UNION ITEMS.

Wade Moore was looking after some business matters in Lincoln on Monday of this week.

Blair Porter was the first to get to harvesting in the vicinity of Union he cutting his barley last week. Henry Bond began the cutting of his wheat on Tuesday of this week and says that the wheat is very heavy and looks for a large yield in bushels.

Catherine Smith of Omaha, who was visiting with friends in Nebraska City for a day, stopped on last Monday on her way home and paid a visit to Mr. Mont Robb and his daughter, Miss Agusta.

Joseph Lidgett has been busy at the Farmers Lumber Yard during this week in the building of some feed bunks for the use on the farm of his friend, George Lindsay, and is getting well along with the work.

Workmen of the paving crew have been making some tables at the lumber yard and also been making an unloading and mixing platform along the side of the Missouri Pacific railway tracks for the handling of their materials.

Jimmie Greene, who received so severe a wound a short time since when he was riding a motorcycle, is making good progress towards recovery, all the stitches having been removed with the exception of two. The wound is healing very nicely.

Joe Leach, while he was engaged in the matter of trimming up the yard at home, using a grass hook for the purpose, mistook his toe for something which should be removed, cut a large gash in it and has since been limping around until it shall heal.

Miss Sara Upton, who is attending school in Lincoln, was a visitor at home for one Sunday, and was accompanied by her friend, Mrs. Knerr, with whom Miss Sara stays, they spending the day at the home of the parents of Sara, L. R. Upton and wife.

W. E. Moore was a visitor at York on last Sunday where he went to see the wife and their daughter, Miss Dorothy, and after having considered the matter, they concluded to allow the daughter to remain at York for the present with the folks, and Mrs. Moore returned home with the husband Monday.

A. L. Becker has concluded the cultivation of his corn and has done what has been called since the beginning of the farming game, "laid it by." With the completion of the work in his own field he has been hauling corn for Ray and also was assisting Roy in the finishing of plowing his corn.

Helen Watkins, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Con Watkins, who has been troubled with appendicitis, was taken to the Methodist hospital at Omaha last Monday where she underwent an operation for the removal of the appendix, and since has been getting along very nicely and it is hoped that she will be able to return home the coming week.

How About Old Settlers?
The time of year is drawing near for the getting ready for the annual meeting of the pioneers of Cass and adjoining counties, which is generally held in the month of August, and to get the organization in action and operating efficiently requires some time. It looks like if there is to be a gathering and picnic, it is about time some step was taken in that direction. For more than forty years there has been such a gathering and always a good time, and it would seem rather out of the ordinary should the matter go by default, and which we hope it will not, for we want a good meeting and all to enjoy their friends as in the years gone by.

School Meeting Hot Night.
The weather was warm, not necessarily the members who were attending the meeting, for they only a few matters to consider and when they had concluded their considering, regarding the increasing of the tax levy, they were where they started and nothing accomplished or otherwise much done, just as you look at it.

Hold Family Reunion.
The Hoback family were gathered at the shady park at Kamp Kill Kare, on last Sunday where they were celebrating the matter of holding a family reunion, all the relatives and members of the Hoback family about Union and Nehawka.

being present as well as a large number making their homes in Iowa were there. A most pleasant time was had and all enjoyed the occasion very much.

Boy Scouts at Camp Wilson.
A number of the Boy Scouts of Union were enjoying during last week a stay at Camp Wilson which is along the river a few miles north of Nebraska City. There were from Union, Ronald Martin, Westley Carr and Junior Upton.

Here's Your Invitation.
The Baptist church invites all its members and others to attend the services which will be held at the church in Union on the coming Sunday, July 5th, when communion service will be held. This church holds at stated times sacred communion, and the coming Sabbath is the day. All who are members are especially invited to be present and partake of the sacrament. A general invitation is extended to all to attend the services which will be conducted by the pastor, the Rev. W. A. Taylor. An invitation is also extended to come to all the other services of the church and Bible school.

