Smith Brothers to Overhaul Their Equipment Here

Work Will Require 100 Mechanics and Cover Period of From Sixty to Ninety Days.

The Smith Brothers Construction Co. of Fort Worth, Texas, who have had the contract for the construction work of the natural gas pipeline for the Missouri Valley Pipeline Co., as well as the Continental Construction Co. from the Texas and Oklahoma gas fields to this city and on to Chicago, are to establish their northern headquarters here for some time at least.

With the coming of the force of some 400 men laying the last lines of the large twenty-four inch mains from Beatrice to this city and connecting with the pipes laid on the bedrock of the Missouri river for the Continental Construction Co., the active construction work covered by the contract of the Smith Brothers will close and the company proposes to overhaul the equipment of the company.

The work of repairing, overhauling and general renovation of all of the large array of equipment used by the contracting company will be undertaken here and the Smith Brothers will establish their temporary headquarters at this place for the work. This will bring to the city a force of 100 men, all of whom are mechanics, helpers and the force of foremen in charge of the work and it is estimated will require from sixty to ninety days to complete, and place the ditching machines and other large and expensive equipment in the best of shape for the summer work.

Through the assistance of the Chamber of Commerce the O. K. garage building on Washington avenue has been secured for the use of the company and here will be located the offices of the company, the machine shop and where the smaller pieces of machinery can be handled. The company will also have the use of a part of the new athletic field for the storage of their larger machines while they are undergoing repairs and the three lots northeast of the garage on the property of Martin Peterson where machinery will be stored and the blacksmith shop of the company.

The work will be under the direction of Superintendent Wentworth of the company, Mr. West, the camp boss and who also has charge of the camp of the large force of pipeline workers that is now moving to this locality, and J. K. Holt, the time keeper of the company.

Lora Davis, Old Time Resident, is Called to Rest

Resident of Plattsmouth Since 1867 and One of Old Residents of the Community

From Monday's Daily— On Sunday morning, February 1st, at the home of his niece, Miss Ella Kennedy, Lora Davis, 89, one of the long time residents of the city, passed to the last reward after an illness that has covered the past few years when he gradually succumbed to the ailments of his age and to which death brought a peaceful ending.

Lora Davis, son of Edwin and Ann M. Davis, was born in Coshocton, Coshocton county, Ohio, August 8, 1850, and lived there until seven years of age when the family came west to Knoxville, Iowa, where they settled in 1857. Lora was five years old when his father, Edwin Davis, was elected as treasurer of the county which Knoxville was the county seat. In the year 1867 they came to Plattsmouth and where the family has since resided, the parents locating in a home on high school hill where they resided for the remainder of their lifetime. It was here that Lora Davis was educated and later on completing his school work entered the employ of the Burlington in the local shops and continued there for a great many years. In 1890 Mr. Davis departed for Colorado and over a thirty year period was engaged in railroading and mining at Cripple Creek, Colorado, returning to Plattsmouth in 1920 and since that time has resided here with his twin sister, Mrs. Laura Peterson at the old home. For the past three years Mr. Davis has been in poor health and on February 1st, 1931, he passed peacefully at the home of his niece, Miss Ella Kennedy, who has given them every care and comfort possible in their declining years.

The funeral services were held this afternoon at 2:30 at the home of Miss Kennedy on Locust street, Rev. C. O. Troy of the First Methodist church having charge of the service, the Davis family being among the early members of the church here. During the services Mrs. E. H. Westcott gave one of the old loved hymns, "In the Sweet Bye and Bye." At the conclusion of the service the body was borne to Oak Hill cemetery to be laid to rest beside the father and mother, who have preceded Mr. Davis in death. The pall bearers were selected from the family friends and neighbors, being Frank A. Cloldt, J. W. Crabbill, Mike Tritsch, Jess F. Wargo, E. H. Westcott and Will T. Adams.

