A. L. Becker is having a new roof placed on his store building and thus protecting the structure. The roof which was placed on the building when it was built has with the years gone to the bad and was needing another roof. With the placing of this new roof on the structure it will be protected for a number of years.
Mr. and Mrs. H. W. Griffin entertained at their home in Union on last Sunday and had for their guests for the day and dinner, Mr. and Mrs. Earl Oldham, and E. M. Griffin and family of Plattsmouth. Miss Miller and family of north of Union. All enjoyed the day very much, and were rejoiced to receive the good news that Arley Griffin, brother of Horace who is in the navy would be allowed to be mustered out on November 26th and would return to his parent's home at Plattsmouth. They also received the notice of the departure of another brother, Albert Griffin from Annapolis who sailed a few days since and will pass through the Panama canal and go to San Francisco, where his fleet will spend the winter.

Remember the Red Cross.
The opening day of the roll call for the Red Cross was observed in Union by some twenty answering the roll call and the matter of the work has started off nicely. Do not forget this matter for this order is doing an excellent service in every avenue of endeavor for the benefit of suffering humanity. Every dollar you pay goes to relieve some one's distress, hunger, suffering or for something badly needed by some sick or needy person. See the officers when they come around to see you.

Union schools furnished some excellent music.
Also Miss Augusta Robb spoke, introducing the Red Cross work in the county as she is county chairman, and was followed by Mrs. Ivan Bal-four who spoke of the precinct work or the liberty precinct branch, both of which were encouraging.
Building a Corn Crib.
W. H. Porter was building a crib as the corn pickers are hustling and keeping Uncle Bill hustling to keep out of the way of the pickers with some place to store the corn. Mr. Porter says that he is surely pleased with the crop with which he has been blessed as it is larger and better than he has grown on his place for a number of years.
Entertain the W. C. T. U.
Mrs. W. H. Porter and Mrs. J. C. Snavely were hostesses at the home of Mrs. Porter on last Tuesday afternoon to the Woman's Christian Temperance Union, when they all enjoyed a very fine gathering and an excellent program which was sponsored by Mrs. Mary Allison, the leader. The genial hostess also provided a very fine luncheon for all present.
Passes Bad Check.
A man entered the drug store of Wade Moore last week and announcing that he wanted to purchase some drawing materials and paper, selected them to the amount of forty cents and frisked his pockets and did not find any money, so producing a check from a construction company for seven dollars, proceeded to endorse it and asked if he could pay for the goods with the check which he was allowed and given the balance in change. Working the check's way through the mails to the bank of what was claimed issued, the check returned no funds. Immediately Mr. Moore got busy and with the assistance of Sheriff's Reed and Ryder located the man in Omaha and when last heard of the sheriff was after him.
New Heating Plant Installed.
The Bank of Union has a new heating plant installed in their building which will adequately care for the heating of the building. The new heater was installed by L. R. Upton of Union, they preferring to have the plant installed by a local man whom they could see when they wanted to and know it was a reliable plant.
Served Dinner at Propst Building
The ladies of the Methodist church served dinner on Tuesday, Armistice day and their regular day for the dinner for the Business Men's club, and had just a score at the dinner which was a fine one. The president of the club P. F. Rihn, urged the attendance at every meeting of as many as could make it possible to attend as it generated a better feeling between the citizens of Union and fostered a community spirit, which was beneficial in every way. He also complimented the ladies for their good dinner.
Superintendent of schools Marsell also spoke relative to the co-operation of the business men and citizens with the schools and extended a cordial invitation for citizens generally to visit the school and to know first hand what was being done at the schools.
John Skulling of Lincoln was present and spoke of the intention of the Lincoln Telephone Co., to soon erect a building for the plant at Union. Mr. Skulling was manager of the exchange at Greenwood for a number of years and has spent some twenty years in Cass county. A short time ago he was sent to Cedar Crossing and from there taken to Lincoln to be placed in charge of the plant department of the company which position he is now occupying.
Plowing His Garden.
Last Tuesday E. J. Mougay was plowing his garden and this is not so bad for Armistice day, November 11.
Married at Parsonage.
On last Thursday, November 6th, at the home of Rev. and Mrs. W. A. Taylor of Union was performed the wedding ceremony which bound the lives of Miss Minnie M. Gunther, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Rudolph Gunther of Beatrice, Nebr., and Mr. Fred Wessel, son of Mr. and Mrs. Jacob Wessel of south of Nehawka. The wedding ceremony was performed by Rev. W. A. Taylor. The young people will make their home south of Nehawka where they will farm. They are well and favorably known and are among the best people of their respective localities. Mr. Wessel is well known in Union and surrounding territory. The Journal with their many friends extend best wishes to the young people and express the wish for a long, happy and prosperous life.
Kicked by a Hog.
When anything is coming to a person, whether justly or not, it seems he cannot dodge it, for while J. W. Woodard was working with his hogs and was vaccinating them, one gave a kick and a bounce, kicking Mr. Woodard on the leg in a way that put him out of the running for some time. While that was last week he is still quite lame, but is able to get about some now.
Making Drain for Water.
The Missouri Pacific which has a tank for the supplying of the engines with water, finds that in the tank the dirt and sediment will accumulate after a time and the tank has to be drained to get the sediment out. So the company has employed Mr. Emery Hathaway to excavate a place for the reception of the water in order that it may not flood the lands of Blair Porter, which is adjacent.

