

Death of Mrs. Frank W. Hager at Lincoln

Member of One of the Old Families of Plattsmouth Passes Away Suddenly at Home

From Monday's Daily.—Mrs. Frank W. Hager, 70, for many years a resident of Plattsmouth and member of one of the old families of this community, died very suddenly last evening at the family home, 2900 Q street, Lincoln.

Mrs. Hager had been sitting on the porch at the home and had arisen to enter the house shortly before 6 o'clock last evening and suddenly fell to the floor and passed away in a very few seconds, death coming as the result of a heart attack. Mrs. Hager had been a sufferer for the past two years from heart trouble and while here two years ago visiting at the home of her sister, Mrs. A. L. Tidd, suffered a very severe attack but had improved and in the last year had been feeling in very fair health.

The deceased lady was formerly Miss Emma Herold, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. William Herold, pioneer residents of this city and where she was born seventy years ago. She spent her girlhood in this city and where she was married to Frank W. Hager, then in the employ of the Burlington in the local brick shops. The family moved some forty years ago to Lincoln and have made their home there for the greater part of the time since. Mrs. Hager was a great lover of this city and often returned to her childhood home to enjoy the beauties and scenery and carried the warmest feeling for this community, assisting in organizing the Plattsmouth club, a club of former residents of this city at Lincoln. A lady of much charm of personality, her passing will bring a very deep loss to the many friends here and at Lincoln and who can feel the deep sorrow that the members of the family have had visited on them.

Mrs. Hager is survived by the husband, two sons, Robert, of Tacoma, Washington, Harold of Long Beach, California, and one daughter, Mrs. Fern Farnham of March 22, 1864. There are also surviving two brothers and one sister, James H. Herold of Minneapolis, Henry Herold and Mrs. A.

CELEBRATES BIRTHDAY

The passing of the eighty-sixth birthday anniversary of Mrs. Christina Rummel, a long time resident of Cass county, was observed Sunday at the farm home of her son, Edward Rummel, with whom she is now making her home. The day was spent in visiting and at the noon hour a fine dinner served that embraced all of the good things that can be found in this productive section of Nebraska. Christina Valley was born in Pike county, Ohio, on June 29th, 1845, and spent her girlhood in that state, where she was married to Peter Rummel, then moving to Nebraska in 1865 and have since made their home here. Mr. Rummel passed away in 1885 and the mother was left with the rearing of her family. She has been a real figure of the sturdy and thrifty pioneer mother and aided in the development of the community in which she has lived for so many years. The many friends will join in the wish that Mrs. Rummel may live to enjoy a great many more such anniversaries in the future. Those who attended the pleasant occasion were: Ed Rummel, Mr. and Mrs. Will Rummel, Mr. and Mrs. John Rummel, and son, Richard, Mr. and Mrs. Fred Rummel and daughter, Norman Jean, of Garland, Nebraska, Louise Rummel, Robert Rummel, Clyde Graves and Homer Black.

CREATES DISTURBANCE

Saturday evening the night police had considerable excitement to keep them busy for the entire night and one was a hurry up call to the vicinity of Fourth and Pearl street where two young men were found in the hot back of the McMaken Transfer Co. office and who were charged with having hurled bricks at the C. F. Dykes residence across the alley. The appearance of the police caused the trouble to die down but one of the young men took exception to the visit of the police and started in to resist the officers in subduing the rioting and he was finally taken to the city jail. The second of the young men took flight and was able to escape although a search was made for him by the officers and as he is known he will be brought in for trial on the disturbing the peace charge.

WEDDED AT COURT HOUSE

From Monday's Daily.—This morning at the office of County Judge A. H. Duxbury occurred the marriage of Minnie M. Clinkinbrad of Des Moines, Iowa, and James Roland Wood, of Omaha. The bridal couple were accompanied by Joe G. Miller and Margaret Miller, of Omaha. Following the wedding the bridal party returned to the state metropolis.

