Eagle Bank to Contest Claim of Lincoln Firm

Will Oppose the Payment of a Claim Allowed in the District Court Here

The Bank of Eagle, thru its attorney, Sterling F. Mutz, appealed Wednesday to the supreme court from a judgment for $1,635 obtained by the firm of Searle-Chapin Lumber company. Judge Hegley held valid the provision of S. F. 149, laws of 1929, which seeks to make banks a collection agency for drafts and checks received. The statute will be tested further in the supreme court. A draft for a car of grain sold by Searle-Chapin company in October, 1929, was deposited with the defendant bank. A Lincoln bank mailed it to St. Louis for collection Oct. 10. The next day the defendant Bank of Eagle was closed by the department of trade and commerce without having paid the money to the plaintiff. The bank at Eagle was reorganized with new capital and reopened Feb. 8, 1930. It was alleged by the plaintiff that the assets of the bank are impressed with a trust in favor of the plaintiff. The bank's attorneys allege if the judgment under S. F. 149 stands insolvent banks will have to pay all out of town checks in full.

WILL ATTEND CONFERENCE

From Friday's Daily—

Principal R. F. Patterson took four Plattsmouth high school boys to Lincoln today to attend the annual Older Boys Conference sponsored by the state Y. M. C. A. The boys were: Paul Iverson, Robert Mann, Robert Bestor and John Becker. The sessions of the conference began this afternoon and will conclude Saturday night. Heretofore it has been the policy to hold district conventions over the state. This year but one convention is held in Lincoln bringing together over three hundred boys from all over the state who are leaders in their schools.

TEACHER KILLED EN ROUTE TO FAMILY THANKSGIVING

Oakland, Cal., Nov. 27.—Thanksgiving celebration turned to mourning Thursday in the home of Miss Elizabeth Newton, 35, school teacher, who was killed in an auto accident while en route to spend the holiday with her family.

Associated Charities in Child Welfare

Proven a Great Aid to the Children in Caring for Physical Defects

During the past year the Associated Charities have been very active in looking after the physical needs of those in the community unable financially to do this for themselves. The sum of $138.90 has been spent in this remedial work. Mrs. C. A. Rosencrans, county probation officer, is in charge of the work. She has been assisted by Mrs. Fred Lugsch, registered nurse. About twenty children have received aid. Each year the pupils in the public schools are examined by a school nurse, to discover all defects of eye, ear, teeth, nose and throat. The worst cases, when parents are not financially able to have children cared for, are reported to Mrs. Rosencrans.

In order that the public may know what is being done, a few type cases taken care of during the past year will be cited. Space will not permit a detailed account of all. This may be secured by consulting Mrs. Rosencrans' records. One little girl was almost blind on one eye and threatened with losing the sight of the other. The mother had no funds. The child was taken to a specialist and received treatment. The sight of the good eye was saved and the other improved. Glasses were also provided for her. Another child in the same family had a bad case of near-sightedness and as a result was extremely nervous. She was provided with glasses. Both girls have shown marked improvement in their school work since the remedial work was done.

Several children in one family become poisoned. The services of a nurse were provided for the home. All recovered but one.

Scarlet fever was reported from another home. Three children in the family were inoculated and costs were paid from the Associated Charities fund.

Glasses were provided for several children with defective eyes. Others received treatment from specialists for severe cases of eye defects.

Many children are now on the waiting list. Among the defects needing attention are defective tonsils, adenoids, hernia, cavities in teeth, pyorrhea, poor vision. All children on this list will continue to suffer from these defects unless financial help for their correction is available through the Associated Charities fund. Anyone desiring to aid in having these corrections made may do so by subscribing to this fund. A strict accounting is made of all money collected and financial statements will be given from time to time through the columns of the Journal.

WILL SELL PROPERTY

From Saturday's Daily—

The Livingston Loan & Building association which has been in the process of settlement several years since the closing of the company in 1922, is to make a final effort to close up all affairs and make settlements among the various claimants. Last evening a meeting was held of the claimants and seventy-five per cent of the claims were represented at the hearing. It was decided to have the receiver of the company, Searl S. Davis, proceed to close up the property, giving him the authority to ask the district court for an order to sell the property that is now held by the company. The property will be sold at auction, it is expected at this time, the proceeds being turned to those who have claims against the company and closing up the affairs of the loan and building association.

