Murray Hardware has a nice display of Aladdin lamps. Call and see them.

There will be a waffle supper at the Christian church Saturday evening, January 24th.

Eat waffles and country sausage at the church Saturday evening, January 24th. All you can eat for 35c.

Mrs. Eli M. Smith and daughter, Miss Ruth, were visiting in Murray for a short time on last Monday afternoon.

John Hobscheidt has been feeling quite poorly for the past week and was hardly able to be about but is reported as being quite a bit better at this time.

Thomas Nelson, George E. Nickles and Sam F. Latta were all over to Plattsmouth on last Friday where they were attending the Masonic lodge at that place.

John Frans was a visitor at Nehawka on last Monday where he went to visit with his little son and also with the family of Nick Klaurens for a short time.

John Fitzpatrick was a visitor in Murray on last Monday afternoon, driving over from his home at Weeping Water to look after some business matters for a short time.

Green Piggot has been rather sick for the past week and has been kept to his home and bed during the greater portion of the time. He is, however, some better at this time.

Victor Clarence of near Union was a visitor in Murray for a time on last Monday afternoon meeting his many friends here and at the same time looking after some business matters.

Lee Nickles was a visitor in Murray on Tuesday of last week and was looking after some business matters regarding the Murray Farmers Elevator, he being one of the board of directors.

George E. Nickles received a car of the Franklin county Illinois coal and was unloading it on Monday and Tuesday of this week. Balse Meisinger was hustling the deliveries over town.

Mrs. William Sporer has been feeling rather poorly for a number of days but is reported as being some better at this writing and which news is received with pleasure by her many friends.

Murray Hardware has a nice display of Aladdin lamps. Call and see them.

Mr. and Mrs. W. L. Seybold were enjoying a drive on last Sunday to Shenandoah, Iowa, where they were visiting at the KMA broadcasting station and also visiting with friends in the magic city.

Miss Smith is doing the chores for Carl Kent since that gentleman met with his accident when he broke his wrist starting an automobile. Sidney sure gets around and gets the chores done as well as being the chauffeur.

Mr. and Mrs. Isaac Addeleman and their little son who are making their home at Springfield, were guests for the day on last Sunday at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Dan Horchar, Mrs. Addeleman and Mr. Dan Horchar being sister and brother.

Visited Jack Shaw.

It had been reported that Jack Shaw was dead some time since and still the report was not satisfactory and so a short time since J. V. Pittman and J. E. Hatchett, each old time friends of Mr. Shaw when he formerly resided in Murray and conducted a blacksmith shop here and also was working a good deal at the carpenter trade, and last heard from was residing at Crete, and these two gentlemen drove over to that city recently and found their old time friend who did not know them or they him. But being directed to his home they went and when they knew each other enjoyed a very fine visit. Mr. Shaw is caretaker of the Y. M. C. A. at Crete.

White Wyandotte Cockerels.

I have a number of White Wyandotte cockerels for sale at $1.25, while they last.—Mrs. J. E. Lancaster, Phone 2511, Murray, Nebraska. JS-2tw.

Visits Murray Friends.

A. M. Kingdom who for a time enjoyed a very fine business in Murray while engaged in the pharmacy line, and while here accumulated a large circle of friends and who is making his home in Omaha at this time was a visitor with his friends here for a time on Monday afternoon of this week.

Have Pleasant Evening.

On last Tuesday evening the families of J. A. Scotten, Lud Hallas and Ralph Kennedy were over to Plattsmouth where they were the guests for the evening at the pleasant home of Dr. and Mrs. G. L. Taylor of the county seat. These four couples surely enjoyed the evening to the very best. The Murray folks in their departing for their home at the close of the pleasant evening expressed themselves as having greatly enjoyed the visit.

Lease Elevator To Sam Latta.

The members of the Murray Farmers Elevator Company and their officers entered into a contract to lease the elevator and grounds to Sam F. Latta who conducted the business there last year. Mr. Latta was not-wasting the poor year, successful in making a good year out of the shipment of grain.

Will Make Home in Plattsmouth.

Aubrey Hopkins, who held a very successful sale on last Thursday will as soon as he shall have gotten his house in readiness, move to the small farm which he purchased a short distance from Plattsmouth. The carpenters have some work yet to complete the place. Aubrey is desirous of getting moved before the good weather breaks, for he realizes that it cannot hold forever.

Lewiston News Notes

There will be good music and lots of laughs at the home talent play. Don't miss it.

Mrs. A. T. Hansen, Mrs. Moore and Margaret Moore were Nebraska City visitors Friday. Deacon Dubb and Philippine Popover courtship is worth the price. Don't fail to see it January 16th. Mr. and Mrs. Guy Wiles, Mr. and Mrs. H. L. Gayer, attended the fine feed at Organized Agriculture Tuesday.

