

Alvo News

LOCAL NEWS

SILK SALE

GREENWOOD

in their car and visited for over the holiday with their friends there. They found the old town much changed but still many of the old time friends still there.

PUBLIC GOOD PUT FIRST

Washington — The assertion that regardless of the causes and responsibility for existing distressing conditions in the country, the leadership of the democratic party is "more interested in the national welfare than in seeking party advantage," was made Thursday by Representative McDuffie of Alabama.

broader national vision rather than a local or selfish (one is needed and democrats will, as they have in the past, put patriotism above partisanship." McDuffie said he could not construe the statement of a group of democratic leaders and more recently by Pottett Shouse, chairman of the democratic national executive committee as being "in any wise indicative or suggestive or to avoid a single responsibility."

C. D. Gans, attorney, was called to Plattsouth on last Wednesday to look after some business matters for a short time.

Frank L. Edwards is pleased that he has all the corn picked and in the crib and that he used the good weather for the purpose.

Miss Hazel Pool was spending Thanksgiving and the remainder of the week at the home of her parents, Clarence Pool of Weeping Water.

Mrs. Simon Rehmeier who has been rather poorly for some time past is reported as being much improved and for which she and friends are pleased.

E. L. Nelson was looking after some business matters in Lincoln on last Wednesday where he went for a load of groceries and meats for the store here.

S. C. Boyles and wife were visiting on last Wednesday at the home of friends in Lincoln and also looking after some business matters as well there.

John Elliott and wife were guests for the evening on last Sunday at the home of their friends, Mr. and Mrs. Elmer Rosenow where all enjoyed the visit very much.

Miss Peggy Saunders, one of the teachers in the public schools, who makes her home at Plainview, was spending Thanksgiving and the remainder of the week with her friends at Grand Island.

Mr. and Mrs. Lyle Miller entertained at their country home for the day and for an excellent dinner on Thanksgiving day, they having as their guests for the occasion Messrs. and Mesdames Elmer and Carl Rosenow.

Ben Swanson and the good wife living west of Alvo were pleased on last Thursday when they entertained a number of their friends from near Waverly, they being Andrew Johnson and family, Bert Johnson and family and Edward Johnson and family. The day was sure most pleasantly spent.

Wrecked Machine Shed. W. H. Warner, who is possessed of a number of items of machinery in the line of shellers, threshing machines and clover hullers, has had them stored in a shed of John W. Banning to protect them from the weather. On last Tuesday when the high winds came the shed was wrecked and torn from the machinery inside and Mr. Warner had to make arrangement for the protection of his property. He had been tendered the use of a piece of ground at the home of W. C. Timlin, northeast of town, which he accepted and is now at the task of building a shed to house his machinery.

Visiting in the West. Charles F. Rosenow departed on last Tuesday evening for Minnesota where he went to visit for a time with his son, Verle Rosenow and family, who make their home there. Mr. Rosenow will remain for about two weeks.

Enjoyed Fine Dinner. Mr. and Mrs. C. D. Ganz enjoyed the having his father, Charles Ganz of Dunbar, and who was also accompanied by Mr. and Mrs. Guy Hinsley and family and Robert Ganz and family, a brother, also of Dunbar, all driving over to enjoy the family gathering and which was much enjoyed by the visitors as well as Mr. Ganz and family.

Parents and Teachers Meet. One day last week the association for the betterment of the schools, the Parents and Teachers Association, had a very interesting and worthwhile meeting at the school building of State Superintendent Taylor, who spoke to the benefits derived by the co-operation of the parents and the teachers in getting the very best out of the schools.

Entertained for Thanksgiving. Mr. and Mrs. Simon Rehmeier entertained at their home in Alvo on last Thursday and had for the occasion a number of their friends to enjoy the Thanksgiving with them, when all sure spent a pleasant day. These were there for the occasion, Frank E. Cook and family of east town, Mr. and Mrs. H. D. Richardson and family of Kearney, A. J. West and family of Lincoln. Both the families from away were former residents of Alvo and the getting together of the families under such a auspicious occasion was indeed a very great pleasure.

To Winter in South. Miss Dorothy, departed one day last week for Wichita where they will remain for the most of the winter and will make their home with other daughters of Mrs. Peter-who make their home there.

