

MURDOCK ITEMS

Mrs. Russell Rogers left Friday evening to visit at her former home in Kansas, for several days.

Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Rager from Gretna, attended the Memorial services at the Wabash cemetery Sunday.

Miss Jeanette MacNamara from Fairmont visited several days at the W. O. Gillespie home the past week.

The John Gakemeier family, Dan Panska family and G. Bauer family with Harvey Heiers drove to Ithaca Sunday.

Miss Katherine Neitzel, who taught school at Hyannis, came home for a vacation. L. Neitzel went to Lincoln to meet her.

Miss Elsa Bornemeier was a visitor with friends at Fairbury from last Friday until Monday evening. She enjoyed the visit very much.

Ivan Heiers has been suffering greatly from a persistent attack of rheumatism which has been troubling this young man for some time past.

Mrs. J. J. Hill returned to her home in Denver on Sunday, after spending the last two months with her sister, Mrs. McHugh and other relatives.

Julius Reinke and H. W. Tool were putting a new floor in the truck of the former and making it grain tight and strong enough for the hauling of a heavy load.

Judge W. E. Newkirk and the good wife of Greenwood were visiting here for a portion of last week where they were guests at the home of Dr. and Mrs. L. D. Lee. Mrs. Lee being a daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Newkirk.

Ulah Schlieft entertained sixteen girls at a six o'clock dinner Wednesday evening at her home in Manley. Many of Ulah's former school mates from here attended. Cards formed the diversion for the evening.

Mrs. A. J. Tool and son, Douglas, who is taking instructions on the violin from Professor Stockelberg of Lincoln, were over on last Monday and as Douglas was taking his lesson, Mrs. Tool was visiting with friends in the big town.

Mrs. Laura Melvin and Miss Jessie of Lincoln, spent Decoration day at the F. A. Melvin home all taking in the Memorial program at the Elmwood cemetery in the morning. Master George Melvin returned with them for a few days visit.

Edmond McHugh was a visitor in Elmwood on last Wednesday morning where he was separating himself from some obstreperous teeth which had failed to give the required service without much growling and contention. They are not troubling Edmond any more.

In Reunion at Former Home. Departing on Friday evening, May 29th, as the following day was a holiday, Henry A. Tool and wife and their daughter departed for Acklay, Iowa, the former home of this family and the place where Mr. Tool's mother, Mrs. Leah Tool, still resides, and where they were joined by Richard Tool of Kingsley, Iowa, and Kenneth Tool of Nebraska, thus completing the entire family circle of the family of Mr. and Mrs. Henry Tool. They enjoyed the gathering very much and returned Sunday, and as they were passing Adair they were given a glimpse of the autogiro plane of Miss Amelia Earhart, who landed there as she was passing to the west.

Making Crossing Safe. A certain crossing southwest of Murdock has provided an occasion for the taking toll of human life, the last victim being Uncle Henry Schloppoff, and which to prevent any cause from trouble in the future, is being widened to forty feet which will give a much better view of the road.

Do You Like Good Music? Well here is your opportunity, the Nebraska Shrine band will give a special concert at the Nebraska Veterans hospital which is located just east of Lincoln just off O street road. Be sure and be there and enjoy the concert which will be given on Sunday June 14th, beginning at 7:00 in the evening. H. W. Tool is a member of the band.

Putting In Extra Seat. Lacey McDonald with the nice lot of the young folks which are wanting a place in the easy riding Model A which is owned by Mr. McDonald, has been devising a means whereby all could find a good comfortable seat and Lacey dropped on a manner of placing a chair in the car with a hinge on it so that the extra one could be comfortably accommodated.

Has Tonsils Removed. Miss Martha Schweppe, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Herman F. Schweppe, who has been having trouble with her tonsils, had the same removed on Monday of last week, the operation being done by Dr. L. D. Lee and was a very nice piece of work. Miss Martha, while her throat has been some sore following the operation, is getting along nicely, and it is hoped will soon be entirely well.

