

Alvo News

Fred H. Gorder of Weeping Water, member of the board of county commissioners, was looking after some county business in Alvo on Monday of last week.

Ray Wiles and family from near Manley were guests for the day and for a very fine dinner at the home of the parents of Mrs. Wiles, Mr. and Mrs. Robert Koester of Alvo.

Frank L. Edwards was a visitor in Lincoln on Wednesday of last week where he went to make purchases for the store here and to look after some other business matters as well.

James Embrey of Elmwood and a seller of goods for the McNeess people was a visitor in Alvo on last Wednesday and was meeting with his friends as well as disposing of his goods.

Business called the bustling mayor of Alvo to Lincoln on last Wednesday, Mr. Arthur Dinger, and was accompanied by Banker Carl D. Ganz, they driving over to the big town in their auto.

John Elliott, Jr., and the family who make their home at Ashland were visiting for the day on last Sunday at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Edgar Edwards, they all having a splendid time.

Eugene Barkhurst and the good wife were over to Nebraska City on last Sunday where they were visiting for the day at the home of relatives and where they all had a splendid day and a fine visit.

Grover C. Rhoaden of Manley was a business visitor in Alvo on last Wednesday and after looking after the matters bringing him to this bustling little city he went to Eagle where he also had some matters to look after.

Henry L. Clapp was a visitor in Plattsmouth on Monday of last week where she was visiting with her cousins, Mrs. James Placek of Chicago; Mrs. Guy Miller, of Winier, South Dakota, and Mrs. Gertrude Boyd of Miles City, and her uncle, Mr. Fred Kuntzmann.

On Wednesday of last week the business of trucking was good and Roy Coatsman had to lay off the assessing for the day to assist in the trucking of the stock of Carl Christensen to Omaha, and again on Thursday both trucks went to Omaha the second time with stock for Lyle Miller.

Mrs. Jennie Rouse who has been visiting for a number of weeks at Lincoln at the home of Mr. and Mrs. George Bobbit, was a visitor in Alvo on Sunday of last week and while here the guest of Mrs. John Murty, where they enjoyed a very nice visit though it was short for Mrs. Rouse returned to Lincoln.

Mr. and Mrs. E. L. Barrett of Havelock, the latter a daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Armstrong, were visiting in Alvo on last Tuesday at the home of Mrs. Barrett's parents, Messrs. Barrett and Armstrong and were over to Plattsmouth, where they both had some business matters to look after. While there, Mr. Armstrong sold an order of his celebrated chimney stove to the hardware firm of Bestor & Swatek, and also another order to the Murray Hardware company.

Entertained the W. C. T. U. Mrs. Charles Godbey entertained at her home in Alvo on Wednesday afternoon the members of the Alvo W. C. T. U. and where all had a very fine time. Mrs. W. C. Timlin was the leader and the program was one of the very best and was enjoyed by all the ladies who were present.

Had Enjoyable Ball Game. The ball team of Elmwood was in Alvo on Wednesday of last week, where they played with the Alvo ball team but to the defeat of the visitors the score being 4 to 8 in favor of the home team. The firm of Edwards and Barkhurst closed their store and went out to the game and were very late for the home team. This thing of being loyal to the home team.

Wanted in Hospital. Fred Wolfe who moved from Alvo to Greenwood some time since has been in very poor health for some time past, and was taken to the hospital at Lincoln where he is being treated for a time was considered as being very serious. During the past few days though he has been showing some improvement and it was thought he was better. Every care is being taken that he may regain his health.

Attended Funeral at Plattsmouth. Henry Bailey and family were called to Plattsmouth by the very serious illness of a sister of Mrs. Bailey, Mrs. Fred Kuntzmann, who later died at the Methodist hospital at Omaha. The funeral was held on last Friday and the interment made at the Oak Hill cemetery at Plattsmouth. Mr. and Mrs. Bailey and son, Kenneth, attended the funeral as well as did their daughter, Mrs. Henry L. Clapp.

Hears Uncle Died. Mrs. John W. Banning received the sad news on last Monday of the passing of an uncle, Patrick Egan, at Edgemont, South Dakota, and whose remains were brought to Plattsmouth for interment. Mr. and Mrs. Banning going via Union, attended the funeral of the uncle at Plattsmouth on Tuesday of last week.

