look after the affairs of the barber shop. Mr. Clarke who is an excellent barber feels that he should look after the business at the shop and allow the others to look after the cafe.

Come to Church Sunday.

You are invited to attend the Bible school at the Baptist church the coming Sunday and also all Sundays as well as the preaching services. The Rev. W. A. Taylor extends the invitation to all who are not worshipping elsewhere to come and join in the good fellowship which is there. The services will be preached from the portion of scripture found in Romans, 10th chapter and verses 1, 2, 3 and 4. Be sure and be there and enjoy the services.

Says Times are Tough.

Amos McNamee who but recently returned from a sojourn in California where he was employed on a ranch, in speaking of the times there says they are much worse than they are here, and says they are mighty tough.

Here Sixty-Two Years.

William L. Stine who has been in this neighborhood for the past sixty-two years, not in Union, for Mr. Stine was here before the city was organized and was a rustling lad many years before and he says that this is the very best winter that has come this way during the time, and Mr. Stine knows.

Prepare Room for New Shop.
Ray Fahrlander and Dean Gillespie, the latter the new barber who has just moved his barber shop to Union from Murray are transforming the east portion of the Propst building into a smaller room for a barber shop and in which Mr. Gillespie will operate his business. Mr. Gillespie is having water piped into the shop which will materially assist in the conduct of the place as it will furnish an abundance of hot and cold water.

Will Meet in Nebraska City.

The meeting of the Woman's Auxiliary of the Episcopal church for this district will be held at the St. Mary's church in Nebraska City on March 3rd. All members are urged to be in attendance at this meeting for it is an important one.

Union a Lively City.

The depression so called, which has been eating into the business of the whole world, finds hard sledding in Union, for during the so-called siege of exceedingly hard times all the buildings of Union are filled up with the single exception of the office which Dr. W. W. Claybaugh occupied and if there is no need of a doctor then the town is sure a healthy one. The A. L. Becker building on lower Main street has two occupants, one the new restaurant "Molly's Cafe" and also the garage and repair shop conducted by Warren Wickham, who with his mother has recently come here from Wyoming. The Propst building has now three occupants, the electric shop and store of Ray Fahrlander, the barber shop of Dean Gillespie and the beauty parlor which fills this building pretty well.

Attend Colonial Tea.

A number of the women of Union were over to Plattsmouth on Tuesday afternoon of this week where they were attending the Colonial Tea at the parlors of the Presbyterian church at that city. Among those enjoying the meeting from Union were Mesdames D. R. Frans, J. D. Cross and Mary E. Allison.

Appointed District Manager.

F. H. McCarthy was appointed as the district manager of the Reliance Insurance company and has been given six counties in the first congressional district which is composed of Cass, Otoe, Richardson, Pawnee, Johnson and Nemaha. The duties of Mr. McCarthy will be to see after the business of these counties and to appoint and instruct agents for his company in the proper conduct of the business of the company.

Surprised Mrs. McCarthy.

Mrs. F. H. McCarthy passed a milestone in the journey of life on last Friday and a large number of her friends came to the home of Mrs. C. G. McCarthy where they properly celebrated the passing of the event. Mrs. C. G. McCarthy was the prime mover of the gathering and by subterfuge got Mrs. F. H. McCarthy to her home where the guests assembled and where they sprung the surprise on the guest of honor. There was there besides the guest of honor and husband Mr. and Mrs. F. H. McCarthy, Messrs. and Mesdames C. G. McCarthy of Union, R. W. Abell, John McCarthy and also Miss Bessie McCarthy of Nebraska City.