At Home Now at Murdock. On Thursday John B. Skinner of Alvo who is a hustler when it comes to hauling freight via the truck way, brought the goods of Eddie Craig and the family to Murdock where they are now very comfortably located.

Enjoying Trip Nicely. A letter from Otto Elchoff and the family who are on their way to the west, and writing from Oklahoma, say they are getting along nicely and with no car trouble and seeing some very nice country. They will go on west immediately for California as per their schedule.

Many Attend Band Concert. On Wednesday evening of the past week was the first of the summer band concerts which is to be given at Elmwood during the summer. A large number of people from Murdock were over and enjoyed the very fine music which was furnished by the band. Three of Murdock's young men assist in the wonderful success which is coming to this band, they being Messrs. Harry and Jessie Stock and Charles I. Long.

Memorial Day at Wabash. Joining with the people of Wabash and other places where are friends who have relatives sleeping at the Wabash cemetery, the people of Murdock celebrated the passing of Memorial day at the Wabash cemetery with a large crowd of people. The Rev. W. A. Taylor of Union made the address of the afternoon, while the graves were decorated with pretty flowers.

Hold Family Reunion. On Sunday a family reunion of the McCrory family was held at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Frank Biell at their beautiful country home north of Elmwood. Relatives of the family were present on this occasion and a big dinner as well as a fine time was enjoyed by all present. Those present were: Mr. and Mrs. Wm. McCrory and daughter of Mount City, Mo.; Mrs. O. H. Allen and daughter Hope, of Omaha; Mrs. V. E. Perry and daughter, Edith, of Big Springs, Neb.; Marion McCrory and daughters, Grace and Ruth, Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Dorr, two sons and daughter, Frances; I. C. McCrory and family, all of Elmwood; and Maurice McCrory and family of Greeley, Neb. —Leader-Echo.

The Bobbinets. The sewing club met at the home of Evelyn Kuehn, June 4th, 1931. The lesson was read on "Making and Decorating a Towel." Two demonstrations were given. One by Marjorie Zink and the other by Bernice McCrory. A delicious lunch was served after the lesson was read and the demonstrations were given. The next meeting will be held at the home of Marjorie Zink, June 18th. —News Reporter.

Parables of Jesus. "THE RICH MAN AND LAZARUS" Luke 16: 19-31. We have had the only glimpse into the future life. The Lord draws the curtain aside and shows man what his future state will be. Man is the master of his own destiny. God does not send men to hell or heaven, it is of their own choosing. The criminal gets what he deserves, the judge has no choice in the matter. The law prescribes the fate of the man. The law says: "The soul that sinned shall die." This rich man was not wicked nor a criminal. There is no charge recorded against him. The poor man has no record of piety, or any unusual traits of character displayed that might merit God's special favor. The rich man can afford the things that he uses. He has the means and puts his money into circulation. That is commendable. He did not hoard his wealth. Now the scales turn. The beggar dies. Angels are near. They carry his soul into Abraham's bosom, a place of delight, of rest, all wants supplied. He is satisfied. On earth he had no friends, except dogs, now angels are his companions. The time comes for the rich man to die. All his pleasures have an end. He is buried, has a fine funeral, a great display of pomp, many attend the obsequies, it is the talk of the town for a long time. Where is his soul? No angels accompany him. His friends could only go to the grave. He has not gone to an eternal sleep. He is conscious; he can see and hear and feel; he sees Abraham, he speaks and Abraham answers, he hears; he suffers torments, he is in a hot place; water is good enough for him now, he would not use it in life. He used wine and strong drink. He never voted for prohibition.

A word about the two places: The poor man is not in heaven, the rich man is in hell. They are in an intermediate state. After the resurrection of the dead; our bodies prepared for eternity, will again encompass the soul. They are disembodied souls now. At the great judgment day, when all must appear before the throne of God, then men will be assigned to their places. To the one class, which are standing at the right hand. The Lord will say: "Come, ye blessed of my Father." Those on the left will hear their doom: "Depart from me, ye cursed." This is an intermediate state, the souls are waiting for the sounding of the last trumpet, when the bodies shall rise from their graves, the sea

FINE FOR STOMACH. I have never handled a remedy that gave such wonderful results as ZINSEP. Not one who has taken this remarkable medicine remedy that did not obtain immediate relief. GUARANTEED. At all drug stores. Zinsep operation, is getting along nicely, and it is hoped will soon be entirely well.

