

MURDOCK ITEMS

Mrs. Frank Buell attended the D. A. R. meeting held in the Lincoln hotel Friday evening.

Miss Rhena Towle returned to Omaha Monday, after spending the week at the McHugh home.

The Ladies Aid of the Trinity Lutheran church met at their usual place Wednesday afternoon.

The Achievement program of the Murdock Club was held at the M. W. A. hall last Friday, April 10th.

The P. A. Melvin family were Easter Sunday guests with Mrs. Laura Melvin and Miss Jessie at Lincoln.

Mr. and Mrs. John Paul Pickwell of Wahoo, spent their spring vacation with the Melvin family.

Mr. and Mrs. John Scheel, Sr. drove to Omaha Thursday to consult a doctor for Mr. Scheel's sinus trouble.

Jerry McHugh, Jr., came in from Denver, Colo., Tuesday morning to attend his grandmother Towle's funeral.

Mrs. Otto Eichoff drove to Lincoln Thursday and brought their son, Dave, home to spend the spring vacation.

Mr. and Mrs. Frank Hart and son, and Miss Alma Scheel, were Easter Sunday guests at the John Scheel, Sr., home.

The Nebraska Power Co., installed both an electric stove and refrigerator for Mrs. Hannah McDonald the past week.

Mrs. A. J. Toof was spending last Monday at the home of her daughter and family, Mr. and Mrs. George Work of that place.

The Ladies Aid held a food sale at Baur's store Saturday afternoon and a goodly sum was realized for the good of their treasury.

Mr. and Mrs. Albert Thiel, Jr., are moving to town soon and will occupy one of the Schmidt properties in the northeast part of town.

Mrs. B. Hite and J. W. Kruger and wife were pleased last Sunday, Easter, when Mr. and Mrs. Hite of Bennett came over for a visit for the day.

B. Riley of Council Bluffs was a visitor in Murdock early last week coming to consult with A. H. Ward, their manager here, regarding business.

Fred Reichman was delivering wheat during the past week and took his crop to the elevator operated by W. T. Weddell who operated the armer's Elevator at Wabash.

John Amgwert and the family of Lincoln were spending Easter here, coming to visit the folks, both mother and other relatives, and where all enjoyed themselves very much.

Fred Towle and wife and Mrs. Una McHugh were over to Plattsmouth last Monday where they were called to look after some business matters for a short time, they driving over in their auto.

Mr. and Mrs. E. Meyers of Sioux City were spending Easter in Murdock where they were guests at the home of her parents, A. J. Toof and wife, and his mother, Mrs. August Panska, and where all enjoyed the day most pleasantly.

Mr. and Mrs. M. Sorick and their daughters and families of Lincoln, were six o'clock dinner guests at the H. H. Lawton home Saturday evening. Their daughter, Mildred and husband, are to leave soon for Canada, where they have a farm.

J. J. Gastin was a visitor in Plattsmouth early this week. He was called to look after some business matters for a time and where he was also looking after the matter of the graveling of the road into Murdock and the Red Ball highway.

Walter Stroy who is bustling all the time for the sale of hail insurance, was at Elmwood on Wednesday of last week and tells of being there when a wreck of two cars on the O Street road occurred entirely stripping the fenders and running boards from their cars and badly injuring the occupants.

Parts With Old Friends.

L. B. Gorby and a coterie of his friends have worked to harmony, that is to some extent, for many years, but little differences have crept into their association of late which has in a way estranged them, and they had to part. The friends were the entire lower set of his natural teeth. An accession of another set which will be awkward to get accustomed to will have to be made when his mouth is well enough for the task.

Smiles and Looked Natural.

The students of the Murdock high school were over to Lincoln on Monday of last week where they were having their pictures taken and where they all enjoyed the frolic as well going to Lincoln in the crowd. We can say that we did not see any that was not good looking and in fact they were all beautiful.

Here Forty Years.

