NEHAWKA CHURCH
Bible church school 10 a. m. Hear what Justice Lewis L. Fawcett, Supreme Court of New York, has to say about the Sunday school. "My experience during 23 years on the bench in which time over four thousand boys under the age of twenty-one years, were members of a Sunday school, has satisfied me of the value of Sunday schools to the community. If all the children could be kept under the influence of the Sunday school and the grownups were active in some church we could close our prisons and jails." Bring the children to Sunday school.

Celebrate Fourth Annual Reunion.
The fourth annual reunion of the Lewis family was appropriately celebrated at the state park, Arbor Lodge in Nebraska City, on Sunday, August 16th and which was set for the third Sunday in August, the one the coming year to be at the same place Arbor Lodge as was appointed at the meeting of Sunday. The older members of the family were mostly born in and near Oregon, Mo. They enjoyed the reunion in a very fine way with visiting and relating reminiscences of the other times when all were young and resided in the old home community. They had prepared an abundance of good things to eat and were well supplied in that way. And sure they enjoyed the cats as well as the social friendship and visits that the occasion afforded. A few of the older members of the family were not able to be present. Among those were Solomon Lewis of Missouri, Mrs. M. M. Letris of Mulden, Missouri and Mrs. J. K. Buck of Kansas City, Missouri.

Among those who were able to visit and enjoy the occasion were Mr. and Mrs. F. L. Lewis and their family of Fairfield, Nebraska; J. D. Lewis of Plattsmouth, with his son, Lloyd Lewis and family, Earl Merritt and wife, Edward Lewis and family of Union; Wayne Lewis and family of Cook; L. L. Lewis and family, Jessie Lewis, Sr., and Mrs. Jesse Lewis and family, Mrs. Susan Lewis, Floyd Lewis and family, Willard Lewis and Fred Strimite and family, Guy McCoy and family, M. K. McCoy, all of Vallesca, Iowa; Mrs. Mayne Jones, Mrs. Ruth Lintell of Kansas City, Missouri, and Mrs. Mary Nickles of North Dakota.

Blind Corner Causes Wreck.
At a cross roads a few miles north of Nehawka on last Tuesday morning as J. M. Teagarden was approaching the corner near the home of A. D. Murdock and was having to climb a grade, and a high bank screened the road leading to the south, from which direction the car of Mrs. Glen Rutledge with three lady friends in her car was rushing to the relief of the ladies who were all able to get out of the car. The trip to Omaha was spoiled for the ladies and their car had to be hauled back home while Mr. Teagarden was able to drive his car home. Both cars were covered by insurance, but both had to be turned over to the tender mercies of the repair man. It was fortunate that no one was badly injured.

Attend Cass County Fair.
The Cass county fair is to be held at Weeping Water beginning on September 15th and continuing four days and where there are already a promise of a larger display than any other previous exhibition of this character ever held in the county. On last Friday there was a booster trip made over the county, starting from Weeping Water in the morning, and making every town in the county. There were some three hundred in the procession and all portions of the county were visited and a welcome given the booster trip in every hamlet and portion of the farming communities. The ones making the trip were well paid, for they saw some of the very best crops growing that ever grew out of doors and much of which will be an exhibition at the fair the coming month. An excellent dinner was served at Louisville and which was thoroughly enjoyed by the boosters.

Have Water Fight.
On last Monday evening a crew of water fighters of Weeping Water, which consisted of Leonard Doty, Charles Joyce and Cash Sylvester, and who were opposed by the team from Oteo where the contest was held and which team consisted of John Grauff, Bud Earham and Fox Dellon.