At Home Now at Murdock. On Thursday John B. Skinner of Alvo who is a hustler when it comes to hauling freight via the truck way, brought the goods of Eddie Craig and the family to Murdock where they are now very comfortably located.

Enjoying Trip Nicely. A letter from Otto Elchoff and the family who are on their way to the west, and writing from Oklahoma, say they are getting along nicely and with no car trouble and seeing some very nice country. They will go on west immediately for California as per their schedule.

Many Attend Band Concert. On Wednesday evening of the past week was the first of the summer band concerts which is to be given at Elmwood during the summer. A large number of people from Murdock were over and enjoyed the very fine music which was furnished by the band. Three of Murdock's young men assist in the wonderful success which is coming to this band, they being Messrs. Harry and Jessie Stock and Charles I. Long.

Memorial Day at Wabash. Joining with the people of Wabash and other places where are friends who have relatives sleeping at the Wabash cemetery, the people of Murdock celebrated the passing of Memorial day at the Wabash cemetery with a large crowd of people. The Rev. W. A. Taylor of Union made the address of the afternoon, while the graves were decorated with pretty flowers.

Hold Family Reunion. On Sunday a family reunion of the McCrory family was held at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Frank Biell at their beautiful country home north of Elmwood. Relatives of the family were present on this occasion and a big dinner as well as a fine time was enjoyed by all present. Those present were: Mr. and Mrs. Wm. McCrory and daughter of Mount City, Mo.; Mrs. O. H. Allen and daughter Hope, of Omaha; Mrs. V. E. Perry and daughter, Edith, of Big Springs, Neb.; Marion McCrory and daughters, Grace and Ruth, Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Dorr, two sons and daughter, Frances; I. C. McCrory and family, all of Elmwood; and Maurice McCrory and family of Greeley, Neb. —Leader-Echo.

The Bobbinets. The sewing club met at the home of Evelyn Kuehn, June 4th, 1931. The lesson was read on "Making and Decorating a Towel." Two demonstrations were given. One by Marjorie Zink and the other by Bernice McCrory. A delicious lunch was served after the lesson was read and the demonstrations were given. The next meeting will be held at the home of Marjorie Zink, June 18th. —News Reporter.

Parables of Jesus. "THE RICH MAN AND LAZARUS" Luke 16: 19-31. We have had the only glimpse into the future life. The Lord draws the curtain aside and shows man what his future state will be. Man is the master of his own destiny. God does not send men to hell or heaven, it is of their own choosing. The criminal gets what he deserves, the judge has no choice in the matter. The law prescribes the fate of the man. The law says: "The soul that sinned shall die." This rich man was not wicked nor a criminal. There is no charge recorded against him. The poor man has no record of piety, or any unusual traits of character displayed that might merit God's special favor. The rich man can afford the things that he uses. He has the means and puts his money into circulation. That is commendable. He did not hoard his wealth. Now the scales turn. The beggar dies. Angels are near. They carry his soul into Abraham's bosom, a place of delight, of rest, all wants supplied. He is satisfied. On earth he had no friends, except dogs, now angels are his companions. The time comes for the rich man to die. All his pleasures have an end. He is buried, has a fine funeral, a great display of pomp, many attend the obsequies, it is the talk of the town for a long time. Where is his soul? No angels accompany him. His friends could only go to the grave. He has not gone to an eternal sleep. He is conscious; he can see and hear and feel; he sees Abraham, he speaks and Abraham answers, he hears; he suffers torments, he is in a hot place; water is good enough for him now, he would not use it in life. He used wine and strong drink. He never voted for prohibition.