On the seventh day of April, 1891, Louis Neitzel came to where Murdock was destined to be, for it had not as yet been born. After he was here the new community started and it was a question of some time what the town should be called, but finally it was named Murdock in honor of one of the officers of the Rock Island road. Mr. Neitzel is in time of having resided in the town the oldest inhabitant. He saw it grow from the box car setting on the side track to the excellent town which Murdock is now. That took forty years and what has happened in the forty years. From that box car sitting on the side track, we now have one of the cleanest cities in the country with good homes, good buildings, good schools and churches and an excellent city. A lot of good building can be done in forty years, and it has been done here, in houses in character, in manhood and womanhood and still the city is going forward. The telephone was young in '91 and now the threats of it being superceded by the radio.

Gives Fine Easter Program.

At the Murdock church there was given a very fine Easter program on last Sunday with a very worth while program and the decorations spoke of the Easter spirit in the minds of the ones who did the decorating. The members of the Bible school featured the resurrection in the manufacture of a cross made from Easter lilies and which was most appropriate.

Celebrated Easter Day.

At the home of Mr. and Mrs. L. Neitzel was celebrated Easter, when O. J. Hilday and family of Havoclock and Dr. S. B. MacDermid with their families were present to enjoy the very fine day and the excellent dinner which was served.

Murdock Holds Election.

At the election which was held for the city of Murdock and also for the school district, the following are the results of the canvass: For member of the Board of Education, Leo Rikli and Herman Knike were the selections made, while on the village trustees ticket, the following were the selections, Frank A. Melvin, Edward W. Thiburn and S. P. Leta. In both instances the selection were excellent and all will look to it that the city is governed the best and the schools conducted in the very best manner. One thing peculiar in the election which was at Murdock on last Tuesday was that all of the board of clerks and judges were women and sure they made good ones at that. You can always depend on the women to do the work right.

Meets Serious Accident.

While at his work on the farm, the matter of dining came to the hand of Carl Bornemeier, and with drawing his eyes, they made good ones at that. You can always depend on the women to do the work right.

Home From Hospital.

Mrs. L. D. Lee who was at the Immanuel hospital for some time and who underwent an operation, was able to return home and is making rapid improvement and was so far improved that she was able to be out to vote at the election last Tuesday.

Keeps Louis on the Hump.

Louis Hornbeck who has accepted the appointment of the auditor for the Modern Woodman of America, and which position is known as Special Deputy, has almost the entire state of Nebraska to check up all the camps, and the clerks thereof, was a visitor in Murdock on last Sunday and was accompanied by Mrs. Hornbeck, their little daughter, Carolina, as well as Mrs. Charles Backmeier who is mother of Mrs. Hornbeck. All enjoyed a very fine visit while here. The folks returned to Lincoln on Monday while Lewis departed for Crawford in the northwestern portion of the state.

Sand Too Heavy.

While Henry Fomoff, who lives east of the Trinity Lutheran church, was driving along the road, his car wheel hit a pile of gravel and sand and while he was traveling only at a moderate rate of speed, the car was turned over and thrown into the ditch by the roadside. Mr. Fomoff was badly shaken up but not seriously injured. The car was badly wrecked and had to be brought to town and turned over to the tender mercies of A. H. Jacobson, who rebuilds cars.

OBITUARY

After an illness of a few hours Mrs. Mary A. Towle, widow of the late Colonel George A. Towle passed away at the home of her daughter, Mrs. J. E. McHugh.

Mrs. Towle was born in Worcester, Mass., in 1852. She came to Nebraska in the early pioneer days. She was married to George Towle in Plattsmouth in 1874 and settled in Nebraska. In 1912 the family moved to Lincoln. Mrs. Towle is the last member of the pioneer family in this vicinity.

Surviving Mrs. Towle are nine children, three children having preceded their father who died in 1924. Those surviving are: Rhena A. Omaha; Mrs. J. E. McHugh, Murdock; Mrs. J. J. Hill, Denver; Archie L. Glade, Kansas; Ed A. Kansas City; Walter B. South Bend; Fred L. Wabash; Henry V. Douglas.

The funeral services were held at Elmwood Saturday at 10:00 a. m.,

Trucking!

We do trucking of all kinds. Specials on Stock: Pick-up loads to Omaha, 25c per 100 lbs.; Full loads, 20c per 100. Day or night service. Call No. 2020.

