

WEEPING WATER

Misses Verna Binger and Maybelle Turk were in Omaha for the day also looking after some shopping on Wednesday of this week.

Sheriff Bert Reed was a business visitor in Weeping Water on last Tuesday, driving over to serve some legal papers and while here was visiting with his many friends here.

Tony Sudduth who last year purchased the property one mile east and a half mile south of Weeping Water moved to the place and is a real citizen of Weeping Water at this time.

L. R. Lane, better known as Dick Lane has been feeling quite poorly for the past two weeks with repeated attacks of intestinal flu, but is reported as being some better at this time.

C. H. Gibson and Andrew Olsen were called to Plattsmouth on last Saturday where they were looking after some business matters and also some legal questions at the court house.

Humphrey Murphey of Los Angeles has been enjoying a visit here with his brother and other members of the family as well as his many other friends in and around Weeping Water.

The Friendly Ladies were meeting and looking after the business which the order had to look after regarding the organization and work and also sure enjoyed a very pleasant and friendly gathering.

James McCartney and wife from near Waverly were visiting for the day on last Tuesday at the home of their son Doc McCartney and wife of Weeping Water and also meeting many friends in the city.

Ralph Binger who returned home from the hospital at Lincoln last week where he underwent an operation for appendicitis is getting along nicely and will in a short time be able to resume his studies in the state university.

The Weeping Water Woman's club met on Tuesday afternoon of this week at the home of their fellow member, Mrs. Andrew Olson and presented a most worth while program, discussed many questions of public interest, and also planned for future work.

Westley W. Davis and J. S. Williams were over in Omaha City on last Thursday where they were meeting with the representatives from the many cities and where they were considering an equal occupation tax to be advocated by all the towns in this portion of the country.

John S. Williams was puzzled because the sun did not melt the snow and ice from the street in front of the bakery so he got out and chopped the ice from the pavement and scooped it around the corner where the sun got at it. John said he wanted to get it cleared away so there would be a place for the next snow.

W. D. Baker and the good wife have purchased what is known as the McNurlin place, and have been busy for the past number of days in getting it in readiness for occupancy, the entire interior being refurnished with painting and papering and as the place had stood for a long time it was much of a task to get it in shape for living. However when they shall have the place refurnished they are sure will have a fine home. Ed Heneger, the painter and decorator is doing the work, which says it will be the best.

Held Caucuses Monday Night. The Business Temperance caucus held their meeting on last Monday night and nominated candidates for both the council and the board of education, they being for councilmen Spencer J. Marshall, and Dr. A. O. Specht while the nominations for the board of education were Mogens Johnson and Carl E. Day.

To Have No. 1 Graveled. On Monday of this week County Commissioner Fred H. Gorder of Weeping Water was called to Lincoln to look after some business matters, and after having completed the business calling him there called at the office of the state engineer, and in conversation was told that the entire road Nebraska Highway No. 1 which held their meeting on last Monday night and nominated candidates for both the council and the board of education, they being for councilmen Spencer J. Marshall, and Dr. A. O. Specht while the nominations for the board of education were Mogens Johnson and Carl E. Day.

Held Caucuses Monday Night. The Business Temperance caucus held their meeting on last Monday night and nominated candidates for both the council and the board of education, they being for councilmen Spencer J. Marshall, and Dr. A. O. Specht while the nominations for the board of education were Mogens Johnson and Carl E. Day.

To Have No. 1 Graveled. On Monday of this week County Commissioner Fred H. Gorder of Weeping Water was called to Lincoln to look after some business matters, and after having completed the business calling him there called at the office of the state engineer, and in conversation was told that the entire road Nebraska Highway No. 1 which

Held Caucuses Monday Night. The Business Temperance caucus held their meeting on last Monday night and nominated candidates for both the council and the board of education, they being for councilmen Spencer J. Marshall, and Dr. A. O. Specht while the nominations for the board of education were Mogens Johnson and Carl E. Day.

To Have No. 1 Graveled. On Monday of this week County Commissioner Fred H. Gorder of Weeping Water was called to Lincoln to look after some business matters, and after having completed the business calling him there called at the office of the state engineer, and in conversation was told that the entire road Nebraska Highway No. 1 which

Held Caucuses Monday Night. The Business Temperance caucus held their meeting on last Monday night and nominated candidates for both the council and the board of education, they being for councilmen Spencer J. Marshall, and Dr. A. O. Specht while the nominations for the board of education were Mogens Johnson and Carl E. Day.