Staying at Plattsmouth. Uncle Henry Thomas who has been in Alvo for the past number of weeks after having spent the winter at the county farm near Plattsmouth returned on Wednesday of last week to the county seat where he will remain for some time, and also where he understands that he has some business matters to look after.

Visited With Grandfather. Wilbur Thomas and the family of Council Bluffs where Mr. Thomas is employed with a railway company, were over to Alvo on last Saturday and was visiting with his grandfather, Uncle Henry Thomas, and also seeing about some business matters here as well as visiting with his many friends.

Waiver Preliminary Hearing and Is Held Under Bond of $25,000. Facing Five Charges. Eustace—Jim Thomas pleaded not guilty in district court here Friday afternoon to five charges in connection with the $27,000 holdup of the Hastings National bank last February.

He waived preliminary hearing and was held under $25,000 bond for trial this term of court. County Attorney A. L. Joseph said he probably would try and bring the man before a jury which reports for duty May 4. Thomas said he could raise bond in Texas, his home state. Meanwhile he will be held in jail here.

Wounded in a gun battle which followed the bank holdup, Thomas has been held for safe keeping in the penitentiary at Lincoln. Doctors said at the time he might not live but now he seems in fair condition, altho thin, and said he felt well. The charges to which he pleaded were bank robbery, burglary, armed robbery, shooting to kill, and kidnapping.

The kidnaping charge was based on the abduction of one of two officers captured by the robbers in a gun battle with police. He was taken in Thomas' automobile, afterwards and carried for miles before being trussed to a telephone pole and abandoned.—State Journal.

WAR VETERAN KILLED. EL ACCIDENTAL SHOT. Aurora, April 22.—Blayne Standaard, 39, of Phillips, died in an Aurora hospital on Wednesday of last week, a gunshot wound he received Tuesday night.

Accompanied by Lemuel Killion, Kenneth Purdy and Ralph Tucker, Standaard had been hunting when he was struck and the gun discharged. His widow and two sons survive him. For years he had farmed in Hamilton county, but for a year and a half he had been a salesman. He was a world war veteran.

DOCTORS WILL MEET AT FALLS CITY TODAY. Tecumseh.—The semi-annual meeting of the third councillor district of the Nebraska State Medical association will be held in Falls City Thursday. The program includes the following speakers: Dr. J. H. Judd, of Omaha; Dr. E. B. Reed, Lincoln; Dr. Ernest Kelley, Omaha; Dr. Charles Greenburg, St. Joseph, Mo.; Dr. R. W. Pouts, Omaha; Dr. H. J. Lehnhoff, Lincoln; Dr. Adolph Sachs, Omaha; Dr. H. K. Wallace, St. Joseph, Mo. There will be a 6:30 o'clock dinner at the Weaver hotel.

KINGSFORD-SMITH TO GET CRASHED PLANE'S MAIL. Siney, N. S. W., April 20.—Wing Commander Charles Kingsford-Smith will fly the Southern Cross to Geopang, Island of Timor, Tuesday to pick up the England-Australia air mail from the plane City of Cairo, which crashed there Sunday 500 miles from the end of its experimental London-to-Port Darwin flight. No one was injured.

Phonograph and Machinery. Blacksmith and Machinery. Manley, Nebraska.

Manley News Items. Since returning from the Immanuel hospital in Omaha, where he was for so long, Theo Harms is showing good improvement and is gaining with every day.

Roy Wiles and the family were enjoying a visit at Alvo on last Sunday, where they were guests at the home of the parents of Mrs. Wiles, Robert Koester and family, of that place.

John A. Stander and wife and Mr. and Mrs. Herman Rauth were over to Plattsmouth on last Monday evening, where they went to enjoy the show, Auto 'n' Andy, at the Ritz theatre.

Mrs. Glen Fleischman, who has been staying in Manley during the time that Glen was arranging for a place to reside in Chicago, departed on Saturday of last week for the windy city.