FARM HOME INVADED

One of the young farmers living some seven and a half miles northwest of this city, reports that his home was invaded by some party a few days ago and who made away with several articles from the cellar of the house. The caller had taken the screen on one of the windows in the main part of the house but evidently decided to try some other means of entrance, going to the cellar of the home and where he secured a number of small articles and made away with them. The farmer and his wife have suspicions of the identity of the party that visited the house and are awaiting a repetition of the visit.

Charles Daniels Sues for Damages for Large Sum

Asks Amount in Damages for Burns Received While Acting as Patrolman for Gas Lines

From Monday's Daily.—Charles Daniels, who was severely burned last December at the control station of the Missouri Valley Pipeline Co., just south of this city, today filed a suit for $25,000 in damages, naming as the defendants the Iowa-Nebraska Light & Power Co., and the Missouri Valley Pipeline Co. The plaintiff in his petition alleges that on the seventeenth of December, he was engaged in working for the defendant companies as a tender at the control station near this city, that he was called by telephone on that date that the gas in the Iowa-Nebraska Light and Power Co. was higher than desired and he had followed his usual procedure of "bleeding" the gas line, or releasing a sufficient amount of the gas to reduce the pressure. It is further claimed that the defendant light and power company had a high line carrying 33,000 volts of electricity and which was located near the control station, that when he released the gas that it formed a cloud of the vapor and which reached to the high tension lines and was ignited and caused the plaintiff to receive severe burns and which has resulted in the loss of his hearing and otherwise injured him physically.

FLAGS FOR VETERANS

Postmaster J. W. Holmes has received notice from the postoffice department of the new law which has just gone into effect and which provides that the U. S. government will provide flags to be placed on the caskets of all honorably discharged veterans of all wars and army nurses.

The flags which the government provide are of wool and of the regulation size for the army funeral services.

Heretofore the flags for veterans funerals have been provided by the members of the families or the American Legion.

These flags are used at the funeral and later are turned over to the family of the deceased as the flags are not allowed to be buried with the casket.

DEATH OF JOE SCHMADER

From Monday's Daily.—The death of Joseph Schmader, long time resident of Cass county, occurred this morning at Louisville where he has been making his home with his son and daughter-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Edward Schmader. Mr. Schmader has been suffering quite a great deal from the heat in the last few days and on Sunday morning was in very poor condition and continued to sink until death came to him this morning at 2:30. Mr. Schmader was well acquainted over the county and his death will bring a great regret to all of these.

Mr. Schmader is survived by seven sons and one daughter, Andrew, Frank, and Mrs. Catherine Walton, of Omaha, George, of this city, Mike, of Detroit, Michigan; Edward, Thomas and Joseph, Jr., all of Louisville.

TEAM GETS SWAMPED

The Plattsmouth Merchants, youthful baseball team of this city, who had as their foe at the Athletic park Sunday, the Gerber Motor Co. team of Omaha, found that they were no match for the Omaha team and the score was finally 27 to 1 for the Gerber team. The visitors were a strong hitting team and also a number of errors by the Merchants served to aid in the victory of the Berbers. The battle was witnessed by a fair crowd of the fans and while the locals were the losers they demonstrated that they have the possibilities of a good team in the making and which will become stronger as the season goes on. The work of Poissall at shortstop and Richard Herold were features of the game.

Cook Family Reunion Held at Cole Home

Annual Gathering at the Farm Home of Mr. and Mrs. S. O. Cole on Sunday, June 21st

On account of rain of Saturday night and the threatening weather Sunday morning, few relatives from a distance were in attendance until in the afternoon. The total number attending was 71 which was a fair attendance nevertheless.

The outstanding feature of the day was the noonday dinner served on large tables in the spacious dining and living rooms of the house, where each one, in turn, filled his own plate and seated himself, where he could comfortably eat to his heart's content. There was also large quantities of iced tea, lemonade and coffee to satisfy the appetites of the most discriminating.

The business session of the family association was presided over by A. H. Weichel, president. It was voted to hold the 1932 reunion the last Sunday in August at the same place in Mynard.

Officers elected for the ensuing year are:

A. H. Weichel, Elmwood, president.

D. P. Cook, Elmwood, vice president.

Mrs. Robert Patterson, Plattsmouth, secretary-treasurer.