A word about the two places: The poor man is not in heaven, the rich man is in hell. They are in an intermediate state. After the resurrection of the dead; our bodies prepared for eternity, will again encompass the soul. They are disembodied souls now. At the great judgment day, when all must appear before the throne of God, then men will be assigned to their places. To the one class, which are standing at the right hand. The Lord will say: "Come, ye blessed of my Father." Those on the left will hear their doom: "Depart from me, ye cursed." This is an intermediate state, the souls are waiting for the sounding of the last trumpet, when the bodies shall rise from their graves, the sea give up its dead, the than living will be transformed, and all will be summoned before the Judge.

Now we would ask: Why did the rich man land in a place of torment? Here turn to your Bible for the answer: 1 John 3:17. He had this to his debit, that he allowed the beggar to lay at his gate. It was not a pleasant sight. A man scarcely covered, dirty, sitting on the ground, full of running sores, which the dogs licked. He could have fed him but he let him starve. Now look again to 1 John 3:17. The poor man may have been very unfortunate in business; probably lost his family; had no friends when his money was gone. Then living in want, he took sick, and had bed sores, now he must beg, somebody helps him to the gate of the rich man. Here God gives this rich man an opportunity to minister "to one of the least of these." Math. 25:45. But the rich man did it not. This was his sin. Now his suffering is mental. Memory torments him. Later when body and soul are united, then his suffering will be physical also. What a terrible picture this man gives us of the future! What a pleasant view the poor man gives us of the future! Look at the changed condition of these men.

On last Sunday some thirty friends of John Bornemeier and family motored down from Lincoln to spend the day with them, also a very fine picnic dinner which all enjoyed at Wabash park and toward evening came back and were entertained and served with fresh strawberries, ice cream and angel food cake and we are all looking forward to another such a day in the near future.

On Thursday evening of the past week was the first of the summer band concerts which is to be given at Elmwood during the summer. A large number of people from Murdock were over and enjoyed the very fine music which was furnished by the band. Three of Murdock's young men assist in the wonderful success which is coming to this band, they being Messrs. Harry and Jessie Stock and Charles I. Long.

Memorial Day at Wabash. Joining with the people of Wabash and other places where are friends who have relatives sleeping at the Wabash cemetery, the people of Murdock celebrated the passing of Memorial day at the Wabash cemetery with a large crowd of people. The Rev. W. A. Taylor of Union made the address of the afternoon, while the graves were decorated with pretty flowers.

Hold Family Reunion. On Sunday a family reunion of the McCrory family was held at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Frank Biell at their beautiful country home north of Elmwood. Relatives of the family were present on this occasion and a big dinner as well as a fine time was enjoyed by all present. Those present were: Mr. and Mrs. Wm. McCrory and daughter of Mount City, Mo.; Mrs. O. H. Allen and daughter Hope, of Omaha; Mrs. V. E. Perry and daughter, Edith, of Big Springs, Neb.; Marion McCrory and daughters, Grace and Ruth, Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Dorr, two sons and daughter, Frances; I. C. McCrory and family, all of Elmwood; and Maurice McCrory and family of Greeley, Neb. —Leader-Echo.

The Bobbinets. The sewing club met at the home of Evelyn Kuehn, June 4th, 1931. The lesson was read on "Making and Decorating a Towel." Two demonstrations were given. One by Marjorie Zink and the other by Bernice McCrory. A delicious lunch was served after the lesson was read and the demonstrations were given. The next meeting will be held at the home of Marjorie Zink, June 18th. —News Reporter.

Parables of Jesus. "THE RICH MAN AND LAZARUS" Luke 16: 19-31. We have had the only glimpse into the future life. The Lord draws the curtain aside and shows man what his future state will be. Man is the master of his own destiny. God does not send men to hell or heaven, it is of their own choosing. The criminal gets what he deserves, the judge has no choice in the matter. The law prescribes the fate of the man. The law says: "The soul that sinned shall die." This rich man was not wicked nor a criminal. There is no charge recorded against him. The poor man has no record of piety, or any unusual traits of character displayed that might merit God's special favor. The rich man can afford the things that he uses. He has the means and puts his money into circulation. That is commendable. He did not hoard his wealth. Now the scales turn. The beggar dies. Angels are near. They carry his soul into Abraham's bosom, a place of delight, of rest, all wants supplied. He is satisfied. On earth he had no friends, except dogs, now angels are his companions. The time comes for the rich man to die. All his pleasures have an end. He is buried, has a fine funeral, a great display of pomp, many attend the obsequies, it is the talk of the town for a long time. Where is his soul? No angels accompany him. His friends could only go to the grave. He has not gone to an eternal sleep. He is conscious; he can see and hear and feel; he sees Abraham, he speaks and Abraham answers, he hears; he suffers torments, he is in a hot place; water is good enough for him now, he would not use it in life. He used wine and strong drink. He never voted for prohibition.

