You Wouldn't Stand for THIS

If you saw the gas leaking out of your tank onto the ground, you'd fix THAT in a hurry. Yet many a car owner is losing more than this in leaky valves, loose piston rings and defective ignition. If your car lacks the speed and power it should have, let's look it over. Our inspection won't obligate you at all. Better drive in—today.

FARMERS FIND PROFITS IN PHEASANT RAISING

New London, Conn., June 7.—Farmers throughout the country are abandoning the poultry business for pheasant raising. Small flocks are being culled, the setting hens being sold to large farms where pheasants are raised, and the end of chicken raising at least temporarily is predicted. George Dennison of Stonington saved 136 hens and put them on 2,000 pheasant eggs, expecting to get at least 2,500 birds. The state is buying all the pheasants it can get to stock the woods for hunters.

Fire Loss Runs Up to Millions at Norfolk, Va.

Wharfs and Seven Blocks in Business Section Swept During Night—Started by Explosion

Norfolk, Va. (Monday)—A three-million dollar fire followed an explosion on an oil barge swept the wharves and seven blocks in the business district Sunday night, burning for seven hours before being checked shortly after midnight. The combined fire fighting forces of the Hampton Roads area had the assistance of hundreds of sailors and marines in fighting the fire and maintaining order, and a steady rain which began to fall helped materially in bringing the flames under control.

Major C. J. Calrow, member of the city planning commission, estimated that damage would amount to not less than $3,000,000. Loss of stock and machinery of the American Peanut corporation alone was placed by company officials at $1,000,000. The Victory hotel, with a 200 room capacity was burned, but so far as could be ascertained all occupants escaped without injury, except one woman guest who was treated for shock and hysteria.

Eight persons, four of them firemen, were injured sufficiently to be taken to hospitals for treatment and more than a score of others received attention at ambulances stationed in the fire zone. Prisoners confined in a jail which at one time appeared to be in the path of the flames raised a clamor and plans were made to remove them under a marine guard, but the fire was stopped before it reached the building and they were not moved.

LINDY SUMMONED TO COURT

New York—The summons served on Colonel Lindbergh, which won for the process server a knockdown at the hands of a mechanic, calls the fier into court to defend himself in an action for $7,914.62 for services allegedly rendered by a clipping bureau. The clipping bureau charged that it was commissioned by Colonel Lindbergh to collect and forward to his mother in Detroit all newspaper clippings relating to his trans-Atlantic flight in 1927. The service was to begin, the complaint says, on the day the flier left San Diego, Calif., for the east, May 5, and terminate on June 21. The stipulated price was 4 cents per clipping but due to the heavy volume of clips—the total being 227,132—the bureau voluntarily reduced the price to 3 1-2 cents each.

Whether the suit will interfere with the plans of the Colonel and Mrs. Lindbergh to fly to the Orient was not known. Col. Henry Breckenbridge, attorney for Lindbergh, said he had not had time to examine the case.

BANKERS IN A CONFERENCE

Chicago—Thirteen Chicago neighborhood banks closed their doors, bringing the total in two days to nineteen. Leaders in the Chicago clearing house association held a series of conferences to discuss the situation, but finally agreed informally there was nothing they could do. They considered as well possible aid to other outlying financial institutions hit by steady withdrawal of deposits the last two days, but reached no conclusion.

Twelve of the banks closed Tuesday were in a chain controlled by John Bain. He said the closings were voted "to conserve the interests of depositors and stockholders will be paid in full."

Thruout the day withdrawals were heavy at many other banks, and late in the afternoon the clearing house association called a meeting of loop bankers to discuss the situation.
