rise again. The course of true love never runs smoothly. Honesty is the best policy. The worm will turn. Murder will out. A fool and his money are soon parted. When poverty flies into the door, love flies out of the window. Brevity is the soul of wit. Look after the pennies and the dollars will take care of themselves. Procrastination is the thief of time. It never rains but it pours. Hell is paved with good intentions. It's a long lane that has no turning. Eternal vigilance is the price of liberty. And it isn't the heat, it's the humidity.

From a close perusal of Mr. Coolidge's articles, we are slow gathering a clear conception of his credo. He believes, he said, in the eternal truth that "certainty is the basis of business confidence." Is it not logical to attribute to him a belief in various?—such as: Haste makes waste. A stitch in time saves nine. A rolling stone gathers no moss. Truth crushed to earth will rise again. The course of true love never runs smoothly. Honesty is the best policy. The worm will turn. Murder will out. A fool and his money are soon parted. When poverty flies into the door, love flies out of the window. Brevity is the soul of wit. Look after the pennies and the dollars will take care of themselves. Procrastination is the thief of time. It never rains but it pours. Hell is paved with good intentions. It's a long lane that has no turning. Eternal vigilance is the price of liberty. And it isn't the heat, it's the humidity.

From a close perusal of Mr. Coolidge's articles, we are slow gathering a clear conception of his credo. He believes, he said, in the eternal truth that "certainty is the basis of business confidence." Is it not logical to attribute to him a belief in various?—such as: Haste makes waste. A stitch in time saves nine. A rolling stone gathers no moss. Truth crushed to earth will rise again. The course of true love never runs smoothly. Honesty is the best policy. The worm will turn. Murder will out. A fool and his money are soon parted. When poverty flies into the door, love flies out of the window. Brevity is the soul of wit. Look after the pennies and the dollars will take care of themselves. Procrastination is the thief of time. It never rains but it pours. Hell is paved with good intentions. It's a long lane that has no turning. Eternal vigilance is the price of liberty. And it isn't the heat, it's the humidity.

From a close perusal of Mr. Coolidge's articles, we are slow gathering a clear conception of his credo. He believes, he said, in the eternal truth that "certainty is the basis of business confidence." Is it not logical to attribute to him a belief in various?—such as: Haste makes waste. A stitch in time saves nine. A rolling stone gathers no moss. Truth crushed to earth will rise again. The course of true love never runs smoothly. Honesty is the best policy. The worm will turn. Murder will out. A fool and his money are soon parted. When poverty flies into the door, love flies out of the window. Brevity is the soul of wit. Look after the pennies and the dollars will take care of themselves. Procrastination is the thief of time. It never rains but it pours. Hell is paved with good intentions. It's a long lane that has no turning. Eternal vigilance is the price of liberty. And it isn't the heat, it's the humidity.

From a close perusal of Mr. Coolidge's articles, we are slow gathering a clear conception of his credo. He believes, he said, in the eternal truth that "certainty is the basis of business confidence." Is it not logical to attribute to him a belief in various?—such as: Haste makes waste. A stitch in time saves nine. A rolling stone gathers no moss. Truth crushed to earth will rise again. The course of true love never runs smoothly. Honesty is the best policy. The worm will turn. Murder will out. A fool and his money are soon parted. When poverty flies into the door, love flies out of the window. Brevity is the soul of wit. Look after the pennies and the dollars will take care of themselves. Procrastination is the thief of time. It never rains but it pours. Hell is paved with good intentions. It's a long lane that has no turning. Eternal vigilance is the price of liberty. And it isn't the heat, it's the humidity.

From a close perusal of Mr. Coolidge's articles, we are slow gathering a clear conception of his credo. He believes, he said, in the eternal truth that "certainty is the basis of business confidence." Is it not logical to attribute to him a belief in various?—such as: Haste makes waste. A stitch in time saves nine. A rolling stone gathers no moss. Truth crushed to earth will rise again. The course of true love never runs smoothly. Honesty is the best policy. The worm will turn. Murder will out. A fool and his money are soon parted. When poverty flies into the door, love flies out of the window. Brevity is the soul of wit. Look after the pennies and the dollars will take care of themselves. Procrastination is the thief of time. It never rains but it pours. Hell is paved with good intentions. It's a long lane that has no turning. Eternal vigilance is the price of liberty. And it isn't the heat, it's the humidity.