To Have No. 1 Graveled. On Monday of this week County Commissioner Fred H. Gorder of Weeping Water was called to Lincoln to look after some business matters, and after having completed the business calling him there called at the office of the state engineer, and in conversation was told that the entire road Nebraska Highway No. 1 which

Held Caucuses Monday Night. The Business Temperance caucus held their meeting on last Monday night and nominated candidates for both the council and the board of education, they being for councilmen Spencer J. Marshall, and Dr. A. O. Specht while the nominations for the board of education were Mogens Johnson and Carl E. Day.

To Have No. 1 Graveled. On Monday of this week County Commissioner Fred H. Gorder of Weeping Water was called to Lincoln to look after some business matters, and after having completed the business calling him there called at the office of the state engineer, and in conversation was told that the entire road Nebraska Highway No. 1 which

Held Caucuses Monday Night. The Business Temperance caucus held their meeting on last Monday night and nominated candidates for both the council and the board of education, they being for councilmen Spencer J. Marshall, and Dr. A. O. Specht while the nominations for the board of education were Mogens Johnson and Carl E. Day.

To Have No. 1 Graveled. On Monday of this week County Commissioner Fred H. Gorder of Weeping Water was called to Lincoln to look after some business matters, and after having completed the business calling him there called at the office of the state engineer, and in conversation was told that the entire road Nebraska Highway No. 1 which

Held Caucuses Monday Night. The Business Temperance caucus held their meeting on last Monday night and nominated candidates for both the council and the board of education, they being for councilmen Spencer J. Marshall, and Dr. A. O. Specht while the nominations for the board of education were Mogens Johnson and Carl E. Day.

To Have No. 1 Graveled. On Monday of this week County Commissioner Fred H. Gorder of Weeping Water was called to Lincoln to look after some business matters, and after having completed the business calling him there called at the office of the state engineer, and in conversation was told that the entire road Nebraska Highway No. 1 which

Held Caucuses Monday Night. The Business Temperance caucus held their meeting on last Monday night and nominated candidates for both the council and the board of education, they being for councilmen Spencer J. Marshall, and Dr. A. O. Specht while the nominations for the board of education were Mogens Johnson and Carl E. Day.

THE FUNERAL HOME

Modern conditions and standards of living have called into being an entirely new kind of institution for meeting a universal human need—The Funeral Home.

Planned for the specific purpose which it serves it offers greater efficiency and greater convenience than was possible in the past.

We are proud to be able to offer the communities which we serve the use of such an establishment.

Hobson Funeral Home

WEEPING WATER, NEBR.

has not been provided for, would be graded, drained and graveled this year. This road extends from a mile east of Murray to two miles south of Elmwood, and has a number of miles graveled and with the remainder being cared for the road will be a good one, and while it is delayed, it will come when it will do the entire county much good.

Wants to Be Councilman.

George Metcalf announced the fact to the business community that he would like to be a member of the Weeping Water council and said that he would run on any ticket that he might be asked to. That is all.

For Sale or Trade.

One 1924, 300-egg incubator, $25. Good brood sow and a heifer calf. Write or phone 18'0, Lawrence Colbert, Weeping Water, Nebr. 1tw

Says Business Is Good.

Frank Baldwin who has been at the shop early and late always ready for any job that comes his way for the past more than forty years, and one of the people who has struck many hard blows for the town of his choice, Weeping Water, and is ever ready to defend her against all comers, speaking of business early this week said: "Business is good, and getting better, which is the best way to state the situation and encourage all other lines."

Business Is Better.

Ole Olsen who has during the forty years which he has lived in and about Weeping Water been interested in stone and the stone business received a letter from Minnesota asking for prices and what he could do in the line of loading and shipping stone for points to the north. This looks like business was picking up and for which all should be pleased.

Entertained Their Husbands.

The Jolly Mixers entertained at the home of Mr. and Mrs. C. J. Elgaard on Tuesday of this week, and had as their special guests their husbands, where they enjoyed the evening very pleasantly with games and social conversation as well as providing an excellent supper.

Attended Funeral at Plattsmouth.

Mr. and Mrs. Frank E. Wood received the sad news of the death of their friend, Miss Dora McNurlin, who had been in a hospital at Lincoln for some time. Mr. and Mrs. Wood were over to Plattsmouth on Wednesday of this week to attend the funeral of their friend.

Not as Dangerous as Appeared.