Upsets Corn Wagon. Gales which prevailed all afternoon on last Tuesday was playing pranks and among other things upset the corn picking wagon owned by Sutton as that gentleman driving the same to the field to corn.

From Thursday's Daily— Mr. and Mrs. Fred Armstrong departed this morning for Lincoln where they enjoyed the holiday season in that city with the relatives and friends.

George Busch and family of Chanute, Kansas, are here to spend the holiday at the home of their parents, Mr. and Mrs. Fred P. Busch and to enjoy an outing.

Misses Agnes and Gertrude Brink departed this morning for Hastings where they will spend a few days in that city visiting at the home of the relatives and friends.

Mr. and Mrs. William Baird are at Denver where they will enjoy a visit with their daughter and son-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Harley Cecil, and to spend the Thanksgiving day there.

F. G. Fricke and daughter, Miss Dora, departed this morning for Ashland, Nebraska, where they are to be the guests of Mr. and Mrs. Edwin Fricke over Thanksgiving and to visit with the other relatives in that city.

Mike Warga, Sr., of Havelock, was here today to enjoy a few hours visiting with his relatives and friends and viewing the old home community where he resided for so many years.

Mr. and Mrs. J. E. Worley and children of Lincoln arrived here last evening for a short visit at the home of Mrs. V. Leonard, mother of Mrs. Worley, departing this morning in company with Mrs. Leonard and Miss Verna Leonard to Omaha to spend the holiday season.

From Friday's Daily— Howard Price came down from Omaha last night for a few days' visit with his aunt, Mrs. W. P. Sitzman, and family.

Attorney J. C. Bryant of Ashland was a visitor in the city today attending to some matters in the county and district court.

Miss Leula Carter, an instructor at Doane college, Crete, Nebraska, is spending the week end with her cousin, Miss Olive Gass.

Mrs. Joseph Manacek and Miss Laura Grassman of Omaha were here over Thanksgiving, enjoying a visit with relatives and friends.

Misses Amelia and Anna Heisel departed this morning for Lincoln where they will spend the day visiting with friends at that place.

Dr. N. D. Talcott and W. E. Pailing of Greenwood were in the city today to looking after some matters of business in the county court.

Former U. S. Senator E. J. Burkett of Lincoln was in the city today to spend a few hours attending to some matters in the district court.

Willis Hartford of Fort Dodge, Iowa, who was here over Thanksgiving to enjoy the day at the home of his parents, Mr. and Mrs. C. E. Hartford, returned this morning to his duties.

J. M. Craig, an old time resident of this city, is here to enjoy a visit at the old home and with the friends of many years standing in this community.

Mrs. Mary M. Davis was in the city over Thanksgiving as a guest at the home of her son, Earl S. Davis and family, returning this morning to her home at Lincoln.

10,000 dress-length remnants of finest silk to be cleared by mail regardless. Every desired yardage and color. All 39 inches wide. Let us send you a piece of genuine $6 Crepe Paris (very heavy flat crepe) on approval for your inspection. If you then wish to keep it mail us your check at only $1.90 a yard. (Original price $6 a yd.) Or choose printed Crepe Paris. Every wanted combination of colors. We will gladly send you a piece to look at. What colors and yardage, please? If you keep it you can mail us check at $1.25 a yd. (Final reduction. Originally $6 a yd.)

All $2 silks, $2 satins and $2 printed crepes are 90c a yd. in this sale. Every color. Do not ask for or buy from samples. See the whole piece you are getting before deciding. We want to be your New York reference so tell us all you wish to about yourself and describe the piece you want to see on approval. Write NOW. Send no money. To advertise our silk thread, we will send you a spool to match free.

CRANE'S Silks, 545 Fifth Ave., New York City

at the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. E. H. Wescott and family. Miss Wescott is secretary to the pastor of one of the largest churches in Des Moines.

Finest Christmas cards at Bates Book Store and the new Journal stationery and office supply department. Sure, we can imprint them for you, too.

JURY UNABLE TO AGREE New York—A jury which deliberated thru Wednesday night on the case of Martin J. Healy and Thomas T. Tommaney, politicians charged with bartering a judicial office, was discharged Thursday because it could not agree on a verdict. The case involved a charge that Healy accepted a $10,000 loan, thru Tommaney, from Mrs. George F. Ewald as a bribe for getting her husband an appointment as city magistrate in 1927.