On last Wednesday, being Arbor day, the Manley bank was closed for the day and Mr. and Mrs. W. J. Rau were visiting for the day with friends in Omaha as well as looking after some business matters there.

On last Sunday, Mr. and Mrs. Walter Moeckenhaupt were over to Herman and were accompanied by J. C. Rauth, they all going to visit at the home of Paul Tighe and family, and as it rained they did not return until Tuesday and notwithstanding they all enjoyed the visit very much.

To properly celebrate the day last Sunday, not in planting a tree, but by getting out in the open, Harry Hawes and wife and Mr. and Mrs. Henry Osborne went over to Louisville where they put in the day fishing and also attending to the opening of the Isaak Walton park.

Mrs. John Koop Home. Mrs. John Koop who has been at the hospital in Omaha for some time, returned home on last Wednesday and Mrs. Rudolph Bergman was over spending the day with the mother, and in the evening Mr. Bergman went over with the car for her.

Home from Hospital. Clarence Karhardt, who has been at Omaha in a hospital, where he has been receiving treatment, returned home on last Wednesday afternoon and is feeling much better at this time. It is not determined whether he will have to return for further treatment or not. However, his many friends are pleased that he was able to return from the hospital.

Enters Hospital. Oris Schliefer, who has not been in the best of health for some time, and who has been having severe headaches, and also who has taken many clinics to ascertain the difficulty, went to the Immanuel hospital at Omaha last week to undergo an operation for relief from sinus trouble. He has been assured that the operation will be only a minor one.

Accepts Position at Creighton. Miss Anna Rauth, who was to have concluded her studies at the school at River Forest, Ill., with the closing of the present school year, by dint of good work and hard study was able to complete the work at this time and will with the closing of this week complete her work with the exception of the graduation week activities, has finished her course.

Miss Rauth has been elected to the position of librarian at Creighton college, Omaha, which position she will take effective April 28th. It is with a good deal of satisfaction to her many friends that they are apprised of the facts of her having completed the school year six weeks in advance of the class in which she receives her degree of Bachelor of Arts, and also of her being elected to the very responsible position of librarian at Creighton college.

Visited Here Sunday. Clyde Batterson, wife and son, Walter, of Hastings, Mrs. Harry Clarke of Iowa Falls, Mrs. Emma Simmons, of Omaha, and Bert Johnson, also of Omaha, were guests of friends and relatives in Manley on last Monday, they coming to visit at the home of J. C. Rauth and Herman Rauth and wife, but finding J. C. Rauth away, they visited at the home of Herman Rauth and wife during the day and in the afternoon were accompanied by Mr. and Mrs. Herman Rauth to Omaha, where they visited for the afternoon and evening. The ladies were sisters of the late Mrs. John C. Rauth and were here to visit for the day with relatives.

Rounded Out Many Years. Fred Fleischman, the good wife and their daughter, Miss Rachel, were over to Louisville last Sunday, where they were in attendance at a gathering at the home of the parents of Mrs. Fleischman, Mr. and Mrs. Henry Taylor, the occasion being the seventy-fifth anniversary of Mr. Taylor's birth. An excellent time was had. Mr. Taylor still remains in good health, working every day and feeling fine.

LOCAL NEWS. From Thursday's Daily.—J. M. Oldham, division roadmaster of the Burlington, was in the city today to look after some matters for the company.

Arnold Mast of near Nehawka was a visitor here today where he attended to some matters in the district court.

Mrs. C. A. Rosencrans was a visitor at Lincoln on Wednesday where she attended the dedication of the U. S. Veterans hospital at that place. Mrs. Rosencrans is chairman of the rehabilitation department of the American Legion Auxiliary.

From Friday's Daily.—C. A. Gauer of Louisville was in the city for a short time today to attend to some matters of business and visiting with friends.

Mr. and Mrs. Fred E. Lawson, of Chicago, who are moving to Wichita, Kansas, to make their future home, were here for a visit at the C. B. Holcomb home, Mr. Lawson being a brother of Mrs. Holcomb.

Mr. and Mrs. Henry Herold and Misses Mia and Barbara Gering, who have been visiting at Oklahoma City, for the past two weeks, returned home Thursday and report a fine trip. While in the south they were guests of Mr. and Mrs. Henry Robert Herold.

