

Ritz Theatre

Plattsmouth, Nebr.

FRIDAY - SATURDAY

Irene Dunne, Ken Murray and Louise Fazenda in an All-Star Comedy Bombshell

Leather-Necking

Mickey McGuire Comedy, Novelty & News Reel. Three Shows Sat. Nite. Adults, 30c Children, 10c

SUNDAY - MONDAY - TUESDAY

July 5-6-7

TRADER HORN

Filmed in the heart of Africa—two years in the making. You'll thrill—you'll gasp—at this mighty drama. Plan to see it. Sunday matinee at 2:30. Night shows, 7 and 9 o'clock.

Matinee Prices Night Prices

10-25c 10-40c

First Showing of This Picture at These Low Prices

MISS MILDRED WALDO MARRIES OMAHA MAN

Miss Mildred Waldo, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Chester Waldo of Nehawka was united in marriage to Mr. Arthur Hill of Omaha Wednesday. The marriage took place in Nebraska City and the ceremony was performed by the Methodist minister in the parsonage. Those who attended the wedding were Mr. and Mrs. Chester Waldo of Nehawka and Mr. and Mrs. Lester Roehbeck of Omaha, the latter being a sister of the groom.

Following the wedding the party returned to Nehawka and the bride and groom and the other Omaha couple returned to Omaha in the evening.

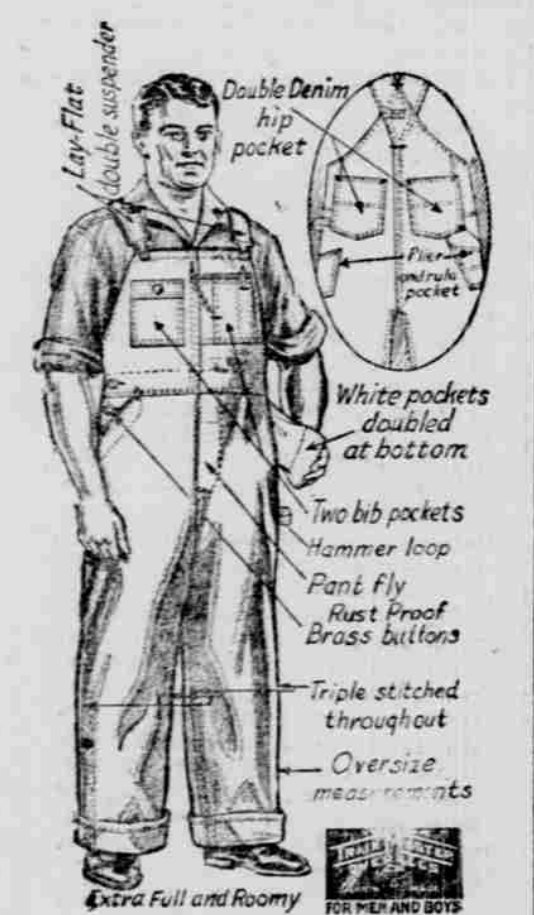

Mrs. Hill is the eldest daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Waldo of this place. After she quit school here, she went to Omaha about two years ago where she has been employed since that time. She clerked in one of the stores there for some time and since she quit clerking she has been employed as a saleslady.

The groom is a stranger to us. He is employed in a cafe in Omaha and he and his wife will make their home in Omaha.—Nehawka Enterprise.

INSTALL REFRIGERATOR

The Bestor & Swatek Co., of this city has just completed the installing of a Skelgas refrigerator at the summer cottage of F. H. Bucholz, the vice-president of the Omaha Steel Co., near La Platte. The cottage is off the lines of electric service and Mr. Bucholz in order to enjoy the comfort and convenience of a refrigerator system has had the gas service installed. The plant is working nicely and will provide the summer cottage with all of the comforts of the city home and also allow them to remain in the summer fishing camp for the hot summer months.

See the line of safe noise producing devices for the Fourth of July at the Bates Book & Gift Shop.

Trainmaster

Overalls

All Sizes—8-oz. Denim—Now

$1.39

Pair

Work Ace Overalls

2:20 Denim, Made same as Trainmasters

All Sizes—Now, Pair

98c

Soennichsen's

The Largest Store in Cass County

Nehawka

Robert Burton was in Murray Monday evening.

Mr. and Mrs. J. J. Pollard were in Omaha Saturday.

Mrs. Marion Tucker was in Lincoln Friday morning.

