

Nehawka

Henry Hill of Murray was a visitor in Nehawka on last Monday and was also looking after some business matters while here.

John H. Steffens was called to Plattsmouth on last Monday as a witness in a case which was being heard in the district court.

Mrs. Oscar Kiel of Eagle was a visitor in Nehawka for a few days extending over the week end, and was visiting at the home of Mrs. Nicholas Opp.

Otto Wohlfarth of Plattsmouth, salesman for the Plattsmouth Motor company was looking after business in Nehawka, for his company last Monday.

Mrs. L. M. McVey and son, Harry, were enjoying a visit at the home of Mr. and Mrs. C. M. Christweiser, where they were dinner guests and for the day.

Mrs. John Perry of Los Angeles, Calif., is visiting with friends and relatives in Cass county, visiting with friends about Mynard, Murray and Nehawka.

Marion Tucker, manager of the Sheldon Department Store was called to Plattsmouth on last Monday where he was to testify in a case in the district court.

Mrs. A. B. Taylor who makes her home with her sister, Mrs. Z. W. Shrader has been quite ill for some time and still is poorly though she is somewhat better.

J. C. Hansen and wife of Omaha, were guests for the day on last Sunday with their son, Dr. D. E. Hansen of Nehawka, where all enjoyed a very pleasant visit.

Dr. David E. Hanson has purchased a new radio, which he had installed in his office, and is able to keep in touch with things which are transpiring over the country.

Peter Opp who has been spending some time with his daughter, Mrs. W. T. Black of Omaha, returned to Nehawka on last Saturday and will spend the holidays here.

Alfred Anderson and the family of Omaha were guests for the day on last Sunday at the home of Mrs. Albert, mother of Mrs. Anderson, and where all enjoyed the visit.

The home of Ray Campbell was made glad on last Sunday morning, when a little girl baby came to their home. All are getting along nicely and all is happiness in the home.

Frank Kepling and mother, Mrs. Herman Kepling, and sister, Mrs. Mathilda Hempke, all of Walton were visiting at the home of J. G. Wunderlich and wife for the day on last Sunday.

Leo Switzer was spending the present week in Plattsmouth where he was serving on the jury in the district court, and is kept busy with the puzzling cases which are being presented to him.

Mrs. Albert Wolfe has been quite ill for the past four or five days with bronchitis, and was kept to her bed for some time, but is now able to be up again, and still feeling the effects of the illness.

Miss June Peck of near Nehawka has been very ill, and her grandmother, Mrs. W. A. Lewis was over for a number of days last week caring for the little Mrs. Peck, who is, however, some better at the time.

Mr. and Mrs. C. A. Rosencrans and their little son of Plattsmouth, were in Nehawka for the day on last Sunday, they being guests at the home of Mr. and Mrs. John G. Wunderlich, parents of Mrs. Rosencrans, and where all enjoyed the visit very much.

Thomas E. Fulton and the good wife were over to Plattsmouth on Tuesday of this week, where they were attending the funeral of the late Robert Troop, who was a neighbor for many years when Mr. Fulton was a blacksmith north of Nehawka and Mr. Troop was a farmer.

W. O. Troop and family were called to Plattsmouth on last Sunday by the very severe illness of their son, Robert Troop of that place who was very ill with bronchitis, and who at the hour of noon passed away, the funeral being held from the home on Tuesday afternoon and the interment had at the Oak Hill cemetery of that place.

Z. W. Shrader of Nehawka, 82 years of age died Sunday evening after having sustained two strokes of paralysis. Mr. Shrader was born in Missouri and has lived in Nebraska and Cass county for the past sixty years. He is a large land owner and had retired from active farming some 15 years ago. He leaves the widow, two sons and two daughters.

Robert Troop and wife with their little daughter, were over to Omaha on last Sunday afternoon where they went to meet Miss Mary Troop who was coming from Beatrice to Plattsmouth, called on the extreme illness of Uncle Robert Troop of Plattsmouth, who passed away at noon Sunday, a few hours before his sister Miss Mary Troop, was able to get there.

While Carl Stone was endeavoring to ride a colt, and which he wished to make safe for democracy, or any other party, as far as that goes, and had about gotten the fiery animal so that it was safe, it became frightened and shied, throwing Mr. Stone from its back and fracturing his collar bone. The injury was reduced and Mr. Stone is getting along, although still suffering from the injury and very sore from his fall.