RAY GAMLIN
Murdock, Nebr.

CHEVROLET SERVICE

Do you know that we take a personal interest in the servicing of your car that cannot be equaled by any number of indifferent mechanics whose main interest is in their weekly pay check.

Our success depends upon your satisfaction and this thought, together with our complete line of reconditioning equipment, backed by fifteen years of Chevrolet and Ford servicing and absolute cleanliness in handling your car, insures satisfaction.

Our prices are in keeping with the current prices of the local garages, so just call 197 and we will call for and return your car to your door.

Remember, You Must be Satisfied

R. V. Bryant
337 Main—Phone 197

at St. Mary's church conducted by Rev. Father Wauville. Pallbearers were the six sons.

Relatives and friends from many parts of the state were present for the funeral.

Courses Offered by the Leadership Training School.

The Leadership Training School which will be conducted the first five days in May in the Evangelical church at Murdock, Nebr., and which is being sponsored by the Cass County Ministers' & Laymen's League will offer the following courses:

Course No. 1—"A Study of the Bible"

The aim of this course is lead to a clearer understanding of the process by which growth in Christian personality takes place, in order to better understand how this growth may be effectively guided. Text book to be used, "The Growth of Christian Personality," by W. E. Powell and will be taught by Rev. J. C. White, Lincoln, Nebr.

Course No. 101—"The Life of Christ"

Aim: To lead to an understanding and appreciation of the life, the personality and the teachings of Jesus as revealed by the New Testament record in order to better understand the place, and significance of His life for present day religious education. Text book to be used, "The Life of Jesus," by H. F. Rall. This course will be taught by Rev. J. A. Klein, Elmwood, Nebr.

Course No. 201—"Story Telling in Religious Education"

Aim: To guide in the discovery of story literature for the different age groups and to help the leader develop increased skill in the use of such literature in religious development. Text book to be used, "Story Telling for Teachers of Beginners and Primary Children," by K. D. Cather. This course will be in charge of Mrs. Etta Werner, Lincoln, Nebr.

Course No. 300—"Materials and Methods of Vocational Guidance"

Aim: To lead to an understanding of the principles and methods of vocational guidance as a phase of religious education, and through guided practice to the development of skill in planning and conducting a program of vocational guidance. Text book to be used, "Getting Into Your Life Work," by H. M. Dossie.

Pioneer Passes at Ninety-Three.

Fredrick Frei was born in Germany in 1837, where he lived during his childhood, and with the parents in 1867 came to Illinois where they resided for a number of years. Mr. Frei was united in marriage in 1869 to Miss Walker, they moving to Clay Center, Kansas, where they resided for a number of years and later following the passing of the wife, moved to Beaver Crossing. There were some nine children born to this Union, four of whom passed and five survive. Mr. Fred Frei of Murdock being one. Mr. Frei has the sympathy of his host of friends here and at Elmwood in this his hour of loss.

Card of Thanks.

We want to express our appreciation to all who assisted and spoke words of comfort and showed their sympathy during the illness and death of our husband and father. The many floral offerings were beautiful, for all this we want to thank the kind friends and neighbors.—Mrs. W. A. Buck and Children.

KING AND QUEEN WILL BE QUIZZED BY CENSUS TAKER

London, April 10.—King George and Queen Mary must tell two weeks hence what their occupations are. The census taker will call. Forecasts that that the king will describe himself as "head" and the queen will give her occupation as "home duties."

J. M. LEYDA
Attorney

Bonded Abstractor
Real Estate Titles

Defective Titles perfected at reasonable expense.

First Door South of the Post Office.

RELIEF

from Headaches, Colds and Sore Throat, Neuritis, Neuralgia

Don't be a chronic sufferer from headaches, or any other pain. There is hardly an ache or pain Bayer Aspirin tablets cannot relieve; and they are a great comfort to women who suffer periodically. They are always to be relied upon for breaking up colds.

It may be only a simple headache, or it may be neuralgia or neuritis. Rheumatism, Lumbago, Bayer Aspirin is still the sensible thing to take. Just be certain it's Bayer you're taking; it does not hurt the heart. Get the genuine tablets, in this familiar package.