Readings were given by Miss Mary Stone of Berkeley, Calif.; Miss Gertrude Valley of Plattsmouth, Neb.; Little Shirley Jean Wheeler and Bobby Cole and a song by Little Eloise Cole. Rev. H. A. McKelvey gave a splendid address on "The Builders," which was most appropriate for this occasion.

The relatives from out of the county were Mrs. M. Stone and daughter, Mary, of Berkeley, Calif.; Mrs. Clark Stone of Wheatridge, Colo., and Mr. E. V. Cole of Brule, Neb.

Messages of regret from members of the family who were unable to attend were read during the business session by the secretary, Mrs. C. L. Wiles, and Mrs. Geo. Bernhardt of Elmwood, Neb.; baby girl to Mr. and Mrs. Vernon Hineboog of Alvo, Neb.; baby girl to Mr. and Mrs. James Cook of Arapahoe, Neb.

It is the custom of the family to maintain a record of the births, marriages and deaths each year and this year was saddened by the passing of Mrs. A. H. Weichel of Elmwood, Neb., she being a daughter of the late Mrs. Bina Kitzel. The other member who, also, is greatly missed is the late W. D. Wheeler.

Of the large family of sons and daughters of Joseph and Mary Cook, deceased, there were present at this reunion: Mrs. W. D. Wheeler, Chas. C. Cook and J. H. Cook, all of Plattsmouth; Mrs. T. W. Valley of Murray; Mrs. S. O. Cole of Mynard, Neb. The other three brothers who could not be in attendance were: Jacob Cook of Ord, Neb.; John Cook of Beaver City, Neb.; and Philip Cook of Norfolk, Neb.

RECEIVES SENTENCE

From Tuesday's Daily.—The hearing in the matter of the complaint against Ralph Kelly, charging him with possession of liquor and also operating a car while intoxicated, was taken up last evening at the court house before Judge A. H. Duxbury. Earlier in the day Kelly had pleaded guilty to the charge of possession of intoxicating liquor and not made a plea of not guilty to the charge of driving while intoxicated and the sentence was held up pending the final hearing. At the trial the testimony of the officers was taken and at the conclusion of the hearing Judge Duxbury gave a sentence of sixty days in jail, a fine of $25 and the forfeiting of the drivers' license of Mr. Kelly for a period of one year. The defendant was then turned over to the custody of the sheriff for the execution of the sentence.

CHARGED WITH LIQUOR LAW VIOLATION

Ralph Kelly of this city was apprehended Saturday night by Officers Joe Libershat and David Pickrell, while driving his car on the streets of the city, being first stopped for a traffic violation but which developed a more serious phase when a bottle of "hootch" was found in the car. The young man was turned over to the county authorities today and a charge of possession of liquor and also driving while intoxicated was preferred by County Attorney W. G. Kieck. At the hearing this morning the young man pleaded guilty to the charge of possession but not guilty to that of driving while drunk. The hearing on the drunken driving charge will be held this afternoon at 5 o'clock and at which time the court will pass sentence for the possession charge.

ROB BIRDS NESTS

One of the residents of the north portion of the city has informed the Journal that the residents of that part of the city are very much aroused over the depredation of some person or persons in that locality. The residents here have provided sheltering places for a large number of the native wild birds and the feathered residents have made their nests in the trees and shrubs of that part of the city for several years and have been a much enjoyed feature around the homes. Recently it has been found that some boys or other persons have been robbing the nests and the matter has aroused much feeling and every effort will be made to apprehend the persons committing the outrages.

Bank Robbers Thought Held in Kansas

Trio of Young Men Captured Near Belleville, Kansas, After Robbing Small Bank

From Tuesday's Daily.—Following the robbery of a bank in one of the small towns near Belleville, Kansas, on Monday afternoon, the trio of young men that committed the act were captured by a posse of citizens and are held at Belleville, and are also suspected as being the three that participated in the holdup of the Bank of Murdock in this county on last Saturday morning.

The message received here by Deputy Sheriff Rex Young did not give the full particulars of the capture of the men or as to whether the loot of the Murdock bank was found in the possession of the men.

