To the Public

I wish to announce that I have taken over the management of the Farmers Co-Operative Creamery and merged it with the selling facilities of the Golden Valley Creamery.

Now we have not bought or we have not leased—we have taken the management, furnishing the capital, on a cost-plus basis, and every pound of produce or cream is a boost for the Farmers Co-Operative Creamery.

Mrs. Ida Kehne will be manager of the local office.

Poultry Car Here

Hearings on Pipe Line Condemnation Before Appraisers

Owners of Farming Lands Near Louisville Here to Represent Their Interests

From Monday's Daily—
This morning a very large number of the owners of the farming land between Wabash and Louisville through which locality the Missouri Valley Pipe Line Co., are seeking to lay their lines for natural gas were here to represent their interests before the appraisers appointed by the county court.

The Missouri Valley Pipeline Co. has started some eleven suits for the purpose of the condemnation of a right of way for their company from the junction of the natural gas line near Wabash on into the town of Louisville where the company is expecting to supply natural gas.

With the filing of the suits for condemnation under the process of law, Judge A. H. Duxbury appointed a board of appraisers composed of W. A. Ost of Nehawka, Charles Godbey of Abo, Henry F. Nolting of Plattsmouth, O. E. Domingo of Weeping Water; C. D. Fulmer of Greenwood, William Atchison of Elmwood, R. A. Troop of Plattsmouth, L. J. Marquardt of Avoca and Henry Born of Plattsmouth. These appraisers have been divided in groups of three and made personal inspections of the different parcels of land covered by the suit with a view of securing a just and equitable settlement of damages that might be due by reason of the extension of the pipeline through the farms.

The different land owners were called and testified as to their estimates of the damages suffered by their farms by reason of the extension of the pipe line.

The farmers are represented in the hearings by C. C. Courtney of Lincoln of the firm of Courtney, Perry, Van Pelt and Marti, while the pipeline company is represented by W. A. Robertson, local attorney of the company, George A. Lee and Fred C. Foster.

The hearings attracted much attention and the large district court room was filled by the interested spectators to hear the testimony.

HOLD CHRISTMAS FAMILY REUNION

Forty-one people embracing four generations, met at the pleasant home of Mr. and Mrs. Frank Reed of this city at their beautiful place of abode in the western portion of Plattsmouth. The mother, Mrs. Bryon Reed was the oldest of the party, which there were a number of babies there to celebrate the occasion. There were ten children born to the wedding of Mr. and Mrs. Bryon Reed. The father died some years ago. All of the children and their families were present to enjoy and help others enjoy the happy occasion.

The happy occasion had been timed to come on Christmas, which is also a happy occasion, and it was with glad hearts that all came to get the entire family together once more. There were there for the occasion, Mrs. Bryon Reed, mother of the family; C. M. Reed and family of Murray; Mr. and Mrs. Ivar Standish and their children of Norton, Kansas; Frank Reed and family, host and hostess of the gathering; Dewey Reed and family, Ralph Reed, and Will Reed of Plattsmouth; Norma Browne, Harold Ahl and family of Louisville; Harry Tigner and family of west of Murray; Russel Reed, Helen Miller and family and Walter Reed and family of Omaha, Glen Meisinger and family of Mearley, Verle Smith and wife of Murray. All of the ten children were alive and were present at the gathering. There were 17 grandchildren and two great-grandchildren. The farthest to come was Mr. and Mrs. Ivar Standish of Norton, Kansas.

TALKS OF EXCITING CHRISTMAS

Max Schroeder who has been picking corn about Nehawka during the fall and who was at Omaha where he was employed with a house, was notified to return from a temporary layoff which he did last Friday night. Mr. Schroeder tells of attending a Christmas fete at Florence where some thirty turkeys were given away. The play was to turn a turkey loose and the one which caught the bird owned it. In one case four big strong men got hold of a bird, each determined to have it, and the turkey was literally torn in pieces, one getting a leg, another a wing and still another a wing while the other secured a leg and the body of the turkey, still alive and dismembered.

HARDWARE MEN TO CONVENE

Nebraska Retail Hardware Dealers association will hold its annual convention and exhibit next month, with headquarters at the Lincoln hotel. The exhibit will be staged in the coliseum as usual, and the affair opens Jan. 27. "Teamwork in Hardware Merchandising" is the theme of the program and every address and demonstration will bear on that theme. E. G. Evans is chairman of entertainment. Cafeteria service is being arranged at the coliseum. Sixty firms have already planned to show their merchandise and methods during the convention, and more are expected to come in.

GRANTED A DIVORCE

In the district court Saturday a decree of divorce was granted to Mrs. Nellie V. Estelle from Jack Estelle, the plaintiff being given absolute divorce and the custody of the minor child.

Sues for Payment of Life Insurance

Mrs. Kate Morgan Asks for Settlement of $5,000 Policy From United Benefit Life Ins. Co.

From Monday's Daily—
An action was filed this morning in the office of the clerk of the district court in which Mrs. Kate Morgan of this city asks for the payment of the sum of $5,000, alleged to be due from the United Benefit Life Insurance Co. on a policy made on the life of Gertrude L. Morgan, deceased daughter of the plaintiff.

The petition of the plaintiff filed by her attorneys, Dwyer & Dwyer, states that on June 5, 1928, the defendant company issued a policy on the life of Gertrude L. Morgan in the sum of $5,000 to be paid to the owner of the policy at the end of a period of years or to be paid the beneficiary in the event of death.

The petition states that proof of death and request for the settlement of the policy was made by the plaintiff on October 4, 1930, and that the defendant company has so failed to make any settlement of the claim and the defendant is now asked to be compelled to pay over the face value of the policy.