SAFE

BEWARE OF IMITATIONS

Rev. H. A. Noerenberg of Murdock will teach this course.

For additional information, we suggest that you ask your pastor or write to the registrar.

The Cass County Ministers' & Laymen's League will make provision to defray the enrollment fee for each student. But the League expects each student to purchase and pay for the text book they use.

We kindly urge each one who is interested and who desires to have better and more efficient teachers in the Bible school to enroll in one of the above courses. The above courses are open to any one who would like to enlarge their knowledge and increase their efficiency as Christian workers.

It is of vital importance that each prospective student and those who contemplate taking one of the above courses to register their names with the registrar as soon as possible so that the League may have a fair estimate how many books to order for the above courses. Please give this matter your kind and prompt consideration and your co-operation will be greatly appreciated.—H. P. Knosp, Registrar, Murdock, Nebr.

THE PARABLES OF JESUS.

THE LOST SHEEP
Matthew 18:10-14
By L. Neitzel

No better illustration could have been used to show the love, care, sympathy, compassion and solicitude of Jesus, for the lost and wayward soul. His following is shown here as appointed guardian angels: See Acts 12:15; Heb. 1:14. Many a fall and many a bruise we escape, because of the protection of our guardian angel being near. There are two reasons given, why no one should despise these little ones: (1) God Himself has shown them honor, by appointing angels to be their guardians; (2) He cares so much for them, that He sent His own Son to redeem them. The parable in simple language is this: The owner of the flock is our Lord Himself, the Good Shepherd (John 10:14), that He is His church, embracing men of all kinds; sheep that is lost and is found, is all truly penitent sinners. They are represented as one sheep, not because they are few in number compared with the others, but to show Christ's love for each individual soul. The seeking and laying the lost sheep upon His shoulders, are Christ's work of love in pleading with the sinner, and finally after due repentance bringing him back to a state of grace. The friends and neighbors who are shown with the angels, are the Rabies have a story that Moses, while tending Jethro's flocks went after a kid (or lamb) which had gone astray. As he thought that it must be weary, he gently raised it and carried it on his shoulders. God was pleased and said, "Since thou hast shown pity in bringing back a man's beast, thou shalt be the shepherd of my flock Israel." Herein is outlined the work of the shepherd of God's flocks. It is the sinner, the outcast, the criminal, the lost one, far away from God, who must be sought. Jesus came to save that which was lost.

Let us think of possibilities and respect the little ones. It is said of that German schoolmaster, John Triebner, the instructor of Martin Luther, that he always appeared before the boys with uncovered head. "Who can tell," said he, "what may yet rise up amid these youths? There may be among them those who shall be learned doctors, sage legislators, nay princes of the empire." Even then there was among them that "solitary monk that shook the world."

Let us think of possibilities and respect the little ones. It is said of that German schoolmaster, John Triebner, the instructor of Martin Luther, that he always appeared before the boys with uncovered head. "Who can tell," said he, "what may yet rise up amid these youths? There may be among them those who shall be learned doctors, sage legislators, nay princes of the empire." Even then there was among them that "solitary monk that shook the world."

Let us think of possibilities and respect the little ones. It is said of that German schoolmaster, John Triebner, the instructor of Martin Luther, that he always appeared before the boys with uncovered head. "Who can tell," said he, "what may yet rise up amid these youths? There may be among them those who shall be learned doctors, sage legislators, nay princes of the empire." Even then there was among them that "solitary monk that shook the world."

Let us think of possibilities and respect the little ones. It is said of that German schoolmaster, John Triebner, the instructor of Martin Luther, that he always appeared before the boys with uncovered head. "Who can tell," said he, "what may yet rise up amid these youths? There may be among them those who shall be learned doctors, sage legislators, nay princes of the empire." Even then there was among them that "solitary monk that shook the world."

Let us think of possibilities and respect the little ones. It is said of that German schoolmaster, John Triebner, the instructor of Martin Luther, that he always appeared before the boys with uncovered head. "Who can tell," said he, "what may yet rise up amid these youths? There may be among them those who shall be learned doctors, sage legislators, nay princes of the empire." Even then there was among them that "solitary monk that shook the world."

