

OVER WORKED NERVES

UP TO your ears in work—every nerve at high tension. No wonder you snap at the wife and bark at the children. Watch out! Overworked nerves may lead to Sleeplessness, Nervous Headache, Nervous Indigestion and a host of other unpleasant disturbances. Why don't you try Dr. Miles' Effervescent Nerve Tablets?

W. C. T. U. MEETS

The W. C. T. U. met on Monday afternoon at the home of Mrs. Frank Morgan at the Coronado apartments. Mrs. Fred G. Morgan being the assistant hostess at this most interesting meeting.

Mrs. C. O. Troy, wife of the pastor of the First Methodist church, led the devotions of the afternoon, reading the 121st psalm.

The ladies departing from their usual form of meeting enjoyed a round table reading and discussion of the fifty-sixth national convention of the society which has just closed at Houston, Texas, each member of the group reading a selection from the convention proceedings and all discussing the various plans made for the year.

Mrs. C. A. Troop read a very interesting paper, "Making the Flag" while Mrs. Olive Gass read, "Headquarters of Advisory Committee Against Cigarette Advertising."

The ladies were served a very dainty luncheon by the hostesses at the close of the afternoon and which brought an added pleasure to the occasion.

Dr. D. E. Hansen, George Pollard and Walter J. Wunderlich, were the members of a party who on last Friday visited the school where Miss Velma Stone is the teacher and all highly praise the excellent program and the entire entertainment.

Frank Lemon and the good wife accompanied by Mrs. L. C. Giesler, were over to Lincoln on last Sunday where they went to visit Miss Helen, who is still kept in the hospital since the collision which occurred several weeks since. Miss Helen is showing some improvement but still not well.

Messrs. John T. Dale, Nels Anderson and Herbert Kuntz, were over to Plattsmouth where they were subpoenaed to be witnesses at the trial of the State of Nebraska vs. Edward Murray, but as the appeal of Mr. Murray was not admitted as the appeal was not perfected, they were not called upon to testify.

Messrs. and Mesdames J. G. Wunderlich and John Opp were over to Dunbar on last Sunday where they went to attend the funeral of the late John Ruesch, who formerly resided on the farm now occupied by C. W. Flaischman and wife, and who moved from there to Dunbar some forty years ago. The deceased was 81 years of age and whose wife had died a number of years ago.

Mrs. Jerome St. John Poorly. Mrs. Jerome St. John who has been quite poorly for some time was taken with a more serious spell late last week when she was rendered unconscious by a blood clot coming on the brain, which rendered this excellent woman unconscious and in which state she remained for a number of days. Early this week she was reported as slightly improved. All that medical science and the most scientific nursing has been given and it is hoped that she may rally from the very serious condition in which she has been.

Severe Weather in West. Wm. August, who with the family make their home near Lamar, wrote to friends in Nehawka, telling of the very severe blizzard which visited their section of the west from Tuesday morning until Thursday evening and which they tell of the snow being three feet deep. However the latter portion of this week shows promise of warmer weather and which it is hoped will take the snow off to some extent.

Surprised on Birthday. The friends of Mrs. Nicholas Opp, who are many, getting together last week sought out her birthday anniversary which occurred on last Friday, and going to her home made merry for the afternoon, and besides having a good time they presented this excellent woman with a number of beautiful remembrances on their departure and expressed themselves that she might have many more such happy birthdays.

Country Club Enjoys Meeting. Mesdames E. G. Hanson and John Hanson were hostesses to the Country Club which meets north of Nehawka and which on last Tuesday they entertained. A wonderful good time was had by the ladies and they say that they are always pleased to be able to meet at this hospitable home.

Found Much Snow. Last week C. M. Christweisser who was in the west in search for feeding pigs, returned home and reported having met a blizzard while in the west, and one strip of road found it required two hours to make a distance of fourteen miles. At another place he found that it was necessary to allow his car to remain in the highway and nearly covered with snow, all night. However he was able to go back and is enjoying the fine country about Nehawka where the sun sometimes shines and the snow is not so deep.

