Murray Wins from Fast Yutan Team Sunday

Win by the Score of 8 to 5 and Are Never in Danger After the Opening Innings

The Murray Red Sox Sunday added another to their formidable list of victories for the season and also put a dent in the record of the Yutan team, champions of Saunders county, winning the Sunday contest by the score of 8 to 5.

The Yutan team started out in a manner that looked gloomy for the Murray fans, getting a two run lead in their half of the first inning, Yocum drawing a pass, Heldt being out at first, Dau, then hit safe to advance Yocum and then Wannow doubled to score his team mates, but died on the base as the succeeding two players were retired.

The Murray team took their start in the third inning with a three run score, Keckler walking, Ash striking out, Newman being passed and then John Svoboda bunted safely along the first base line to score Keckler and on the hit of Stone, Newman and Svoboda tallied.

In the fourth two more runs were added by Murray, Schlieske being passed, and advanced when Hopkins hit safely and then Ash scored his two mates with a smashing double. In the visitors' half of the inning, Wannow was safe on an error of Newman and scored on the error in right garden on the hit of Powers.

The fifth saw the Sox pile up a greater lead when Pierce opened the inning with a circuit drive, followed by a hit by Stone and who was able to score as his teammates were retiring.

The Sox in the eighth inning scored again when Hopkins was given his base, advanced on the error of the third sacker and on the hit of Ash was able to tally.

Yutan in the eighth started a rally with a walk by Heldt, a double that Dau drove out to score Heldt and Dau later scored when Wannow rapped another two bagger.

The tabulated score of the game was as follows:

GLENWOOD TO HAVE GAS

Natural gas is to be afforded the residents of Glenwood, in the next few months as the work of piping the town is to be started this week. The United Gas Service Co. of Oklahoma, who also secured a franchise in this city a year ago, held the natural gas franchise at Glenwood and have disposed of this to the Missouri Valley Gas Co. who after a conference with the Glenwood business men and citizens, is to lay the mains and serve the community with the gas.

The United Gas Service Co., which held a franchise here were required in the franchise here to lay pipes and start operation within one year and which they have failed to do and the franchise is inoperative now. Here the company was forbidden to dispose of the franchise within a two year period.

Our neighboring city will be served from the same line as our service is supplied by the Iowa-Nebraska Light & Power Co., and they will find it a great advantage to the city in every way.

IMPROVES SHOP

Jesse P. Perry has had his barber shop in the Union block placed in the best of shape for the winter season and it is now one of the most attractive places in the city. The interior has been repapered and painted by Harry Kruger and his force of workmen and is spick and span in every way. Mr. Perry has also had installed a new gas and water heating system that will be a great convenience to the shop and to Mr. Perry in his work.

Turning to the Gentiles.

Acts 13:42-52; Romans 1:14-16.
This first missionary tour took Barnabas and Paul from Paphos to Perga in Pamphylia, here John Mark left them and returned to Jerusalem, but Paul and Barnabas came to Antioch in Pisidia, where they had a great meeting. The sermon that Paul delivered in the synagogue had a remarkable effect. The Gentiles who heard Paul, encouraged him to repeat the sermon the next Sabbath; the believing Jews were told to continue in the Grace of God.
So the first meeting ended. The seed was sowed, the harvest came quickly. On the following Sabbath, the congregation was even larger, than on the first. The whole city was stirred up, about this new doctrine, it was the talk of the day. Why can't we have such soul stirring sermons today? The Gospel is the same now as then.

Would it not be wonderful if we had the sermon that Paul preached on the next Sabbath? What irritated the Jews was not the substance of the Gospel message, but the fact that it was proclaimed to the heathen as well as to themselves. This showed the narrow-mindedness of the Jews, and they showed their jealousy. The manner of Paul's preaching must have convinced the Jews that salvation in Jesus Christ was not to be confined to Jews or one nation, but belonged to the whole world. All languages of Jewry were considered Barbarians. Paul regards himself a trustee of the great treasure entrusted to him, of the precious Gospel of Christ. He was ready to go anywhere or to stay anywhere to preach or witness for his divine Lord. He would never apologize for the Gospel, though he knew it was despised, and the cross was a term of reproach. It was Christ's Gospel; its fruit was eminently satisfactory; it vindicated itself through its power to transform character. Nothing of what has and may be offered to the world as a panacea for its ills, will ever take the place of the Gospel of Jesus Christ, for its the power of God, into salvation to everyone that believed. Jew and Greek alike.

His yearning for their salvation never ceased. But on the other hand it must have been a glad moment when he saw how glad the Gentiles were for the word of God.
The die was cast, "we turn to the Gentiles," is the last word. "As many as were ordained to eternal life believed." This expresses the Pauline and Apostolic doctrine of predestination according to which God desires salvation of all men. 1 Tim. 2:4. "Who will have all men to be saved, and come unto the knowledge of the truth," and 4:10 "For the creator we both labor and suffer reproach, because we trust in the living God, who is the Savior of all men, especially of those that believe," but inasmuch as forces that some (in their exercise of their free will) will actually repent and believe, while others will refuse to do so. He ordains the former to eternal life, and the latter to eternal death. See Rom. 8: 28-30. The word of God has always the same effect when preached in the demonstration of the Holy Ghost and Power. The opposition became so strong that the preacher had to leave the field; this was not a victory of the evil one, but had the result that the disciples filled with joy and the Holy Spirit, carried the work to Iconium. This was a city of considerable importance.
Paul's conception of the Gospel and his calling is, that both are universal. All languages outside of Jewry were considered Barbarians. Paul regards himself a trustee of the great treasure entrusted to him, of the precious Gospel of Christ. He was ready to go anywhere or to stay anywhere to preach or witness for his divine Lord. He would never apologize for the Gospel, though he knew it was despised, and the cross was a term of reproach. It was Christ's Gospel; its fruit was eminently satisfactory; it vindicated itself through its power to transform character. Nothing of what has and may be offered to the world as a panacea for its ills, will ever take the place of the Gospel of Jesus Christ, for its the power of God, into salvation to everyone that believed. Jew and Greek alike.
