Just Around The Corner

We feel it's only our duty as automotive maintenance men, to remind you that winter, with its snow and ice, is just "around the corner." We have been coasting along enjoying prolonged nice weather—but look out. Your car needs special attention—make sure you have plenty of anti-freeze solution, have the oil changed, the battery fully charged, and the engine tuned up. We're prepared to do all these things for you at reasonable cost. Better see us now.

MURRAY GARAGE

A. D. BAKKE, Prop.

Phillip Keil, Jr. was assisting in the painting of the roof of the residence attached to the Murray garage building.
Fred Nutzman of south of Nehawka was looking after some business matters in Murray on last Monday afternoon.
Uncle B. M. Cline has been rather poorly for the past few days and his many friends are hoping that he may soon be well again.

John B. Livingston of Plattsmouth, salesman for the Chevrolet car was looking after some business matters in Murray on Monday of this week.
Mrs. D. M. Lloyd, who has been at the hospital for treatment for the past week, returned home on last Sunday and is feeling much improved.
While Phillip Keil was coming to Murray from his home a mile and a quarter north, he caught sight of a large gray wolf, but did not have his gun.
Earl Lancaster and the family were enjoying a visit for the day on last Sunday at the home of Mr. and Mrs. John Eppings and the family at Murbuck.
Wm. Obernaut of Nehawka was a visitor in Murray for a time on last Friday and was looking after some business matters at the Nickles Lumber yard.
A baby girl blessed the home of Mr. and Mrs. Claude Hiskey on last Friday, the young lady was welcomed by the parents who will make her a real home.
J. A. Scotten, the contractor and builder, was a visitor in Omaha on Wednesday of this week and was looking after some business matters in line with his work.
Mr. and Mrs. Victor Wehrlein were called to Plattsmouth on last Sunday on account of the severe illness of Uncle Robert Troop who died at his home last Sunday noon.
Uncle John Campbell who has been ill for some time is reported as being some better at this time and the many friends are hoping that the improvement will continue.
A. D. Bakke and brother, Oscar Bakke, on a visiting here, were waiting in Omaha for the afternoon of Tuesday, where they were also looking after some business matters as well.
George Nickle and wife and Mrs. Henry C. Long were visiting and also looking after some business matters and visit for the day at the home of Mrs. Nickle's sister, Mrs. Bertha Strader.
Business called Leo Brown of near Weeping Water to Murray on last

Monday afternoon, he driving over from his home in his auto to look after the business and also to meet his many friends here.
I have some very fine laying hens of this year, white leghorns now laying.—Mrs. Albert A. Young, Murray, Neb.

Phillip Keil, who is past master in the matter of dressing hogs, was dressing some at Fred W. Meisinger's on Tuesday and at John S. Vallery's on Wednesday. Phillip sure knows his business in this line.
F. E. Vallery was having the roof of the residence in connection with the Murray garage painted, and put in excellent condition well knowing that it is the best economy to keep the roof in best condition.
Gussie Brubacher and the family were guests for the day on last Sunday at the home of the parents of Mr. Brubacher, Edward Brubacher and wife of Plattsmouth, they driver over to the county seat in their auto.
Mr. and Mrs. D. C. Rhodes and George W. Rhodes and wife were over to Plattsmouth on Tuesday of this week where they went to attend the funeral of the late Robert Troop, who passed away on last Sunday, Mr. Troop being an uncle of the ladies.
Business called Frank E. Vallery of Omaha to Murray on last Friday, he also meeting with his many friends here and sure he has many of them. He also visited at the home of Mrs. Vallery's parents, Mr. and Mrs. A. H. Graves and also with M. G. Churchill and family.
Ralph Kennedy, the carpenter, was assisting with the extension and stage which is being built on the Lewiston Community building. With the completion of this extension it will afford a better place for the holding of programs and plays at the Lewiston Community Center.
Charles Stratton and wife of Oklahoma were visiting at the home of John S. Vallery and also at Murray at the home of Mr. and Mrs. T. J. Brendel, they are contemplating building a set of improvements on the lands which they have near old Eight Mile Grove and will probably in the future make their home there.
Mrs. Stratton is a sister of Mr. Vallery and Mrs. Brendel, she formerly being Miss Doris Vallery.
Last Saturday night when Uncle A. H. Graves, now over ninety years of age, stepped out of his door, and as his feet lighted on the ice pavement, they slipped out from under him with the result that he fell, striking his hand against a projecting piece of iron, cutting a long and ugly gash in the palm of his left hand which required some five stitches with the surgeon to close. The wound, however, is getting along nicely.