While one of the residents from the southwestern portion of town was coming down town, he was frightened by the smoke pouring out of the home of one of his neighbors, and stopping, rushed back to see. He found that the neighbor had made a den in the basement of his home and was sitting there quietly smoking his old pipe, and had fallen asleep, and the bowl of the pipe had caught fire. But as there seemed no danger, he went on down town and did not turn in the fire alarm.

NOW IS THE TIME TO BUY FARM LAND SAYS E. A. BURNETT

"This is the time to buy rather than sell land," says Chancellor E. A. Burnett of the University of Nebraska, director of the Federal Land bank of Omaha and former dean of the state agricultural college.

"Present values are below normal and will surely improve in the near period of readjustment is completed and we begin the upgrade in industry which will surely carry agriculture with it. We can confidently look to 1931 as a year which will very largely restore normal agricultural prices and improve the condition of our farming communities."

"For 30 years there has been a steady growth in farm values except for very short intervals of depression. There is no reason to believe that the present depression will be different from those former periods. Stocks of goods and material have been reduced to the lowest possible basis. Whenever the increase in market demand comes, it will set factories to work, and absorb the idle labor which has been the chief cause of depression during the past year."

ACHIEVEMENT PROGRAM

At Mynard Community hall on Friday evening at 8:00. Playlet, "Wheels and Heels," will be featured. Everyone who is interested in extension club projects is invited to come and be entertained by the Mynard Homemakers' Project club.

HAMPSHIRE BRED GILTS

I have some fifteen extra fine bred gilts, narrow in May, offered at $2.00 over HARRY top prices. m12-tw-2td. HARRY M. KNABE.

Life Story of Pioneer Woman of Great West

Mrs. Elvira Elliott Ozburn Member of Sturdy Race of Quaker Pioneers of Iowa.

Elvira Elliott was born in Jay county, Indiana, Sept. 27th, 1837, where she grew to womanhood, uniting with the Friends church when a girl, and ever maintaining a love for the Saviour and for the church, a devoted follower of the lowly Nazarine, and which was manifested by her daily life, through the over 93 years. She was united in marriage to Joseph Ozburn on Oct. 9th, 1856, they coming to Iowa to make their home the following year. She passed away as the morning was dawning, at the home of her daughter, Mrs. A. H. Tomlinson, Monday, March 2nd, 1931, the day was ushered in, her soul returned to its Maker, a sheaf well filled during her early life with good deeds for her fellowmen—no one knew her but to reverence and love her. To this union was born eight children, six daughters and two sons, they being Mrs. M. E. Hunnicutt, Mrs. Rhoda Tomlinson, and Mrs. Lydia Davis, all of Indianola, Iowa; Mrs. Clara Briggs of Plattsmouth, Neb.; Mrs. Elsie Dille of Milton, Iowa and Messrs. Albert N. Ozburn of Paton, Iowa and Elmer E. Ozburn of Waukeo, Iowa, and with 36 grandchildren and 55 great grandchildren and one great-great grandchild.

For sixty years Mrs. Ozburn and husband made their home near and in Salem, the husband passing on before, on Sept. 29th, 1910. Since that time Grandmother Ozburn has made her home with her children, a time with one again a season with another; during the past year she has made her home with her two daughters Mrs. Rhoda Tomlinson and Mrs. Lydia A. Davis of Indianola, Iowa. For the past few months she has been confined to her bed, and was cared for by her daughters Mesdames A. H. Tomlinson, Lydia Davis and Elsie Dille, assisted by Mr. A. H. Tomlinson and L. W. Hunnicutt, who nursed the beloved mother with tender care. They were assisted by the other children who made it thus possible for these to devote their time to her tender care.

On Tuesday of last week at the home where she had with the most faithful fortitude awaited the call of the "Saviour" "Come home to be with the loved ones who had passed on before," a funeral service was held, the funeral oration being delivered by the Rev. Jones, pastor of the Friends church of Indianola, and on Wednesday another service was held at the home church in Salem, Iowa, which was conducted by the Rev. Stanley A. H. Tomlinson, in the Friends cemetery and beside that of the husband, whom had lived, loved and labored together for the more than sixty years—there their bodies await the quickening spirit, to again join the spirits which have done so much to the world might be better.