From Friday's Daily.—Mr. and Mrs. Fred Armstrong and son, Billy, were in Lincoln today where they spent the day with friends and relatives.

County Register of Deeds Miss Lillian White was in Omaha today where she was called to look after some matters of business.

Mr. and Mrs. Blair Porter of Union were here today to spend a few hours attending to some matters of business and also visiting with friends.

Judge James T. Begley and Court Reporter Glen Woodbury were at Papillion today where they held a session of the district court.

Rudolph Melsinger of near Cedar Creek was a visitor here today where he attended to some matters of business and also local meetings.

Mrs. J. A. Capwell was in Omaha today for a few hours attending to some matters of business, going to that city on the early Burlington train.

Frank Toman departed this morning for Omaha where he will assist his son home from the hospital where he has been receiving treatment for mastoid.

County Judge and Mrs. A. H. Duxbury were at Omaha today where they spent a few hours visiting with friends and looking after some matters of business.

Paul Lutz of Chicago arrived this afternoon for a short visit here with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. E. P. Lutz and for a few days outing from his work in the windy city.

C. F. Harris, prominent resident of Union and local county commissioner, was in the city for a short time this afternoon looking after some matters of business.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles McGuire departed this morning for McLean, Nebraska, where they are to visit for a few days at the home of their daughter, Mrs. William Becker and family.

WAGE CUTS NOT TALKED. New York.—The over-all and unincorporated of the nation's railroad men is striving to meet its unemployment situation but has not been asked to accept a cut in wages. David B. Robertson, chairman of the National Railway Labor Executive association, said.

Mr. Robertson told the Associated press that the brotherhoods have received no overtures from railroad managements toward a reduction in hourly wages as fixed by agreements in effect for several years. He denied railway labor representatives had participated in secret conferences with executives to discuss wage cuts.

The chairman presided at a three-day conference of the chiefs of twenty-one railway brotherhoods, representing approximately 95 percent of the country's 1,750,000 rail employees.

NORTH CAROLINA LYCHING. Union City, Tenn.—George Smith, eighteen-year-old negro, accused of attempting to attack a white girl, was taken from jail here by a crowd of men and hanged from a tree in the county courthouse yard while hundreds of persons thronged the grounds. Sheriff Hubbs and Deputy Sheriff Holloway said "a great big crowd" assembled in front of the jail about mid-afternoon, forced their way in and dragged Smith out after smashing the lock on the jail.

"We did it all we could to protect the negro," Holloway said, "but we didn't want to take his place." He added he saw no guns in the crowd. The lynching was accomplished quickly and most of the crowd dispersed in orderly manner.

DR. F. X. DERGUM DIES AT PHILOSOPHER MEET. Philadelphia, April 23.—Dr. Francis X. Dergum, noted neurologist and president of the American Philosophical society, died Thursday as he was about to open the annual meeting of the famous scientific organization founded by Benjamin Franklin.

Dr. Dergum, who had been ill, toppled over as he sat in the president's chair.

Call at the Bates Book & Gift shop and look over the fine line of fancy box candy for Mother's day.

Philip Thieroff. VALUE GIVING CLOTHES.

Manley News Items

Since returning from the Immanuel hospital in Omaha, where he was for so long, Theo Harms is showing good improvement and is gaining with every day.

Roy Wiles and the family were enjoying a visit at Alvo on last Sunday, where they were guests at the home of the parents of Mrs. Wiles, Robert Koester and family, of that place.

John A. Stander and wife and Mr. and Mrs. Herman Rauth were over to Plattsmouth on last Monday evening, where they went to enjoy the show, Auto 'n' Andy, at the Ritz theatre.

Mrs. Glen Fleischman, who has been staying in Manley during the time that Glen was arranging for a place to reside in Chicago, departed on Saturday of last week for the windy city.

On last Wednesday, being Arbor day, the Manley bank was closed for the day and Mr. and Mrs. W. J. Rau were visiting for the day with friends in Omaha as well as looking after some business matters there.