SUFFERING FROM PNEUMONIA

From Saturday's Daily—

Herbert Nelson, Jr., son of Mr. and Mrs. Herbert Nelson, has been confined to his home for the past few days with an attack of pneumonia and which has made the young man quite seriously ill, but he seems to be holding his own very nicely and it is hoped will soon be on the highway to recovery.

Christmas Cards—complete line is now on display at both Bates Book Store and the new Journal stationery department.

Steel Company Banquets Force of Its Workers

Celebrates the Completion of the Steel Work on Louisville Bridge with Banquet

From Thursday's Daily—

Last evening the Omaha Steel Co., who have had the contract for the steel work on the Louisville bridge, made good their promise to the faithful and hard working force that has been engaged on the bridge work, by tendering them a banquet which had been promised if the bridge work was completed by Thanksgiving day.

The event was held in the Odd Fellows hall at Louisville last night and forty-seven of the force, officers of the company and the bridge company officers were present to enjoy the feast that the ladies of Louisville had prepared for them.

The steel company had invited the county commissioners of Cass and Sarpy county to be guests of the occasion and Commissioner Farley of this city with Commissioner John Weiss of Papillion were in attendance at the pleasant event. From this city H. A. Schneider, one of the directors of the company was present to join in the occasion which has brought so much pleasure to the residents of the two counties.

The addresses of the evening were given by the officers of the bridge company, the representatives of the Omaha Steel Co., and the workmen that had constructed the bridge.

The bridge is now ready for the concrete work and will be a matter of a short time until the bridge will be in service.

MEDICAL ASSOCIATION MEETS

The Cass County Medical Association held their annual meeting at Weeping Water on Tuesday evening, the event being held at the Hotel Rest Haven, where a dinner preceded the business of the society.

The members of the society enjoyed the presence of Dr. Taylor, Dr. Eldredge and Dr. Bennett of Omaha, who in the session that followed dinner, gave several addresses on the work of the profession, stressing the developments of the medical healing.

The guest physicians gave very interesting talks along the line of their professional work, Dr. Eldredge speaking on the latest vaccines that are used treatments and have done much to render aid to the sick and suffering. Dr. Bennett discussed the matter of serum treatments in cases of infantile paralysis and Dr. Taylor the modern methods in obstetrics.

The members of the society named as the delegate to the national conference, Dr. M. U. Thomas of Weeping Water with Dr. Liston of Elmwood as an alternate to the meeting.

There were twenty-four members of the association from all parts of Cass county present to enjoy the meeting and the very interesting talks that were a part of the proceedings.

FEEDING REMOVE SURPLUS

Washington—With many millions of bushels of America's wheat surplus going into feed troughs, Chairman Legge of the farm board believes now is the time for millers and stock feeders to buy. He estimated Wednesday that 200,000,000 of the surplus would be used this year for feeding at the present rate.

McKelvie, using the same estimate for feeding, provided a parity continue between wheat and corn prices, estimated the carryover when another crop comes would only be 120,000,000 bushels. This would compare with a carryover July 1 this year of 275,000,000 bushels.

The possibility that Russia would return to her prewar position as a wheat exporter within five years, perhaps sooner, was seen by Legge. He emphasized that insofar as wheat was concerned, production in this country should be reduced to domestic needs.

ANNOUNCE FORTH-COMING MARRIAGE

Mr. and Mrs. A. M. Peterson of Sedalia, Missouri, wish to announce the forthcoming marriage of their daughter, Marie Catherine Peterson to Victor P. Meisinger, son of Mr. and Mrs. John P. Meisinger, Rt. 2, Plattsmouth, Nebraska.

The wedding will take place during the holidays. Miss Marie is a niece of Anton Hasson of this city.

RECEIVES PLEASANT NEWS

From Thursday's Daily—

The message was received here today of the birth yesterday at Los Angeles of a son to Mr. and Mrs. Robert Cappell, formerly of this city. The little one is doing nicely as is the mother and the news was of the greatest pleasure to the relatives and old friends here. Mrs. Cappell was formerly Miss Emma Wohlfarth of this city.

MYNARD AID SOCIETY

The Mynard Aid Society will meet with Mrs. George Snyder on Thursday afternoon, December 4th at 2:30. This will be a Christmas program and all are invited to attend.

"Every child should have some moral and religious training," said Secretary Wilbur, addressing the child conference in Washington. Isn't it astonishing that nobody ever thought of that before.

Sale Starts Tuesday, December 2nd, at 9 a. m.