Home for Thanksgiving Day. The young ladies of Nehawka who are wrestling with an education at the Nebraska State University, and who were much pleased that there was an opportunity to be home for Thanksgiving day for mother's cooking tasted so good when one has been away for a time, were home and also enjoyed the extra time for they did not have to return until Monday morning this week. Those who came home were Vesta Stone, Pauline Ingwersen and Blanche Chapman. They all returned to their studies on Monday morning.

Suffered Stroke Last Friday. Uncle Z. W. Shrader, who will be eighty-two years of age on the 26th day of January, the coming month, on last Friday suffered a stroke of paralysis, and from which he is slightly reviving. He has not been in the best condition for some time and this finds him in not the best condition to battle the malady. His friends who are legion are hoping that he may soon be better and be able to be out again.

Wise folks choose their Christmas greeting cards early, insuring getting just what they want and allowing ample time for imprinting of their names thereon. A big line to show you at the Bates Book Store or the Journal office.

WEEPING WATER

Mrs. Harold Baker who was so poorly last week is reported as being quite a bit better and hopes are entertained that she will continue to improve.

One Olsen has been shipping much stone to Grand Island where a large addition to the sugar beet factory is being erected at this time, and who getting their stone from the quarries here.

The Jolly Mixers of Weeping Water were entertained by Mrs. Robert Fry, on last Monday when some twenty were present for the fascinating game of pinocle was played. Eds of course, they had a fine luncheon served by Mrs. Fry.

The Ladies Aid of the Methodist church were having a sewing session at the parlors of the church on last Tuesday afternoon when they were making and preparing wearing apparel for the poor, and sure they will find a good many needing the clothing this winter.

A car load of the latest Ford cars was on the track at Weeping Water of which Fred A. Burch received two this making his stock of these cars now five and which enables him to make a good delivery for Christmas and what would be finer present than a good motor car for your friend.

Ernest Williams, brother of John S. Williams, and accompanied by wife and daughter, Miss Stella, arrived from their home at Bourke, South Dakota and enjoyed a visit with the brother and family last Friday and Saturday, they then going to Iowa for a further visit before returning to the land of snow for there is plenty of it there now.

On last Sunday John S. Williams and wife and their daughter, Miss Hazel, were over to Omaha where they visited for the day at the home of their daughter, Mrs. Elmer Belfenberg and her husband of Omaha. They all enjoyed the visit very much as also did Miss Vera Williams another daughter. While they were away Mrs. George Gusset looked after the bakery.

Funeral directors W. L. Hobson and son, Richmond, were called upon to serve at a funeral near Eagle, the funeral being held at the Methodist church of that place. It being that of Mr. Elmer Wilson, 55, living a few miles from Eagle on a farm, who had been sick for some time and died on last Friday of heart failure, leaving only a wife. The interment was made at the Eagle cemetery east of Eagle on the O street highway.

Miss Wilma Bursch who is teaching in the school at Lyons, was a visitor at home for Thanksgiving and for the remainder of the week, enjoyed the visit here very much. On Sunday morning her parents, Fred A. Bursch and wife took the daughter and went to Takamahka where they all enjoyed an excellent Thanksgiving dinner at the home of Mr. and Mrs. B. Bayard of that place. The ladies being sisters. Following the very fine dinner and pleasant visit, Mr. and Mrs. Bursch drove over to Lyons where their daughter, Miss Wilma teaches and leaving her there to take up her work with the school the following day, returned home Sunday evening.

Lyle Reed who has been home for a number of weeks following his recovery after the stroke which wounded him, and was making good progress towards good health again, but during the past few days has been very sick from an infection of the right lung which it was claimed collapsed, and he was hurried again to the hospital where treatment was administered with a slight inflation of the lung, which seemed to again revive the young lad. He was accompanied by the mother who returned to her home here in Weeping Water on Tuesday evening and reported the lad some better. His many friends and they are many, are hoping that he may be on the road to complete recovery again soon.

