

WEEPING WATER

Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Faye entertained last Sunday and had as their guests for the day and dinner, Mrs. Joan Carter.

Mrs. Helen Clarke accompanied Mr. and Mrs. Harold Meyer on their trip to the lakes of Minnesota, where they are spending two weeks.

Mrs. Martha Wettenkamp of Plattsmouth was guest for the greater portion of this week with her family.

Bert Johnson, who has been having quite a bit of trouble with his throat and tonsils, is reported as getting along better at this time.

Miss Hazel Williams, who was a visitor over the week end with her sister, Miss Vera Williams of Omaha, returned home on last Monday.

County Commissioner Fred H. Gauder was a visitor in Elmwood, Eagle and Alvo, where he was looking after some business matters for the county on last Tuesday.

Miss Frances Rehmeler, who has been visiting for the past two weeks at the home of her aunt and uncle, Frank Taylor and wife, and Simon Rehmeler and wife, of Alvo.

Miss Bernice Wade was a visitor in Lincoln for the day on last Monday where she was the guest of friends and also where she was looking after some business affairs.

George Towle, who has a farm in Furness county, received word that the crops were good out that way and departed last week to see the (breeding) home and look after other business.

Mrs. A. Starr and daughters of Kearney have been visiting in Weeping Water a number of days during the past week, and have been guests while here, at the home of Hans Johnson and Mrs. John McNeillie.

Mrs. Clarence E. Pool and daughter, Miss Hazel, Mrs. Wm. Van Every and son, Billie and daughter, Imogene, were all over to Lincoln on last Tuesday, where they were visiting with friends as well as shopping.

Wm. Fisher of Adams, formerly a baker at the John S. Williams bakery, and later engaged in the same line of business at Adams, was a visitor for a short time last Sunday at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Williams, all enjoying a very nice visit together.

John Burnell, formerly of Weeping Water, and also of Union, but who has been making his home at Lincoln for some time past, was a visitor in Weeping Water for the day last Tuesday. He expects to work in Cass county, starting in a short time.

Frank Woods and the good wife were over to Murray on last Sunday, where they were visiting with their many friends and they have many there at that end and also were flying in the head waters of the Murray bathing beach. They have an invitation to call again.

Word from Elgin, Illinois, where Howard Rasmussen has been for a number of weeks in the effort to get his secured a position in the creamery of that place with an uncle, John F. Rasmussen, and is very well pleased with the work and the satisfactory salary which it carries.

L. F. Fitch of Elmwood, departed on last Sunday for St. Louis, and from there he is expected to go to South Carolina, where he has some land business to look after for the railways with whom he is working in the land business. Mr. Fitch is expected to be away for a week or longer.

Chris Rasmussen and the good wife and their son Walter were over to Murray on last Sunday afternoon, where they visited the Murray bathing beach and enjoyed a dip in the crystal water of the pool as it comes from the springs and well which has been dug to supply the Murray bathing beach.

Have Some Fine Calves. Fred Rehmeler and son, Vincent, and daughter Frances now have on hand four very fine calves which they will show at the fair at Plattsmouth this fall and the Cass county fair. They are looking fine now and gaining every day. There are three Herefords and one Short Horn. Besides the son Vincent and daughter, Frances have some ten Chester White spring shoats imported in March that are looking very fine and making excellent show stock. Keep your eye open for them at these two fairs.

Seeing America First. C. Wallie Johnson and the good wife were over to Plattsmouth last week, where they purchased through the dealers, Messrs. Oldham and Sons, of that place, a Plymouth sedan of the latest model, trading in their old car on the purchase. It was agreed that Mr. Johnson was to go to Detroit after the new car, and the Plattsmouth firm made a present of a very ancient Model T Ford, which Wallie and the good wife drove to Detroit, receiving the new wagon and ditching the old one. They then started for the east and will visit at Niagara Falls and many other places of interest.

THE FUNERAL HOME. Modern conditions and standards of living have called into being an entirely new kind of institution for meeting a universal human need—The Funeral Home.

Planned for the specific purpose which it serves, it offers greater efficiency and greater convenience than was possible in the past.

We are proud to be able to offer the communities which we serve the use of such an establishment.

Hobson Funeral Home WEeping Water, NEBR.

LOCAL NEWS

From Monday's Daily—Mr. and Mrs. Harry Royal were here Sunday afternoon to visit at the home of Judge C. L. Graves, father of Mrs. Royal.

Mrs. Joe Faith of Kansas City is spending a few weeks with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Edward Donat and family and friends.

Water was here today to spend a few hours attending to some matters of business and visiting with friends.

Miss Henrietta Martens, of San Francisco, is here to enjoy her vacation at the home of her mother, Mrs. Augusta Martens and sister, Miss Amelia Martens.

County Attorney W. G. Kieck and County Treasurer John E. Turner were in Nebraska City today where they were called on some matters of business for a short time.

Mr. and Mrs. Frank E. Schindler and Mr. and Mrs. George Davidson of Omaha, were here Sunday evening to spend a few hours with the relatives and the old time friends.

Mr. Marie Gosteros, of Portland, Oregon, who is here visiting at the home of her uncle, Charles Schuster and family is departing on Wednesday for her home on the west coast.

Miss Martha Hunt of Talara, California, who has been here visiting her sister, Mrs. F. R. Gobleman, for the past week, departed Saturday for Decatur, Iowa, where she will visit another sister, Mrs. A. F. Pfeiffer.