A word about the two places: The poor man is not in heaven, the rich man is in hell. They are in an intermediate state. After the resurrection of the dead; our bodies prepared for eternity, will again encompass the soul. They are disembodied souls now. At the great judgment day, when all must appear before the throne of God, then men will be assigned to their places. To the one class, which are standing at the right hand. The Lord will say: "Come, ye blessed of my Father." Those on the left will hear their doom: "Depart from me, ye cursed." This is an intermediate state, the souls are waiting for the sounding of the last trumpet, when the bodies shall rise from their graves, the sea give up its dead, the than living will be transformed, and all will be summoned before the Judge.

Now we would ask: Why did the rich man land in a place of torment? Here turn to your Bible for the answer: 1 John 3:17. He had this to his debit, that he allowed the beggar to lay at his gate. It was not a pleasant sight. A man scarcely covered, dirty, sitting on the ground, full of running sores, which the dogs licked. He could have fed him but he let him starve. Now look again to 1 John 3:17. The poor man may have been very unfortunate in business; probably lost his family; had no friends when his money was gone. Then living in want, he took sick, and had bed sores, now he must beg, somebody helps him to the gate of the rich man. Here God gives this rich man an opportunity to minister "to one of the least of these." Math. 25:45. But the rich man did it not. This was his sin. Now his suffering is mental. Memory torments him. Later when body and soul are united, then his suffering will be physical also. What a terrible picture this man gives us of the future! What a pleasant view the poor man gives us of the future! Look at the changed condition of these men.

On last Sunday some thirty friends of John Bornemeier and family motored down from Lincoln to spend the day with them, also a very fine picnic dinner which all enjoyed at Wabash park and toward evening came back and were entertained and served with fresh strawberries, ice cream and angel food cake and we are all looking forward to another such a day in the near future.

On Thursday evening of the past week was the first of the summer band concerts which is to be given at Elmwood during the summer. A large number of people from Murdock were over and enjoyed the very fine music which was furnished by the band. Three of Murdock's young men assist in the wonderful success which is coming to this band, they being Messrs. Harry and Jessie Stock and Charles I. Long.

Memorial Day at Wabash. Joining with the people of Wabash and other places where are friends who have relatives sleeping at the Wabash cemetery, the people of Murdock celebrated the passing of Memorial day at the Wabash cemetery with a large crowd of people. The Rev. W. A. Taylor of Union made the address of the afternoon, while the graves were decorated with pretty flowers.

Hold Family Reunion. On Sunday a family reunion of the McCrory family was held at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Frank Biell at their beautiful country home north of Elmwood. Relatives of the family were present on this occasion and a big dinner as well as a fine time was enjoyed by all present. Those present were: Mr. and Mrs. Wm. McCrory and daughter of Mount City, Mo.; Mrs. O. H. Allen and daughter Hope, of Omaha; Mrs. V. E. Perry and daughter, Edith, of Big Springs, Neb.; Marion McCrory and daughters, Grace and Ruth, Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Dorr, two sons and daughter, Frances; I. C. McCrory and family, all of Elmwood; and Maurice McCrory and family of Greeley, Neb. —Leader-Echo.

The Bobbinets. The sewing club met at the home of Evelyn Kuehn, June 4th, 1931. The lesson was read on "Making and Decorating a Towel." Two demonstrations were given. One by Marjorie Zink and the other by Bernice McCrory. A delicious lunch was served after the lesson was read and the demonstrations were given. The next meeting will be held at the home of Marjorie Zink, June 18th. —News Reporter.