Immediately after receiving the message Mr. Young departed for Murdock where he secured Miss Mary I. Tool, bookkeeper of the bank, who was held up by the robbers Saturday, as well as Miss Dorsett Schlophoff, who entered the bank while the robbery was in progress and was locked in a rear room of the bank by the two men who committed the robbery, they going to Belleville, Kansas. It is possible that they will be held for the Kansas robbery.

Men Held in Kansas Not Bank Robbers

From Tuesday's Daily.—Manager Alfred Gansemer of the Murray Red Sox has secured an exceptionally strong attraction for the baseball fans on Saturday, July 4th at the Murray park. This will be the Colored Red Sox of Omaha, who are now leading the colored league in that city and embraces some of the best ball players in the big town. The game will be held at 6 o'clock in the evening and this hour will permit all of the fans who wish to attend. The regular admission price will also prevail. Mr. Gansemer states and which will insure a very large crowd present at the game. The Colored Red Sox are one of the very best teams that has appeared at the Murray park and will give the fast and hard hitting local team a run for their money.

Men Held in Kansas Not Bank Robbers

Murdock Young Women Fail to Identify Trio as Men Who Robbed the Murdock Bank

From Wednesday's Daily.—After a fast all night drive from Lincoln to Belleville, Kansas, Miss Mary I. Tool, clerk in the Bank of Murdock and Miss Doretta Schlophoff, also of that place, were satisfied Tuesday that the three men held at the Belleville jail as suspected bank robbers, were not the men that participated in the robbing of the Murdock bank last Saturday morning.

The two girls who were in the bank at the time it was robbed of $1,300, were taken to Belleville by Deputy Sheriff Rex Young and Deputy State Sheriff Burns in a state car in the hope that they might identify the three men as those that had stuck them up. Immediately on their arrival they viewed the three prisoners, and said they were not the robbers.

Suspects also in the robbery of a bank at Bird City, Kansas, Monday, the men were arrested Monday night by Belleville officers. It was reported by State Sheriff Endres that the trio were also to be released in this connection since there had been no identification.

UNDERGOES OPERATION

From Tuesday's Daily.—William Hartford, son of Mr. and Mrs. Charles E. Hartford of this city, was taken ill on Monday with what was determined as appendicitis at his home at Fort Dodge, Iowa, and was taken at once to the hospital. The operation was performed at once and messages from the hospital this morning state the patient had come through the operation in fine shape and was getting along nicely and it was expected that he would soon be able to be on the highway to recovery, every condition being the very best.

WILL ARGUE CASE FRIDAY

The taking of testimony in the case of Mrs. Mary Mast vs Edward and Ada Murray, was concluded on Monday afternoon and the case adjourned until on Friday morning when the matter will be argued to the court by the attorneys in the case.

DIES AT BEATRICE

Mrs. W. H. Underwood, for many years matron of the Crowell Memorial Home, passed away Monday at Beatrice, where she has been making her home for some time. Mrs. Underwood is well known to a great many here and who will learn with much regret of her passing.

Youth Loses Finger While Loading Cannon

Albert Todd, 15, Has Close Call as Dynamite Explodes in Home Made Cannon Saturday

Albert Todd, 15, son of Mr. and Mrs. E. Todd, suffered the loss of the greater part of the first finger of the left hand as well as severe powder burns as the result of the discharge of a small home made cannon that he was loading Saturday evening at his farm home, northwest of this city.

The young man, who has just recently returned here from Long Beach, California, where he has been attending school, had brought with him a small cannon made of steel and which he had constructed in his school work. He decided Saturday to test out the cannon and accordingly secured what he supposed was powder from several large fire crackers and started to load the cannon. Albert was tapping in the supposed powder with a large nail when the dynamite exploded and the greater part of the first finger of the left hand was torn off and the nail hurled by the force of the explosion, tore a hole through the collar of the young man and narrowly escaped inflicting a very bad wound, his forehead was badly burned by the explosion and particles of the cap of the cannon were found in the skin and one large wound in the center of the forehead. Fortunately the eyes had escaped injury in the explosion. The young man was taken to the office of Dr. T. P. Livingston where the wounds were dressed and the victim of the accident made as comfortable as possible.