On last Sunday, Mr. and Mrs. Walter Moeckenhaupt were over to Herman and were accompanied by J. C. Rauth, they all going to visit at the home of Paul Tighe and family, and as it rained they did not return until Tuesday and notwithstanding they all enjoyed the visit very much.

To properly celebrate the day last Sunday, not in planting a tree, but by getting out in the open, Harry Hawes and wife and Mr. and Mrs. Henry Osborne went over to Louisville where they put in the day fishing and also attending to the opening of the Isaak Walton park.

Mrs. John Koop Home. Mrs. John Koop who has been at the hospital in Omaha for some time, returned home on last Wednesday and Mrs. Rudolph Bergman was over spending the day with the mother, and in the evening Mr. Bergman went over with the car for her.

Home from Hospital. Clarence Karhardt, who has been at Omaha in a hospital, where he has been receiving treatment, returned home on last Wednesday afternoon and is feeling much better at this time. It is not determined whether he will have to return for further treatment or not. However, his many friends are pleased that he was able to return from the hospital.

Enters Hospital. Oris Schliefer, who has not been in the best of health for some time, and who has been having severe headaches, and also who has taken many clinics to ascertain the difficulty, went to the Immanuel hospital at Omaha last week to undergo an operation for relief from sinus trouble. He has been assured that the operation will be only a minor one.

Accepts Position at Creighton. Miss Anna Rauth, who was to have concluded her studies at the school at River Forest, Ill., with the closing of the present school year, by dint of good work and hard study was able to complete the work at this time and will with the closing of this week complete her work with the exception of the graduation week activities, has finished her course.

Miss Rauth has been elected to the position of librarian at Creighton college, Omaha, which position she will take effective April 28th. It is with a good deal of satisfaction to her many friends that they are apprised of the facts of her having completed the school year six weeks in advance of the class in which she receives her degree of Bachelor of Arts, and also of her being elected to the very responsible position of librarian at Creighton college.

Visited Here Sunday. Clyde Batterson, wife and son, Walter, of Hastings, Mrs. Harry Clarke of Iowa Falls, Mrs. Emma Simmons, of Omaha, and Bert Johnson, also of Omaha, were guests of friends and relatives in Manley on last Monday, they coming to visit at the home of J. C. Rauth and Herman Rauth and wife, but finding J. C. Rauth away, they visited at the home of Herman Rauth and wife during the day and in the afternoon were accompanied by Mr. and Mrs. Herman Rauth to Omaha, where they visited for the afternoon and evening. The ladies were sisters of the late Mrs. John C. Rauth and were here to visit for the day with relatives.

Rounded Out Many Years. Fred Fleischman, the good wife and their daughter, Miss Rachel, were over to Louisville last Sunday, where they were in attendance at a gathering at the home of the parents of Mrs. Fleischman, Mr. and Mrs. Henry Taylor, the occasion being the seventy-fifth anniversary of Mr. Taylor's birth. An excellent time was had. Mr. Taylor still remains in good health, working every day and feeling fine.

LOCAL NEWS. From Thursday's Daily.—J. M. Oldham, division roadmaster of the Burlington, was in the city today to look after some matters for the company.

Arnold Mast of near Nehawka was a visitor here today where he attended to some matters in the district court.

Mrs. C. A. Rosencrans was a visitor at Lincoln on Wednesday where she attended the dedication of the U. S. Veterans hospital at that place. Mrs. Rosencrans is chairman of the rehabilitation department of the American Legion Auxiliary.

From Friday's Daily.—C. A. Gauer of Louisville was in the city for a short time today to attend to some matters of business and visiting with friends.

Mr. and Mrs. Fred E. Lawson, of Chicago, who are moving to Wichita, Kansas, to make their future home, were here for a visit at the C. B. Holcomb home, Mr. Lawson being a brother of Mrs. Holcomb.

Mr. and Mrs. Henry Herold and Misses Mia and Barbara Gering, who have been visiting at Oklahoma City, for the past two weeks, returned home Thursday and report a fine trip. While in the south they were guests of Mr. and Mrs. Henry Robert Herold.

