HAS CAR STOLEN

From Wednesday's Daily— Last evening while Roy F. Turner, former P. H. S. basketball star, was enjoying a dip in the cooling waters of the Lyman-Richey sandpits northwest of this city, some hard hearted hood proceeded to make way with his auto, a Saxon speedster, which he had left parked a short distance from the pits. The loss was not discovered until Roy was ready to return home and then it was found that the car was not to be found. As there was no one else from this city at the pits at the time it was necessary for Roy to show his athletic training by walking part way to the city before he was picked up and brought on to Plattsmouth and to report the theft. So far no trace has been found of the car.

A free country is one in which everybody feels superior to their equals and equal to their superiors.

Seward Family Has Fight with an Intruder

Brothers Battle With Man Who Struck at Mother in Home— Hold Him for Police.

Seward—After nearly an hour's battle early Sunday with a husky young man armed with an X-wrench who entered their house, members of the Robbins family subdued the intruder and held him until police arrived. The encounter occurred shortly after midnight as Alletta Robbins, nineteen, arrived home from a dance with a boy friend.

They noticed three men in a parked car in front of the house and saw one of them jump from the car and begin breaking the car windows with a tire wrench. He then ran to the house and into the kitchen. When Mrs. Robbins went to the kitchen, thinking it was her daughter, the man struck at her but missed.

Warren, twenty-one, ran downstairs and found the intruder trying to strike his mother across a table. Ducking the wrench which the man threw at him, Warren battled with the man on the stairway and was aided shortly by his brother, Burton, eighteen. Meanwhile the daughter went to the home of her brother, Jesse, and with his daughter, Laura Lee, summoned Rufe Anderson, state highway patrolman, Tom Craig, night watchman, and Police Chief Charles McGrew.

When the officers arrived the Robbins brothers were seated on the intruder in the dining room. The man gave his name as Joseph Frenchman. The two men in the car said their names were Ray and Frank Blackman and that they and Frenchman had been visiting at Ord and were on their way to their home in Indiana. They were taken to the city jail. After papers carried by Frenchman indicated he was afflicted with epilepsy and had been confined to several hospitals, the trio was released by City Attorney Ervin Johns.

Mrs. Alletta Robbins is the mother of Frank Robbins, Lincoln motorcycle officer.

Lewiston Community Meeting Well Attended

Great Interest Shown in Plans for Cemetery Aid—Fine Program Is Offered

From Wednesday's Daily— The luncheon and program at the Lewiston community center last evening brought a very large number to this delightful spot east of Murray and which has been a very important center in the history of this section of the county.

The program of the evening was arranged by Mrs. Georgia Creamer and gave a splendid range of entertainment that served to keep the members of the group more than pleased with the different selections. In the musical group, Joan and Dick Hall, two of the clever little folks of the community, gave two songs, Mrs. Major Hall, their mother, accompanying them. Mrs. Forest Shrader of Herman, Nebraska, also favored the gathering with a fine vocal offering, "My Kentucky Babe," with Mrs. Hall playing the accompaniment and this portion of the program was most thoroughly appreciated by everyone.

Mrs. D. C. Rhoden presented a very clever and delightfully given reading as did Mrs. Frank Slagel, this feature of the program giving the ladies the opportunity of fine expression.

Robert R. Livingston, of Plattsmouth, who was among the members of the party, gave a very interesting talk in his usually pleasing manner. Mr. Livingston having been very prominent in his debating work in high school and college and his part of the program was followed with a great deal of interest.

The talk given by Forest Shrader, principal of the high school at Herman, Nebraska, a son of Mr. and Mrs. Homer Shrader, a member of one of the old time families of the community was much enjoyed and Mr. Shrader spoke of the many improvements that have occurred in the Lewiston community since his boyhood days and it was a real pleasure for the party to meet their former neighbor, who is quite prominent in the school work of the east part of the state.

Rev. W. A. Taylor of Union, loved and honored resident of Cass county for so many years, spoke of the community center and the church where he had so often preached and had been called to lay to rest in the cemetery so many of the loved friends. He urged that the cemetery be cared for, that those in the community had loved the departed while living and should love them still and see their last resting place was kept in proper manner.

George Nickles of Murray, made a strong appeal for the cemetery improvement movement and urged feelingly of the matter as his parents are resting in the last sleep in that beautiful country cemetery. The cemetery association was formed and plans made to see that the cemetery was kept in perfect shape and made one of the most attractive in this part of the county. Residents of this section who live at other places now and may have lots in the cemetery will be reached to join in the movement.

Mrs. Creamer, the chairman, has started the drive for funds for the cemetery improvement and now has on hand $68.70, to be applied on the work at the cemetery. Those who have contributed so far are: George Nickles, Frank Mrasek, Charles Wolfe, Dr. G. H. Gilmore, Dee Hostetter, Alex. Rhoden, Jarvis Lancaster and Robert Good of Murray; Forest Shrader, Mrs. Jennie Klimm, Joseph Campbell, Frank Slagel, Wesley Hill, Mrs. Will Morley, Peter Campbell, Plattsmouth; Carter Albin, Bruce Wolfe, Mrs. Rose Kendall, John Fitch, John Becker, Mrs. D. Ray Frans, Mrs. Jennie Frans, Mrs. Mary Allison, Ed Leach, Mrs. Mable Reynolds, Union.

HAIL NEAR JUNCTION A severe hail storm traveling from the southeast in a slightly north-westerly direction, struck a portion of Glenwood and Plattville townships to the north of Pacific Junction about 6 a. m. last Saturday. The south line of the storm began at Pacific Junction on the farm of Mrs. Linn DeLashmatt, the east line being on the Lee Sargent and Wm. Estes farms where it is estimated as much as a 50 per cent loss was sustained, but from Mrs. DeLashmatt's north to Old Pacific and from Pony creek northwesterly to the river a distance of about five or six miles, the destruction to corn was practically complete. Wheat and oats that were uncut were also a total loss. It was fortunate that most of the wheat was either combined or in the shock. Among those who sustained almost a complete loss of their corn crops were Mrs. Linn DeLashmatt, Clay and Levern Estes, Huber Barber and sons, J. H. Witherby, Earl Miller, Ernest Barker, Caleb Fisher, Ed Johnson, Filbur May, Bill Strickland, Chas. Karr, Fred Kuhl, Charles Lincoln, Elmer Lincoln and Chris Christensen, Harry Kizzler and perhaps others whose names were not learned.

W. C. T. U. MEETING

The W. C. T. U. held a very interesting meeting on Monday afternoon at the home of Mrs. A. H. Duxbury on Pearl street and with a very pleasing number of the ladies in attendance.

The meeting was in the nature of a memorial to Mrs. Anna Adama Gordon, for ten years national president of the W. C. T. U. and for nine years the president of the world organization, who passed away on June 15th of this year.

Mrs. Charles Troop, president of the local union, was in charge of the meeting and conducted the memorial service. Each member of the Union was requested to take part in the memorial service which had been written by Mrs. Julia Freeman Dean, giving a very beautiful service in honor of the fallen leader of the temperance movement.

Mrs. Troop also read a very touching tribute, "Anna Gordon Joins the Heavenly Hosts." The active session was closed with the singing of Mrs. Gordon's own song, "Work for Enforcement." At the close of the afternoon dainty refreshments were served and in the serving Mrs. Duxbury was assisted by her sister, Mrs. Marion Duxbury.
