Alliance Official Named to Succeed L. B. Lyman Who Goes to Omaha as Asst. Manager

Effective May 1, L. B. Lyman, general superintendent of the Nebraska district of the Burlington will become assistant to the general manager at Omaha and F. G. Gurley, general superintendent of the Wyoming district will come to Lincoln to take over the position of general superintendent of the western district.

On account of present business conditions and loss of revenue to other forms of unregulated and subsidized transportation, the Burlington has found it necessary to make changes in its operating organization. Previously, this company has had two general superintendents' districts on lines west of the Missouri river, namely the Nebraska district with headquarters at Lincoln, and the Wyoming district with headquarters at Alliance.

By May 1, these districts are to be abolished out of which the western district with headquarters at Lincoln will be created. This district will comprise the territory which formerly constituted the Nebraska and Wyoming districts, or, all lines west of the Missouri river.

Edgar Wescott, who is attending the University of Nebraska, is home to visit over the week end with the relatives and friends.

Ruling that a man who spans his wife with a mother of pearl hairbrush cannot be classed as a wife beater, Police Judge George Holmes at Omaha, refused to jail John Kuttler despite the pleas of the pretty spankee, Mrs. Anita Woods Kuttler, who said she was formerly a movie actress.

Charged by his wife with cruelty, Kuttler explained that he and his wife and a friend were drinking Thursday night. Mrs. Kuttler, he said, had two glasses, which, in his opinion, was quite enough. Upon her demand for more, he testified, he spanked her with the brush.

Commission Secures Reduction in Rates

Average Cut of 22 Per Cent Granted by Interstate Commission on Complaint.

Word was received by the state railway commission Friday that it had been successful in securing a substantial cut in coal shipments into Nebraska from Pittsburg, Kas., Claremore, Okl., Arkansas-Oklahoma and the Spadra and Richhill, Mo., groups. In these the interstate commerce commission has established Pittsburg, Kas., as the base rate for rates on coal to Nebraska destinations.

These rates cover shipments of lump and slack coal from the districts named. The state commission had complained that these were too high when compared with other rates, and the federal commission upholds it on this contention. In its report the federal body has set up twenty-one specific points where the reductions apply, but adds a provision that other rates are to be established in relation to these twenty-two points. This will mean cuts to all points. The proposed rates, using Pittsburg as the basing point represent, Rate Expert Ross says, average reduction of 22.2 per cent on lump coal and 9.7 on slack.

As an illustration, the present rate to Superior is $3.65, while the new rate is $2.85. To Alliance the present rate is $5.59; while the new rate is $4.65. To Norfolk the existing rate is $4.01, and the new rate $3.50. These rates will become effective July 1.

Louisville Enjoys Program by Local Folks

Offering by Group of Plattsmouth People Draws Praise for Very Fine Program

The Parent-Teacher association meeting at Louisville Monday evening, while not so largely attended as some of the former meetings, was most interesting. After the routine business was transacted, the members were treated to a very pleasant evening's entertainment by visitors from Plattsmouth, says the Louisville Courier, in the following:

"Mrs. E. H. Wescott, state president of the Daughters of the American Revolution, sang a number of nursery rhymes, being accompanied on the piano by Mr. Wescott. Both Mr. and Mrs. Wescott are accomplished in their special lines and their number was much enjoyed. Mrs. Wescott stated that this was her first public appearance before a Louisville audience since the dedication of the present school building and expressed a desire to be invited back again when the new addition is completed and ready for dedication. Mr. Wescott is renowned throughout this part of the state for the rendition of the Stars and Stripes and other fine patriotic numbers and delighted the audience by responding to a request by Mr. Geist to play this old favorite.

"Frank Clodt, cashier of the Plattsmouth State Bank, accompanied by Mrs. Clodt, was also a guest. Frank is secretary of the Plattsmouth board of education and like Mr. Wescott with his rendition of 'The Stars and Stripes,' is always in demand. He possesses a beautiful tenor voice and his rendition of 'Somewhere a Voice is Calling' and 'Absent' was much enjoyed.

"Mr. Clodt's numbers were followed by an excellent address by R. Foster Patterson, principal of the Plattsmouth city schools. Mr. Patterson is an able and pleasing speaker and his remarks along the line of home environment and its effect on the future lives of children were most food for thought and were greatly appreciated by his hearers. Mrs. Patterson also accompanied the Plattsmouth party."