Betty Jane Jorgenson was visiting in Avoca Saturday and Sunday.

Mrs. Marion Stone was in Nebraska City Tuesday afternoon.

Mr. Grover Hoback attended the baseball game in Murray Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. Henry Fransom of Weeping Water were in town Friday.

The Misses Laura and Eleanor Easter entertained twenty-two ladies

Miss Elizabeth Jane Sheldon and Miss Vilas Sheldon were in Lincoln Tuesday.

Mr. G. Plybon fell while running the hay fork and injured her right ankle.

Ed Knabe purchased a McCormick Deering 10 ft. binder from J. J. Pollard Tuesday.

Mrs. C. C. Chapman and Mrs. Earl Hurst of Ashland were visiting Peter Opp last Wednesday.

Madison Stone, who is attending summer school in Lincoln, was in town over the week end.

Mr. and Mrs. Robert McConaha and Miss Catherine Stone were in Greenwood Tuesday afternoon.

Clarence Hansen was in Omaha Sunday visiting his wife who has been in the hospital about a week.

T. J. Brendel of Murray was looking after some business matters in Nehawka and Lincoln on Monday of this week.

at bridge Friday afternoon. Mrs. Julian Pollard received first prize and Mrs. Mary Kettlehut received the second prize.

The Sam Brown troupe of Omaha were in town Saturday and Sunday evening to present a performance at the auditorium.

Miss Doris Magney and her mother, formerly of Nehawka, have purchased a home in Lincoln. Their address is 2035 Sewell.

C. D. Adams and wife were visiting for a time at Camp Brewster on last Sunday, they driving over in their car for a short time.

Billy Baldwin who has been visiting Betty and Mary Alice Sumner since a week ago Friday, left Tuesday for his home in Pawnee City.

Mrs. Mary Mast and son, Arnold, were over to Plattsmouth on last Monday, called there to look after some matters in the district court.

Mrs. Albert Wolfe and daughter, Miss Gladys, were visiting and looking after some shopping at Nebraska City on last Monday afternoon.

Mrs. Ben Olive and children of Weeping Water, who have been visiting Mrs. Gertie Wolph for the past two weeks, returns home Saturday.

Ben Neal of near Union, while in the work of the farm, mostly in the overhauling of corn, had four of his horses become overheated, losing them.

Edward Murray and wife, their son, Theron, were over to Plattsmouth on Monday of this week, called there to look after some business matters.

John G. Wunderlich and wife were visiting for the afternoon on last Sunday at the home of Walter Johnson and wife, they driving over in their car.

Supt. and Mrs. Stimbart left last Thursday for Wellington, Kansas, to visit Mrs. Glenn Miller. The Rev. and Mrs. Cromm of Western accompanied them.

Herman L. Smith and the good wife were over to Nebraska City for the morning on last Monday where they were called to look after some business matters.

Roy Greag and wife were called to Plattsmouth on Monday of this week where they were looking after some business matters as well as visiting with friends.

W. O. Troop and wife were over to Plattsmouth where they were the guests at the home of Mrs. Lois Troop, and were also looking after some shopping as well.

Mr. and Mrs. J. S. Rough were visiting Mr. and Mrs. D. H. Wilson in Crete Sunday. Mr. and Mrs. Wilson are building their new home across from the campus.

Mr. and Mrs. A. Rosencrans of Plattsmouth were visiting for the day on last Sunday at the home of Mr. and Mrs. John G. Wunderlich, parents of Mrs. Rosencrans.

Miss Ruth Palmer accompanied Mr. and Mrs. James Dunbar of Auburn to Keokuk, Iowa, and Alexandria, Missouri. They left Saturday morning and expect to be gone a week.

Delbert Switzer and the family departed early last Monday morning for Friendship, Ohio, where they visit for several weeks with the relatives of Mr. and Mrs. Switzer.

Mr. and Mrs. Dwight Holmes and their daughter, Pearl, former residents of Nehawka and now of Riverside, California, arrived Tuesday morning for a short visit with friends.

Uncle Peter Opp who has been a long time ill at the home of his son, John Opp, is reported as showing good improvement at this time and hopes are entertained that he may soon be out again.

John Hanson was quite ill for a number of days on account of his getting over come with the excessive heat on last Saturday as he was working. He is however, much improved at this time.

Mr. and Mrs. Robert McConaha and Mr. and Mrs. Mark Swengel of Lincoln, drove to Beatrice Sunday afternoon and brought Marilyn Stone to Nehawka. Mr. and Mrs. Swengel remained in Lincoln.