Parables of Jesus. "THE RICH MAN AND LAZARUS" Luke 16: 19-31. We have had the only glimpse into the future life. The Lord draws the curtain aside and shows man what his future state will be. Man is the master of his own destiny. God does not send men to hell or heaven, it is of their own choosing. The criminal gets what he deserves, the judge has no choice in the matter. The law prescribes the fate of the man. The law says: "The soul that sinned shall die." This rich man was not wicked nor a criminal. There is no charge recorded against him. The poor man has no record of piety, or any unusual traits of character displayed that might merit God's special favor. The rich man can afford the things that he uses. He has the means and puts his money into circulation. That is commendable. He did not hoard his wealth. Now the scales turn. The beggar dies. Angels are near. They carry his soul into Abraham's bosom, a place of delight, of rest, all wants supplied. He is satisfied. On earth he had no friends, except dogs, now angels are his companions. The time comes for the rich man to die. All his pleasures have an end. He is buried, has a fine funeral, a great display of pomp, many attend the obsequies, it is the talk of the town for a long time. Where is his soul? No angels accompany him. His friends could only go to the grave. He has not gone to an eternal sleep. He is conscious; he can see and hear and feel; he sees Abraham, he speaks and Abraham answers, he hears; he suffers torments, he is in a hot place; water is good enough for him now, he would not use it in life. He used wine and strong drink. He never voted for prohibition.

A word about the two places: The poor man is not in heaven, the rich man is in hell. They are in an intermediate state. After the resurrection of the dead; our bodies prepared for eternity, will again encompass the soul. They are disembodied souls now. At the great judgment day, when all must appear before the throne of God, then men will be assigned to their places. To the one class, which are standing at the right hand. The Lord will say: "Come, ye blessed of my Father." Those on the left will hear their doom: "Depart from me, ye cursed." This is an intermediate state, the souls are waiting for the sounding of the last trumpet, when the bodies shall rise from their graves, the sea give up its dead, the than living will be transformed, and all will be summoned before the Judge.

Now we would ask: Why did the rich man land in a place of torment? Here turn to your Bible for the answer: 1 John 3:17. He had this to his debit, that he allowed the beggar to lay at his gate. It was not a pleasant sight. A man scarcely covered, dirty, sitting on the ground, full of running sores, which the dogs licked. He could have fed him but he let him starve. Now look again to 1 John 3:17. The poor man may have been very unfortunate in business; probably lost his family; had no friends when his money was gone. Then living in want, he took sick, and had bed sores, now he must beg, somebody helps him to the gate of the rich man. Here God gives this rich man an opportunity to minister "to one of the least of these." Math. 25:45. But the rich man did it not. This was his sin. Now his suffering is mental. Memory torments him. Later when body and soul are united, then his suffering will be physical also. What a terrible picture this man gives us of the future! What a pleasant view the poor man gives us of the future! Look at the changed condition of these men.

On last Sunday some thirty friends of John Bornemeier and family motored down from Lincoln to spend the day with them, also a very fine picnic dinner which all enjoyed at Wabash park and toward evening came back and were entertained and served with fresh strawberries, ice cream and angel food cake and we are all looking forward to another such a day in the near future.

LOCAL NEWS

From Thursday's Daily—Miss Isabel Marshall of Council Bluffs is here to enjoy a visit with the many old time friends and schoolmates in this city.

Adolph Hanson of Weeping Water was a visitor in the city today for a short time attending to some matters of business.

Attorney C. E. Teft of Weeping Water was in the city today to spend a few hours looking after some matters in the district court.

James Terryberry of near Louisville, was in the city today for a few hours attending to some matters of business and visiting with his many friends.

H. H. Ragoss was among the visitors from the vicinity of Cedar Creek in the city Wednesday to attend to some matters of importance for a few hours.

Miss Helen Wescott, who has been at Lincoln for the past week, attending the closing exercises of the Wesleyan university, returned home last evening.