From a close perusal of Mr. Coolidge's articles, we are slow gathering a clear conception of his credo. He believes, he said, in the eternal truth that "certainty is the basis of business confidence." Is it not logical to attribute to him a belief in various?—such as: Haste makes waste. A stitch in time saves nine. A rolling stone gathers no moss. Truth crushed to earth will rise again. The course of true love never runs smoothly. Honesty is the best policy. The worm will turn. Murder will out. A fool and his money are soon parted. When poverty flies into the door, love flies out of the window. Brevity is the soul of wit. Look after the pennies and the dollars will take care of themselves. Procrastination is the thief of time. It never rains but it pours. Hell is paved with good intentions. It's a long lane that has no turning. Eternal vigilance is the price of liberty. And it isn't the heat, it's the humidity.

From a close perusal of Mr. Coolidge's articles, we are slow gathering a clear conception of his credo. He believes, he said, in the eternal truth that "certainty is the basis of business confidence." Is it not logical to attribute to him a belief in various?—such as: Haste makes waste. A stitch in time saves nine. A rolling stone gathers no moss. Truth crushed to earth will rise again. The course of true love never runs smoothly. Honesty is the best policy. The worm will turn. Murder will out. A fool and his money are soon parted. When poverty flies into the door, love flies out of the window. Brevity is the soul of wit. Look after the pennies and the dollars will take care of themselves. Procrastination is the thief of time. It never rains but it pours. Hell is paved with good intentions. It's a long lane that has no turning. Eternal vigilance is the price of liberty. And it isn't the heat, it's the humidity.

From a close perusal of Mr. Coolidge's articles, we are slow gathering a clear conception of his credo. He believes, he said, in the eternal truth that "certainty is the basis of business confidence." Is it not logical to attribute to him a belief in various?—such as: Haste makes waste. A stitch in time saves nine. A rolling stone gathers no moss. Truth crushed to earth will rise again. The course of true love never runs smoothly. Honesty is the best policy. The worm will turn. Murder will out. A fool and his money are soon parted. When poverty flies into the door, love flies out of the window. Brevity is the soul of wit. Look after the pennies and the dollars will take care of themselves. Procrastination is the thief of time. It never rains but it pours. Hell is paved with good intentions. It's a long lane that has no turning. Eternal vigilance is the price of liberty. And it isn't the heat, it's the humidity.

From a close perusal of Mr. Coolidge's articles, we are slow gathering a clear conception of his credo. He believes, he said, in the eternal truth that "certainty is the basis of business confidence." Is it not logical to attribute to him a belief in various?—such as: Haste makes waste. A stitch in time saves nine. A rolling stone gathers no moss. Truth crushed to earth will rise again. The course of true love never runs smoothly. Honesty is the best policy. The worm will turn. Murder will out. A fool and his money are soon parted. When poverty flies into the door, love flies out of the window. Brevity is the soul of wit. Look after the pennies and the dollars will take care of themselves. Procrastination is the thief of time. It never rains but it pours. Hell is paved with good intentions. It's a long lane that has no turning. Eternal vigilance is the price of liberty. And it isn't the heat, it's the humidity.

From a close perusal of Mr. Coolidge's articles, we are slow gathering a clear conception of his credo. He believes, he said, in the eternal truth that "certainty is the basis of business confidence." Is it not logical to attribute to him a belief in various?—such as: Haste makes waste. A stitch in time saves nine. A rolling stone gathers no moss. Truth crushed to earth will rise again. The course of true love never runs smoothly. Honesty is the best policy. The worm will turn. Murder will out. A fool and his money are soon parted. When poverty flies into the door, love flies out of the window. Brevity is the soul of wit. Look after the pennies and the dollars will take care of themselves. Procrastination is the thief of time. It never rains but it pours. Hell is paved with good intentions. It's a long lane that has no turning. Eternal vigilance is the price of liberty. And it isn't the heat, it's the humidity.