Mr. and Mrs. C. Steffens of Lorton were visiting Mr. and Mrs. J. H. Steffens Sunday. They drove to Camp Wilson in the afternoon to visit La Verne Steffens, who is attending the Boy Scout camp there.

Joshua Sutphen, who has been poorly and has kept to his bed for several weeks, still remains poorly and has to remain in his bed or sitting in a chair at the home the greater portion of the time.

Mr. and Mrs. George Sheldon celebrated their 20th wedding anniversary Sunday when they invited Mr. and Mrs. Ernest Giles, Lois, Eleanor and Sheldon Giles, Mrs. Gertie Wolph and Miss Evelyn Wolph to dinner.

Troy Murdoch who has been rather poorly for some time past was taken to the St. Joseph hospital at Omaha where he is being treated and it is hoped that he may soon be in his former good health again.

Mrs. Floyd Mitchell, Sheldon, Wilda and Cecilia Mitchell left Sunday for their home in Armillo, Texas. They have been visiting for the past three weeks with Mrs. Frank Sheldon and Mr. and Mrs. Marion Tucker.

Following the arrival Tuesday morning of Mr. and Mrs. Jim Stone of Tucson, Arizona, a family dinner was held at the Bruce Stone home. Those present were: Mr. and Mrs. Chester Stone and son, Mr. and Mrs. Robert McConaha, Mr. and Mrs. Bruce Stone, Verle, Catherine, Marilyn Stone.

A car belonging to Jake Malone of Manley was damaged Sunday afternoon when it was driven in a ditch north of Parr Young's home on the Red Ball highway. No one was injured. A broken left front fender and right front wheel were the only things damaged. The car was hauled into the Hansen garage in Denver and returned from their wedding trip to Colorado Saturday evening. While in Colorado they remained at the Masonic park, South Park, Colo. for a week and then drove to Denver for a week. They visited many of the sights around Denver and enjoyed the cool weather of Colorado.

Betty Jane Jorgenson entertained fourteen at her tenth birthday party Saturday afternoon. Those present were Agnes McCann, Elsie Praeman, Dona Jean Mickle, Duane Trundt, all of Avoca; Eleanor Giles, Donna Ross, Mary Alice Sumner, Maxine Steffens, Charlotte Lundberg, Mary and Thelma Dill, Arlene Dowler of Weeping Water and Eliene Ernisse of Omaha.

Edward McNurlin and four of his sisters, of Pipestone, Minnesota, were visiting for a short time at the home of John L. Smith, northeast of Nehawka on last Saturday and Sunday, they also were making visits at other places. It will be remembered that the father, Bob McNurlin, formerly resided here and conducted a threshing machine during the fall and summer some years ago.

Among the Nehawka people in the swimming pool Sunday were: Eustace St. John, Martin Jorgenson, Sterling Ross, Thelmond and Emil Nixon, Charles Bates, Albert Anderson, Betty and Mary Alice Sumner, Eleanor Sheldon and Lois Giles, Florence Meisinger, Bill Brandt, Lucille Hadley, Catherine and Harriette Stone, Polly Eloise and the wedding party, Clark Bates and Leon Schrader.

A. G. Cisney and wife who were over to Coleridge, where they accompanied the mother of Mr. Cisney home, who had been visiting here for some three weeks, and where Mr. and Mrs. Cisney visited for a few days, returned home on last Sunday after having had a very fine visit. On their trip Miss Lavina Troop, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Robert Troop of west of Mynard, accompanied them.

Albert Ingwersen and Joseph Slausness, both of near Elmwood, were visiting for a portion of the day on last Sunday at the home of Mr. and Mrs. C. D. St. John and also went on to Omaha where they visited for a time with Charles Ingwersen of Pawnee City and a brother of Albert Ingwersen at the University hospital, where he has been convalescing since undergoing an operation several days since. It is reported that the patient is making good improvement.

Mr. and Mrs. William Brandt, Merno, Oscar and Raymond, left last Thursday for Fairmont, Minnesota, to attend the golden wedding of Mr. and Mrs. Henry Brandt. Mrs. Brandt is an aunt of Mrs. Brandt's. One hundred and fifty guests from Illinois, Minnesota, Iowa and Nebraska, attended the dinner which was held Friday evening. Thirty-five people attended from Chicago. The celebration was held at their son's home, where they lived 45 years ago. Mr. and Mrs. Henry Ganssen of Nebraska City also attended.