Making the Home Modern.
Orville Hathaway has been doing and having a great deal of work done on the home of late, and among the last has installed a bath room and also made the home modern with water and also sewage in the shape of a cell pool and septic tank which will care for all the waste waters.
Episcopal Woman's Auxiliary.
The Woman's Auxiliary of the Episcopal church held their regular meeting at the home of Augusta Robb Nov. 7th. Being a missionary program, no business was transacted. Guests from the Baptist and M. E. missionary societies to the number of ten were present. Twenty-five per invited.
After the devotional service the program opened with a birdseye view of the foreign and domestic field of the Episcopal church dwelling more on the field in Alaska of 26 missions, reading a letter from a United Thank Offering missionary at work at Alakaket in extreme north.
This letter was a reply to one the Auxiliary had written to Miss Amelia Hill in June. She has been relieved by another worker and goes to New York for continued study.
Mrs. J. D. Cross gave the work of the Methodist church at work in the home field work accomplished in schools and hospitals and the Mother Jewel Home at York.
Mrs. Chas. Garrison presented the Baptist missionary work in India, at Nellore, south and in Assam eastern. Many workers in the field and the achievements accomplished by schools and dispensaries in the southeastern and central provinces.
It was most interesting to bring these groups together in this mission study and it is hoped to have another one. The program was interspersed with hymns and short talk by Miss Florence Davis, one of our former workers.
Another pleasant feature was having Mrs. W. W. Barnes, wife of our former rector of Christ Church, Wyoming present. Mrs. Barnes is a nurse at the Masonic Home in Plattsmouth.
At the close of the program light refreshments were served by the hostess.
Were Entertained.
Last Wednesday John Lidgett and wife, D. Lynn and wife and R. E. Hastings were beautifully and bountifully entertained at the home of J. R. Dysert and wife, three miles south and west of Union at their country home.
Have Pleasant Callers.
A few evenings ago just as the electric lights snapped on and I was comfortably located in the rocker, smoking my pipe, reading the evening news all of a sudden there was quite a commotion on the porch and it continued clear against the door. Then I went to the door to investigate as to the intrusion. And there to my surprise was a bunch of Nebraska City friends, consisting of Roy Haskins and wife, Miss Ada Chandler and mother and a neighbor friend of theirs which were invited into the home of D. Lynn and wife and R. E. Hastings. After all were comfortably seated conversation started about the early settlement of Nebraska City as some of the parties were born and raised there and I myself first landed there from a river steamer seventy-one years ago. From one subject to another was continued until finally one of the party looked at the clock and said if we hear the clock strike twelve at home we must crank up the car and start. At this a general movement at once developed and all were gone. We can say thank you for the visit and welcome any time hereafter. Respectfully D. Lynn and wife and R. E. Hastings, Union, Nebr.

The Vinton Athletics of Omaha, a fast football organization of that city, were held scoreless yesterday by the Plattsmouth Athletics on the local field, the game being hard fought on both sides and without a score on either side when the final whistle sounded.
The game was largely fought in mid field with but few threats of scoring by the two teams. The visitors looked threatening in the second quarter of the game when they were able to make first downs through the local line but the defense of the Plattsmouth team strengthening, they were able to hold the visitors at the critical stages of the game.
Both teams resorted to many passes but few of these were completed and then for short gains.
The game was featured by much roughness and penalties were handed out by Referee Frank Gradoville of Nebraska, on both teams.
The officials of the game were Frank Gradoville, referee, Robert Hirz, umpire and timekeeper and E. G. Shellenbarger, head linesman.
