Christmas Party Enjoyed by Mem- bers Womans Club

Very Fine Program Is Featured in Event Held at E. H. Wescott Home Last Night.

From Wednesday's Daily—
The Christmas thought was expressed in the meeting of the Plattsmouth Woman's club held at the home of Mrs. E. H. Wescott, in the arrangements and setting for the gathering as well as the fine musical program that was a part of the event. The home was aglow with the candles, the red and green of the Christmas tree that added its touch of charm to the holiday settings of the rooms.

The members of the club spent some time in discussing the proposed community calendar, arranged so that various events would not be in conflict with each other and preventing many events being staged on the same evening.

The program was in charge of Mrs. Wescott and in range gave a variety of entertainment and musical expression that was much enjoyed by all of the members.

Mrs. Robert Reed, one of the talented musicians of the city was heard in one of her delightful piano offerings and also as chairman of the Choral Union she reported that $25 had been donated to the Associated Charities from the presentation of "The Messiah."

A reading of the Christmas time was given by Miss Gertrude Valley and was a very pleasing feature of the program.

Miss Cora Williams, supervisor of the music department of the high school, was heard in a series of numbers, "Night of Nights" by Vandewater, and "Change of Mind" by Curran.

One of the pleasing features of the evening was the song, "Silent Night," given by Miss Paula Platt and in which the little artist was very fine.

Two of the talented musicians of the teaching force of the city schools, Misses Hazel and Helen Struble, were heard in two duet numbers, "There Were Shepherds" by Lynes and "Gentle Be Thy Slumber," Schlegelinger.

At the close of the evening Mrs. Wescott served dainty and delicious refreshments and was assisted by the social committee, Mrs. W. L. Dwyer, chairman, Mrs. William Woolcott, Mrs. Ray Bryant, Mrs. Oscar Gopen, Mrs. Rex Young and Mrs. Thomas Walling.

REAL REINDEER

Santa Claus is coming to Platts-mouth with real reindeer—not make-believes. There seems to be a little doubt in the minds of some grown-ups that Santa is coming with genuine reindeer, but boys and girls don't you let any of these skeptical folks shake your faith or spoil your expectations, because if you are here next Tuesday morning, Dec. 22, you will see Santa and some genuine reindeer that he is bringing with him. We know this will be a treat for all the boys and girls as we doubt if there is a boy or girl in Platts-mouth who ever saw Santa's reindeer and for that matter none of the older folks either. So it will be a genuine treat when Santa drives down Main street in his sleigh, pulled by his trusty reindeer, Dancer and Prancer.

Santa will also have with him two of his Eskimo friends—their names are funny, we cannot spell them, much less pronounce them.

The party will arrive in Platts-mouth between 9:30 and 10 o'clock Tuesday morning and great plans are being made for his reception. A lodge has been prepared for him, the court house lawn and a corral for the reindeer. Santa is obliged to leave at 12 o'clock so be sure and be here in the morning if you want to see him. On account of bringing the reindeer with him Santa was unable to arrange for gifts for the children this time, but he has ordered a big lot of candy kisses which he will give out personally. Bring your letters telling what you want for Christmas and hand them to Santa personally. Better put your address on them, as it is hard for him to remember where everybody lives.

FUNERAL OF MRS. HENRYES

The funeral services of the late Mrs. H. W. Henryes at the Sattler funeral home on Monday afternoon was very largely attended by the old time friends of the family and acquaintances of the departed lady. Rev. H. G. McClusky had the religious service and Frank A. Clويد gave two vocal numbers, "Face to Face" and "The City Four Square." The interment was at the Oak Hill cemetery.

Florence Bradley was born at Gray's Lake, Illinois, on January 11, 1887, and passed away at her home in Lead, South Dakota, on December 10, 1930, age forty-three years and eleven months. She grew to womanhood in this city and on August 21, 1907, was married at Glenwood, Ia., to Harvey W. Henryes. To this union there were born six children, three daughters preceding the mother in death and surviving are the husband, two sons, Richard and Jesse and one daughter, Marion, at home, two stepdaughters, Mrs. Marie Coleman and Mrs. Erle Willson, both of Minneapolis. There also survives her mother, Mrs. John Geiser, of this city, one brother, A. W. Bradley of St. Louis, two sisters, Mrs. Irene Munson of Tallehasse, Florida, and W. T. Edwards of Neola, Iowa.

SANTA CLAUS LODGE READY

When Santa Claus arrives here on next Tuesday morning he is going to find every convenience ready, not only for himself, but for Prancer and Dancer, his favorite reindeer.

The lodge that will be prepared for his reception was placed on the court house lawn yesterday and a fenced off park for the reindeer and where the little folks as well as the grownups can look over the reindeer and the little folks as well can impart their desires and wishes to Santa.