The Farmers Co-op Oil Co. Tuesday issued their semi-annual patronage dividend checks to their patrons amounting to $4,152. Nineteen shares of stock were issued to new members. "Since the company was organized two and a half years ago, it has issued $16,000 in patronage dividends besides setting aside a surplus fund which equals the capital stock of $3600," stated R. C. Pollard, manager of the company. "The company also shows a 20 percent increase in business over last year." Extra help was employed by Mr. Pollard to put out the checks. Don Philpot and George Copenhaver are employed by the company to drive the trucks.

At Camp Wilson. A number of the boys of Nehawka who are members of the Boy Scouts of America, are staying for a time at Camp Wilson, north of Nebraska City. There are from Nehawka Willard Price, Burnell Adams, Harold Keene, LaVerne Steffens and Weldon Switzer, and two sons of B. H. Nelson of Murray.

Return to Northwest. Mrs. Herold Kimlon and the kiddies were staying at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Thomas E. Fulton, following the illness of Mr. Fulton and late last week Mr. Kimlon came down with the car from their home at Wayside and they all returned home on last Saturday.

Loss Infant Son. A month since Mr. and Mrs. Hennings Johnson were blessed by the birth of a son, which has been since its birth a very sick child as the heart action was never good. Every care and attention was given the little one, but to no effect the little one passing away on June 24th, the funeral was held on last Thursday and interment made at the beautiful Mt. Pleasant cemetery.

LOCAL NEWS

From Monday's Daily—

Mrs. D. C. Morgan, who has been visiting at Lincoln with the A. W. Hillman family, has returned to this city where she is making her home at the Hotel Riley.

Mrs. Hattie Fahrenbruch of McCook, Nebraska, arrived Saturday evening from her home for a visit at the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. August Roessler.

Miss Florence White of Omaha was here over Sunday to spend the day at the home of her sister, Miss Lillian White, register of deeds, returning home last evening.

James H. Herold and son, Frank M. Herold of Minneapolis, arrived here last evening by auto for a visit here with the relatives and friends, finding on their arrival the sad news of the death of Mr. James Herold's sister, Mrs. Frank Hager at Lincoln.

Mrs. Mike Hausladen arrived here Sunday from her home in Toggenburg, Switzerland, and will join her husband at once on the farm south of this city. Mr. and Mrs. Hausladen were married last summer while Mr. Hausladen was visiting in the old country.

Mrs. John Cook and sons, Virgil and Wayne of Norfolk, who has been visiting her sister, Mrs. J. H. Graves for some time, as well as other relatives, returned home last evening when her son, Lowell Cook and wife, drove from Winside, Nebraska, to take her back home.

County Superintendent Miss Alpha Peterson was a visitor in Omaha today where she was called to look after some matters of business.

Attorney Carl D. Ganz and little son, of Alvo, were in the city for a short time today attending to some matters of business and visiting with friends.

County Commissioner Fred H. Gorder of Weeping Water, was a visitor in the city today where he was called to look after some matters at the court house.

Mrs. Herman Thiemann and daughter, Miss Margaret, of Alvo, were in the city for a short time today where they attended to some matters in the county court.

County Commissioner E. B. Chapman of Union was a visitor in the city today to look after some matters at the court house in regard to the board of equalization.

County Superintendent Miss Alpha Peterson was a visitor in Omaha today where she was called to look after some matters of business.

Attorney Carl D. Ganz and little son, of Alvo, were in the city for a short time today attending to some matters of business and visiting with friends.

County Commissioner Fred H. Gorder of Weeping Water, was a visitor in the city today where he was called to look after some matters at the court house.

Mrs. Herman Thiemann and daughter, Miss Margaret, of Alvo, were in the city for a short time today where they attended to some matters in the county court.

County Commissioner E. B. Chapman of Union was a visitor in the city today to look after some matters at the court house in regard to the board of equalization.

County Superintendent Miss Alpha Peterson was a visitor in Omaha today where she was called to look after some matters of business.

Attorney Carl D. Ganz and little son, of Alvo, were in the city for a short time today attending to some matters of business and visiting with friends.

County Commissioner Fred H. Gorder of Weeping Water, was a visitor in the city today where he was called to look after some matters at the court house.

Mrs. Herman Thiemann and daughter, Miss Margaret, of Alvo, were in the city for a short time today where they attended to some matters in the county court.