From Friday's Daily.—Mr. and Mrs. Fred Armstrong and son, Billy, were in Lincoln today where they spent the day with friends and relatives.

County Register of Deeds Miss Lillian White was in Omaha today where she was called to look after some matters of business.

Mr. and Mrs. Blair Porter of Union were here today to spend a few hours attending to some matters of business and also visiting with friends.

Judge James T. Begley and Court Reporter Glen Woodbury were at Papillion today where they held a session of the district court.

Rudolph Melsinger of near Cedar Creek was a visitor here today where he attended to some matters of business and also local meetings.

Mrs. J. A. Capwell was in Omaha today for a few hours attending to some matters of business, going to that city on the early Burlington train.

Frank Toman departed this morning for Omaha where he will assist his son home from the hospital where he has been receiving treatment for mastoid.

County Judge and Mrs. A. H. Duxbury were at Omaha today where they spent a few hours visiting with friends and looking after some matters of business.

Paul Lutz of Chicago arrived this afternoon for a short visit here with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. E. P. Lutz and for a few days outing from his work in the windy city.

C. F. Harris, prominent resident of Union and local county commissioner, was in the city for a short time this afternoon looking after some matters of business.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles McGuire departed this morning for McLean, Nebraska, where they are to visit for a few days at the home of their daughter, Mrs. William Becker and family.

Manley News Items

Since returning from the Immanuel hospital in Omaha, where he was for so long, Theo Harms is showing good improvement and is gaining with every day.

Roy Wiles and the family were enjoying a visit at Alvo on last Sunday, where they were guests at the home of the parents of Mrs. Wiles, Robert Koester and family, of that place.

John A. Stander and wife and Mr. and Mrs. Herman Rauth were over to Plattsmouth on last Monday evening, where they went to enjoy the show, Auto 'n' Andy, at the Ritz theatre.

Mrs. Glen Fleischman, who has been staying in Manley during the time that Glen was arranging for a place to reside in Chicago, departed on Saturday of last week for the windy city.

On last Wednesday, being Arbor day, the Manley bank was closed for the day and Mr. and Mrs. W. J. Rau were visiting for the day with friends in Omaha as well as looking after some business matters there.

On last Sunday, Mr. and Mrs. Walter Moeckenhaupt were over to Herman and were accompanied by J. C. Rauth, they all going to visit at the home of Paul Tighe and family, and as it rained they did not return until Tuesday and notwithstanding they all enjoyed the visit very much.

To properly celebrate the day last Sunday, not in planting a tree, but by getting out in the open, Harry Hawes and wife and Mr. and Mrs. Henry Osborne went over to Louisville where they put in the day fishing and also attending to the opening of the Isaak Walton park.

Mrs. John Koop Home. Mrs. John Koop who has been at the hospital in Omaha for some time, returned home on last Wednesday and Mrs. Rudolph Bergman was over spending the day with the mother, and in the evening Mr. Bergman went over with the car for her.

Home from Hospital. Clarence Karhardt, who has been at Omaha in a hospital, where he has been receiving treatment, returned home on last Wednesday afternoon and is feeling much better at this time. It is not determined whether he will have to return for further treatment or not. However, his many friends are pleased that he was able to return from the hospital.

Enters Hospital. Oris Schliefer, who has not been in the best of health for some time, and who has been having severe headaches, and also who has taken many clinics to ascertain the difficulty, went to the Immanuel hospital at Omaha last week to undergo an operation for relief from sinus trouble. He has been assured that the operation will be only a minor one.

Accepts Position at Creighton. Miss Anna Rauth, who was to have concluded her studies at the school at River Forest, Ill., with the closing of the present school year, by dint of good work and hard study was able to complete the work at this time and will with the closing of this week complete her work with the exception of the graduation week activities, has finished her course.

Miss Rauth has been elected to the position of librarian at Creighton college, Omaha, which position she will take effective April 28th. It is with a good deal of satisfaction to her many friends that they are apprised of the facts of her having completed the school year six weeks in advance of the class in which she receives her degree of Bachelor of Arts, and also of her being elected to the very responsible position of librarian at Creighton college.