Let us think of possibilities and respect the little ones. It is said of that German schoolmaster, John Triebner, the instructor of Martin Luther, that he always appeared before the boys with uncovered head. "Who can tell," said he, "what may yet rise up amid these youths? There may be among them those who shall be learned doctors, sage legislators, nay princes of the empire." Even then there was among them that "solitary monk that shook the world."

Let us think of possibilities and respect the little ones. It is said of that German schoolmaster, John Triebner, the instructor of Martin Luther, that he always appeared before the boys with uncovered head. "Who can tell," said he, "what may yet rise up amid these youths? There may be among them those who shall be learned doctors, sage legislators, nay princes of the empire." Even then there was among them that "solitary monk that shook the world."

Let us think of possibilities and respect the little ones. It is said of that German schoolmaster, John Triebner, the instructor of Martin Luther, that he always appeared before the boys with uncovered head. "Who can tell," said he, "what may yet rise up amid these youths? There may be among them those who shall be learned doctors, sage legislators, nay princes of the empire." Even then there was among them that "solitary monk that shook the world."

Let us think of possibilities and respect the little ones. It is said of that German schoolmaster, John Triebner, the instructor of Martin Luther, that he always appeared before the boys with uncovered head. "Who can tell," said he, "what may yet rise up amid these youths? There may be among them those who shall be learned doctors, sage legislators, nay princes of the empire." Even then there was among them that "solitary monk that shook the world."

Let us think of possibilities and respect the little ones. It is said of that German schoolmaster, John Triebner, the instructor of Martin Luther, that he always appeared before the boys with uncovered head. "Who can tell," said he, "what may yet rise up amid these youths? There may be among them those who shall be learned doctors, sage legislators, nay princes of the empire." Even then there was among them that "solitary monk that shook the world."

Let us think of possibilities and respect the little ones. It is said of that German schoolmaster, John Triebner, the instructor of Martin Luther, that he always appeared before the boys with uncovered head. "Who can tell," said he, "what may yet rise up amid these youths? There may be among them those who shall be learned doctors, sage legislators, nay princes of the empire." Even then there was among them that "solitary monk that shook the world."

Let us think of possibilities and respect the little ones. It is said of that German schoolmaster, John Triebner, the instructor of Martin Luther, that he always appeared before the boys with uncovered head. "Who can tell," said he, "what may yet rise up amid these youths? There may be among them those who shall be learned doctors, sage legislators, nay princes of the empire." Even then there was among them that "solitary monk that shook the world."

Let us think of possibilities and respect the little ones. It is said of that German schoolmaster, John Triebner, the instructor of Martin Luther, that he always appeared before the boys with uncovered head. "Who can tell," said he, "what may yet rise up amid these youths? There may be among them those who shall be learned doctors, sage legislators, nay princes of the empire." Even then there was among them that "solitary monk that shook the world."

Let us think of possibilities and respect the little ones. It is said of that German schoolmaster, John Triebner, the instructor of Martin Luther, that he always appeared before the boys with uncovered head. "Who can tell," said he, "what may yet rise up amid these youths? There may be among them those who shall be learned doctors, sage legislators, nay princes of the empire." Even then there was among them that "solitary monk that shook the world."

Let us think of possibilities and respect the little ones. It is said of that German schoolmaster, John Triebner, the instructor of Martin Luther, that he always appeared before the boys with uncovered head. "Who can tell," said he, "what may yet rise up amid these youths? There may be among them those who shall be learned doctors, sage legislators, nay princes of the empire." Even then there was among them that "solitary monk that shook the world."

Let us think of possibilities and respect the little ones. It is said of that German schoolmaster, John Triebner, the instructor of Martin Luther, that he always appeared before the boys with uncovered head. "Who can tell," said he, "what may yet rise up amid these youths? There may be among them those who shall be learned doctors, sage legislators, nay princes of the empire." Even then there was among them that "solitary monk that shook the world."