Losses Number of Hogs. At the home of C. D. Gearey north of town, he having a hoist, for the unloading of heavy water from wagons and trucks, which had stood there for some time and was thought to be substantial, but a strong wind blew it down, catching three of his hogs as it fell, killing them, and barely missing Mr. Gearey who was near the hogs and doing some feeding. The loss of the hogs was considerable, and the loss was severely felt by Mr. Gearey, but very fortunate was it that he escaped, for when it was of such force that it killed three hogs, had it struck Mr.

Gearey he also would have been killed.

Have Excellent Box Social.

At the Eight Mile Grove school which is presided over by Miss S. Sjogren there was held a box social with an excellent program on last Friday evening, which was attended by all who could get in the house and with others who could not find entrance. The program was an excellent one and was well rendered and well received. A neat sum was realized for the use of the school, and to supply such things needed as the board of education are not permitted to spend the school funds for.

Wheat Prices Run Low

Mr. Roy Shrader of Leslie Calgary, where he is engaged in farming was called home last week on account of the extreme illness of his father, Z. W. Shrader, who afterwards died, reported crops as being very good, but the prices very low. As there are places removed from the railroad and with the crops very bad, the people cannot market their grain at all. The price of oats is only ten cents per bushel, while it is not possible to get an offer for barley. One man, a Mr. Perry, formerly from near Murray has some 20,000 bushels of wheat which he cannot get to market and should he be so fortunate he would only receive forty cents per bushel.

Makes Shipment of Lambs.

Earl Hay who is brother-in-law of Mr. and Mrs. W. O. Troop, and who makes his home at Yuma, Colorado, shipped a number of cars of lambs to the South Omaha market, and C. R. Troop of Plattsmouth was sent to the market to see the stock sold and to take care of the disposition of them and to see that they brought the right price.

Receive Many Small Outs.

While Mrs. L. E. Freeman and Mrs. K. C. Fuller of Lincoln were in Plattsmouth, where they expected to purchase some fresh fish, they came near colliding with another car, and in their endeavor to prevent that they skidded into the ditch along the roadway, and turning over a number of times, injuring their car badly and glass cutting each very badly, and especially on the legs as they bumped into the windshield and windows of the car.

Off in a Bunch.

Alvin A. McReynolds has been trying for some time to get started for the west in his new palace on wheels, the house which he has built on a truck, but was not able to get started until the first of this week, when the novel palace car pulled out of Nehawka and headed for the Pacific.

Z. W. Shrader of Nehawka, Dies at Home Sunday

Members of Prominent Family of Cass County Dies at Age of Eighty-two Years.

On Sunday at the family home near Nehawka, Zachariah W. Shrader, 82, long time resident of Nebraska and Cass county, passed to his last reward as the result of his advancing years and a stroke that he had suffered some two weeks ago and while he had at times seemed to be improving the illness proved too severe for his years and he grew worse until death came Sunday to relieve his suffering.

The deceased was born in Tazewell county, Virginia, on December 26, 1848, being a son of Henry and Edith Shrader, members of one of the prominent families of that portion of Virginia, the family having originally come from Germany at a very early date to help settle the Old Dominion. Z. W. Shrader was one of a family of ten children and with a sister living in Virginia, the last of the original family.

Mr. Shrader remained in Virginia until he had reached twenty years of age in 1868 when he came to Nebraska, then a new state that was offering opportunities for the tilling of the soil greater than that of the older states of the east. In coming to Nebraska he was joined by his brother, George W. Shrader, who settled in Rock Bluffs precinct and another brother, Andrew J. Shrader, who later moved to the present state of Oklahoma, later another brother, Joseph, joined them and also settled on land near where Z. W. Shrader had located. Z. W. Shrader settling on land in Mr. Pleasant precinct.

On February 2, 1871, Mr. Shrader was married to Miss Rachel Murray, a member of one of the pioneer families of Cass county, and since their marriage the family have made their home on the farm near Nehawka and been honored and loved figures in the community.