County Commissioner E. B. Chapman of Union was a visitor in the city today to look after some matters at the court house in regard to the board of equalization.

County Superintendent Miss Alpha Peterson was a visitor in Omaha today where she was called to look after some matters of business.

Attorney Carl D. Ganz and little son, of Alvo, were in the city for a short time today attending to some matters of business and visiting with friends.

County Commissioner Fred H. Gorder of Weeping Water, was a visitor in the city today where he was called to look after some matters at the court house.

Mrs. Herman Thiemann and daughter, Miss Margaret, of Alvo, were in the city for a short time today where they attended to some matters in the county court.

County Commissioner E. B. Chapman of Union was a visitor in the city today to look after some matters at the court house in regard to the board of equalization.

County Superintendent Miss Alpha Peterson was a visitor in Omaha today where she was called to look after some matters of business.

Attorney Carl D. Ganz and little son, of Alvo, were in the city for a short time today attending to some matters of business and visiting with friends.

County Commissioner Fred H. Gorder of Weeping Water, was a visitor in the city today where he was called to look after some matters at the court house.

Mrs. Herman Thiemann and daughter, Miss Margaret, of Alvo, were in the city for a short time today where they attended to some matters in the county court.

County Commissioner E. B. Chapman of Union was a visitor in the city today to look after some matters at the court house in regard to the board of equalization.

County Superintendent Miss Alpha Peterson was a visitor in Omaha today where she was called to look after some matters of business.

Attorney Carl D. Ganz and little son, of Alvo, were in the city for a short time today attending to some matters of business and visiting with friends.

County Commissioner Fred H. Gorder of Weeping Water, was a visitor in the city today where he was called to look after some matters at the court house.

Mrs. Herman Thiemann and daughter, Miss Margaret, of Alvo, were in the city for a short time today where they attended to some matters in the county court.

County Commissioner E. B. Chapman of Union was a visitor in the city today to look after some matters at the court house in regard to the board of equalization.

County Superintendent Miss Alpha Peterson was a visitor in Omaha today where she was called to look after some matters of business.

Attorney Carl D. Ganz and little son, of Alvo, were in the city for a short time today attending to some matters of business and visiting with friends.

County Commissioner Fred H. Gorder of Weeping Water, was a visitor in the city today where he was called to look after some matters at the court house.

Mrs. Herman Thiemann and daughter, Miss Margaret, of Alvo, were in the city for a short time today where they attended to some matters in the county court.

County Commissioner E. B. Chapman of Union was a visitor in the city today to look after some matters at the court house in regard to the board of equalization.

County Superintendent Miss Alpha Peterson was a visitor in Omaha today where she was called to look after some matters of business.

Attorney Carl D. Ganz and little son, of Alvo, were in the city for a short time today attending to some matters of business and visiting with friends.

County Commissioner Fred H. Gorder of Weeping Water, was a visitor in the city today where he was called to look after some matters at the court house.

Mrs. Herman Thiemann and daughter, Miss Margaret, of Alvo, were in the city for a short time today where they attended to some matters in the county court.

County Commissioner E. B. Chapman of Union was a visitor in the city today to look after some matters at the court house in regard to the board of equalization.

County Superintendent Miss Alpha Peterson was a visitor in Omaha today where she was called to look after some matters of business.

Attorney Carl D. Ganz and little son, of Alvo, were in the city for a short time today attending to some matters of business and visiting with friends.

County Commissioner Fred H. Gorder of Weeping Water, was a visitor in the city today where he was called to look after some matters at the court house.

Mrs. Herman Thiemann and daughter, Miss Margaret, of Alvo, were in the city for a short time today where they attended to some matters in the county court.

County Commissioner E. B. Chapman of Union was a visitor in the city today to look after some matters at the court house in regard to the board of equalization.

County Superintendent Miss Alpha Peterson was a visitor in Omaha today where she was called to look after some matters of business.

Attorney Carl D. Ganz and little son, of Alvo, were in the city for a short time today attending to some matters of business and visiting with friends.

County Commissioner Fred H. Gorder of Weeping Water, was a visitor in the city today where he was called to look after some matters at the court house.

Mrs. Herman Thiemann and daughter, Miss Margaret, of Alvo, were in the city for a short time today where they attended to some matters in the county court.

LOCAL NEWS

From Monday's Daily—

Mrs. D. C. Morgan, who has been visiting at Lincoln with the A. W. Hillman family, has returned to this city where she is making her home at the Hotel Riley.