From a close perusal of Mr. Coolidge's articles, we are slow gathering a clear conception of his credo. He believes, he said, in the eternal truth that "certainty is the basis of business confidence." Is it not logical to attribute to him a belief in various?—such as: Haste makes waste. A stitch in time saves nine. A rolling stone gathers no moss. Truth crushed to earth will rise again. The course of true love never runs smoothly. Honesty is the best policy. The worm will turn. Murder will out. A fool and his money are soon parted. When poverty flies into the door, love flies out of the window. Brevity is the soul of wit. Look after the pennies and the dollars will take care of themselves. Procrastination is the thief of time. It never rains but it pours. Hell is paved with good intentions. It's a long lane that has no turning. Eternal vigilance is the price of liberty. And it isn't the heat, it's the humidity.

From a close perusal of Mr. Coolidge's articles, we are slow gathering a clear conception of his credo. He believes, he said, in the eternal truth that "certainty is the basis of business confidence." Is it not logical to attribute to him a belief in various?—such as: Haste makes waste. A stitch in time saves nine. A rolling stone gathers no moss. Truth crushed to earth will rise again. The course of true love never runs smoothly. Honesty is the best policy. The worm will turn. Murder will out. A fool and his money are soon parted. When poverty flies into the door, love flies out of the window. Brevity is the soul of wit. Look after the pennies and the dollars will take care of themselves. Procrastination is the thief of time. It never rains but it pours. Hell is paved with good intentions. It's a long lane that has no turning. Eternal vigilance is the price of liberty. And it isn't the heat, it's the humidity.

From a close perusal of Mr. Coolidge's articles, we are slow gathering a clear conception of his credo. He believes, he said, in the eternal truth that "certainty is the basis of business confidence." Is it not logical to attribute to him a belief in various?—such as: Haste makes waste. A stitch in time saves nine. A rolling stone gathers no moss. Truth crushed to earth will rise again. The course of true love never runs smoothly. Honesty is the best policy. The worm will turn. Murder will out. A fool and his money are soon parted. When poverty flies into the door, love flies out of the window. Brevity is the soul of wit. Look after the pennies and the dollars will take care of themselves. Procrastination is the thief of time. It never rains but it pours. Hell is paved with good intentions. It's a long lane that has no turning. Eternal vigilance is the price of liberty. And it isn't the heat, it's the humidity.

From a close perusal of Mr. Coolidge's articles, we are slow gathering a clear conception of his credo. He believes, he said, in the eternal truth that "certainty is the basis of business confidence." Is it not logical to attribute to him a belief in various?—such as: Haste makes waste. A stitch in time saves nine. A rolling stone gathers no moss. Truth crushed to earth will rise again. The course of true love never runs smoothly. Honesty is the best policy. The worm will turn. Murder will out. A fool and his money are soon parted. When poverty flies into the door, love flies out of the window. Brevity is the soul of wit. Look after the pennies and the dollars will take care of themselves. Procrastination is the thief of time. It never rains but it pours. Hell is paved with good intentions. It's a long lane that has no turning. Eternal vigilance is the price of liberty. And it isn't the heat, it's the humidity.

From a close perusal of Mr. Coolidge's articles, we are slow gathering a clear conception of his credo. He believes, he said, in the eternal truth that "certainty is the basis of business confidence." Is it not logical to attribute to him a belief in various?—such as: Haste makes waste. A stitch in time saves nine. A rolling stone gathers no moss. Truth crushed to earth will rise again. The course of true love never runs smoothly. Honesty is the best policy. The worm will turn. Murder will out. A fool and his money are soon parted. When poverty flies into the door, love flies out of the window. Brevity is the soul of wit. Look after the pennies and the dollars will take care of themselves. Procrastination is the thief of time. It never rains but it pours. Hell is paved with good intentions. It's a long lane that has no turning. Eternal vigilance is the price of liberty. And it isn't the heat, it's the humidity.

From a close perusal of Mr. Coolidge's articles, we are slow gathering a clear conception of his credo. He believes, he said, in the eternal truth that "certainty is the basis of business confidence." Is it not logical to attribute to him a belief in various?—such as: Haste makes waste. A stitch in time saves nine. A rolling stone gathers no moss. Truth crushed to earth will rise again. The course of true love never runs smoothly. Honesty is the best policy. The worm will turn. Murder will out. A fool and his money are soon parted. When poverty flies into the door, love flies out of the window. Brevity is the soul of wit. Look after the pennies and the dollars will take care of themselves. Procrastination is the thief of time. It never rains but it pours. Hell is paved with good intentions. It's a long lane that has no turning. Eternal vigilance is the price of liberty. And it isn't the heat, it's the humidity.