Isaac Carpenter and Murray Cline of the Carpenter Paper Co. of Omaha were here Wednesday, coming here to attend the funeral services of Col. Bates.

Mr. and Mrs. George H. Olive and son, Joseph Corley of Weeping Water, were here yesterday to attend the funeral services of the late Col. M. A. Bates.

Mrs. Will Randall of New Orleans, is in the city as a guest at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Gus Schwenniker, being an old acquaintance of the Plattsmouth people.

Thomas S. Allen, chairman of the democratic state central committee, of Lincoln, was here Wednesday to attend the funeral of Col. M. A. Bates, a long time friend.

James Maury and son, Jimmy, departed Wednesday for Kearney where they will spend the week end at the home of Dr. and Mrs. T. J. Todd and family. Mrs. Todd being a sister of Mr. Maury.

Mr. and Mrs. Lee J. Mayfield of the Louisville Courier and W. J. O'Brien, of South Bend, former head of the city of Lincoln, were in the city yesterday afternoon to attend the funeral of Col. M. A. Bates.

Mildred Hill, who has been attending the Wesleyan university at Lincoln for the past term, returned home Wednesday and will enjoy the vacation period here with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. George Hill.

From Friday's Daily—Ray Whiteman of Avoca was a visitor in the city today where he called on some matters of business.

Ed Fisher and F. J. Platz, attorneys of Lincoln, were in the city for a short time today attending to some matters of business.

E. P. Stewart and E. H. Schulhof were out in the vicinity of Louisville last evening, attending a weekly meeting of the Farmers Union band.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles Youchn and Mrs. F. G. Coryell of Ashland, were in the city today for a few hours and attending to some matters at the court house.

Mr. and Mrs. John Wichmann departed this morning for Scribner, Nebraska, where they will visit at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Claus Pioehn and enjoy a short outing.

Attorney E. S. Ripley of Lincoln, one of the well known members of the Lancaster county bar, was in the city today for a few hours attending to some matters of business.

B. L. Clements, one of the long time residents of Elmwood, and his son, Attorney Guy L. Clements, were in the city today for a few hours looking after some matters of business.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles Adams and Mrs. John Wunderlich of Nebawka, were in the city today where they were guests at the C. A. Rosenkrans home and also with Mrs. Sadie Shrader.

Henry Spoke of Eagle and Emil Bornemeier, Chris Dremer, Henry Vogt and August Bornemeier, of near Elmwood, motored in this morning to attend to some matters at the court house and while here were callers at the Journal.

Mrs. W. G. Gluck of Plainview, Nebraska, who has been here visiting with her father, W. P. Cook and as a guest of Mr. and Mrs. Frank Barkus, returned to her home today and was accompanied by Miss Katherine Barkus, who will visit at Plainview for a time.

Mrs. Lottie Rosenkrans, chairman of the state rehabilitation committee of the state department of the American Legion auxiliary, Mrs. Sadie Shrader and Emma and Kathryn Hirz, were at Louisville last evening to attend a meeting of the Auxiliary.

From Saturday's Daily—Attorney Carl D. Ganz and son, Dale, of Alvo, were in the city today attending to some matters at the court house.

Attorney Walter R. Johnson of Omaha was a visitor in the city today for a short time looking after some matters at the court house.

A. J. Bart, well known resident of Stanton and county attorney, Pollock of that city were here today to look after some matters at the court house.

Mrs. W. H. Mann and son, Fred and daughter, Miss Ada, motored here from Lincoln today and enjoyed a few hours visit with the old time friends.

Attorney C. E. Teft of Weeping Water was in the city for a short time today attending to some matters at the court house and visiting with friends.

Joe Hawksworth of Omaha was here last evening to enjoy a visit here with the relatives and friends and spending some time with his mother, Mrs. Catherine Hawksworth.

Mrs. William Morley, who has been making her home with her daughter, Miss Frances, of Kearns City, arrived here Friday accompanied by the daughter and they will remain here for the summer months. Mr. and Mrs. Robert Foster Patterson, who have been visiting with Mr. Patterson's parents at Morrill, arrived here last evening and will visit over the week end, going to Lincoln Sunday where Mr. Patterson will take up summer school work at the university.

