

UNION ITEMS.

John Roddy and M. R. Blum were over to Dunbar on last Sunday where they were visiting with friends for the day.

Charles Chappell and Henry Gruber, both of Nehawka, were looking after some business matters in Union on last Tuesday morning.

John Armstrong and the good wife are having a cave built the work being done by James Miller of Nehawka and assisted by his son, Fred. Uncle George Simeon Upton was looking after some business matters in Murray on Saturday of last week making the trip with his horse and buggy.

F. M. McCarthy was looking after some business matters in Murray on Tuesday of last week, he is driving over to the sister town in his car.

Hans Christensen was looking after some business matters and at the same time visiting his family physician, Dr. G. H. Gilmore at Murray last Monday.

John Clarence and wife last week moved to the home of Mrs. Clarence's mother, Mrs. Mary Klaurens, where they will make their home and care for the mother of Mrs. Clarence.

David Kendall has recently placed a new roof on his country home and is now painting the place to match which will make it only a better house but a better looking one as well.

Messers Bert and Lonnie Clarence who make their home at Bloomfield, were visiting with old time friends in Union and vicinity for the greater part of last and a portion of this week.

Mrs. Ost of Chicago and aunt of Mrs. Charles E. McCarthy, has been enjoying a visit at the McCarthy home for a number of days and also was guest at the home of Mrs. Albertina Ost of Nehawka as well as at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Ost.

W. C. Carrier is painting the new home which Mrs. Fannie Eikenberry has just had completed changing the building from the office building where Dr. W. H. Achenbach had his dental office during his stay here. This is making a very fine cottage and will make a good home for some one.

Charles Greene and wife were over to Omaha on last Sunday where they went to visit with Mr. P. F. Rihn and wife, Mr. Rihn being in the Immanuel hospital where he recently underwent an operation for hernia. They report Mr. Rihn getting along nicely, and hopes are entertained that he will soon be able to return home again.

Mrs. Nancy I. McNamee and daughter, Mrs. R. R. Austin, moved last week into the house where Fred Tigner formerly resided and will make their home there until spring when the time which Jay Austin has rented their place, when they will move to that place. Anne McNamee, who is now in California, will return in the spring and will farm the place.

Rev. C. L. Elliott formerly of this place but who has been in the south where he has been engaged in the ministry, making his home at Sebring, Florida, was a visitor and was looking after some business matters in Lincoln, came down to Union, for a ten-day visit with his many friends here. Since going south to make their home, Mrs. Elliott has sickened and died.

Edgar Fletcher who has been at the hospital at Omaha for some time where he has been receiving treatment for typhoid fever, is reported as being some what improved. It is hoped by his many friends that he may be able to return to his home in the near future. An examination of the water from his well showed one hundred per cent contamination, and which is expected was the cause of his illness. An examination of the water of the Union Water company, showed ninety-eight per cent purity.

Attended Show at Lincoln.
Messers Eugene Roddy and Wade E. Moore were over to Lincoln on last Tuesday, where they were attending the interrogatories which were applied George W. Norris of Broken Bow, because he filed for United States senator for the spring primaries. While they were away Pat Roddy was looking after the drug store.

Land Mark Removed.
The barn which has stood on the land belonging to the Modern Woodman of America, and which has been but a barracks, was ordered removed, and the same was bought by Jefferson D. Cross, and the materials hauled to his farm north of Union.

Old Factoryville Mill and Store.
In some manner, Herman Fahrlander obtained a photo of Factoryville as it looked fifty years ago, and with the dam on the river, and mill, the store and other buildings which then occupied the townsite. He is passing this to L. R. Upton, who had the picture enlarged and prints made.

from them. The picture thus produced is eight by ten inches and presents a very fine view of the mill. Only a few of the houses which comprised the town are left. Mr. Upton is disposing of the pictures enlarged at seventy-five cents and which makes a very fine picture and are much appreciated by the many who remember the former town and when as boys they enjoyed swimming in the creek above the dam.

Will Institute Small Court.
James Fitzgerald and Joseph Dare have formed a co-partnership and will immediately institute a miniature golf course at the bustling city of Weeping Water. They have leased the ground west of the old livery barn where Wm. Dunn for so many years carried on a livery business as well as a feed and sale stable. This will be the second court which Weeping Water will have but as there are many players there and also excellent ones, it looks like this would be a good business venture.

Enjoying Stay at Excelsior Springs.
Daniel L. Lynn and wife, Mr. and Mrs. John Lidgett and Robert E. Hastings, who went to Excelsior Springs, Mo., a short time since are enjoying their treatment there and are hoping that it will result in much better health for all. They are taking their baths daily and are receiving treatment to eradicate the rheumatism, which has been troubling some of the party for a long time.