From a close perusal of Mr. Coolidge's articles, we are slow gathering a clear conception of his credo. He believes, he said, in the eternal truth that "certainty is the basis of business confidence." Is it not logical to attribute to him a belief in various?—such as: Haste makes waste. A stitch in time saves nine. A rolling stone gathers no moss. Truth crushed to earth will rise again. The course of true love never runs smoothly. Honesty is the best policy. The worm will turn. Murder will out. A fool and his money are soon parted. When poverty flies into the door, love flies out of the window. Brevity is the soul of wit. Look after the pennies and the dollars will take care of themselves. Procrastination is the thief of time. It never rains but it pours. Hell is paved with good intentions. It's a long lane that has no turning. Eternal vigilance is the price of liberty. And it isn't the heat, it's the humidity.

From a close perusal of Mr. Coolidge's articles, we are slow gathering a clear conception of his credo. He believes, he said, in the eternal truth that "certainty is the basis of business confidence." Is it not logical to attribute to him a belief in various?—such as: Haste makes waste. A stitch in time saves nine. A rolling stone gathers no moss. Truth crushed to earth will rise again. The course of true love never runs smoothly. Honesty is the best policy. The worm will turn. Murder will out. A fool and his money are soon parted. When poverty flies into the door, love flies out of the window. Brevity is the soul of wit. Look after the pennies and the dollars will take care of themselves. Procrastination is the thief of time. It never rains but it pours. Hell is paved with good intentions. It's a long lane that has no turning. Eternal vigilance is the price of liberty. And it isn't the heat, it's the humidity.

A British magazine reports that every cell of a woman's prison in England has a mirror in it. The prisoners, you see, are locked up and left to their own reflections.

NOTICE OF ADMINISTRATION

In the County Court of Cass county, Nebraska.

Notice of Administration. All persons interested in said estate are hereby notified that a petition has been filed in said Court alleging that said deceased died leaving no last will and testament and praying for administration upon said estate and for such other and further orders and proceedings in the premises as may be required by the statutes in such cases made and provided to the end that said estate and all things pertaining thereto may be finally settled and determined, and that a hearing will be had on said petition before said Court on the 15th day of August, A. D. 1930, and that if they fail to appear at said Court on said 15th day of August, 1930, at 10:00 o'clock a. m., to contest the said petition, the Court may grant the same and grant administration of said estate to William H. Shea, Jr., or some other suitable person and proceed to a settlement thereof.

A. H. DUXBURY, County Judge. (Seal) j21-3w

ORDER OF HEARING and Notice on Petition for Settlement of Account

In the County Court of Cass county, Nebraska.

State of Nebraska, Cass county, ss. To all persons interested in the estate of Mary A. Street, deceased: On reading the petition of E. H. Wescott, Executor, praying a final settlement and allowance of his account filed in this Court on the 21st day of July, 1930, and for final settlement of said estate and his discharge as said Executor:

It is hereby ordered that you and all persons interested in said matter may, and do, appear at the County Court to be held in and for said county, on the 15th day of August, A. D. 1930, at 9:00 o'clock a. m., to show cause, if any there be, why the prayer of the petitioner should not be granted, and that notice of the pendency of said petition and the hearing thereof be given to all persons interested in said matter by publishing a copy of this order in the Plattsmouth Journal, a semi-weekly newspaper printed in said county, for three successive weeks prior to said day of hearing.

In witness whereof, I have hereunto set my hand and the seal of said Court, this 21st day of July, A. D. 1930.

A. H. DUXBURY, County Judge. (Seal) j21-3w

NOTICE OF REFEREE'S SALE

In the District Court of the County of Cass, Nebraska

Arthur N. Sullivan, et al, Plaintiffs vs. Adeline Spangler et al, Defendants.

Notice is hereby given that under and by virtue of the decree of the District Court, of the County of Cass, Nebraska, entered in the above entitled cause, on the 15th day of February, 1930, and an order of sale entered by said court on the 15th day of February, 1930, the undersigned sole referee will sell at public auction to the highest bidder for cash, on