Mrs. Hattie Fahrenbruch of McCook, Nebraska, arrived Saturday evening from her home for a visit at the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. August Roessler.

Miss Florence White of Omaha was here over Sunday to spend the day at the home of her sister, Miss Lillian White, register of deeds, returning home last evening.

James H. Herold and son, Frank M. Herold of Minneapolis, arrived here last evening by auto for a visit here with the relatives and friends, finding on their arrival the sad news of the death of Mr. James Herold's sister, Mrs. Frank Hager at Lincoln.

Mrs. Mike Hausladen arrived here Sunday from her home in Toggenburg, Switzerland, and will join her husband at once on the farm south of this city. Mr. and Mrs. Hausladen were married last summer while Mr. Hausladen was visiting in the old country.

Mrs. John Cook and sons, Virgil and Wayne of Norfolk, who has been visiting her sister, Mrs. J. H. Graves for some time, as well as other relatives, returned home last evening when her son, Lowell Cook and wife, drove from Winside, Nebraska, to take her back home.

County Superintendent Miss Alpha Peterson was a visitor in Omaha today where she was called to look after some matters of business.

Attorney Carl D. Ganz and little son, of Alvo, were in the city for a short time today attending to some matters of business and visiting with friends.

County Commissioner Fred H. Gorder of Weeping Water, was a visitor in the city today where he was called to look after some matters at the court house.

Mrs. Herman Thiemann and daughter, Miss Margaret, of Alvo, were in the city for a short time today where they attended to some matters in the county court.

County Commissioner E. B. Chapman of Union was a visitor in the city today to look after some matters at the court house in regard to the board of equalization.

County Superintendent Miss Alpha Peterson was a visitor in Omaha today where she was called to look after some matters of business.

Attorney Carl D. Ganz and little son, of Alvo, were in the city for a short time today attending to some matters of business and visiting with friends.

County Commissioner Fred H. Gorder of Weeping Water, was a visitor in the city today where he was called to look after some matters at the court house.

Mrs. Herman Thiemann and daughter, Miss Margaret, of Alvo, were in the city for a short time today where they attended to some matters in the county court.

County Commissioner E. B. Chapman of Union was a visitor in the city today to look after some matters at the court house in regard to the board of equalization.

County Superintendent Miss Alpha Peterson was a visitor in Omaha today where she was called to look after some matters of business.

Attorney Carl D. Ganz and little son, of Alvo, were in the city for a short time today attending to some matters of business and visiting with friends.

County Commissioner Fred H. Gorder of Weeping Water, was a visitor in the city today where he was called to look after some matters at the court house.

Mrs. Herman Thiemann and daughter, Miss Margaret, of Alvo, were in the city for a short time today where they attended to some matters in the county court.

County Commissioner E. B. Chapman of Union was a visitor in the city today to look after some matters at the court house in regard to the board of equalization.

County Superintendent Miss Alpha Peterson was a visitor in Omaha today where she was called to look after some matters of business.

Attorney Carl D. Ganz and little son, of Alvo, were in the city for a short time today attending to some matters of business and visiting with friends.

County Commissioner Fred H. Gorder of Weeping Water, was a visitor in the city today where he was called to look after some matters at the court house.

Mrs. Herman Thiemann and daughter, Miss Margaret, of Alvo, were in the city for a short time today where they attended to some matters in the county court.

County Commissioner E. B. Chapman of Union was a visitor in the city today to look after some matters at the court house in regard to the board of equalization.

County Superintendent Miss Alpha Peterson was a visitor in Omaha today where she was called to look after some matters of business.

Attorney Carl D. Ganz and little son, of Alvo, were in the city for a short time today attending to some matters of business and visiting with friends.

County Commissioner Fred H. Gorder of Weeping Water, was a visitor in the city today where he was called to look after some matters at the court house.

Mrs. Herman Thiemann and daughter, Miss Margaret, of Alvo, were in the city for a short time today where they attended to some matters in the county court.

County Commissioner E. B. Chapman of Union was a visitor in the city today to look after some matters at the court house in regard to the board of equalization.

County Superintendent Miss Alpha Peterson was a visitor in Omaha today where she was called to look after some matters of business.

Attorney Carl D. Ganz and little son, of Alvo, were in the city for a short time today attending to some matters of business and visiting with friends.

County Commissioner Fred H. Gorder of Weeping Water, was a visitor in the city today where he was called to look after some matters at the court house.