Healy was Tammany leader of Ewald's home district. Both Prosecutor Todd and Defense Counsel Syme asked for early retrial of the case. The trial began Nov. 7. Healy and Tommaney insisted at the trial that the $10,000 borrowed from Mrs. Ewald was a legitimate loan.

FOR SALE Several good Hampshire male hogs. Phone 3114. Perry Nickles, Murray, Neb. n10-Stw.

DEMOCRATS LOSE MEMBER New York—Congressman John Francis Guryie, democrat of the Seventh New York district, died suddenly at a hospital Thursday.

Washington—The death of Representative Quayle reduced the number of democrats elected to the seventy-second congress by one, leaving them that much farther from control of the next house. As a result the standing of the parties will be: republicans 218, democrats 215, farmer labor 1, vacancies 1.

Accredited; blood tested. Price $1.50.—Mrs. F. A. Stohman, Louisville, Nebraska. n20-12tw

NORTHWESTERN SHOWS INCOME LOSS OVER 1929 Chicago, Nov. 27.—The Chicago & North Western Railway Co. Thursday reported net income for October of $2,666,474, as compared with $3,442,758 for October, 1929.

FOR SALE I have for sale, at the Chas. Garrison farm, four Spotted Poland China Boars.—John Roddy. n20-4tw Finest line of Christmas cards we have ever had and two places to serve you.—Bates Book Store and Journal office.

ORDER OF HEARING and Notice on Petition for Settlement of Account In the County Court of Cass county, Nebraska. State of Nebraska, Cass county, ss.

To all persons interested in the estate of John Cory, deceased: On reading the petition of Sybil Brantner, Executrix, praying a final settlement and allowance of her account filed in this Court on the 28th day of November, A. D. 1930, and for final settlement of said estate and for her discharge as said Executrix; It is hereby ordered that you and all persons interested in said matter may appear at the County Court to be held in and for said county, on the 26th day of December, A. D. 1930, at 9 o'clock a. m., to show cause, if any there be, why the prayer of the petitioner should not be granted, and that notice of the pendency of said petition and the hearing thereon be given to all persons interested in said matter by publishing a copy of this order in the Plattsouth Journal, a semi-weekly newspaper printed in said county, for three successive weeks prior to said day of hearing.

In witness whereof, I have hereunto set my hand and the seal of said Court, this 28th day of November, A. D. 1930. A. H. DUXBURY, County Judge.

Phillip Reece who has been feeling rather poorly for some time is at this time feeling quite a bit better and is about again.

P. A. Sanborn and the family were enjoying Thanksgiving day with relatives at Crete, driving over to that bustling city early Thursday morning in their car.

Arthur Reece completed the picking of his corn early last week and was sure pleased that he had it done and in the crib. Phillip was assisting in the work.

Col. P. L. Hall and P. A. Sanborn were called over to Lincoln on last Tuesday to look after some business matters, they making the trip in the car of Mr. Hall.

E. A. Leesley has completed the picking of his corn and is well pleased that it is all out. He was not rewarded with as good a return as he desired or as was necessary considering the investment of money, time and labor.

Irvin Conn completed his corn picking last week and after having gotten the corn in the crib was pleased as the crop met fully with his expectations and some more. He is not however, complaining and is glad it is done.

Fred Hoffman keeps busy with his two trucks on which he drives and the other which he has a trusted driver, which makes for the better and more employment as all know that they can depend on the Hoffman lines every time.

Mr. and Mrs. Henry Wilkins were enjoying a visit with the sister of Mr. Wilkins, Mr. and Mrs. Fred A. Bauer of Crab Orchard where they have been making their home for some time past. Mr. and Mrs. Wilkins driving over in their auto for the occasion.

With the closing of all the business houses in Greenwood on Thanksgiving day the business men were released to seek what amusement they desired. Col. Phil Hall took his out in hunting ducks. Just how many he got we do not know nor does it matter, he was out in the open and had an excellent time in the quest.

Miss Hazel Hartsook, who is a teacher in the schools at Red Cloud, was spending the Thanksgiving at home with her parents, Oscar Hartsook and wife, remaining until after the week end. She is now teaching the seventh consecutive year in the schools of that place. She with her parents, all were enjoying the Thanksgiving day and dinner at the home of relatives near Ashland.

