Banks of State Take Up Charge for Check Handling

Lincoln Banks Start Move That Will Probably Be Followed by Smaller Banks of State

To reimburse itself for the expense of handling checking accounts, against which the number of checks drawn is out of proportion to the size of the average balance, the First National bank of Lincoln, beginning March 1 will make an activity charge for checks on accounts averaging $300 or less, after allowing one free check for each $10 on deposit.

Notice to that effect, says the State Journal, has been sent to the bank's customers. The Continental National of that city is working on a similar plan, but formal announcement of it will not be made until a later date. The National Bank of Commerce is studying the plan and analyzing its accounts but has not yet decided whether or not it will inaugurate the charge. M. Weil, president, said.

The First National's announcement says that analysis by many banks has shown that a bank can handle one check for each $10 average balance in a customer's account and that the cost on each check paid in excess of that number is approximately three cents. Accordingly, the bank will charge three cents for each check paid against a customer's account, after allowing one free check for each $10 of average balance in the accounts. This applies in accounts averaging less than $300. Thus, if a customer's average balance is $50 he is allowed five free checks. In addition, fifty cents a month will be charged as an account charge if the average balance is less than $100. Activity charges may be avoided, the First National explains, if customers will give attention to their average balances and issue checks accordingly.

Banks over the state are generally adopting this form of service charge in a greater or less degree and Plattsmouth banks make a service charge of 50c a month on accounts under $50. The charge for handling checks is expected to be taken up by the smaller banks in a more modified form, however, as a great many small accounts are to be found in the smaller banks of the state.

WINS SECOND PLACE

At the MINK musical contest was held at Peru on last Friday evening, a bit of glory came to Nehawka when Tommie Troop was awarded second place on tenor when he sang "Sylvia" by Schubert, and attracted the admiration of all music lovers attending the four-state contest. There were three singers from Nehawka, they being Misses Leora Pollard and Lucille Hadley, and Thomas Troop. Of the three place was won by Thomas and it was solely on the excellence of the production. Master Thomas was tutored by Miss Mildred Neller, instructor of music in the Nehawka schools and while Tommy has great ability, his instructor rendered much assistance by her instruction.

WOODMAN CIRCLE MEETS

From Wednesday's Daily—The Woodman Circle met yesterday afternoon at the home of Mrs. Fitzmeyer on North 11th street and with a very large number of the members in attendance. The ladies had as one of their main business matters the election of the delegates to the state convention at Lincoln on March 26th and 27th, naming as the delegates Mrs. Elizabeth Buttery and Mrs. Lena Droege while the alternates selected were Mrs. Fitzmeyer and Mrs. W. J. Hartwick. Miss Marie Kaufmann, who has been chairman of the auditing committee of the state organization for the past few years, will also be an ex-officio member of the convention.

BARBER IS PUZZLED

From Wednesday's Daily—Clate Rosenbergs, who barbers in the winter and golfs in the summer, was expressing wonderment today over the destruction of the barge on the Missouri river yesterday. Clate states he cannot understand how the skipper of the fleet allowed the fire to happen in his convoy, or how such a successful fire could occur with so much water around. This weighty problem Mr. Rosenbergs is to take up with the captain of the steamer which is engaged in the work of assisting in pumping sand from the river and helping lay the new pipeline under the river bed.

CLUB WORK IN CASS COUNTY

For a number of years Cass county club workers have been able to see a great gain both in members and the number of clubs until there are now fifty-six clubs in the county. Forty-six of that number are extension clubs and about thirty of those are in the county federation the other federated clubs being either study or reading clubs. For a number of years interested state and county workers have labored faithfully to perfect organization of the county work and at present near forty-five clubs are in the federation about thirty of them are project clubs under the direction of the Farm Bureau work.

Each club in the county federation are paying $1 dues which is to pay the expenses of the yearly convention and other expenses which may come up from time to time. Much effort has been expended to make these conventions not only profitable but a pleasure as well, enabling ladies of them to become acquainted with club work and with each other. The president of the State Federation has just sent out a letter giving information concerning a bill to be introduced in Nebraska and a copy of a bill introduced in the legislature in the interest of creating a county Welfare Board to assist in the work of assisting the State Department of Public Welfare, House Roll No. 316 and Senate File No. 46. We are informed of a bill to abolish the State Library Commission which is senate file No. 419. Club women to favor this bill and let their senators and representatives know their sentiment on this bill and thus encourage the passing of it, as well as the discouraging of the passing of the other one. These who have made a study of the question of the latter advise that there is much need of the Library Commission.