MANY ATTEND SERVICES

From Monday's Daily— The Methodist church yesterday had a very fine observance of "Family Day" at the church and which brought out one of the largest congregations at the morning worship hour at the church that has been there for many months. The pastor, Rev. C. O. Troy, had arranged this special service and was delighted with the response that had come and the heads of families and their children were present in very large numbers. The largest number in one family was that of Mrs. W. H. Rainey, while the congregation represented persons from many different states who were gathered there to enjoy the day.

The pastor, Rev. Troy, had arranged a very impressive and inspiring sermon on "The Christian Home," one that was filled with many beautiful tributes to the American Home as it has existed in the past years of our national life and the value of the home to the community and the nation as the backbone of our national life and upon which social structure the church and other institutions of the land must find a foundation.

The choir of the church gave a very beautiful anthem "Open the Gates," a splendidly rendered selection.

N. K. PEOPLES POORLY

N. K. Peoples has for some days past been quite poorly at his home on North Eighth street and is still feeling very poorly and has been confined to his home for the greater part of the time. It is hoped that Mr. Peoples may be able to rally from his illness and resume his former activities.

C. E. Society Observes 50th Anniversary

Local Society Enjoys Gathering at Presbyterian Church—Miss Olive Gass Speaks.

A meeting of unusual interest was held in the Fellowship room of the Presbyterian church Sunday evening for the large audience of adults, former members of the society and the founding of the Christian Endeavor Society. Miss Olive Gass, who holds the honor of being one of the charter members of the local C. E. society was the leader for the service and had planned a splendid program for the large audience of adults, former members of the society and present members which had gathered to honor the occasion.

The first part of the program was given over to short talks by the adults and former Endeavorers on the importance and results of the work done by the society of which they are a part. The second part of the program was devoted to matters of an historical nature relative to the founding of Christian Endeavor in 1881 by Dr. Clarke and its beginning in Plattsmouth. Miss Margaret Hodgert, also a charter member of the local society, related the founding of the Plattsmouth society in 1890, or just nine years after the beginning of the society in the east. The original group here was composed of fifteen and attained an active membership of fifty with some twenty-five more on the affiliated list. Miss Gass described some of the work of the committees in times past and to further demonstrate the activities of the past, had Miss Pearl Staats, sponsor of the present organization, read three poems written by former members in years gone by. These described the members and activities of the society in a poetic way which was highly amusing to the younger generation who heard them. Geo. L. Farley also an early member of the local society, related that the first Christian Endeavor group formed west of the Mississippi river was organized at Weeping Water, Mrs. E. H. Westcott also spoke of her early connection with the society. Paul Iverson, president of the Society of 1931, was called upon to express the gratitude of the Endeavorers for the program sponsored by the former members and to outline the hopes and plans for the coming year.

For the concluding part of the program, Miss Gass gave a splendid talk upon the subject: "Work while it is yet day for the night cometh when no man can work." Her remarks were timely and appreciated by the audience. A solo by Lynn Minor, "Just for Today," accompanied by Miss Estelle Baird at the piano, closed the hour's service.

The program was thoroughly enjoyed by all present who were grateful to Miss Gass for her efforts in preparing the program and to also those who took part.

AUTO BURNS UP

From Tuesday's Daily— Last evening while Henry Krejci was motoring to Omaha, driving a Hudson sedan belonging to his brother, Frank Krejci, he had the misfortune to have the car catch fire and burn all of the body off the car, leaving only the chassis of the auto. Mr. Krejci had reached La Platte when he noticed the car start missing and happened to glance toward the rear of the car discovering it was leaping over the car and in a few seconds the car was burning very rapidly. Carl Swanson of Hamburg, Iowa, who was also driving to Omaha, came along at the time and with many attempts to try and extinguish the flames without success. The car was almost a total loss and there was no insurance on the car, the owner stated today.

Terryberry family will be pleased to learn that Wallace Terryberry, the young son of the family, is now doing very nicely at the Methodist hospital at Omaha where he is recovering from an attack of mastoid and the several operations that have been necessary to remove the cause of the trouble. The lad is now showing marked improvement and has been able to recognize and enjoy visits with the parents and relatives and his condition is just as well as possible considering the severe ordeal that he has been through.