Mr. Shrader has been an active figure in the life of the community and for many years was an active figure in the democratic party in the county and one of its leaders up to the last until ill health made it necessary to give up his usual activities. There is surviving the aged wife and four children, Troy Shrader and Mrs. R. H. Christweiser of Nehawka; Roy Shrader of Leslie, Saskatchewan, Canada; Grace Shrader of Elizabeth City, North Carolina. Four children have preceded the father in death.

Mr. Shrader was grandfather of Mrs. J. O. Slayton, Harold Rhoden, Gerald Shrader and Mrs. Greeley Bell of this city.

Have your name imprinted on your Christmas greeting cards this year at a very small additional cost, provided you purchase them at the Bates Book Store or the new stationery and office supply department of the Journal. We have everything that's new.

WEeping WATER

Miss Bessie Kivett was called to Lincoln on last Monday, where she was doing some shopping as well as visiting with friends.

John Robbins of near Louisville was a visitor in Weeping Water on Tuesday morning of this week doing some shopping and looking after other business.

Ir. Markland purchased of the Dowler Brothers Motor company a light truck for use in the delivery of his goods in the daily business which he conducts.

Henry Vogler and the family from near Louisville were visiting with friends and at the same time doing some trading in Weeping Water on Tuesday of this week.

Wm. Jorgenson of Plattsmouth, representative of the Standard Oil company, was looking after some business matters in Weeping Water on Tuesday of this week.

Charles E. Cook of near Plattsmouth was a visitor in Weeping Water and vicinity last week looking for some breed sows and was looking at a number of herds.

Word from Gandy is to the effect that James Philpot is very poorly at his home at that place. Mr. Philpot will be remembered by many of the people of Weeping Water and vicinity.

Peter H. Miller was a visitor in Plattsmouth on last Thursday when he visited the home of his son, James Miller and family and also attended the rendition of the Messiah at the Parsonage.

Carl Rector, better known as "Brock" accompanied by the good wife, were over to Plattsmouth to see the show and hear the splendid music when the Messiah was rendered last week.

Elmer Michelsen was a business visitor in Omaha on last Tuesday to replenish his stock of holiday goods which has been depleted on account of the very good business which this place of business has been doing.

At the Bateman shoe shop early last Tuesday, a fire caught on the roof of the residence portion of the building which got quite a bit of a start before it was discovered but hustling soon had the fire out and with but little damage.

John S. Williams and wife accompanied by their daughter, Miss Hazel, were visiting with friends in Lincoln on last Monday and also were looking after some business matters in connection with the bakery which they conduct in Weeping Water.

John Gakemier of Murdock was a visitor in Weeping Water, coming to look after some business matters. As he was coming along the road he looked over in the field and there stood a large gray wolf. John immediately went back home and secured his gun, but many a wolf did he see when he had his gun.

Wm. Van Every, manager of the Atlantic, Pacific and Gulf Oil company who operates the Handy Filling station and also does a bulk oil station business was a visitor in Council Bluffs, Iowa, looking after business for the company and also brought a truck load of Eptal gasoline home with him for the station's use here.

Mrs. Harold Baker who has been so ill for a number of weeks, and who was kept home on account thereof, as well as excluded from contact with others, has improved greatly, having arrived back to her home on last Monday, brought down by Mr. Baker, to see the sights as the decorations of the stores are growing more attractive as the time of Christmas draws near.

Visiting Relatives Here. Mrs. Dr. Kline of Denver is visiting here with her friends and relatives, having arrived here early this week. She will visit with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. E. F. Marshall.

The American Legion. On November 1st, this year, there was a meeting called for the organization of a post of the American Legion in Weeping Water, and one was organized and with a well selected set of officers and an enthusiastic membership, the order has grown, and at this time there are fifty members and the order is going forward. Two teams are in the field working like beavers and they are expecting to have seventy-five members before the closing of the present campaign, and all who are eligible will be given an opportunity to become members.

Entertained Their Husbands. The Jolly Mixers of which there is about a dozen, and when the husbands are counted in make twenty-four, met last week at the Mendenhall home where they had a most delightful time. This is their special Christmas meeting and at which time the Mixers entertained their husbands and had six tables when they played bridge and also sure enjoyed it.