LOCAL NEWS

Mrs. C. E. Hartford and son, Robert, are departing Sunday for Boone, Iowa, where they will visit at the home of a sister of Mrs. Hartford and Robert look over the Iowa State college where he expects to become a student next fall. On their return they will be accompanied by Joe Hartford, who has just completed his sophomore year at Iowa State.

Manley News Items. Rudy Bergman accompanied Eli Keckler to Plattsmouth on last Monday, they both having some business matters to look after there.

Many of the people living in and about Manley are attending the Memorial exercises which were held at Weeping Water last Saturday.

Charles Gade and the family, of Ashland, were visiting in Manley for a short time on last Sunday evening, being guests at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Fred Falschman.

Arnold Hansen and the good wife were visiting in Manley, guests at the home of Mrs. Alice Jenkins, the mother of Walter, and also were visiting with friends as well.

Leonard Schaeffer and his lady friends of Lincoln were visiting here for the day last Sunday, being guests at the home of Mrs. George Schaeffer, his father, and Miss Carrie Schaeffer, his sister.

Miss Eula Schlieft, of Omaha, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Andy Schlieft, were spending Memorial day and Sunday at the home of her parents, returning to her work the early part of last week.

Carl Rhoden, of Omaha, was a visitor on last Sunday with the brother, Grover and family, and when he departed to return to his home in Omaha he took his mother to Murray, where she is visiting with relatives and friends for a time.

Arnold Hansen who has been making his home at Chicago, arrived at home last Saturday and has been visiting for a few days. He was joined on last Sunday by his two sisters, Mesdames Elmer Alberding and H. M. Blair, both of Lincoln.

Making Home in Manley. Mesdames Charles Griffis and Ralph Wolfe are pleased that their brother, Frank Mishek and family have recently moved to Manley to make their home. This puts three together. There are five of the sisters and one brother. Mr. Mishek is also a cousin of Anton Auerwald and this makes it a very pleasant place for him to reside.

Many Attend Youth's Funeral. Many of the people of Manley and vicinity were in attendance on last Tuesday at the funeral of the late Raymond Falschman, son of Mr. and Mrs. John Falschman, of Louisville, which was held at the Methodist church and was conducted by the Rev. H. G. McClusky. Raymond had many friends in Manley as well as in Louisville, as the family resided here many years. Raymond was born July 22, 1911, and died at his home in Louisville on May 29, 1931.

Spend Memorial Day at Utica. W. J. Rau and wife were over to Utica on last Saturday, the bank being closed on Memorial day, where they visited relatives and also went to Friend, where they decorated the graves of the parents of Mr. Rau, who sleep in the cemetery there.

Read the Journal for News. The Journal covers Cass county in a news way as no other paper in southeastern Nebraska with a special field representative visiting the towns of the county regularly each week. In this way you get all the latest news from all over Cass county. Yet the price is no more than charged for an ordinary country weekly paper. Take a twice-a-week paper and notice how much it puts you ahead in being "in" on the news of the county seat and your home community as well. $2 pays for an entire year.

Farm Machinery. Here for Your Personal Selection We are Showing Massie-Harris Line. Come in and see us and talk over your Farm Machinery needs with us.

Anton Auerwald. Blacksmith and Machinery. Manley, Nebraska.

DANA COLLEGE, TRINITY SEMINARY TO SEPARATE. Blair—Reconsidering action taken Thursday when it was decided that Dana college and Trinity seminary, both located here, should be governed by one set of officers, delegates to the annual convention of the Danish Evangelical Lutheran church convention Friday voted to separate the institutions and named officers for each. Erlend Nelson, acting president of Dana college for two years, was named president of the college, and Rev. J. F. Nielson, formerly dean of the college, was named president of the seminary.

Deaths from Heart Trouble are Fewer. "Diseases of the heart," an all embracing classification, continues to be the leading cause of death in Nebraska, as in other states. Last year 2,138 persons