Let us think of possibilities and respect the little ones. It is said of that German schoolmaster, John Triebner, the instructor of Martin Luther, that he always appeared before the boys with uncovered head. "Who can tell," said he, "what may yet rise up amid these youths? There may be among them those who shall be learned doctors, sage legislators, nay princes of the empire." Even then there was among them that "solitary monk that shook the world."

Let us think of possibilities and respect the little ones. It is said of that German schoolmaster, John Triebner, the instructor of Martin Luther, that he always appeared before the boys with uncovered head. "Who can tell," said he, "what may yet rise up amid these youths? There may be among them those who shall be learned doctors, sage legislators, nay princes of the empire." Even then there was among them that "solitary monk that shook the world."

Let us think of possibilities and respect the little ones. It is said of that German schoolmaster, John Triebner, the instructor of Martin Luther, that he always appeared before the boys with uncovered head. "Who can tell," said he, "what may yet rise up amid these youths? There may be among them those who shall be learned doctors, sage legislators, nay princes of the empire." Even then there was among them that "solitary monk that shook the world."

Let us think of possibilities and respect the little ones. It is said of that German schoolmaster, John Triebner, the instructor of Martin Luther, that he always appeared before the boys with uncovered head. "Who can tell," said he, "what may yet rise up amid these youths? There may be among them those who shall be learned doctors, sage legislators, nay princes of the empire." Even then there was among them that "solitary monk that shook the world."

Let us think of possibilities and respect the little ones. It is said of that German schoolmaster, John Triebner, the instructor of Martin Luther, that he always appeared before the boys with uncovered head. "Who can tell," said he, "what may yet rise up amid these youths? There may be among them those who shall be learned doctors, sage legislators, nay princes of the empire." Even then there was among them that "solitary monk that shook the world."

Let us think of possibilities and respect the little ones. It is said of that German schoolmaster, John Triebner, the instructor of Martin Luther, that he always appeared before the boys with uncovered head. "Who can tell," said he, "what may yet rise up amid these youths? There may be among them those who shall be learned doctors, sage legislators, nay princes of the empire." Even then there was among them that "solitary monk that shook the world."

Let us think of possibilities and respect the little ones. It is said of that German schoolmaster, John Triebner, the instructor of Martin Luther, that he always appeared before the boys with uncovered head. "Who can tell," said he, "what may yet rise up amid these youths? There may be among them those who shall be learned doctors, sage legislators, nay princes of the empire." Even then there was among them that "solitary monk that shook the world."

Let us think of possibilities and respect the little ones. It is said of that German schoolmaster, John Triebner, the instructor of Martin Luther, that he always appeared before the boys with uncovered head. "Who can tell," said he, "what may yet rise up amid these youths? There may be among them those who shall be learned doctors, sage legislators, nay princes of the empire." Even then there was among them that "solitary monk that shook the world."

Let us think of possibilities and respect the little ones. It is said of that German schoolmaster, John Triebner, the instructor of Martin Luther, that he always appeared before the boys with uncovered head. "Who can tell," said he, "what may yet rise up amid these youths? There may be among them those who shall be learned doctors, sage legislators, nay princes of the empire." Even then there was among them that "solitary monk that shook the world."

We're selling hats like hot cakes. There must be a reason. People say our hats have more style and they're more moderately priced. ... We will let you be the judge. Come in and see them. The prices range from $1.95 to $5.

WESCOTT'S

Stetsons—now $7

PIONEER CITIZEN SURPRISED ON BIRTHDAY

A pleasant surprise party was arranged on Sunday evening, March 29th, by Mrs. William Wirth and Mrs. La Rue Williams, honoring the 59th birthday anniversary of the latter's father, George Schoeman, also a brother of Mrs. Wirth, at the Schoeman home on Cherry street.

Everyone brought along something to add to the supper and a jolly time was enjoyed in visiting together and with games and partaking of the refreshments.