Investigate Attempt to Derail Mop Train

Several Spikes Found Pulled Out of Rails and Bar Used in Deed Found on Tracks

From Tuesday's Daily— Special agents of the Missouri Pacific railroad as well as Sheriff Bert Reed have been busy the past two days in the investigation of what seems to have been an attempt to cause a wreck on the Missouri Pacific railroad on the main line that passes through this city.

A northbound freight train that reached here Sunday was the cause of the discovery of the attempt to derail the train when the locomotive drew spikes from the ties, in the pilot of the locomotive and carried the bar from the spot where the rails and ties had been tampered with, to a point near Willview where the train stopped and the investigation started that revealed the fact that someone had been tampering with the rails.

There were a number of spikes taken from the inside of the rails for a short distance along the track north of the Missouri Pacific station and freight house, but the party or parties doing the work had evidently little experience with wrecking as the spikes from the inside of the rails prevented the rails from spreading outward and the freight train was able to pass over the rails safely.

DIES IN CALIFORNIA

From Tuesday's Daily— A message has been received here by Lee and Miss Etta Nickles announcing the death of their aunt, Mrs. Henrietta Simpson, which occurred Sunday at her home in Sausalito, California. As a prologue of the meeting E. H. Westcott, pianist of the club, gave a very fine piano rendition of the national airs of the United States, France, Scotland and Canada.

The address of the meeting was by R. Foster Patterson and was a most able and eloquent discussion of the question of the relationships of nations and world peace, two objects of the Rotary and which have been of outstanding interest in the years since the close of the world war.

The two high school students who were presented as members of the club for February were Merle McCrary, senior and Clarence Troy, junior, and who were introduced to their fellow members in a most appropriate manner.

Americanization Theme at Womans Club Meeting

Address by R. Foster Patterson of This City and Alex Giest of Louisville Enjoyed

From Tuesday's Daily— The meeting of the Plattsmouth Woman's club was held last evening at the home of the president, Mrs. James T. Begley and with an unusually large number of the members present to take part in the meeting. Mrs. Begley was assisted by Mrs. E. G. Shellenbarger, Mrs. C. A. Marshall and Mrs. James G. Mauzy.

The program was under the direction of Mrs. Ralph M. Wiles and was one of the most interesting that has been held in this year on the club calendar, embracing the discussion of Americanization by two very able and talented speakers, R. Foster Patterson, principal of the high school, and Alex Giest of Louisville, commander of the American Legion post of that city.

Mr. Patterson in his usual able and gifted manner presented his viewpoint of the Americanization program, to teach the spirit of America to those who were born here as well as those who come to this land from other shores.

The address of Mr. Giest was much appreciated as it gave the clear cut and decisive views of a naturalized citizen, "What it Means to Be a Citizen," and the speaker who had been born and reared in Russia, gave a great word picture of the conditions that exist in the country of which he now is a real citizen and one proud of the honor. Mr. Giest is not only a citizen but has served his adopted land in the World War with bravery and honor.

The musical program comprised two numbers by talented young men of the community, James Begley, Jr., in a vocal selection and Glenn Woodbury in a very charming piano number.

The high school girls who were the guests of the club ladies were Miss Helen Schulz and Miss Patricia Ferris.

As the evening was drawing to the close the hostesses served a very dainty and much appreciated luncheon.

DIES IN ARIZONA

From Wednesday's Daily— The message was received here today by Mrs. Herman Tiekotter, Sr., announcing the sad news of the death of her daughter-in-law, Mrs. Carl Tiekotter. The message came as a sad blow to the members of the family as well as the many friends here as it was hoped that when Mrs. Tiekotter left in September from her home at Webb City, Missouri, for the southwest that she might be able to withstand the ravages of tuberculosis from which she had been a sufferer for some time.

The deceased lady was twenty-nine years of age and was formerly Miss Leta Turner of Webb City, her childhood home and where she was married to Mr. Tiekotter some nine years ago. The family made their home here five years and during that time Mrs. Tiekotter formed many friends among the Plattsmouth people who learn with much regret of the death of Mrs. Tiekotter.