WILL START CLEANUP

Fire Chief O. Sandin is announcing that next week there will be a clean-up campaign started over the city and which will be aimed at removing all debris and accumulations that might tend to increase the fire hazards in the main part of the city. In the main section of the city and in the downtown locations the clean-up campaign will be pushed with vigor and it is hoped to be able to secure a hundred per cent rating on the cleanup of the alleys, rear of buildings where ashes, waste and debris has accumulated through the winter months.

The fire chief announces that the clean-up up gangs will remove all debris or ashes that is collected up and placed at the rear of the buildings in the business section of the city, but that the cost of the hauling must be borne by the person owning the property.

These clean-up campaigns in the past have been very successful in the elimination of many fire hazards and the fire chief is hoping that all of the public will heartily co-operate in the move to make the city cleaner and freer of possible fire dangers by making clean-up at this time and co-operating in every way with the fire department in the matter.

Disappearance of Nehawka Man Still a Mystery

George Tate, 74, Last Seen on March 31st and Search Has Failed to Reveal Any Trace

When on Sunday, March 29th, George Tate, 74, who has been living at the John Lloyd home near Nehawka for several months, left that place stating that he thought of going to Nebraska City to the hospital, there has been no word reported later as having been seen in the vicinity of Union.

Mr. Tate was as far as known without relatives and has been living near Nehawka for several years, doing work around farms in that locality and in the last few months he has been complaining of his health and at his age was finding work difficult and which also seemed to weigh on his mind a great deal. Several cases of his conversations with residents of Nehawka indicated that the aged man had threatened to seek doctoring at the Missouri river.

Mr. Tate on Sunday, March 29th had left the Lloyd home, leaving in his room a ring, watch, spectacles, a purse with $15 and also his clothes with the exception of his working garments that he was wearing. He had remarked that he was contemplating going to Nebraska City and was going to the town of Nehawka to see someone about this matter. Night came and the aged man failed to return home but nothing was thought of the matter until it was found that his valuables had been left in his room.

Frank Trotter, a resident of the community reported seeing the aged man a short time later and on Tuesday, March 31st the man was seen by Clarence Fleischman and son, Clyde, just west of Union near the Joe Lindsay farm, but he had not talked with them. Later traces were found near the place where he was last seen where he had gone down over a bank and from that time he has never been seen.

As days past and the man failed to reappear, searching parties of the residents combed the country around Nehawka without result as far as finding the aged man while broadcasts were made for the man by Sheriff Reed and Deputy Rex Young in the hope of getting some trace of the missing man.

The authorities have made call on the hospitals in this part of the state to learn if possible if he had applied for treatment but without result. The supposition becomes more evident that the aged man in a spirit of despondency had sought death by drowning in the Missouri river as he was last seen headed in the direction of the river near Union.

The finding of a body in the Missouri river at Platte City, Missouri, Wednesday led Sheriff Reed to call the bodies there but while investigating the matter the body was identified as that of a resident of that locality and this again leaves the disappearance of Mr. Tate a deep mystery which may perhaps never be solved.

Nehawka People Have a Fine Trip to Canal Zone

Mr. and Mrs. J. S. Rough Return Home After Trip of Several Months Duration

Mr. and Mrs. J. S. Rough arrived in Nehawka Friday morning from Kansas City, completing what they maintain was the best trip they had ever taken. They left here over two months ago, going to Iowa City, New Orleans, La.; Havana, Cuba, through the Panama Canal and up to San Diego, Los Angeles and home via Tucson, Arizona, El Paso, Texas, and Kansas City.

They were in Iowa City but a short time, visiting there with their two daughters and their families. Four days were spent in New Orleans, taking in the sights and leaving there, they reached Havana after a boat trip of two days and nights. In Havana they made their headquarters in one of the leading hotels and enjoyed day and night excursions on the island for four days. Leaving Havana they went through the Panama Canal, being at Panama for a half day and the same length of time was spent at San Diego. Their boat trip terminated at Los Angeles and here they enjoyed a good visit with their son, S. B. Rough and family and Mr. Rough's brother and family. They toured that section of California very thoroughly and also visited with a number of former Nehawka friends.

Leaving California, they went to Tucson, Arizona, where they enjoyed a day visiting with Mr. and Mrs. Jim Stone and family. They had a very enjoyable visit in Tucson and the Stone family were more than glad to see some one from Nehawka. Mr. Stone who has been there over a year where he has been receiving treatment for his health, is improving every day and according to Mr. and Mrs. Rough, he will soon be as good as ever.

They left Tucson last Tuesday and after a few stops, arrived home early Friday morning. Only those who have taken such a trip can realize what it is like, according to Mr. Rough. They are unable to express the enjoyment they received and hope to be able to take another similar one in the future.—Nehawka Enterprise.