A Very Pretty Window. We were attracted by the east show window of Spencer J. Marshall, the shoe man, and who sure carries a fine line of shoes as well as work clothes. The window was dressed to represent a Christmas scene with a fireplace and the flames mounting to the top, which made one think, notwithstanding many do not like winter as well as summer, that there are plenty of joys at Christmas time.

Installing Large Tank. The Atlantic, Pacific and Gulf Oil company, who operate the handy filling station, have received a large steel tank which is to be buried in the ground, and which a portion of the excavating has already been accomplished, and it is expected that the entire work of installing the tank will have been completed during the present week. This will place this company in an enviable position for the handling and distribution of the high test gasoline.

Undergoes Operation. Mrs. W. E. Palmeter, mother of Mrs. Clyde Fitzpatrick, at the Lord Clyde hospital at Omaha, on Monday afternoon underwent an operation for the removal of a malignant tumor which has given this excellent woman much trouble for many months past. Mrs. Palmeter underwent the operation very nicely and recovered during the evening but was very weak following the operation. Mrs. Palmeter was attending at the time of the operation by the husband, and her daughter, Mrs. Clyde Fitzpatrick who report the patient as being very weak from the ordeal of the operation.

Smile Rodney Smile. And why should not he smile and all of us as to that? for we are to have a play by the Junior class of the Weeping Water high school, which is to be given on December 29th and 30th. The practicing for the play is now under way and is being directed by Mrs. Frank Elgaard.

Headquarters for Christmas. We were attracted by the very beautifully decorated windows of the Weeping Water Variety store, which were sure attractive and led one to inquire what was on the inside. When we entered we found a most gorgeous display of Christmas goods. They have goods of all kinds, toys, perume sets, mirrors, beautiful cut glass dishes as well as other utensils for the home, not alone this but every conceivable toy to delight the childish heart, silk stockings, handkerchiefs and ties with a profusion of gloves. The place is a veritable toy land and as much surprising as Alice in Wonderland. Drop in and see and you will be pleased. These toys are priced to compete with any like toys in Nebraska at any store, large or small.

Christmas Trade Good. The Dower Chevrolet company have been disposing of a goodly number of the cars and trucks of this excellent make. During the past week they have sold for Christmas delivery and a portion of which have already been delivered, some six vehicles which are to gladden the heart of some one on Christmas day.

Wheat Very Cheap. Wilber Barrett of Great Falls, Montana, who is here visiting with his nephews and who was spending a portion of the week with W. J. Philpot and family, is enjoying his visit here very much. Speaking of the country where he is making his home, he said that wheat was selling there for 38 cents per bushel, and not so much moving at that.

From Monday's Daily.— H. B. Koop and James Stander of Louisville were in the city today to attend to some matters in the district court.

Adam Schafer of west of Murray was in the city today for a few hours attending to some matters of business.

E. B. Taylor of Weeping Water was among the members of the jury panel arriving today to enter on the work of the term.

Marion Tucker of Nehawka was among the visitors in the city today for a few hours looking after some matters of importance at the court house.

F. A. Hill of Murray was in the city for a short time Saturday and while here was a pleasant caller at the Journal and renewing his subscription to the daily edition for another year.

Mrs. A. E. Castle of McCook who has been here visiting at the Roy Malcolm home, departed this morning for her home in the west part of the state after a most pleasant visit here.

From Tuesday's Daily.— E. O. Stipe of Clarinda, Iowa, was a visitor in the city today for a short time looking after some matters of business and was looking over this city as a possible location in the future.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles S. Sherman of Lincoln, were here today to attend the funeral of an uncle of Mrs. Sherman, Robert Troop. Mr. Sherman is the sports editor of the Lincoln Star and former resident of this city.

From Wednesday's Daily.— Dr. N. D. Talcott of Greenwood was a visitor in the city today for a few hours, being a witness in the district court.

Walter Pauling of Greenwood was in the city for a short time today looking after some matters at the court house and visiting with friends.

Mr. and Mrs. Elton R. Vroman of Minidoka, Idaho, who were here for the funeral of Mrs. Vroman's mother, Mrs. Emma Miller, departed this morning for their home in the west.

Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Hornan of Weeping Water were in the city Tuesday and while here were callers at the Journal to enroll as readers of the weekly edition of the paper.

W. G. Pankonin and son, Ernest, of Louisville, motored Monday from their home to look after some matters of business and while here they were callers at the Journal to renew their subscription.