MARRIED FIFTY-SEVEN YEARS

On the eighth day of February, 1874, George A. Latta, then of Rock Bluffs, and Miss Margaret Peak, were united in marriage and immediately departed for the new town of Lincoln and it was then a small town and also a new town. There the aunt of Mr. Latta, Mrs. E. J. Latta, had provided a sumptuous wedding dinner for the newly weds, and many other friends. On last Sunday, just fifty-seven years after the wedding, this couple who were bride and groom that day, were the guests of honor with the aunt who had provided the wedding dinner so long ago, at the home of Mr. and Mrs. John Bennett, Mrs. Bennett being daughter of Mr. and Mrs. George Latta at whose home they are staying for the winter, entertained at a dinner. There were there for the occasion Dr. E. J. Latta and wife, also their son, Earl Latta and wife, of Lincoln, Sam Latta and wife of Murray, where an excellent time was had. Mr. Sam P. Latta speaking of the earlier times, told of the year 1861 when his uncle, W. S. Latta, came to Rock Bluffs, just at the beginning of the civil war. Mr. and Mrs. George A. Latta whose anniversary was being celebrated following their wedding settled on a homestead near Red Willow.

Moscow 'Red' Urges Jobless to Act, Not Wait

Soviet Trade Union Organ Calls for 'Organized Class Hatred'—Wants Real Action

Moscow, Feb. 4.—Increased concentration of Communist and Labor organizations all over the world upon the problem of organizing the unemployed is advocated in an article which A. Lozovsky, head of the "Red" Trade Union International, publishes in today's issue of "Trud," the organ of the Soviet trade unions. He also urges preparation for the celebration of an international day of struggle against unemployment on Feb. 25.

Mr. Lozovsky defines the objective of the Communist and Red Trade Union International regarding unemployment as "not patience but stormy protest; not waiting, but passing into offensive; not charity, but insurance at the expense of the state and employers; not entreaties with outstretched hands, but organized class hatred against those guilty of mass hunger and poverty." He urges strengthening of Communist organizations for unemployed.

He states there is a great gap between the amount and severity of unemployment in America and England and a comparatively small number of persons are drawn into such organizations. He attributes this partly to the failure of Communist trade unions fully to recognize the importance of work among the unemployed and to incorrect forms of agitation.

Mr. Lozovsky declares the fundamental problem before all sections of the "Red" Trade Union International is "imparting a mass character to the movement of the unemployed, drawing into it all the unemployed, uniting these hungry masses with those who work but are already half hungry." He recommends concentration upon a few outstanding slogans capable of immediate realization, such as state insurance for unemployed, instead of dissipating the attention of the unemployed by advocating a variety of demands causing the idea that their demands can only be satisfied after a revolution.

Freedom of Speech Restored by Spain

Royal Proclamation Calls for Parliamentary Vote in March—Suspended Seven Years

Madrid, Feb. 8.—After more than seven years of dictatorship, constitutional guarantees were restored to Spanish subjects today by a royal proclamation which ends for parliamentary elections in March.

The guarantees and parliamentary elections were suspended by the dictatorship of the late Miguel Primo de Rivera September 23, 1923. Despite the dictator's frequent promises to return Spain to a constitutional government, this was not done until today.

General Damasco Berenguer, who succeeded Primo de Rivera as dictator more than a year ago, had continued the suspension during a year which saw a series of labor, political and radical disturbances in the country.

Political circles say the constitutional guarantees will be endorsed by the government, providing no attempts are made to disturb the public peace. Should such disorders develop, the suspension would again be announced.

The decree calls for election of deputies on March 1 and of senators March 15. It says the king will preside at the opening of parliament March 25.

As for constitutional guarantees, the proclamation restored freedom of speech, freedom of writing, freedom of lawful assembly and freedom of political and religious organization movements during the so-called election period. After that parliament is supposed to take up future government.—World-Herald.
