Martha Ross, living south of Nehawka was feeling not the very best for a number of days, having something like the grippe, but is much better at this time.

Olaf Lundberg has been troubled for the past week with a severe cold which he has been trying to fight out, but he still is very hoarse but gradually improving.

Oscar Shrader who is a hustler, was dressing his winter meat on Monday of this week and on the following day shelled and delivered corn to the Farmers Elevator in Nehawka.

Mr. Mark Burton has been rather poorly from a severe attack of grippe which has been troubling this gentleman. He is feeling some better at this time but not as yet entirely well.

Misses Lois Troop and Dorothy Yost were over to Plattsmouth on last Saturday where they were taking their music lessons of Miss Olive Gaas who is a most clever instructor on the piano.

Misses M. M. Tusker and R. C. Pollard were visiting with friends in Lincoln on Friday of last week, they driving over to the big town in their car, they also looking after some business matters.

Uncle Louis H. Young has been quite poorly at his home northwest of Nehawka for some time past and has been receiving the care of the family physician but is reported as being slightly improved at this time.

Henry Koss and the family were visiting and looking after some business matters in Nebraska City on Saturday of last week. They drove over to the big town in Otce county to visit friends and do their trading.

Dr. B. E. Hansen was enjoying a visit on last Sunday from his parents, J. C. Hansen and wife of Omaha, and who were accompanied by a brother of the doctor, Warren Hansen and aunt and uncle P. H. Hansen and wife of Omaha.

Mr. and Mrs. Roy Gregg were over to Mynard on last Sunday where they went to visit with their friends, Mr. and Mrs. Jacob Smith, the latter being quite ill at his home in that place. He was much pleased to have his friends come to see him.

John G. Wunderlich and the good wife were enjoying a very fine day on last Sunday, when Mr. and Mrs. Clayton A. Rosencrans and their little son were guests at the Wunderlich home, and who were also joined by Lester Wunderlich and his friend, Miss Lillian O'Donnell.

Mrs. Joseph Cisney who has been spending the past nearly a month in the west where she has been visiting her parents at Pasadena, California. She also visited with friends in Los Angeles and at Bell while she was there. Mrs. Cisney is to arrive home on Thursday of this week.

Mr. and Mrs. J. Stewart Rough were over to Crete on last Sunday, where they visited for the day at the home of the daughter, Mrs. Wilson and enjoyed a very pleasant time. On their return they stopped at Lincoln where they visited for a little time with a brother of Mr. Rough.

George Wessell and wife are happy, as well as Grandmother and Grandfather Jacob Wessell, all on account of the arrival of a very fine boy at the home of George Wessell and son, the young man, his two little sisters and the mother are doing finely, while George is doing tolerably well.

James J. Pollard and George Pollard were over to Omaha on last Thursday, they driving and while they were guests of the International Harvester company, and were looking over the plant which is an interesting place, and also were getting better acquainted with the line of farming machinery.

Frank Wolfe of Colorado, where he has been making his home for some time past, but who has been visiting here for the past few weeks, was a visitor in Omaha on last Monday accompanying his cousin, Albert

Wolfe and daughter, Miss Gladys. Mr. Frank Wolfe is departing this week for his home in the west.

Charles F. Hitt was a visitor in Plattsmouth, called there on last Saturday, to have one of the daughters' teeth extracted which has been giving the little miss some trouble of late. Mrs. Hitt has been quite poorly also of late and has been under the care of a doctor, and has been kept to her bed for some time past.

Albert Wolfe and family were guests for the day on last Sunday at the home of his cousin Mrs. Earl Wolfe east of Union, and who shortly returned from the hospital at Omaha where he was for a while receiving treatment after having been injured in a wreck with his truck. He is getting along nicely now.

Word from Beaver City, where Mont Shrader and wife removed some two years ago comes the good word that the crops were good there this season, and besides the excellent corn and wheat which was grown there, they were blessed last week with a fine bouncing baby boy, and both the young man and the mother are reported as doing finely. Well, Mont is not feeling so bad himself, as to that.

Miss Mildred Nellor, instructor in music in the Nehawka schools, has in training two of her students who will take part in the contest of the M-I-N-K contest or the association embracing Missouri, Iowa, Nebraska and Kansas, and which contest is to be held in Peru some time in the near future. The two are a lad and one a lass who are in training for the contest are Lucille Hadley and Thomas Troop.

Charles Taylor of Omaha was a visitor in Nehawka on last Sunday and a guest during his stay at the home of Mr. and Mrs. B. B. Stone, and was telling of a trip which he made in the west recently and while there met James M. Stone who with the family are stopping at Tucson, where Mr. Stone is rapidly regaining his health. In a conversation with the physician who has charge of the case of Mr. Stone out there, he was told that by remaining there for a short time longer that Mr. J. M. Stone would have better health than he had had for many years. This is excellent news for the friends of this young man and his family.

Many Attend Legion Meet. Many of the members of the American Legion of Nehawka, were in attendance at the district meeting which was held at Nebraska City on last Monday, and with their influence and hard work were doing all possible to make the gathering a pronounced success. Will Give Concert. The two bands, the Nehawka band and the Lewiston band will on Tuesday of the coming week, give a concert and entertainment at the auditorium of Nehawka, and which will be an excellent one for the bands both are well trained and at the same time contain many very fine musicians. Be sure and do not have the date occupied Tuesday, January 20th.

Make Good on Sale. The day fine and the crowd was pleasant, so there was a large crowd at the sale which was held by Aubrey Hopkins, five miles north of Nehawka, and that the buyers might be comfortable, the Ladies' Aid of the Murray church served lunch, and were able to realize some forty dollars from their sale which they turned to the church, and were pleased that they were able to serve so well.

Good News Off the Wire. A message flashed from San Diego early Monday morning, brought some good news to the home of Mr. and Mrs. Henry Wessell, that they were blessed by being the grandparents of a very fine eight pound young lady, the daughter of their daughter, the formerly Miss Velma Wessell, but now Mrs. Jessie Miller who with the husband are also happy over the event. Grandfather Wessell is pretty well pleased over the happy event.

The Corn Will Grow. E. G. Hansen living northwest of Nehawka, who picked his corn several weeks ago, placing it in a crib, but from some cause a slight amount of moisture got in the crib and on the corn, Mr. Hansen also butchered a few days since and after having smoked his meat, went to the crib to hang it so that it would have a good place to air, found the corn growing nicely, so George will not have to wait his corn for he knows it will grow. That is pretty well for December weather in this climate.

Gets a New Corn Shelter. Warren Munn who is a veteran corn shelter, that is we mean he has been engaged in the business for many years, and knows the ins and outs and ups and downs of corn shelling, has purchased a new shelter which he has received and is now prepared to do absolutely the very best work possible.