Brother Dies in West. Sunday morning Charles I. Seely received the sad news of the death of his eldest brother, William H. Seely, who had passed away the night before, Saturday evening at the sanitarium of the Modern Woodmen of America, of which he was a member and where he was stopping to recuperate his lost health that he might undergo an operation for the restoration of his health. It will be remembered that Mr. Seely and family resided in Weeping Water several years ago and one of the daughters graduated from the high school of this place before they moved to the west. Mr. and Mrs. Seely were married about twenty-five years ago. He having been born in Ottawa county, Kansas, March 28th, 1856. He leaves to mourn his death the wife and two daughters, they residing in California. Also one brother, Charles L. Seely, our townsman of Weeping Water, two sisters, Mrs. Sadie Hurest of Denver, Colorado and Mrs. Mabel Comline of Long Beach, California. During recent years Mr. Seely had been engaged in the oil and gasoline business in the west.

Good health had prevented him from working during the recent months and it was with the hope of getting stronger that he might undergo an operation for the restoration of his health that he was at the Modern Woodman camp. The funeral was set for Thursday afternoon, this week in order that his brother, Charles I. Seely of this place might attend but it was so that Mrs. Seely of this place could not get away. Mr. Seely has the sympathy of his host of friends in Weeping Water and over the state.

Looks Like Christmas. A number of the stores of Weeping Water are looking like there was a show of Santa Claus coming this way, and among those which we notice were the two drug stores who have on display a line of Christmas goods, Miss Agnes Rough has on display some very fine goods for the feminine in the matter of head apparel which looks like they would make some fine Christmas goods. The store of G. P. Day, Cris Rasmussen, C. H. Gibson and Knute Jensen are all loaded with good things for the Sunday dinner and as to that for a dinner or any other meal any time. The Williams bakery sure are loaded with good things to eat. The Weeping Water variety store has a line of Christmas goods which makes the youngsters open their eyes. For it looks like Santa headquarters and a veritable toyland itself. Take a peep and see. Do not forget the store of Spencer Marshall which is primarily for men, and filled with many goods but they carry many fine articles of wear for the women as well.

Aged Citizen Passes Away. On last Wednesday Mrs. Mary Etta Kreider, wife of John Alton Kreider, who has made her home in Weeping Water for many years, after a sickness extending over many years, passed away at their home in Weeping Water. The cause of death was pneumonia. Miss Mary Etta Meyers was born at Greenwood, Iowa, on May 29, 1853, and lived there for many years, coming to Iowa, on her 22nd birthday. They then moved to Blanchard, Iowa, where they made their home for 27 years. They came to Weeping Water to reside eighteen years ago and have lived here since. Mrs. Kreider was highly respected and loved by a host of friends. The husband was a member of the Grand Army of the Republic, and of which there are but few now remaining. He was a fier during the war of the rebellion. The funeral was held at the Menonite church of Weeping Water, conducted by Rev. L. P. Ramer, pastor of the church and the interment had at the Oakwood cemetery of Weeping Water. Funeral directors W. L. Hobson and son cared for the body and the interment.

Dies in the West. Ralph Keckler and wife returned on last Wednesday from Hemmingsford where they were called on account of the death of S. C. Keckler, who died at that place on last Saturday night from a cancer of the liver. Mr. S. C. Keckler was born at Falls City and was forty-six years of age. Mr. Keckler when a boy with his parents moved to Cass county locating on a farm. He was united in marriage to Miss Hulda Brunck from which union there were three children born, they being now grown and are all making their home at Hemmingsford. They have been married about twenty-five years. Mr. Keckler since having reached his majority had been engaged in the grain business, first having an elevator at Manley and later for three years conducting the farmers elevator at Union, than for some thirteen years at Arriba, Colorado. But a year and a half since he accepted the management of the mercantile establishment where he was employed when he was stricken with the last sickness. The funeral was held on last Tuesday and was attended by Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Keckler and Edward Murphey of Weeping Water. The interment was at Hemmingsford.