MAKE LIQUOR RAID

From Tuesday's Daily.—Monday afternoon Chief of Police Elliott, Officers Joe Libershat and Dave Pickrel and Deputy Sheriff Rex Young, made a raid on a residence on Lincoln avenue near the Livingston Road viaduct and captured a quantity of what is supposed to be home brew as well as a large amount of bottles, malt, caps and fars that are used in the making and bottling of the brew. The brew and the articles used in its making were the property of Bob Dickey and who was placed under arrest by the officers and taken to the county jail to await arraignment. At the office of County Attorney W. G. Kieck this morning it was stated that charges of possession would be lodged against Dickey. While several men reside at the place Dickey was stated to be the owner of the liquor.

BIG GAME FOR THE FOURTH

From Tuesday's Daily.—Manager Alfred Gansemer of the Murray Red Sox has secured an exceptionally strong attraction for the baseball fans on Saturday, July 4th at the Murray park. This will be the Colored Red Sox of Omaha, who are now leading the colored league in that city and embraces some of the best ball players in the big town. The game will be held at 6 o'clock in the evening and this hour will permit all of the fans who wish to attend. The regular admission price will also prevail. Mr. Gansemer states and which will insure a very large crowd present at the game. The Colored Red Sox are one of the very best teams that has appeared at the Murray park and will give the fast and hard hitting local team a run for their money.

CASE IS GIVEN HEARING

From Tuesday's Daily.—Last evening a hearing was had in regard to the alleged disturbance that occurred Saturday night in the alley back of the building of the McMaken Transfer Co., a charge of intoxication having been preferred against James Zoubek, Jr., while one of disturbing the peace was filed against Earl Newton. The hearing before Judge C. L. Graves resulted in Zoubek receiving a fine of $10 and costs and Newton one of $5 and costs.

SUFFERING FROM SPRAINED ANKLE

From Tuesday's Daily.—Miss Antonia Vanek, one of the accommodating clerks at the A. G. Bach Main street store, is confined to her home as the result of a sprained ankle that she sustained while on an outing party at the state fisheries at Gretna on Sunday afternoon. The member has proven quite painful and kept the victim of the accident from her usual work at the store.

RECEIVES $100 FINE

From Wednesday's Daily.—This morning in the county court Robert Dickey was arraigned on the charge of possession of liquor and to the charge entered a plea of guilty. Mr. Dickey was arrested on Monday at his home on Lincoln avenue by local police officers and Deputy Sheriff Young, and a quantity of home brew was found on the place and which was taken as evidence.

After hearing the evidence in the case Judge A. H. Duxbury assessed a fine of $100 and costs against the defendant and in failure to pay the same he was remanded to the custody of the sheriff to serve out the sentence.

VERY HAPPY OCCASION

From Wednesday's Daily.—The members of the William Schmidtman and H. E. Becker families in this city are among the happiest in this part of the United States today over the fact that a fine little granddaughter has arrived to join the family circle, the first grandchild in either family. The little lady was born to Mr. and Mrs. William Schmidtman, Jr., early this morning at the Methodist hospital at Omaha and with the mother, is doing very nicely. The many friends will join in their congratulations for the happy parents and well wishes for the future welfare and happiness of the little lady.

DEATH OF BABE

The four days old babe of Mr. and Mrs. Cleo Stones passed away Monday morning at the home of the grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. J. E. Baldwin and the funeral services for the little one were held Monday afternoon at the home. The services were conducted by Rev. Gregory of the First Christian church. The interment was at the Oak Hill cemetery. In their loss the parents and relatives will have the deepest sympathy of the friends over the community.

BOWEN IN COLORADO

William Bowen, swift moving bad check artist, is proving a real traveler and has covered a great deal of these United States since he flitted from our community with the first of his forgeries checked against him. He has been reported at Springfield, Mo., Davenport, Iowa, then Oklahoma City and the latest word of his whereabouts is from Pueblo, Colorado, where he has distributed several of his "phony" checks. Deputy Rex Young has received word from the Colorado city telling of the activities of Bowen and who seems headed westward with the glad song, "California, Here I Come," on his lips.