John Hobscheidt and Nick Friedrich were attending the meeting of the stockholders of the creamery Tuesday.

The band was given an oyster supper after the practice Monday evening. The band together with their friends numbered about forty. Mrs. W. A. Royal spent the week end at the Albert Young home. Mrs. Royal just returned from a months' stay in Norfolk and Plainview.

Jim Oldham of Omaha, trainmaster for the B & M, was visiting at the home of his aunt, Mrs. Oldham and also at the Albert Young home. Walter Newland of Eagle was down looking over the pure bred herd of Duroc of Albert Young and made a purchase of a number for breeding purposes.

Word was received from Dick Oldham in Canada that his sister, Mrs. Erma Connelly died Dec. 9, at her home in Oregon. Dick is the only one left of the brothers and sisters, of which there were eight and lived for a good many years on the farm that is now owned by W. G. Boedeker and was quite active in the community life of Lewiston many years ago.

Social Circle Club Meets.

The Social Circle club met with Mrs. Natta Harms at the home of her mother, Mrs. Jennings, in Murray. It was one of the outstanding meetings of the year, possibly on account that Mrs. Harms was a very active member when she lived on the farm in our midst. Since moving to Murray other duties came that made it impossible for her to do as much as she would of liked. Most all the members were present. A good dinner, good program. With the resigning of Mrs. Wolfe, Mrs. Harms was elected secretary and treasurer. It was voted to meet Tuesday, Jan. 13th, to practice the music. All members are expected to be there at 2 p. m. with the yellow book and other music.

Stockholders Meet.

A meeting of the stockholders of the Murray Library Association was held at the school building Tuesday, Jan. 13 for the purpose of deciding whether the library should be turned over to the Study Club and be used as a Community building or to be opened and used for library purposes. It was voted that the building should be kept and used for a library again. By motion duly seconded, put to a vote and declared by the chairman, the following officers were elected: Margaret Brendel, president; Gertrude Nickles, vice president; Beulah Sans, secretary and treasurer. There being no further business to come before the stockholders the meeting was adjourned.

UNITED BROTHERN IN CHRIST

Otto Engbretson, pastor. Nehawka Church. Morning worship service 10 a. m. Bible church school 11 a. m. Young people's C. E. 7 p. m. Evening Evangelistic service 7:30 p. m. Cottage prayer meeting Wednesday night 7:30 p. m. Otterbein Church. Bible church school 10 a. m. Morning worship service 11 a. m. Prayer meeting Tuesday evening 8 p. m. Ladies Aid meets all day each Thursday.

The young people's Christian Endeavor meets at the J. A. Davis home Friday evening. The topic for the evening "My Idea of What a Young Woman Ought to Be, and My Idea of What a Young Man Ought to Be." This should be of interest to all. A young man and a young woman will have charge of the meeting. Come. "If any man will come after me, let him deny himself and take up his cross and follow me." Matt. 16:24.

HOLD FINE MEETING

The Cedar Creek Project Club held an enjoyable social meeting at the home of Mrs. Philip Albert, Tuesday afternoon, Jan. 6, 1931.

The meeting was planned to practice the club songs as there is to be no regular meeting this month.

Two of the members, Mrs. Henry Albert and Mrs. Robert Silvers served a delightful lunch. The next regular meeting will be at the home of Mrs. Arthur Meisinger, Feb. 3.

All members that are keeping accounts, and have any questions concerning them may go to the next Leaders Meeting at Louisville in the afternoon of Jan. 27.

OVER WORKED NERVES

UP TO your ears in work—every nerve at high tension. No wonder you snap at the wife and bark at the children. Watch out! Overworked nerves may lead to Sleeplessness, Nervous Headache, Nervous Indigestion and a host of other unpleasant disturbances. Why don't you try Dr. Miles' Effervescent Nerve Tablets? Just one in a half glass of water makes a pleasant, sparkling drink delightfully soothing to over-taxed nerves. Dr. Miles' Nerve is now made in two forms—Liquid and Effervescent Tablet. Both are the same therapeutically. Large Package $1.00

MRS. KECK ILL

From Wednesday's Daily.—Mrs. Otto Keck, who has been suffering very much for the past several days from a severe attack of the flu and the prevailing severe cold that has reached almost an epidemic in the community, is now reported as some better and was able to be up for a short time today.

COMMUNITY MEETING

The Pleasant Ridge community club will hold their regular meeting on Friday evening, January 16th at the school. All are welcome.
