Baccalaureate Services Held Sunday Night

Presbyterian Church Filled to Capacity by Audience to Hear Sermon by Rev. Troy.

The baccalaureate services of the Plattsmouth high school for the year 1931 were held on Sunday evening at the First Presbyterian church and with the church decorated and arranged in a very beautiful manner for the event that was to mean so much to the members of the class of 1931 which is soon to leave the high school.

The members of the junior class served as ushers of the occasion and assisted in the seating of the congregation.

At 8 o'clock the processional was played by E. H. Wescott and to which the members of the senior class with their advisers entered the church and were escorted to seats at the front of the church, set aside as a place of honor to the graduates.

The invocation was offered by Rev. O. G. Wichmann, pastor of the St. Paul's Evangelical church, while the scripture lesson and the prayer was offered by Rev. H. G. McClusky, pastor of the First Presbyterian church.

The musical program was in charge of the choir of the First Methodist church and under the direction of Mrs. E. H. Wescott, choir leader. The large choir gave two very beautiful selections preceding and following the sermon of the evening, "Into Me," by Schubert and "Now the Day is Over," by Shalley, both being presented most impressively.

The Rev. C. O. Troy, pastor of the Methodist church gave the sermon and as his subject took the word of Holy writ, "What Shall It Profit a Man if He Gains the Whole World and Loses His Soul." The sermon was one of great beauty and presented very ably by the pastor, bringing home the discussion of success or failure of the measuring of life by the standards of spiritual or material triumphs.

The services following the close of the sermon were interlarded with a great extent by the fact the fuses blowing out caused the lights to fade out and some little time to replace the fuses.

The class of 1931 feels very grateful to Rev. Troy, Rev. Wichmann and Rev. McClusky for their services in making the event a success as well as to Mr. and Mrs. Wescott and the choir. The seniors are also grateful to the juniors for assisting in the services.

FUNERAL OF MRS. WALLENGREN

The funeral of Mrs. David Wallengren was held on Saturday afternoon at the Sattler funeral home at Fourth and Vine street and a very large number of the old friends and neighbors were in attendance to pay their last tributes of respect to the departed and to share with the bereaved family the sorrow that her passing has occasioned.

The services were conducted by the Rev. H. G. McClusky, pastor of the First Presbyterian church and who gave words of comfort to the bereaved ones that will miss the love and care of the wife and mother in the future.

During the services Frank A. Cloldt gave two vocal solos, "In the Garden" and "In the Sweet Bye and Bye," old favorites of the departed lady.

At the conclusion of the service the body was borne to Oak Hill cemetery where it was laid to the last long rest.

Mrs. Wallengren is survived by the husband, David Wallengren, and six children, Ernest Wallengren of Billings, Montana; Mrs. C. J. Rhylander of Minneapolis; Mrs. H. P. Beverly of Omaha; Rudolph Wallengren of this city; Mrs. E. P. Newland of Decatur, Illinois; and Miss Hilda Wallengren of this city. A sister, Mrs. Charlotte Johnson, also survives her passing.

WILL LOCATE IN CITY

Mr. and Mrs. E. J. Delaney, of Lincoln, who recently purchased a half interest in the Coronado apartment house in this city, have moved here and are now located in their apartment house, where Mr. Delaney will act as the manager of the apartment house in the future. Mr. and Mrs. Delaney are former residents of Geneva where they made their home for a great many years and also of Lincoln. The family will find a very hearty welcome from the residents of the community and will find a most pleasant home here among the friendly people of this city.

TO ERECT SCHOOL

The contract for the erection of the new school house at Cedar Creek, bids for which were opened the last of the week, was awarded to John Fieschman of Louisville, one of the well known contractors and builders of that city. The building is estimated to cost in the neighborhood of $6,500 when completed. The cost will be covered by a small levy over a five year period.

HAVE REAL BALL TEAM

While the city has no baseball team to officially represent it on the diamond this season, there is an organization to carry on the great national pastime and this is the baseball team of the Lyman-Richey Sand & Gravel Co., the employees at the local pits having launched their team for the year and on Sunday battled a team from the vicinity of Cedar Creek to win by the score of 18 to 9. The game was played at the grounds of the company north of the city and proved a real struggle. The hurler for the Lyman-Richey team is Sherman Bragg, whose work has been such that the team has won several victories already this season, while the receiver of the club is George Kalasek and who is a rival for Mickey Cochran in this position.

Mayor and Mrs. Sattler Enjoying 45th Annivers'ry

Guests of Honor at Dinner at Home of Mr. and Mrs. Jess Warga on Wedding Anniversary

At the home of their daughter, Mrs. Jess Warga, the forty-fifth wedding anniversary of Mayor and Mrs. John P. Sattler was celebrated last evening. A six o'clock dinner was served to the members of the family, the color scheme of green and orchid being used in the table decorations and throughout the dining room.

The center piece of the dining table was a beautiful cake prepared by Mrs. Bernard Meisinger, the youngest of the family circle, the cake being surrounded by a bride and groom and ten small dolls to represent the children of the family.

The occasion was one of the rarest pleasure to our able and genial mayor and the gracious lady that has shared together the joys and sorrows of life for almost half a century and it was fitting that so many of the family were able to be present and take part in the delightful gathering.