Makes A Lively City.
With the receiving and unloading of the machinery for the crew who are to begin in a few days pouring the concrete for the paved highway which is to extend south from east of town to Nebraska City there is a large crowd of workers and look like unloading of a circus in the plummy days when there were many shows on the road. The materials are being hauled to the road where the work is to be done and with the extra heavy equipment which is being used, it is possible to pour nearly two thousand feet of roadway during one day and they will expect when they get going to be able to make two miles of road during the week.

For Sale or Trade.
A fine 1100 acre Holt county, Nebraska, ranch, well improved. Will take a good quarter section in southeastern Nebraska or western Iowa. I also have a 2000 acre ranch in Adair county, Missouri that I will sell cheap. For further information write Allen Stratton, Union, Nebraska, Rt. No. 2.

Red Cross Notes.
Each year the American Red Cross sends Christmas Bags to Service men on land and sea at home and abroad. A chapter accepts a quota. This year the Cass county chapter has accepted a quota of 20 bags, and six pairs of socks. The bags are made by volunteers and filled by the chapter so to be uniform in price and articles therein.

This year the 20 bags were made by the Victoria Ladies Aid society east of Elmwood, volunteer service to the Red Cross. These Christmas bags must be filled and sent on to San Francisco early in September to go to the distant posts. To fill the demand for China and Guam 4,000 bags must be in San Francisco by August 1st, to reach these stations by Christmas.

Junior Red Cross—From Juniors in one land to Juniors in another land go countless letters each year with typed ending: "Write and tell us about your games and customs."

This interest of the Juniors has mounted to a valuable contribution in the preservation and spreading of a knowledge of folk art whether in embroidery, wood carving, pottery, folk songs and dances and general customs. The Greek minister of education considered it of such value both educationally and artistically that he lent it his strong support and urged the cooperation of all teachers.

It was the Juniors of Greece who sent the many pounds of raisins to the drought sufferers last winter.

Unique Junior Project—Sometimes the weight of even a magazine is too great a tax for the weak hands of sick people. When the Juniors of Clifton, N. J. voted to work on projects for the hospitals they remembered this, meeting the situation in a novel manner. Instead of having the souvenir cards and holiday greetings cards into scrap books, they pasted them back to back. Classifying them as to subjects—flowers, historical season, etc. and sent boxes of them to hospitals.

From a supervising nurse they learned which subject would be most interesting to patients.

A Christmas tree gaily decorated was their gift to the Orthopedic hospital in Orange, N. J. Also furnished glasses for defective vision and shoes to several children unable to purchase them.

Cass County Junior Art of Cedar Creek sent Easter eggs to the Orthopedic hospital.

Juniors will be sorry to learn of the resignation of Harry Bruce Wilson, National Director, account of ill health. Mr. Wilson went to National headquarters, February, 1928, after a brilliant career in the educational field, having been superintendent of schools in Decatur, Ill., Topeka, Kansas, Berkeley, California. During his years in the superintendency at Berkeley, Calif., he came into intimate relations with Jenks work. His profound belief and broad understanding of the educational values of the Junior program made his advocacy of far reaching importance and influence. He had been a member of the faculty of the School of Education of California at Berkeley, an author of books relating to the curriculum and training in both elementary and high schools and a speaker much sought after for national educational conferences. His associates in the Red Cross wish him a speedy and complete recovery of health.

HONOR UNION GIRL
Lincoln, June 29.—All work and no play makes dull school teachers, is the belief of those in charge of the summer session at the University of Nebraska. So eight students have been appointed to plan a series of parties, baseball games, golf and horseshoe tournaments for students taking summer work. Miss Sara Upton of Union has been placed in charge of women's athletics.

This is the first summer that a social program under student supervision has been permitted at the university. The plan has met the enthusiastic approval of the students and more than 500 have attended each of the three parties already held by the committee.