All who have been fortunate in knowing this tenderest of women, were pleased to honor her, all very solicitous during her illness to know how she was, and to render whatever might be possible to serve her. She leaves to mourn her departure five daughters, Mesdames A. H. Tomlinson, W. L. Hunnicutt, Lydia A. Davis of Indianola; Elsie Dille of Milton, Iowa; Clara Briggs of Plattsmouth, Neb., and Albert Ozburn of Paton, Ia.; Mr. Elliott Ozburn of Waukeo, Ia.; Mrs. Belle Barton having preceded the mother to the other world several years ago as also did her husband Arthur Barton.

The world has lost a woman, a friend to all who needed a friend, and a vacancy in the hearts of her relatives and friends has been created, but heaven has been enriched by her going home.

Mrs. Ozburn endeavored to make her life conform to the following which is expressed in a poem by Van Dyke:

"Let me live my life from year to year, With forward face and unreluctant soul, Not hurrying to nor turning from the goal, Nor mourning for the things which disappear In the dim past nor holding back in fear, From what the future veils, but with a whole And happy heart which pays its toll, And travels on with cheer.

So let the way be up the hill or down, My journey will be joy, Still seeking what is sought by every boy: New friendships, high endeavor and a crown, Trusting that in the final quest, The last turn of the road will be the best."

INQUIRERS GET TO WORK

New York—Samuel Seabury, appointed commissioner by Governor Roosevelt to hear the City clubs' charges of incompetency against district Attorney Crain, formally took up his new duties with the organization of the staff which will conduct the hearings. Judge Seabury's chief legal aide, John Kirkland Clark, appointed as his assistant Jacob Gould Schurman, Jr., a former ambassador to Germany. Mr. Schurman has been for the past six months a member of the legal staff in the appellate division's investigation into the magistrates' courts.

It became known that during the week-end from March 7 to 9, a search body searched the files of the bureau of securities where documents containing references to stock sales activities of the late Vivian Gordon are kept. The Gordon papers, however, were in safe. Nothing was taken from the files.

BRING US Your Poultry

PRICES FOR Friday and Saturday March 20th and 21st

- Hens, per lb. 18c
Leghorn Hens, lb. 15c
Stags, per lb. 12c
Roosters, per lb. 8c
Ducks, per lb. 16c
Geese, per lb. 8c
Eggs, per dozen 17c

Notice the price on Ducks and Leghorn Hens. Bring them in. Also—

Bring Us Your Cream Golden Valley Creamery

WHO IS WHO IN CASS COUNTY SCHOOL LEADERSHIP TRAINING

According to the present indications we anticipate that the outstanding religious project of the year for Cass county will be the Leadership Training School to be held this spring in Murdock.

In considering Who's Who in this project, recognition and credit must be given first of all to the Cass County Ministers and Laymen League who have placed themselves wholeheartedly back of the school and are its enthusiastic sponsors.

The definite responsibility of general supervision and promotion has been placed in the hands of "The Board of Administration," of which Rev. R. Pinkham of Weeping Water is the chairman. Other committees are: Finance, Leo Rikil, chairman; and publicity with Rev. Knosp as chairman.

Rev. Knosp has also been chosen as the registrar, and will have charge of the registering for the various courses.

The supervision of the school itself is placed in the hands of the dean, H. A. Norenberg of Calahan. He accredits schools, the dean must have the approval of the International Council of Religious Education. This approval has already been secured.

The success of any school, however, is determined chiefly by a wholehearted response on the part of students and teachers. We trust there will be a large enrollment of the religious workers of the county, a large group who are deeply concerned with the salvation of the world of Christ and the building up of His kingdom.

The teachers have been chosen with care and each one must have the approval of the International in order to teach in an accredited school. We are glad to announce that the following teachers have already been secured: Mrs. E. Warner of Lincoln; Rev. Klein of Elmwood; Rev. Norenberg of Murdock; and Mr. John C. White of Lincoln (Secretary of the Nebraska State Council of Religious Education.)

(Next week: The subjects to be considered in the School.) H. A. NORENBURG.

FORMER POLICEMEN SLAIN

Wintergarden, Fla.—Two former policemen were killed in a gun battle with the chief of police and a patrolman here under circumstances that were unexplained.

NOTICE OF MEETING

Pleasant Ridge Community club will hold their regular meeting on next Friday night. All members please be present.