Mrs. Martha Peterson was at Omaha Sunday where she enjoyed a visit with her nephew, Ben Erway, of New York, who was en route from the east to California and stopped for a short time en route at Omaha.

C. A. Spatz who has been attending Columbia university at New York City, for the past year, completing his special work for his degree, arrived Sunday to spend a short time here with his wife and family who are visiting with Mrs. Spatz's father, George A. Kaffenberger.

Frank Herold, who is now representing the I. L. Taylor Co. of Lincoln, was here Sunday for a short visit at the home of Harold and A. L. Tidd homes, departing for Lincoln today. Mr. Herold is to be located at Denver in the future, having the western territory for his company.

Mrs. Mary E. Starkey and Mr. and Mrs. Paul Jewell and their son, Carl of Carpenter, Ohio, arrived here Saturday evening, and are visiting at the home of Mrs. Dora Mark. Mrs. Starkey and Mrs. Mark are sisters, and this is their first meeting since Mrs. Mark left Ohio a number of years ago.

From Tuesday's Daily—Wilbur Olson of Chicago is here for a visit with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. G. W. Olson and family and enjoying a short rest from his work.

J. R. Noyes, one of the well known residents of Leavittville, was here for a few hours today, looking after some matters of business and visiting with friends.

Ellis Champlin, former resident here, who is on the staff of camp leaders at Camp Sheldon, near Columbus, is here for a short visit with the old time friends.

Allice Gleason of Murray, Neb., and mother of Hiawatha, Kansas, were visiting at Grand Island with Mr. and Mrs. J. A. Neussis of Las Angeles, who was a school friend of Allice Gleason.

Mr. and Mrs. T. C. Varner and daughter of Council Bluffs were here Sunday for a short time visiting with old time friends. Mr. Varner is now running a Safa-Way store at Council Bluffs.

Melvin Johnson, of Chicago, is here for a two weeks vacation, with his father, A. G. Johnson, and his sister, Miss Helen, at the farm south of this city and to visit with the old school friends.

Mr. and Mrs. George Tarisch have returned home from a very pleasant visit in California, spending some weeks in the various cities of the west coast and visiting with Mr. and Mrs. Henry H. Tartsch, formerly of Sioux City and who have for the past two years made their home in California.

From Wednesday's Daily—Hurr R. Davis, attorney at law of Wayne, Nebraska, spent Saturday and Sunday at the John S. Vallery home.

Miss Janet Vallery of Mynard, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John S. Vallery, has been afflicted with tonsillitis for the past two weeks.

Mrs. Cora Murray of Omaha was in the city for a short time today looking after some matters of business and visiting with the old time friends.

Mr. and Mrs. W. L. Heinrich, who have been enjoying a weeks' visit at Chappell and other points in the west part of the state, returned home last evening.

Attorney Carl D. Ganz of Alvo, and little daughter, were in the city for a short time today attending to some matters of business and visiting with friends.

Mrs. J. R. Jahrig and daughter, Fern, and son, Paul, who have been enjoying an outing at Colorado Springs and Manitou, Colorado, returned home last evening after a very pleasant trip to the west.

Mr. and Mrs. Lester Gaylord and Miss Catherine Stava, sister of Mrs. Gaylord, who have been visiting with the relatives of Mr. Gaylord of Pittsburg, Kansas, have returned home after a very pleasant outing.

Misses Caroline and Estelle Baldr, who have been spending a short time at Iowa City, Iowa, have returned home. Miss Estelle while at Iowa City, took up some special summer school work at the University of Iowa.

Great Britain has awarded Jerusalem's waiting wall to the Moslems, but American politicians find the tariff wall a handy substitute for having a wall of a time.

Only One Small Profit

from Plantations to Firestone Service Stores and Service Dealers

Firestone Control Every Step in TIRE MAKING

FIRESTONE control every step in the manufacture of their products. They have their own rubber preparation factory and warehouse in Singapore—their own cord fabric factories—their own great tire factories—the most efficient in the world. The millions of dollars saved annually by Firestone from these great economies are passed on to you in Extra Values.

You get the full benefit of these values because every Firestone Tire bears the Firestone name, and is doubly guaranteed by Firestone and Firestone Service Dealers. Why take chances with special brand tires, built just to sell—without the manufacturer's name, guarantee or responsibility for service.

Come in Today and make your own comparisons with cross sections of Firestone Tires and special brand mail order tires. Get the facts yourself about tire quality and construction. When you see the Extra Values you get you will feel secure only on Firestone Tires.

COMPARE CONSTRUCTION and QUALITY

Table comparing Firestone tires with other brands based on weight, thickness, non-skid depth, and price.

COMPARE PRICES

Large table comparing Firestone prices with other brands for various car makes and tire sizes.

Guarantee Double—Every tire manufactured by Firestone bears the name "FIRESTONE" and carries Firestone's unlimited guarantee and ours. You are doubly protected.

Firestone Service Dealers and Service Stores Save You Money and Serve You Better

Plattsmouth Motor Co. Ford Sales and Service Plattsmouth, Nebr.

A. D. Bakke Garage, Murray, Nebr. Mathews & Peterson, Greenwood, Nebr. Trunkenbolz Oil Co., Union, Nebr. Dietrick Motor Co., Louisville, Nebr.

Advertisement for Firestone products listing various types of tires and factories.