Rotarians and Anns Have Fine Social Time

Outing at Elks Country Club Enjoyed by a Full Attendance of Members and Ladies

From Wednesday's Daily.—The members of the Rotary club with their ladies, the Rotary Anns, gathered at the Elks Country club where in the fine shade and with the breezes tempering the intense and blistering heat of the day, they spent several hours most enjoyably.

The event was in charge of a committee composed of Fred Rea, Carl Jensen and John L. Tielbahl and the committee had arranged a most pleasant treat for all of the jolly party, opening with a series of entertainments in games and also at Bingo for those who felt so inclined while others of the party spent the time at golf and in the play a great many fine exhibitions of the Scottish sport was given by the Rotarians.

The chief feature of the evening was the fine luncheon that was prepared and served under the direction of Mrs. L. L. McCarthy and with a number of the young ladies assisting in the serving of the most delicious repast.

Guests of the Rotarians in addition to their ladies were Miss Helen Wescott and Milford B. Bates of Los Angeles.

MANY ATTEND PICNIC

The picnic given by the South Omaha circle of the Eagles on Sunday at the park north of the Platte river near LaPlatte, was one of the largest that the aerle has held and some 3,000 were estimated to be at the park. Due to the intense heat that prevailed the greater part stayed at the park until late in the evening before traveling homeward and their going made a great caravan of autos whose lights made a great white way of the highway from the park to South Omaha. A large number of the Plattsmouth Eagles and their families were in attendance at the very pleasant occasion as guests of the South Omaha Eagles.

MARRIED AT OMAHA

The marriage of Miss Anna Krejci and Stabley Lenhart of Omaha, occurred in that city on Saturday evening, the event being attended by a number of the relatives and friends of the contracting parties.

Following the wedding ceremony the bridal party and guests were entertained at the home of the newly weds, 4121 South 30th street, where Mr. and Mrs. Lenhart have their starting housekeeping at once.

Those who attended the wedding from this city were Mr. and Mrs. S. Krejci, parents of the bride, Miss Mary Krejci and Mr. and Mrs. Frank Krejci.

The bride has been located at Omaha for the past five years and has made a great many friends in that city as well as in the past year he has failed a great deal but is still able to be around and enjoy meeting the old time friends.

STUNG BY BEES

From Monday's Daily.—Carl Ohlschlager, clerk in the hardware store of Bestor & Swatek Co., is seeing the world through but one optic today, one of the eyes being swollen shut as the result of the attack of an irate bee. The busy little bee was of the wild variety and as there are domesticated bees at the Ohlschlager home there was nothing thought of the presence of the little buzzer until he decided to alight on the person of Carl and present his compliments. A sting on the upper left eyelid has completely closed the eye of the victim and he will have several days before the member is back in service.

P. F. F. CLUB MEETS

The P. F. F. Pnochle club were most delightfully entertained on Monday evening at the home of Mrs. Lon Henry on North Fourth street and where the ladies spent the time in the playing of this fascinating game and at which a great deal of pleasure was derived. In the playing the prizes were awarded to Mrs. Walter Reed, Mrs. J. P. Johnson, and Mrs. Richard Beverage. At a suitable hour dainty and delicious refreshments were served and which added to the further enjoyment of all of the members of the party.

RECEIVES $100 FINE

From Wednesday's Daily.—This morning in the county court Robert Dickey was arraigned on the charge of possession of liquor and to the charge entered a plea of guilty. Mr. Dickey was arrested on Monday at his home on Lincoln avenue by local police officers and Deputy Sheriff Young, and a quantity of home brew was found on the place and which was taken as evidence.

After hearing the evidence in the case Judge A. H. Duxbury assessed a fine of $100 and costs against the defendant and in failure to pay the same he was remanded to the custody of the sheriff to serve out the sentence.

PHONE YOUR NEWS ITEMS TO NO. 6.