Griffin, of Union, who with another son, Arley Griffin, who has just returned from the navy were visiting from their home at Plattsmouth west to Lincoln where they were guests of John Griffin and family, stopped at Union on their way home and visited with the family of H. W. Griffin for a time last Sunday.

Fleming W. Robb and son, John, and daughter, Miss Jane, of Lincoln, were visiting in Union for the day last Sunday and were dinner guests at the home of Mr. Mont Robb and daughter, Miss Agusta. They also visited with Mrs. Flemming Robb at Omaha, where she is convalescing at the Methodist hospital, following an operation and is expected to be able to return home in a short time.

Thinking of Amusement Parlor
One of the citizens of Union has been thinking of asking for a permit for the operation of an amusement parlor, which will be for pool and billiards and the like, carrying a stock of candies, cigars and tobacco. Within the next few weeks the proposition will probably be presented to the city dads for their action.

Received Good Roll Call.
The ladies having charge of the roll call for Union for the Red Cross, are pretty well pleased over the result of the canvass. They were pleased to have a response of 69 answer the roll call and received a donation of four dollars, making in all $73 and for which they are expressing their thanks to the generous citizenry.

Mynard Club Selects Officers for Year 1931

Chris Spangler Selected as the New Head of the Organization—
Have Fine Time

Mynard Community club held its annual election of officers on Friday night, Nov. 28. The meeting was called to order by the president, C. L. Wiles. After the "community sing" and the minutes, reports of committees were in order. The chairman of the house committee reported that the roof of the stage needed repair- ing. The treasurer reported a balance of $76.58 in the treasury. Mrs. C. C. Barnard reported a membership for the Red Cross of forty-five at least, with some others promised which would bring the list near fifty-five. The election resulted as follows:

President—Chris Spangler.
Vice-President—Mrs. E. H. Spangler.
Secretary—Mrs. C. L. Wiles.
Treasurer—Julius Pitz.

The president, Mr. Wiles, spoke a few words commending the faithful work of C. C. Barnard, chairman of the house committee, and a rising vote of thanks was given to him. Mr. Barnard responded with a few words of appreciation but he claimed that the credit was not his alone as he had some willing helpers. Mrs. E. H. Spangler suggested that they give the retiring president a hand as he had been a very efficient officer, and "the hand" was given with enthusiasm.

After the business meeting had adjourned, the members of the club and their families enjoyed a delicious oyster stew, which had been prepared by Mrs. Ida Cole and her assistants. They also enjoyed a pleasant visit together as they sat about the long table like a big happy family.

The new officers selected their committees as follows: West Program committee, Royal Smith, Lawrence Leonard, Mrs. Myron Wiles; East Program committee, Roy Cole, Homer Spangler, Vivian Livingston; Refreshment chairman, Mrs. Sherman Cole, Mrs. John Valley; Fellowship: A. W. Leonard, Mrs. C. C. Barnard; Beautification, Mrs. Kettlehut, C. L. Wiles; House, C. C. Barnard, Fred Spangler; Reporter, W. T. Richardson; Song Leader, Mary Ellen Valley; Pianist, Mrs. Elbert Wiles.

As the December meeting will come so close to Christmas the present plans are to combine with the local church in a program for Christmas Eve.

FAIRVIEW SCHOOL NOTES

After our study of the officers of the National Congress, our Junior Citizens club decided a Sergeant-at-Arms could be used in our meetings. We elected Winifred Kaffenberger for this.

We decided to discontinue the mail box and postmaster till after Christmas.

The first and second graders made a poster for fresh air last week on which they received stars each day. They have to sleep with their windows open and play out of doors every night and morning, recesses, and noons. They made Thanksgiving booklets and cut paper models for a Thanksgiving table.

The ones who have a perfect attendance for this year are Ruth and Marie Alexen, Fred Terryberry, Carey Zimmerman, Virginia Kaffenberger, Winifred Kaffenberger, Phyllis Jean Kaffenberger, Pauline, Lloyd and Floyd Jordan, and Shirley Terryberry.

There has been many visitors this year. They are Mildred and Betty Alexen, Norene Kaffenberger, J. R. Mayfield, Mr. and Mrs. Jess Terryberry, Carl, Elmer and Mattie Alexen, Mrs. Chris Zimmerman, Mrs. Fred Hell, Mr. and Mrs. Albert Hennings, Louis Wagner, Fred Kaffenberger, Miss Alpha Peterson, Mrs. Dan Terryberry, Mrs. Robert L. Jordan, Mary Wagner, Selma and Mildred Hell.

We are giving a program Friday night Dec. 5, 1930, and everyone is cordially invited.

MORE NEWS FROM SANTA

All of Toyland knows that Santa Claus has been invited by the children of Plattsmouth to visit them with his reindeer and give these children an opportunity to tell him their Christmas wishes. All Toyland knows that preparations for Santa's start are completed and that Santa Claus with Dasher and Dancer leave Toyland tomorrow.

Great difficulties will be encountered on this trip. Many dangers must be evaded if the children of Plattsmouth are not to be disappointed. Santa's party will travel over vast, unknown fields of ice and snow. Hour after hour they will travel through darkness. Hour after hour the gallant, lionhearted tiny reindeer will fly over unknown lands, encountering blizzards, and snow driven by winds of unmeasured velocity. Wives may attempt to pull his reindeer down.

On the eve of this dangerous journey, Santa Claus has gathered Toyland together in Toyland's Chapel that they may seek the protection of that all knowing, all powerful Ruler of the Universe. The children of the world are asked to join in the petition for Santa's guidance.

Please, Heavenly Father, guide, protect and bless our Santa Claus and all his party. Through Thy love enable him to create happiness in the hearts of millions and may the laughter of little children be the reward of all who have helped make this blessed Christmas season possible.