Murray Men Host to Local Rotary Club

Splendid Dinner Served by Presbyterian Ladies and Interesting Program Given

From Wednesday's Daily—
Last evening the members of the Plattsmouth Rotary club were the guests of the men of Murray at the First Presbyterian church in that city, in one of the delightful inter-city visits that are a part of the Rotary plan of closer relation of communities and individuals.

The ladies of the church had arranged their dining room most pleasantly for the occasion and the menu arranged was one that embraced every dainty to tempt the appetites of the large group of men from the two communities as they gathered around the banquet table to break bread and renew the associations with the friends and neighbors.

Rev. J. C. Stewart, pastor of the Presbyterian church, presided over the toast list in the absence of Dr. George Harrison Gilmore, who was unexpectedly called away by the duties of his profession. Rev. Stewart presiding in his usual clever manner.

O. A. Davis of Murray, gave the address of welcome to the Plattsmouth visitors and expressed the pleasure of the gathering in all being able to join in an evening of pleasant association.

The Rotary quartet, composed of Frank Clouid, L. D. Hiatt, H. G. McClusky and R. W. Knorr, were heard in several numbers, the songsters being given a great hand by their audience and responding to several encores.

W. G. Boedeker, president of the Murray State bank, gave a very interesting talk on the present day conditions of the country and the suggested means that have been urged in bringing about an improvement.

The Murray visitors proceeded to stage a surprise on Searl S. Davis of the Plattsmouth visitors and who in turn fittingly responded as to the why and wherefore of the country motorist in a great city.

The members then enjoyed a broadcasting program that had been arranged by the Murray group and which produced a great deal of entertainment and fun for the members of the banquet party.

Dr. Gilmore toward the close of the meeting arrived and added his voice to the general welcome that the men of Murray extended to the Plattsmouth friends and neighbors.

For the Rotarians President William Baird of the club, expressed the deep appreciation of the very fine time that had been afforded them and the happy spirit that the get-together had developed.

OBITUARY

James Glenn, son of Mr. and Mrs. John Glenn, was born in Pennsylvania, May 8th, 1850. As a young child he came to Mills county, Iowa, and has since made his home here for a period of 72 years. He was united in marriage to Margaret Hipshy. To this union were born one son and four daughters. Mr. Glenn attended the Holiness church when able to be about.

Some ten days ago Mr. Glenn fell and broke his hip. He was taken to the Jennie Edmundson hospital in Council Bluffs and because of his advanced years the shock of the fall was too much and he passed away there in the early hours of the morning of the 23rd of December, at the age of 80 years, 7 months and 16 days.

He leaves to mourn his passing, his aged widow, his son William of Glenwood; four daughters, Clara Owens, of Bayard, Nebr., Emma Owens of Council Bluffs, Lottie Hubbard, of Mountain View, Mo.; Lucy Taylor, of Plattsmouth, Nebr., and also 28 grandchildren, 42 great-grandchildren and many friends and neighbors who will miss him.

Funeral services were held Thursday afternoon in the Raynor chapel with Rev. D. W. Dobson officiating. Music for the service was furnished by Mrs. Frank Kemp, Mrs. Orley Atekruze, G. T. Responder and Miss Phoebe McCoy. The pallbearers were Jack Wolfe, Charlie Hunt, John Marley, Elmer James, Bert Pace, and Lew Dunn. The body was laid to rest in the Glenwood cemetery.

HAVE SUCCESSFUL YEAR

The audit of the affairs of the Farmers Co-Operative Oil Co., of Nehawka which occurred last week, showed an increase of 33 per cent in their business and the serving of that per cent more patrons who are members. Their total receipts for the year 1930 was $56,391.65, on which they are paying a six per cent stock dividend and a ten per cent patronage dividend and which will amount to some six thousand dollars, and for which they will retain to add to the surplus three thousand dollars, making a total now in the surplus $3,500.

During the year they sold 29 cars of gasoline, 11 cars of kerosene and two and half cars of lubricating oils, four and a half tons of grasses. There are now 54 new stockholders, making a total of 337 patrons. When it is considered that this company is but two years old it is showing a very good record.

LET BIDS ON CROSSING

The state highway department yesterday had letting of a number of bids for highway work and including the construction of an overhead crossing at La Platte. The filling and grading work was awarded to the George W. Bell Co., of Omaha, owners of one of the local sand and gravel pits here.

The bids on construction will be submitted to the Burlington and Missouri Pacific railroads as they are paying half of the cost of the construction. Three lowest bidders on the overhead itself were:

Western Bridge and Construction company, Omaha, $29,098.72.
Wickham Bridge and Pipe company, $29,956.62.
Gilmore company, Omaha, $30,069.64.

The following three firms gave lowest bids on construction and paving of approaches and paving of the overhead, requiring about a mile of surfacing:

Bushee & Gavenman, Omaha, $35,737.66.
Roberts Construction company, Lincoln, $38,566.10.
G. W. Condon, Omaha, $39,703.84.

No contract was let on the Fort Crook overhead crossing at this time.

ENTERTAINS FRIENDS

From Monday's Daily—
Last evening Mr. and Mrs. Charles Janacek entertained very pleasantly a group of the friends at their home on South Sixth street and where the evening was spent in the enjoyment of a splendid dinner and a general evening of pleasure. Those who enjoyed the event were Mr. and Mrs. Frank Dashner and Raymond Hochabut of Glenwood, Misses Ruth Janda, Mary Persinger, Helen Smetana, Helen Persinger, Emma Janacek of LaPlatte, Messrs. Louis Sallan and Weldon Stoehr.