OUR SCREEN TALKS

Ritz Theatre

Plattsmouth, Nebr.

All Talking Programs You'll Enjoy

FRIDAY - SATURDAY

December 19-20

A Smashing Drama with Dashing

WARNER BAXTER in

"Renegade"

and Chapter 11 Rin-Tin-Tin in

The Lone Defender

SUNDAY - MONDAY - TUESDAY

December 21-22-23

Mary Pickford and Douglas Fairbanks

—in—

"Taming of the Shrew"

Together in Their First

All-Talking Picture

Comedy, Fables, News Reels

WEDNESDAY - THURSDAY

December 24-25

JOHN McCORMACK in

"Song 'O My Heart"

An Achievement of

Lasting Memory

ALSO

FREE—Cannon Linen—FREE

to Every Lady Patron on

These Nights

There will be a free Christmas afternoon matinee (1:30 to 5)

for all who want to come, on Thursday afternoon, Dec. 25.

Entire Change of Program from

the Evening Show

Matinee Sunday Afternoon

Matinee Prices Evening Prices

10-25c 10-35c

bers before the closing of the present will be given an opportunity to become members.

Entertained Their Husbands.

The Jolly Mixers of which there is about a dozen, and when the husbands are counted in make twenty-four, met last week at the Mendenhall home where they had a most delightful time. This is their special Christmas meeting and at which time the Mixers entertained their husbands and had six tables when they played bridge and also sure enjoyed it.

A Very Pretty Window. We were attracted by the east show window of Spencer J. Marshall, the shoe man, and who sure carries a fine line of shoes as well as work clothes. The window was dressed to represent a Christmas scene with a fireplace and the flames mounting to the top, which made one think, notwithstanding many do not like winter as well as summer, that there are plenty of joys at Christmas time.

Installing Large Tank. The Atlantic, Pacific and Gulf Oil company, who operate the handy filling station, have received a large steel tank which is to be buried in the ground, and which a portion of the excavating has already been accomplished, and it is expected that the entire work of installing the tank will have been completed during the present week. This will place this company in an enviable position for the handling and distribution of the high test gasoline.

Undergoes Operation. Mrs. W. E. Palmeter, mother of Mrs. Clyde Fitzpatrick, at the Lord Clyde hospital at Omaha, on Monday afternoon underwent an operation for the removal of a malignant tumor which has given this excellent woman much trouble for many months past. Mrs. Palmeter underwent the operation very nicely and recovered during the evening but was very weak following the operation. Mrs. Palmeter was attending at the time of the operation by the husband, and her daughter, Mrs. Clyde Fitzpatrick who report the patient as being very weak from the ordeal of the operation.

Smile Rodney Smile. And why should not he smile and all of us as to that? for we are to have a play by the Junior class of the Weeping Water high school, which is to be given on December 29th and 30th. The practicing for the play is now under way and is being directed by Mrs. Frank Elgaard.

Headquarters for Christmas. We were attracted by the very beautifully decorated windows of the Weeping Water Variety store, which were sure attractive and led one to inquire what was on the inside. When we entered we found a most gorgeous display of Christmas goods. They have goods of all kinds, toys, perume sets, mirrors, beautiful cut glass dishes as well as other utensils for the home, not alone this but every conceivable toy to delight the childish heart, silk stockings, handkerchiefs and ties with a profusion of gloves. The place is a veritable toy land and as much surprising as Alice in Wonderland. Drop in and see and you will be pleased. These toys are priced to compete with any like toys in Nebraska at any store, large or small.

Christmas Trade Good. The Dower Chevrolet company have been disposing of a goodly number of the cars and trucks of this excellent make. During the past week they have sold for Christmas delivery and a portion of which have already been delivered, some six vehicles which are to gladden the heart of some one on Christmas day.

Wheat Very Cheap. Wilber Barrett of Great Falls, Montana, who is here visiting with his nephews and who was spending a portion of the week with W. J. Philpot and family, is enjoying his visit here very much. Speaking of the country where he is making his home, he said that wheat was selling there for 38 cents per bushel, and not so much moving at that.

From Monday's Daily.— H. B. Koop and James Stander of Louisville were in the city today to attend to some matters in the district court.