Returned to Union.
The Rev. H. F. Beebe, pastor of the Methodist church of Union and Wyoming, has been returned to his charge here and will minister to the two churches for another year. Rev. Beebe is well liked and has been doing good work here and will continue to serve the people of the two places the very best.

Making Trip South.
D. R. Frans and wife and their son, James, and Mrs. Jennie Frans, mother of Mr. Frans, are spending some time in Missouri, their first stop being St. Joseph, but they will stop much of that portion of Missouri before returning. Mr. W. A. Taylor is looking after the business at the lumber yard while they are away.

Will Preach Sunday.
The Rev. W. B. Jenkins of Lincoln will be in Union and will conduct the services on Sunday morning at the Baptist church and to which service there is extended a very cordial invitation for all to come and enjoy the devotions. In connection with this service will be a service for the young people and there will be an effort to organize a Baptist Young People's Union. Come all and assist in making this a most worth while meeting. Remember the time of Sunday morning at eleven o'clock.

Addresses Methodist Young People.
On last Sunday night by special invitation the Rev. W. A. Taylor addressed the Epworth League of the Methodist church of Union, where there was a large and very enthusiastic gathering of the young people of the church as well as many of the older ones.

JIM REED IS HOME AGAIN
New York—Former Senator Reed of Missouri, returned Monday from a three months vacation abroad with no idea as to whether he was on the verge of a war or what was the political or economic condition of the countries he visited.
"I can't see that a man traveling across a country can form any intelligent opinion of that country's condition, economic or political," the former senator remarked, smiling.
"I can say that I am mighty glad to get back to the United States after a summer abroad," and he squinted thru the thick glass of the smoking room of the liner at the slowly appearing New York skyline.
Mr. Reed had nothing to say of his own ambitions or the possibility of his nomination for the presidency in 1932—he was an active candidate for the democratic nomination in 1928.
"Political prophecies are a very dangerous thing," he remarked, then added, with a twinkle: "We have had one panic they can't blame on the democrats, past, present or future."

STRAUS WILL BE FILED
New York—Simon William Straus, banker and financier, bequeathed a large part of an estate of unannounced value to his three daughters, his will, filed Monday, disclosed. With the exception of specific bequests, the will decreed that all his property shall be held in trust for Mrs. Herbert S. Martin, Mrs. Louise Celestin and Mrs. Vladimir B. Rachevsky, the daughters. In addition, Mrs. Rachevsky received $100,000 outright.
Mrs. Straus' widow was not mentioned in the will because he made provision for her support some years ago. The institutions to be selected by Mrs. Straus. The will provided that a good part of the fund is to go to Chicago institutions.
Cash legacies to grandchildren, sisters and other relatives totaled about $300,000.

Methodists Choose Omaha for Next Year

Conference appointments Read at Close of Annual Session—Benevolences Low

Lincoln, Neb., Sept. 23.—Nebraska Methodists will hold their seventy-first annual conference at the First Methodist church in Omaha early in September, 1931. The exact date will be announced after the mid-winter meeting of the board of bishops at which time the dates for all conferences are set.

The seventeenth session of the Nebraska conference closed here this afternoon with the reading of appointments for the coming year by Bishop Frederick D. Leete of Omaha. The cabinet composed of the presiding bishop and the district superintendents make the appointments. John R. Bucknell of Friend was unanimously re-elected conference secretary. S. Terry Geiger of Ericson will serve another year as conference statistician. H. G. Langley of Superior was re-elected conference treasurer and B. O. Lyle of Omaha was renominated treasurer of conference expenditures.

A. E. Chadwick of Lincoln was re-elected conference postmaster. He has served continuously in this post since 1889.

Despite a decrease of $70,436 in the grand total of benevolences received by the conference during the fiscal year Sept. 1, 1929 to August 31, 1930, increases were shown in some of the special items. The grand total of conference benevolences for the fiscal year, as reported at the final session was $425,609.

The conference voted down a proposal requesting a change in time of annual conference from September to June. The secretary was instructed to send a vote of confidence to Amos W. W. Woodcock, director of prohibition, in the department of justice at Washington.—World-Herald.

IOWA FARM UNION SAKS HAUGEN BILL

Des Moines, Sept. 19.—The Iowa Farmers' union Friday called upon congress to "reconsider and enact into law the principles of the McNary-Haugen bill," asserting that "the federal farm board has failed utterly to stabilize the price of a single product."
