Texas Votes Bill to Conserve Oil Output in State

Provides Proration of Production by Pools, Court Procedure; Sterling Signs.

Austin, Tex., Aug. 12.—The Texas legislature tonight passed an oil conservation bill pronounced by administration leaders as satisfactory to Governor Ross S. Sterling, who had threatened martial law to halt petroleum production if the law makers did not act.

The senate adopted the bill offered by a free conference committee by a vote of 29 to 1, shortly after the house had taken the same action by a vote of 125 to 12. The bill became a law with the signature of Governor Sterling tonight.

The bill provides for proration of oil production by pools, and outlines court procedure to be taken against those opposing conservation orders issued by the state railway commission.

Made Conditions Chaotic.

Texas conservation orders, issued by the railroad commission, the enforcement body, recently were ruled unconstitutional. This ruling, together with the chaotic condition of the oil industry, resulted in Governor Sterling calling a special legislative session to consider a new law.

Coincident with passage of the conservation bill came the first definite sign of success in the fight of Governor Murray of Oklahoma for a price of a dollar a barrel in that state.

Expects Other Offers.

Eight days after Governor Murray declared martial law and closed flush wells in Oklahoma, a refinery company said it was in need of crude and would pay $1 a barrel to obtain it from the clamped-down wells. Rex H. Winget, general manager of the Cushing Refining and Gasoline company, made the offer at Oklahoma City.

Governor Murray, said to expect other offers within a week, told Winget he was leaving for Texas tomorrow, and asked the oil man to return to his office Monday.

"Heralds a New Dawn."

Washington, Aug. 12.—Passage by the Texas legislature of oil conservation legislation tonight was described by Acting Secretary Dixon of the interior department as heralding a "new dawn in the oil situation."

Dixon, who recently attributed most of the petroleum industry's present troubles to the rich east Texas pool, said he was "delighted to hear the news" of the action at Austin.—World-Herald.

MENTAL EXPERT TO EXAMINE O'DONNELL

Ogallala, Aug. 12.—Counsel for Dr. H. J. O'Donnell, Paxton physician charged with arson, made arrangements Wednesday to have him examined Friday by Dr. W. E. Ash, head of staff at St. Bernard hospital for nervous and mental diseases, at Council Bluffs.

Two brothers of O'Donnell arrived here Tuesday. They are C. J. O'Donnell, professor of mathematics and principal of schools at Long Prairie, S. D., and John L. O'Donnell, advertising man at Houston, Tex.

Cotton Farmers Asked to Destroy a Third of Crop

Board Pledges, in Return, to Hold Up Stabilization Surplus—Stone Message

Washington, D. C., Aug. 12.—The farm board called upon southern planters to destroy one-third of their crop now under cultivation, promising in return to hold stabilization surplus stocks from the market for one year.

Telegrams were dispatched to the governors of 14 cotton producing states, urging them to enlist co-operation of every available agency, including farmers and bankers, in this step to increase the low price of cotton.

They were signed by Chairman Stone, who conferred today with directors of the cotton stabilization corporation and the American Cotton Co-operative association.

Would Cut Supply.

Stone said if growers promised to plow under every third row of cotton now growing, the cotton co-operative would be asked also to withhold the two million bales it owns from trade channels.

"This program," he asserted, "if fully carried out by southern farmers as well as by ourselves will mean reduction of total supply by at least four million bales and withholding from this year's market of three million bales more."

The action followed by a few days a government crop forecast in which the 1931 cotton harvest was estimated at 15,584,000 bales, more than 1,500,000 above last year. Cotton prices immediately dropped.

Legge a Director.

A few hours before the telegrams were sent, it was announced Alexander Legge, former chairman of the farm board, had been elected a director at large of the stabilization corporation. When cotton stabilization operations with the board's 500 million dollars revolving fund were initiated under his chairmanship and he has been in close touch with all details.—World-Herald.

POLICE STANDING GUARD AT SCENE OF BERLIN RIOT

Berlin, Aug. 10.—Paddlocks and extraordinarily heavy police guards tonight maintained peace in the Buelow Platz, Berlin communist center, which was the scene of a bloody riot last night.

Earlier today the police clapped a padlock on the Karl Liebknecht Haus in Buelow Platz, center of Germany's communistic activities, and suspended the communist newspaper Rote Fahne, in front of which last night's rioting occurred, for two weeks.

This evening a large reserve force of patrolmen was taken into the neighborhood, which was still in an ugly mood, but the temper of the police matched that of the communists, and the loss of two popular officers from their ranks in last night's shooting put them in no mind for pleasantries.

The Journal Job Department is equipped to turn out anything from calling cards to sale catalogs.