Tells of Severe Storm.
Mrs. Earl Lancaster received a letter from her brother, John Royer of Flagler, Colorado, in which Mr. Royer describes the blizzard which visited that section recently. The snow was at a depth of five feet on the level. He writes that as the storm being over the snow settling with warmer weather that many dead carcasses were discovered along the roads and on the prairie. One farmer lost fifteen hundred sheep that were snowed under and at another place one hundred and fifty cattle. One place the heads of five horses appeared standing all in a huddle and all frozen to death, the snow having covered them and as they stood there they were frozen to death. In clearing the highway an automobile was found and when dug out there was a man and woman inside who had perished from the cold. At another place a man's body was found on the railroad track when the snow was cleared away.

Have Severe Accident.
On last Sunday morning while Charles Kennedy and wife of Omaha were on Sunday morning, going to Grand Island where they were expecting to visit with Mr. Kennedy's father, A. V. Kennedy, who is making his home at Grand Island, they were driving along, the pavement being icy, and as they attempted to go around another car which was going in the same direction, and the two fenders catching, threw their car into a tail spin, which while Charles did all he could to prevent, landed their car in the ditch and rolled it over, with the result that the car was badly damaged and Mr. and Mrs. Kennedy bruised and cut badly, even to such an extent that they were compelled to go to the hospital at Columbus for treatment. They are reported as getting along fairly well at this time.

Lewiston News Notes

January, the money to be used for band purposes.
R. Sack is shipping some of his sheep this week. He and his father-in-law, Jim Swabb, have a large number on feed.
Word comes that Earl Wolf is steadily improving but that it will be 10 or more days before he can leave the hospital.
Vernie Pullen sold another one of his Spotted male hogs this week. Vernie has sold 370 and has 4 hogs left out of one litter of pigs. Hogs are the one thing that makes the money.
Word was received that Chas. Kennedy and wife were in an auto accident at Columbus, Neb. and were taken to the hospital. Ralph Kennedy left at once for Columbus but while they are in the hospital they were not seriously hurt.
This neighborhood was saddened by the death of Z. A. Shrader. While he was not a resident of this neighborhood he was well known here where he often visited his brother, Geo. Shrader. His relatives from here were called down there the latter part of this week.
Co-operation was certainly shown in the building of the Lewiston Community building. Some times 15 to 18 men were working, the women would cook a good warm meal and all had a good time. This shows that if people were more willing to cooperate in all times how easy it would be to get all the good things of life.
Miss Margaret McCommaha who is a nurse in the Lincoln hospital spent the week end with her grandmother, Mrs. Mary McCommaha. Mrs. McCommaha is spending the winter with her cousin, Mrs. S. Orlam. Mrs.

McCommaha was real sick a number of days last week, sick enough that her son, Robt. McCommaha of Herman, Nebraska, was called and spent a few days with his mother but she is improving now.
For Sale.
A number of pure bred Duroc gilts.—Albert Young, Murray, Neb.

W. C. T. U. MEETING
The Women's Christian Temperance Union held a very enjoyable Christmas party on Monday afternoon at the home of Mrs. R. B. Hayes and with a very large number of the members present to enjoy the unusually fine program that had been arranged under the direction of Mrs. W. L. Propst, as leader.
Mrs. Charles Troop gave the Christmas story from St. Matthew and St. Luke which was very much enjoyed.
Elizabeth Ann Pitz gave a very pleasing reading, "Getting on to Christmas."
Mrs. Ralph Anderson was heard in a very splendidly presented number, "Sizing Up Christmas."
Two youthful artists were heard in a violin duet, Bobbie Hayes and Roy Rhodes, being the young people and their number comprised some of the Christmas carols, Thelma Rhodes being the accompanist.
Miss Olive Gass spoke on "The Christmas Before Christ," a very interesting story of the period before the Christian era.
Mrs. R. B. Hayes gave a beautiful and most appropriate vocal offering, "O Voice of the Ages."
Mrs. C. L. Wiles and daughter, Alice Barbara, were heard in a piano duet, "Under the Mistletoe."