Visited Here Sunday. Clyde Batterson, wife and son, Walter, of Hastings, Mrs. Harry Clarke of Iowa Falls, Mrs. Emma Simmons, of Omaha, and Bert Johnson, also of Omaha, were guests of friends and relatives in Manley on last Monday, they coming to visit at the home of J. C. Rauth and Herman Rauth and wife, but finding J. C. Rauth away, they visited at the home of Herman Rauth and wife during the day and in the afternoon were accompanied by Mr. and Mrs. Herman Rauth to Omaha, where they visited for the afternoon and evening. The ladies were sisters of the late Mrs. John C. Rauth and were here to visit for the day with relatives.

Rounded Out Many Years. Fred Fleischman, the good wife and their daughter, Miss Rachel, were over to Louisville last Sunday, where they were in attendance at a gathering at the home of the parents of Mrs. Fleischman, Mr. and Mrs. Henry Taylor, the occasion being the seventy-fifth anniversary of Mr. Taylor's birth. An excellent time was had. Mr. Taylor still remains in good health, working every day and feeling fine.

LOCAL NEWS. From Thursday's Daily.—J. M. Oldham, division roadmaster of the Burlington, was in the city today to look after some matters for the company.

Arnold Mast of near Nehawka was a visitor here today where he attended to some matters in the district court.

Mrs. C. A. Rosencrans was a visitor at Lincoln on Wednesday where she attended the dedication of the U. S. Veterans hospital at that place. Mrs. Rosencrans is chairman of the rehabilitation department of the American Legion Auxiliary.

From Friday's Daily.—C. A. Gauer of Louisville was in the city for a short time today to attend to some matters of business and visiting with friends.

Mr. and Mrs. Fred E. Lawson, of Chicago, who are moving to Wichita, Kansas, to make their future home, were here for a visit at the C. B. Holcomb home, Mr. Lawson being a brother of Mrs. Holcomb.

Mr. and Mrs. Henry Herold and Misses Mia and Barbara Gering, who have been visiting at Oklahoma City, for the past two weeks, returned home Thursday and report a fine trip. While in the south they were guests of Mr. and Mrs. Henry Robert Herold.

From Friday's Daily.—Mr. and Mrs. Fred Armstrong and son, Billy, were in Lincoln today where they spent the day with friends and relatives.

County Register of Deeds Miss Lillian White was in Omaha today where she was called to look after some matters of business.

Mr. and Mrs. Blair Porter of Union were here today to spend a few hours attending to some matters of business and also visiting with friends.

Judge James T. Begley and Court Reporter Glen Woodbury were at Papillion today where they held a session of the district court.

Rudolph Melsinger of near Cedar Creek was a visitor here today where he attended to some matters of business and also local meetings.

Mrs. J. A. Capwell was in Omaha today for a few hours attending to some matters of business, going to that city on the early Burlington train.

Frank Toman departed this morning for Omaha where he will assist his son home from the hospital where he has been receiving treatment for mastoid.

County Judge and Mrs. A. H. Duxbury were at Omaha today where they spent a few hours visiting with friends and looking after some matters of business.

Paul Lutz of Chicago arrived this afternoon for a short visit here with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. E. P. Lutz and for a few days outing from his work in the windy city.

C. F. Harris, prominent resident of Union and local county commissioner, was in the city for a short time this afternoon looking after some matters of business.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles McGuire departed this morning for McLean, Nebraska, where they are to visit for a few days at the home of their daughter, Mrs. William Becker and family.

Manley News Items

Since returning from the Immanuel hospital in Omaha, where he was for so long, Theo Harms is showing good improvement and is gaining with every day.

Roy Wiles and the family were enjoying a visit at Alvo on last Sunday, where they were guests at the home of the parents of Mrs. Wiles, Robert Koester and family, of that place.

John A. Stander and wife and Mr. and Mrs. Herman Rauth were over to Plattsmouth on last Monday evening, where they went to enjoy the show, Auto 'n' Andy, at the Ritz theatre.

Mrs. Glen Fleischman, who has been staying in Manley during the time that Glen was arranging for a place to reside in Chicago, departed on Saturday of last week for the windy city.

On last Wednesday, being Arbor day, the Manley