Adam Schafer of west of Murray was in the city today for a few hours attending to some matters of business.

E. B. Taylor of Weeping Water was among the members of the jury panel arriving today to enter on the work of the term.

Marion Tucker of Nehawka was among the visitors in the city today for a few hours looking after some matters of importance at the court house.

F. A. Hill of Murray was in the city for a short time Saturday and while here was a pleasant caller at the Journal and renewing his subscription to the daily edition for another year.

Mrs. A. E. Castle of McCook who has been here visiting at the Roy Malcolm home, departed this morning for her home in the west part of the state after a most pleasant visit here.

From Tuesday's Daily.— E. O. Stipe of Clarinda, Iowa, was a visitor in the city today for a short time looking after some matters of business and was looking over this city as a possible location in the future.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles S. Sherman of Lincoln, were here today to attend the funeral of an uncle of Mrs. Sherman, Robert Troop. Mr. Sherman is the sports editor of the Lincoln Star and former resident of this city.

From Wednesday's Daily.— Dr. N. D. Talcott of Greenwood was a visitor in the city today for a few hours, being a witness in the district court.

Walter Pauling of Greenwood was in the city for a short time today looking after some matters at the court house and visiting with friends.

Mr. and Mrs. Elton R. Vroman of Minidoka, Idaho, who were here for the funeral of Mrs. Vroman's mother, Mrs. Emma Miller, departed this morning for their home in the west.

Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Hornan of Weeping Water were in the city Tuesday and while here were callers at the Journal to enroll as readers of the weekly edition of the paper.

W. G. Pankonin and son, Ernest, of Louisville, motored Monday from their home to look after some matters of business and while here they were callers at the Journal to renew their subscription.

LOCAL NEWS

From Monday's Daily.— H. B. Koop and James Stander of Louisville were in the city today to attend to some matters in the district court.

Adam Schafer of west of Murray was in the city today for a few hours attending to some matters of business.

E. B. Taylor of Weeping Water was among the members of the jury panel arriving today to enter on the work of the term.

Marion Tucker of Nehawka was among the visitors in the city today for a few hours looking after some matters of importance at the court house.

F. A. Hill of Murray was in the city for a short time Saturday and while here was a pleasant caller at the Journal and renewing his subscription to the daily edition for another year.

Mrs. A. E. Castle of McCook who has been here visiting at the Roy Malcolm home, departed this morning for her home in the west part of the state after a most pleasant visit here.

From Tuesday's Daily.— E. O. Stipe of Clarinda, Iowa, was a visitor in the city today for a short time looking after some matters of business and was looking over this city as a possible location in the future.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles S. Sherman of Lincoln, were here today to attend the funeral of an uncle of Mrs. Sherman, Robert Troop. Mr. Sherman is the sports editor of the Lincoln Star and former resident of this city.

From Wednesday's Daily.— Dr. N. D. Talcott of Greenwood was a visitor in the city today for a few hours, being a witness in the district court.

Walter Pauling of Greenwood was in the city for a short time today looking after some matters at the court house and visiting with friends.

Mr. and Mrs. Elton R. Vroman of Minidoka, Idaho, who were here for the funeral of Mrs. Vroman's mother, Mrs. Emma Miller, departed this morning for their home in the west.

Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Hornan of Weeping Water were in the city Tuesday and while here were callers at the Journal to enroll as readers of the weekly edition of the paper.

W. G. Pankonin and son, Ernest, of Louisville, motored Monday from their home to look after some matters of business and while here they were callers at the Journal to renew their subscription.

Washing — Representative James P. Buchanan of Texas got away with this one. There was a discussion of agriculture appropriations before a house committee. Buchanan asked whether "a simple but effective method of control" worked out by a Chinese had ever been used on the boll weevil.

"What is that?" he was asked. "It is this: Hear no weevil, see no weevil, think no weevil."

He will appreciate your gift of a pair of these Silk Hose—fancy and plain colors. 75c and 48c, at—SOENNICHSEN'S

Accredited; blood tested. Price $1.50.—Mrs. F. A. Stohman, Louisville, Nebraska. n29-127w

Buff Rock Cockerels

CHRIST FURNITURE COMPANY

Has for the Christmas Buyer Things of Value at Prices Never before Offered!