The reception and general celebration here on the occasion of the arrival of Santa on Tuesday, December 22nd, promises to be one of the largest that has been held in the city and while the jolly Santa will arrive here about 9:30 a. m. it is expected that he will find the boys and girls from all this section in waiting to extend him the welcome that he so well deserves.

While Santa will be able with parental assistance to look after the need of a great majority of the children, there are going to be cases where it depends on the good people of the community to help out in some of the cases.

Natural Gas in Louisville's New Cement Plant

Suits to Secure Right of Way Points to Early Installation of Service at That Place.

The filing recently of some eleven cases to secure condemnation of land for the Missouri Valley Pipeline Co., from their present line near Wabash into Louisville, points to the fact that that city will soon have a line carrying the natural gas operating into that place.

The plant of the Ash Grove Cement Co., is the goal toward which the line is working and where the gas will be used in the firing of the kilns and the general operation of the plant where heat and fuel is now required and will make a great revolution in the supply of heat and power for the plant.

It is estimated by those who have checked up the operation of other plants of this kind that the gas consumption of the cement plant will be as large as that of the city of Lincoln, the cement plant being a continuous user of the gas both day and night and in large quantities.

These large plants are users of great amount of gas and estimates of Omaha are that two or three of the packing plants there would consume more than all of the private services in the city of Omaha.

The natural gas here has proven a great saving to everyone and with the great natural advantages of this city and its possessing two of these pipe lines should make it a very acceptable spot for manufacturing concerns as this city possesses also a great store of the best of water and is located at a logical shipping point for any direction as well as having paved highways and other modern conveniences for transportation.

MAN FEARED LOST IN DEATH VALLEY TAKING HEST CURE

Los Angeles, Cal., Dec. 16.—Authorities here were informed tonight that Ralph H. Farnum, New York theatrical booking agent for whom a search of Death Valley had been begun, had been found safe.

Searchers said Farnum was found lying with a tribe of Plate Indians in the northern part of Death Valley. "I'm living just the way I want to now," he told the searchers. "My health has greatly improved, and I intend to stay here until I am fully recovered."

Three parties had been searching the Panamint and Funeral mountain ranges since early Sunday. Search was started when one of Farnum's burros wandered back to Death Valley Junction Saturday. The animal was near exhaustion.

Chicago Now Feeling a Spirit of Reform

Many Changes Are Proposed as City Tries to Escape Unfavorable Publicity.

Chicago—The spirit of reform is on Chicago. So far that spirit has manifested itself in a level headed manner. If it retains that tenor and loses none of its potency, this city that lately has been painted all over the world as a modern combination of Sodom and Gormorrah seems destined for a Utopian era—an era of possibly a few years duration, at any rate.

The latest reform move to startle the complaisant citizenry was the announcement Tuesday of a 25 per cent cut in Cook county land taxes. Obviously the political gesture of a mayoral aspirant who is a member of the tax review board, criticized because the taxes to be reduced already have been spent thru anticipation warrants, the lowering of the taxes nevertheless is looked upon as a sensational reversal of form on the part of the politicians, an indication that they finally have condensed to give some consideration to the electorate.

There have been other recent manifestations of the reform spirit. The meekness with which Chicago surrendered to gangster rule for a time has given way to a spirited war upon the "public enemies" with some publicity seekers doing the talking and United States Attorney Johnson doing the battle thru the principal weapon of income tax investigations that result in conviction.

With the world's fair of 1933 in mind and also with the natural aroused civic consciousness that results from a particularly embarrassing municipal administration, the city actually is giving some serious thought to the election of a mayor scheduled for next April.

And, most startling of all, perhaps, is the demoralized police department. Acting Commissioner Alecock has done wonders in the short time he has been in the saddle but now the way has been cleared for a complete investigation of the department by a special grand jury next month.—State Journal.

PETE MANCUSCO CAUGHT

Omaha—Pete Mancusco, believed by police to be the leader of a band of youthful robbers who had carted away a dozen safes from office buildings here, was arrested on a bus at Missouri Valley, Ia., by Omaha detectives Tuesday. Eight of his alleged companions were captured Monday. Mancusco, police said, admitted several of the robberies. They obtained a tip that he was running away on the bus from a boy who knew him and started in pursuit. He made no resistance.

LIST OF ILLITERATES ASKED BY MRS. OWEN

Washington—To help state officials to extend education opportunities to adult illiterates, Representative Ruth Bryan Owen of Florida Tuesday introduced a resolution to direct the census director to supply lists of illiterates for the separate states. "This is just to open the door for the state authorities," she said. Mrs. Owen is a member of the president's committee on illiteracy.
