Mrs. Frank Morgan Passes Away at

Attack of Pneumonia Results Fatally for Prominent Plattsmouth Lady After Short Illness

Mrs. Gertrude L. Morgan, widow of Frank J. Morgan, former mayor and well known democratic state leader, passed away at her home in this city Sunday night after an illness of a weeks' duration, suffering from pneumonia and which in her weakened condition, proved fatal to this highly esteemed lady.

Mrs. Morgan had been visiting at Hay Springs, Nebraska, with her son, Paul C. Morgan and family, and her sister, Mrs. Anna Horn, for some weeks, returning home a week ago Saturday, at that time she suffering from what was thought to be an attack of flu and a few days following her return was ill and medical aid was called when it was found that and has since Thursday been gradually growing weaker until death came to her relief last evening.