From Wednesday's Daily— Last night Officers Pickrell and Libersall discovered a trio of young lads ranging from 14 to 16 years of age shivering around on the street of the downtown section and accordingly rounded them up and placed them in the city jail to remain for the night. Investigation and questioning of the three boys revealed the fact that they were from Fremont and had started from their homes hitch hiking to California, the reputed land of the movie stars and the "go getters," but were lagging as they reached this city, the traveling public being loth to pick up strangers after many highway hold-ups. The boys gave the names of Earl Kozelak, 16, Glen Taylor, 14, and Maurice Menckenthal, 15.

The authorities were able to reach the parents at Fremont and notify them of the fact that the boys are here and being held for the parents for their return to Fremont.

C. P. HALL SUIT IS UP

Suit of Charles P. Hall, an aged retired farmer, formerly of near Elmwood, against his children and John J. Ledwith, guardian, to have a receivership set aside will be taken up by District Judge Chappell at Lincoln Wednesday. Mr. Hall has an estate worth around $250,000 or more, and upon the request of his children a guardian was appointed in the county court on April 17, 1928.

There was a stipulation between attorneys for the children and the attorney for the father, it is claimed, Mr. Hall after the appointment was made took exceptions to it and claimed he did not understand that he was to be declared incompetent and though the guardianship to be only nominal and that he was still to transact business with the advice of his guardian.

It is alleged in the petition that it was stipulated that he was a citizen of Lancaster county but he claims he is not and that his home is in Cass county where he owns considerable land. The children claimed that on account of his age he was incompetent to handle his affairs. He had been married just shortly before the guardianship matter came up to Estelle Fowler and the marriage figures in the suit.

Apprehend Youth for Attempt to Derail Train

William Goodrow of Council Bluffs Apprehended After Investigation of Case

From Wednesday's Daily— William Goodrow, 19, of 1609 Avenue N., Council Bluffs, Iowa, was arrested this morning in connection with the alleged attempt to wreck a Missouri Pacific train in this city early Monday.

The crew of a northbound freight train over the Missouri Pacific passing through this city early Monday morning discovered a bar used in prying out spikes from ties was entangled in the pilot of the locomotive just as the train reached Willview and an investigation was started with the result that it was found a number of spikes had been removed from the rails of the main line tracks a short distance north of the station and freight house.

Special Agent Kirk of the railroad company together with Sheriff Bert Reed and local officers, have been investigating the case and with the result that Goodrow was apprehended this morning at his home by the Council Bluffs police and Mr. Kirk.

The young man was brought to this city at noon today and held for questioning at the office of Sheriff Reed. When first arrested the young man claimed that he had removed the spikes with the idea that the train would be slowed down so that he might board it and reach his home in Council Bluffs or at least Omaha.

The youth charged with the attempted derailment is apparently mentally afflicted and to the local officers acknowledged that he had been here on Saturday night preceding the attempt to derail the train and had attended a picture show here and had later gone on to Bellevue. He was apparently unable to recall all of the details of the removal of the spikes and the attempt to stop the train which he had given earlier in the day to the Council Bluffs police.

ANOTHER RECORD BREAKER

From Monday's Daily— If February is to be guided by its opening day there is the assurance of a very early spring as the temperature here Sunday rose to a new record of 56 to top the previous high of 53 which prevailed one day last week. The temperature Saturday night dropped to 26 above but by noon had rose to the new record. The fine weather and the warm sunshine brought out a very large number of people to enjoy the day and the automobile travel was very heavy through the city with a great many here from Omaha and Lincoln to enjoy the drive and the usual heavy showing of Iowa travelers who find the new traffic bridge a most convenient means of visiting with the friends here in Nebraska.

Whether or not the groundhog, the supposed criterion of the weather for the next six weeks will have any effect on the weather in the future remains to be seen, but if the other six weeks of winter are as pleasant as the past there will be little complaint. Some have ventured that the groundhog has not even been in his hole this winter.