Furniture Rugs, Pianos, Stoves at Special Prices

One small apartment size piano; practically new Schiller piano and bench; one $35 piano; mahogany spinnet desk; 5-pc. large size mahogany gate leg table and chair set; two electric washers; dining room set; small writing table, three magazine racks; one walnut davenport table; three davenport beds; one duofold; two all-over-enamel kitchen ranges, like new; three oil stoves; two gas ranges; 3-piece mahogany bed room suite; one Princess dresser; one chiffonier; one wardrobe; beds, bed springs and mattresses; one sectional bookcase; one 5-piece breakfast set. Many Articles Not Mentioned Christ Furniture Co. 118-122 So. 6th—Phone 645 Plattsmouth, Nebr.

Cass County Farm Bureau Notes

Copy furnished from Office of County Agent Wainscott

Advices Clover be Plowed

Sweet clover should be plowed under in eastern Nebraska and in sub-irrigated or irrigated sections after all the buds start and the clover is six to ten inches high. P. H. Stewart, extension agronomist at the agricultural college, advises farmers. Men who have studied the soil conditions estimate that plowing the clover under at the height mentioned returns from 60 to 80 per cent as much nitrogen to the soil as leaving the stand of sweet clover for a full two year period.

Allowing the clover to start before plowing it under is better than plowing it under early in the spring, farmers have found. When the roots are coming to bother the other crop all summer. Leaving the stand of clover longer and letting it get up knee high takes too much moisture out of the soil which ought to be available to the corn crop, Stewart says.

One of the best practices which eastern Nebraska farmers have followed in recent years in the ten acre corn yield contest has been to plow under the clover, shallow disk or park the land, then list the corn with a hand ground lister, running it below the depth of plowing to make it scour and to avoid trouble with rotting clover.

In handling the dead stalks of two year old sweet clover this spring, Stewart suggests one of two methods. Disking down the stalks and plowing them under will add some humus to the soil, but the farmer is taking chances with cut worms whose eggs may have wintered on the clover stalks. Burning the stubble in the fall or nearly spring gets rid of most of the cut worm eggs. Farmers say they have to replant corn quite often on fields where sweet clover stalks were turned under while nearby fields that were burned off well seem to have no cut worms in them.

Farmers who started a sweet clover field last year and got only a fair stand can thicken it up this spring by seeding eight to ten pounds of seed per acre and covering it without disturbing the 1930 plants to any extent.

FEEEDERS DAY—April 17, College of Agriculture, Lincoln. Mark Your Calendar.

Time to Join Now.

Six hundred boys and girls of Cass county are members of some 4-H club is a goal which the county extension agents, with the co-operation of the parents, local leaders and all interested boys and girls, hope to reach this spring. The total number of 4-H'ers in Cass county last year was 523 and there was a large number of the young folks eager to enter the ranks of 4-H clubs this year. A good many cards have been returned to the office, bearing the signatures of boys and girls who specified their interest in certain projects such as cooking, clothing, gardening, keeping, poultry, swine, baby beef, dairy calf, sheep, girls room and mechanics. These cards had previous been mailed to all the boys and girls in the county between the ages of ten and twenty years, in a letter which also contained a circular on 4-H clubs.

Two hundred and fifteen boys and girls are already active in 4-H clubs and more are joining the ranks daily. Why not be among the first and get the better start? Send in your card if you have one, and if you did not receive one, send your name and address together with the names of two boys and girls who might be interested.

The following are some of the clubs which are organized and meeting regularly: Up-N-Cum-N Swine club, Weeping Water; S. Ray Smith, leader. Happy Hustlers Swine club, Murray. Mrs. John Hobscheidt, leader. Poverty Point Pig club, Louisville. Herbert Stander, leader. Weeping Water Dairy calf—S. Ray Smith, leader. This club won many honors last year and are out to win again this year.

Master Feeders Baby Beef club, Paul Wolph, Avoca, leader. Practical Poultry Producers club, Eagle. James Wall, leader. The Every Poultry club, of which James Wall is also leader, is organized for second year work in the poultry project and is the first club in the county to go on with second year work in the poultry project. Four rope clubs in the county with a membership of fifty-two, are going strong. Two of these clubs are composed of Boy Scouts who are finding the project most worthwhile.

Miss Clara Weyrich of Plattsmouth is local leader of two clothing clubs, The Handy Helpers and Sewing Susans, with forty-seven members, who have nearly finished their project and will soon be entitled to Certificates of Achievement and a Gold Seal for their club charter. The Fairview Health club has been very active, and its five members under the leadership of Miss Mary Capwell have completed most of their work.

A cooking club with fifteen members has recently been organized by Mrs. Wainscott and they are looking forward to a pleasant and profitable year.