Miss Upton is taking graduate work at the university. Other members of the committee are: Arthur Jones, Elk Creek; Wendell Stodd, Belknap; Verne Jones, Phoenix, Ariz.; M. R. Colson, Alliance; Gladys Zutter, Lincoln; Margaret Huston, Osceola. Prof. E. W. Lantz of the department of secondary education is faculty adviser.

WEeping WATER
There were ten children born to this union all of whom survive the mother. Mrs. Newham was a very devoted and loving wife and mother, the home and fireside being the dearest place on earth to her.

Enjoyed Fishing Trip.
Ben Olive, Leonard Doty and Harold Meyers were enjoying a fishing trip in the west last week when they went to Wyoming, some sixty miles south of Douglas, where they enjoyed very fine fishing as well as a splendid outing, returned home on last Saturday night driving nearly a thousand miles on the round trip.

To Purchase New Fire Truck.
The Weeping Water fire department which is a sure fire fighting squad and no mistake, are to purchase soon a new fire truck and are laying plans for getting the new equipment. They are to give a benefit dance this Thursday as the beginning of a series of entertainments to raise the needed money for the purchase.

Entertained at Lawn Party.
Mrs. George Olive entertained the members of the "D" club on the lawn at home on last Monday evening and there were a large number of the members present to enjoy the real fine time which the out of doors party afforded. Besides the pleasant evening at cards, they were entertained by some very delightful refreshments, ice cream, cooling drinks, which on the warm evening were most delicious.

Program in Good Hands.
The matter of arranging the program for the Cass county fair, which is to be held at Weeping Water on September 15-18 inclusive has been placed in the hands of Hon. Troy L. Davis and who is looking after the matter. Mr. Davis is selecting the materials for the program which is a feature always given in connection with the fair. The preparations for the holding of the fair this year is progressing very nicely. The catalogues are in the printers hands and will soon be ready for distribution and which will show a great array of exhibits as already many have assured the fair board that they will have exhibit. Many concessions have asked for space for their entertainments and the very best is being selected from the many offerings.

Attending Convention in West.
Mr. and Mrs. Fred Carstons are enjoying a visit in the west at Seattle, Washington, where they are delegates to a convention of two churches which are seeking to consolidate. They will expect to spend some ten days or two weeks in the west.

Mrs. Chris Christensen Dies.
Mrs. Chris Christensen, formerly of Weeping Water, but who many years ago moved to the western portion of the state where they have since made their home, died there on Sunday evening, the burial being held on Tuesday afternoon at their town, Elba. Mrs. Christensen was an aunt of the late Mrs. Chris J. Elgaard. Mr. Elgaard departed on last Monday for Elba to be in attendance at the funeral and burial. Mrs. Christensen, who was well along in life, had recently suffered a stroke and from which she passed away. She leaves a husband and three children, one son and two daughters, all grown.

The Bungalow Inn.
Miss Irene Gibson has embarked in business in the room next that of her father, C. H. Gibson, with the up-to-date grocery store. Miss Irene has equipped the place with five booths for luncheon and will serve plate meals, sandwiches, ice cream and confections. The booths are arranged along the sides of the room extending to the rear and being on both sides. Each booth has been named, selection as follows, "Open Drop Inn," "Kozy Korner," "Idle A-White," "Sauter Inn" and "Dream Cottage. Miss Irene has a bungalow gracing the window, as a sign but which has not as yet received a christening, but will soon. Sauter around and drop in and see the nice arrangement.

Mr. and Mrs. Louis Lohnes, who have been enjoying a honeymoon trip in Minnesota and the Black Hills, returned yesterday afternoon.

THE FUNERAL HOME

Modern conditions and standards of living have called into being an entirely new kind of institution for meeting a universal human need—The Funeral Home.

Planned for the specific purpose which it serves, it offers greater efficiency and greater convenience than was possible in the past.

We are proud to be able to offer the communities which we serve the use of such an establishment.