Mr. and Mrs. Sattler received many valuable gifts in remembrance of the occasion, including a bouquet of Lilies of the Valley from Mr. Sattler to Mrs. Sattler, as this was their wedding flower.

Congratulations were received from their daughter, Mrs. Fred Heister of Tucson, Arizona, and Mr. Carl Sattler of Los Angeles, who were not present.

The evening was spent in cards and games.

Those in attendance were: Mr. and Mrs. J. P. Sattler, Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Mason and children, Germaine, Shirley, Donna Fae and Billie, Mr. and Mrs. L. R. Sprecher, Mr. and Mrs. J. P. Sattler, Jr., Mr. and Mrs. Bernard Meisinger, Mrs. Charles Lohmann and Mr. Albert Sattler of Omaha, Mrs. Harley Burdick of Tucson, Arizona, and Mr. and Mrs. Jess Warga.

OFFER A GREAT DISPLAY

The Plattsmouth Motor Co., local representatives of the Ford Motor Co., today staged one of the most elaborate and extensive showings of commercial and farm trucks that has ever been shown in the community.

The caravan was started through the streets of the business section shortly after 9 o'clock and gave the general public the greatest first hand showing of the large number of special commercial motor vehicles that are turned out by the Ford company.

The showing embraced police patrol, ambulance, coal body, large panel truck, garbage wagon, tank wagon, ice wagon, stock truck, town car delivery, De Luxe panel, Drop Floor Panel, heavy duty express, dump truck, parts display panel, and Service Wagon.

The Plattsmouth Motor Co., were making a display and demonstration of the truck and service cars at the garage and a large number of interested persons were calling during the day to view the various lines of automobile equipment in which they might be interested.

It is seldom that such a large display has been staged in a community of this size and gives the public the chance to get a full appreciation and understanding of the splendid line that the Ford company is handling.

MRS. FALTER INJURED

Mrs. J. P. Falter was very severely injured this morning while engaged in her housework at the home on North Third street, she falling and in doing so suffered what is thought to be a fracture of the hip bone. Dr. R. P. Westover was called and after giving the patient temporary relief she was taken to Omaha and placed in the Methodist hospital for treatment and to have an X-ray taken to determine the full extent of the injuries. The host of friends of this estimable lady will regret very much to learn of this unfortunate accident and trust that the patient may have a speedy recovery from the effects of the fall.

Everyone brought a picnic basket and all the food was spread conveniently on a long table in the spacious kitchen, around which the guests marched cafeteria style and served themselves.

Mr. C. G. Mayfield reviewed the history of the Todd family in a very interesting manner, recalling to memory many things that are long forgotten to many of those present known to others of the younger generations.

An interesting feature of the occasion was the presence of representatives of four generations of Mayfields, beginning with Mrs. G. W. Mayfield of Plattsmouth, her son, C. G. Mayfield, his son, J. R. Mayfield and his young son, whose name unfortunately, the writer did not get.

The country home of Mr. and Mrs. Louis Kostka, northwest of this city was the scene of a very pleasant gathering of friends on Saturday evening, the group being from this city and Omaha and honoring James Cernik, an old time friend, who is leaving this week for his home in Bohemia. The evening was spent in visiting and dancing and which brought a great deal of pleasure to the entire party and at an appropriate hour Mr. Cernik was given a reminder of the gathering. Luncheon was served at a late hour and which served to complete the evening of pleasure. On the homegoing hour the members of the party joined in their well wishes to Mr. Cernik and the hope that he may return to Plattsmouth after the visit back among the familiar scenes of his youth. Mr. Cernik is expected to leave on Friday and will join a party at Chicago that is going to the old world and will travel with a large delegation of the former residents of Bohemia to visit the many places of interest in their native country.

Miss Geraldine Ellerman of North Bend and Hershel A. Lonsford of Omaha were united in marriage on Tuesday afternoon at the office of Judge A. H. Duxbury. The young people returned to their home in the metropolitan immediately following the ceremony.

LOCAL PEOPLE SEE TRAGEDY

A large number of Plattsmouth people were in the audience of 20-900 at the Omaha air port Sunday afternoon when Charles W. "Speck" Holman of St. Paul, Minnesota, was instantly killed as his plane crashed. The flyer had thrilled and terrified the audience with his spectacular stunts for some fifteen minutes when the great climax of his showing was to come. The plane with the St. Paul flyer on board, rose past the grandstand some twenty-five feet from the ground, flying the plane upside down, and as he seemed to be struggling to regain control of the plane it crashed and the pilot was thrown from the plane and instantly killed. The sight was one that the spectators will long remember and a tragedy that affected all of the huge crowd very much.

Child Struck by Car Not in Serious Shape

Leslie Niel, 3, suffers fractured ribs and bruises. But seems to be improving.

From Monday's Daily—A great deal of excitement was created in the downtown district on Saturday afternoon shortly before 6 o'clock, when Leslie, three-year-old son of Mr. and Mrs. L. W. Niel, was struck by an auto at the Main and Fifth street intersection and knocked to the paving.

The accident occurred at a time when a large number were on the streets and a great deal of traffic and the little lad who had come down to the business section of the city, ran from the mother and started to cross over Main street and successfully passed the first line of traffic.

The injured lad was hurried to the office of Dr. E. J. Gillespie in the Thierolf building and he was