Equipment Testing Circle. "Consider Before You Buy" is the slogan of a testing circle organized in the Riverview club, south of Plattsmouth. The aim of the testing circle is to assist homemakers in the selection of equipment before purchasing.

At the organization meeting, various equipment was assigned to each of the eleven women, and the purpose and use of each article was explained. Each woman will use her

Scrubwomen

One hot day, when the business depression was worst, I visited two of the largest corporations in the world.

I talked with the treasurer of one and with the chairman of the finance committee of the other—and these are men, I may tell you, in whose make-up sentimentality plays very little part.

They had been looking at red figures until their eyes-balls burned. They were entirely unwilling to predict when their industries would improve. But each of them uttered the same fervent exclamation: "If we only can pull through without having to cut wages."

When you stop to think about it, that is an astonishing phenomenon. Twenty-five years ago men in similar positions would have said immediately: "Business is off ten per cent; slash wages twenty per cent." The same sort of executives who used to assume that the way to cure depression was by cutting wages, are now convinced that the way to cure it is NOT to cut.

That is one principal fact which makes the current depression different from its predecessors. That is progress! History has a curious way of upsetting contemporary judgments. Many of the events which seem important to men and women while they are living, prove insignificant in the eyes of the ages. And some very little things later loom large.

Who was king of Spain in 1666? I do not remember. But I do recall that in 1666 an apple fell and hit Isaac Newton.

What was Warren Harding? Who were Calvin Coolidge and Herbert Hoover? Some future school-boy may be puzzled by those inquiries. But unless I am very much mistaken every future history book will lay emphasis on two developments which have taken place under our very eyes.

They will tell that a boy named Lindbergh flew across the Atlantic ocean. And that a man named Ford announced that he would pay all workers, even scrubwomen, a minimum of five dollars a day.

The idea that high wages makes prosperity, that the key to good business lies not in the safe deposit boxes of millionaires, but is carried in the pocket of every worker—this is something entirely new.

It holds the hope of the future. Whatever else may have to be discarded, American business must not surrender that American idea!

piece of equipment a week, keeping account of the uses she makes of it and comparing it with the articles she had been using for the same purpose. At the end of a week the articles are passed on to someone else within the circle and each woman again tests out the piece which she receives. At the end of eleven weeks the articles are returned and a summarization made as to the value of each piece.

The Kroehler and Warga Hardware stores, of Plattsmouth, each contributed pieces of equipment to be used in the testing circle.

Master Feeders Organize. Thirteen boys and girls met at the Farm Bureau Office, Friday evening and organized the Master Feeders 4-H Baby Beef club. Paul Wolph of Avoca is again the leader of the club. The thirteen members are feeding twenty 20 baby heaves.

The following is a list of the club members and the breed of calves they are feeding: Vincent Rehmeier, two Herefords; Glen Heneger, two Galloways; James Schaffer, one Galloway; Wm. Brandt, one Galloway; Oscar Brandt, one Galloway; Arnold Stohlman, two Herefords; Ellsworth Stohlman, two Herefords; Orland Stohlman, two Angus and Shorthorn; Frances Rehmeier, two Shorthorns; John Jochim, one Hereford; Clifford Norris, one Galloway; Merton Norris, one Galloway; Mildred Smith, two Angus.

The next club meeting will be held at the Farm Bureau office Friday evening, April 10th.—D. D. Wainscott, Cass Co. Extension Agent; Jessie H. Baldwin, Ass't Co. Extension Agent.

Notice of District Caucus. For nominating of candidates for school board:

The legal voters of School District C-7, Cass county, Nebraska, are hereby notified that a caucus will be held at the school house on March 20th, 1931, at 8:00 o'clock p. m. for nominating candidates and the (4) receiving the highest number of votes shall be placed upon a separate printed ballot, as provided by law at the regular village election to be held on the first Tuesday in April, 1931. Order by the district board the 10th day of March, 1931.

Large map of Cass county on sale at Journal office. 50c each.

Journal Want Ads get results.

Thomas Walling Company

Abstracts of Title Phone 324 - Plattsmouth

House Cleaning

RIGHT now is the time when house cleaning is in order, and we are cleaning our clothing cabinets of forty-three men's suits. Sizes 35 to 42. Starting right now! Single and double breasted models, wide pant legs and some not so wide—Worsted, cashmeres and tweeds.

750 1250 1495

We have many calls for "Hack-a-round" suits, where style isn't important. These suits will just fill the bill.