Mr. Schoeman is one of our pioneer citizens, having been born in this county, where he has practically spent his entire lifetime to the present. They have a family of two daughters and one son. The children are Mrs. Williams and Bud Schoeman of Louisville, and Mrs. Luther Morgan, of Waterloo. There are three grandchildren, all granddaughters. The relatives present upon this occasion were Mr. and Mrs. La Rue Williams and family, Mr. and Mrs. William Wirth and two sons, Paul and Gail, Mr. and Mrs. J. G. Schoeman and daughter, Miss Laura, Mr. and Mrs. William Schwalm and their son and wife, of Omaha, who drove down to help celebrate the event, Mr. and Mrs. Ellsworth Schwalm, Mr. and Mrs. William H. Hoover, Mr. and Mrs. Dan Schoeman and daughter, Miss Wilma, Mr. and Mrs. Emil Heier and daughter, Marvella and Henry Schoeman, a brother.

Mr. Schoeman's many friends will join us in wishing him many more happy birthdays attended by health and prosperity.—Louisville Courier.

DURELLE-KECKLER

Mr. Richard W. Keckler, son of Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Keckler of Weeping Water, was married last Thursday, April 2nd, to Miss Aura Mae Durelle, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Elmer M. Durelle, 3414 James Ave., Minneapolis, at the North Methodist Church, Minneapolis.

The ceremonies were private, only the bride's immediate family, the bridegroom's family and business associates of the groom were present.

After the ceremony the bridal party was escorted on an interesting tour of the principal streets and suburbs of Minneapolis, which ended during the small hours of the morning, with the exception of a few tire and spark plug troubles, the trip was a complete success.

The bridal party adjourned to a Loop Hotel, where an early breakfast was enjoyed, but owing to the constantly increasing number of escorts the overflow had to be accommodated at the Lowery Cafe.

The newlyweds are at present moving thru southern Minnesota, Iowa and Nebraska, and will be home to their friends at the home of the bridegroom's parents in Weeping Water after April 6th.—Elmwood Leader-Echo.

FOR SALE

Player piano or will trade for stock. Priced right.—T. L. Amick, 2 miles north of Murray, Neb., 2 miles south Mynard, Neb. a6-2w

Mother's day cards now on sale at the Bates Book & Gift shop.

FOR SALE

Fresh Holstein, Ayrshire & Guernsey dairy cows.—T. H. Pollock, Plattsmouth, Nebr. a2-tfw

FOR SALE

When seeking a gift for Mother's day call at the Bates Book & Gift Shop. A wide range of beautiful gifts that will suit any taste.

50c Tube of Tooth Paste given FREE with each pint of Mi 31 Antiseptic Solution

GET IT NOW

F. G. Fricke & Co.
Plattsmouth, Nebr.

Complete Overhaul Including LABOR

Work Done with New "Storm" Machine (Shown at Left)

Reboring Block - New Pistons - New Rings
New Pins - Tighten Connecting Rods
Tighten the Main Bearings
Change Oil

4-Cylinder, Complete $24
6-Cylinder, Complete $36

ANOTHER ONE
Every Chevrolet Owner Can Use
Grind Valves Clean Carbon
Adjust Carburetion
Check Ignition
4-Cylinder, $3 6-Cyl., $4.75

Chevy Brakes Relined, Adjusted
Including All Material and Labor
Genuine Chevrolet Lining Used
2-wheel, 1927-28 models $5.50
4-wheel, 1929 model . . . 7.50
4-wheel, 1930 model . . . 8.00

We are interested in the operation of your car and are equipped with Chevrolet tools to do Chevrolet work. We use only genuine Chevrolet parts—so why use or permit the use of pirate parts? If your Chevrolet is sick, bring it to the Chevrolet doctor, Fred Wynn, for fair treatment and prompt service. Ask for appraisal on your work and remember we will serve you faithfully and well, whether your job be a large or small one. We will call for your car and return it at no extra cost.

For Wrecker Service, Phone 255; Night Calls, 376 or 578

E. & S. Chevrolet Company
627 Vine Street
Stormizing
with 2000 miles
the life of your car
Telephone 255

Chevrolet Special

25% Reduction on All Chevrolet Labor

E. & S. Chevrolet Co., Plattsmouth, will give you exceptionally low prices on your repair work during the next 30 days. A big slash in labor costs. Below are a few examples of what you save.

Space Forbids Listing More, but be Sure and Ask for Quotations on Any Work You Wish to Have Done—as We Will Save You Money