Greenwood Transfer Line We do a general business—make trips regularly to Omaha on Monday and Thursday, also to Lincoln Tuesday and Friday. Pick up loads on those trips. Full loads at any time. FRED HOFFMAN.

Spent Thanksgiving in Missouri. S. S. Petersen, who has been spending the past two weeks in Missouri, where he was the guest of his friend Andy Stephens at New Hampton, Mo., remained for over the Thanksgiving day which the two friends enjoyed together.

Made a Good Record. Kenneth Kimbrough who has been in the west picking corn near Oxford, returned last week and was pretty well satisfied with the trip. While he was away he picked corn twenty-six consecutive days and made on an average of a little over ninety bushels per day, which he considers as doing very fair. The crops were some better in the west than here this year.

Purchased New Car. Clyde Newkirk, who operates the Greenwood filling station, and who is sure a clever operator for the place, has purchased a new car, this time getting a Chevrolet sedan and one which will serve himself and family to the best. Besides getting the new car Clyde is ever ready to care for the wants of all who want the very best in gas or oil for their motor cars.

Dale Carpenter Injured. Dale Carpenter who has been on the police force at Lincoln for some time and who has made a good officer, while chasing two speeders on his motor cycle, met with a collision with a truck, receiving some very serious injuries. The accident allowed the speeders to get away. Few of the breakers of the law are able to get away when Dale gets after them.

Had An Excellent Sale. The sale which was held on last Tuesday and a very windy day it was at that, was well attended at the home of Oscar Stewart, and the sale was very satisfactory, the prices running very fair. Mr. Stewart is still in the hospital and remains quite poorly altho slightly improved and it is hoped that he may be able to return in a short time.

Move to New Home. The families of W. A. White and George Bucknell moved on last Wednesday to the house which is owned by Mr. Weidman and which has heretofore been occupied by C. E. Calfee before his departure to Ashland where they are making their home. Messrs. White and Bucknell, after the complete refinishing of the house, will have a very pleasant place to reside.

Bazaar and Supper Given by the Ladies Aid society of the Cedar Creek church, Friday evening, December 5th, at Cedar Creek. Everybody invited. di-2tw.

Phone your news to the Journal.

The Ritz Theatre Plattsouth, Nebr. Beautiful Treasure Chest of Genuine Cannon TOWELS and LINEN FREE TO EVERY LADY FREE patron of our theatre Two Shows Every Night—First Show at 7:00 P. M. SEE DISPLAY IN LOBBY What we Want Every Lady to Know Concerning the Cannon Towel and Linen Distribution Nights in Our Theatre 1—This assortment consists of two complete table services, which include two table cloths, one of them of white hemstitched linen, with six matching hemstitched napkins and a luncheon cloth with four matching napkins; a complete Rayon bedroom ensemble set consisting of four Rayon scarfs and a beautiful bedspread; a fine collection of turkish towels, glass towels, kitchen towels, face cloths, kitchen utility cloths, etc. 2—These will be given to our lady patrons absolutely FREE each Wednesday and Thursday night, commencing Wednesday and Thursday, December 3rd and 4th and continuing every Wednesday and Thursday. These nights will be designated as Cannon Towel and Linen Nights. 3—We want every lady in our community to take advantage of this unusual offer which includes items ranging up to $3.00 in retail value, but the ladies who remain away on nights when the smaller items are being distributed will not receive the expensive pieces, because it would not be fair to you and to our regular patrons or to ourselves. Therefore, each Wednesday and Thursday lady patrons at the Ritz will be given a numbered coupon together with the current item being distributed that particular night, and you will be required to have twelve of these coupons, consecutively numbered, to get the bedspread, or some of the other large items. 4—If you miss one of the big piece coupons, you may secure that necessary numbered coupon and piece distributed on night the coupon was issued by buying the piece at full admission price. 5—Particularly do we want to impress on you that there will be no cheapening of our entertainment on Cannon nights, and we hope you will appreciate the full value of this plan and the nationally known merchandise we are making it possible for you to secure. All Guaranteed Fast Color Cannon Linen of Fine Quality. Values to as high as $3.00 each. And EVERY PIECE FREE with Your Admission Ticket Remember EVERY WEDNESDAY and THURSDAY nights, commencing December 3rd and 4th are LINEN NIGHTS at the RITZ.