

Nehawka

Mr. and Mrs. E. G. Hansen and their two grandsons, the sons of Mr. and Mrs. John Hanson, were enjoying the state fair on last Friday.

Mrs. E. C. Robbins and daughter, Miss Thelma, of Kansas City, were guests for over the week end at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Mason and their son, Thomas Jr.

George Paulus and Walter Wunderlich, were called to Plattsmouth on Thursday of last week to look after some business matters, they driving over in the car of the latter.

Edward Woods, the painter and decorator, was doing some interior work at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Glen Sturm, in the line of painting the walls and ceilings of a room at their home.

Miss Ollie Johnson, a niece of Mr. Charles D. Keltner, who makes her home in Omaha, was a visitor for over the week end with her uncle in this place. Mr. and Mrs. George Cousins, friends of Mr. Keltner, were also guests for the day at the Keltner home.

W. O. Troop and sons, Earl and Tommy, were over to Omaha on Monday of this week where they were looking after some business matters and Mrs. Earl Troop and the baby went as far as Plattsmouth where they visited at the home of Mrs. Lois Troop for the day.

Peter Opp who has been so sick for the past nearly a year, has been showing nice improvement of late and was able last Thursday to make a trip to the home of his daughter, Mrs. C. C. Chapman of Ashland, and following his arrival, a letter said that he had made the trip very nicely and feeling fairly well.

Earl Troop who has been employed in Colorado with a construction company with the completion of their work, had come to Nehawka, has accepted a position with the company constructing the viaduct over the Pappio creek and the two railroads near Fort Crook and will go to work with them immediately.

Many people of Nehawka where there are many expert horseshoe pitchers, are watching with an eye to the sport, the coming horseshoe tournament which is to be pulled off at Nebraska City on September 22nd and 23rd, and as they are hanging up some prizes the people of Nehawka are expecting to claim some of them.

V. E. Plunkett, who formerly was employed in this portion of the state as a farm laborer, but who went to the northern part near Emerson, where he has been working, accompanied by the wife, have been spending a short time visiting with relatives and friends in the neighborhood north of Nehawka. They will expect to return to Emerson in a short time.

W. O. Troop accompanied by Mr. and Mrs. George Troop departed on Tuesday morning for Manitou, Colorado, where the young people will remain and will try and win back the health of Mrs. George Troop, whom it is feared has contracted a touch of tuberculosis. Kenneth McCarthy and wife, the latter a sister of Mrs. Troop, on Monday evening gave a farewell reception to the departing couple when a large number of their friends were gathered to extend best wishes for their trip and their good health after arriving at their destination.

Seeing the West.

Gust Nelson, who is the owner of some land in the western portion of the state, departed on last Thursday for Arapahoe where he went to look after his interests and also following which he made a trip to Crawford, which is in the northwestern part of the state where he also is interested in some land.

Entertained Their Friends.

On last Sunday at their home in Nehawka, Mr. and Mrs. Albert Anderson entertained during the afternoon and evening and had as their guests for the occasion Mr. and Mrs. Daniel Kuehn and Mr. and Mrs. C. Steffens, the latter the parents of Mrs. Anderson, all of Leaton, and Frank Horsmen and family of Talmage and Mr. and Mrs. Dick Steffens and J. H. Steffens and family of Nehawka. All enjoyed a very fine visit and an excellent six o'clock dinner.

Attending Conference.

The Rev. George I. Morey, pastor of the church of Nehawka and also of the Methodist church of Weeping Water, departed on Tuesday of this week for Omaha where he will attend the conference of the church and assist in the looking after what business may come before the gathering. The churches of both Nehawka and Weeping Water are well pleased with the ministry of Rev. Morey and are hoping that he may return to the two charges.

Make Excellent Showing.

The Nehawka-Lewiston band, which were playing at the state fair and who were listed as the Modern Woodman band, were received with much acclaim at the parade and as a recognition of the stirring qualities of their music, each received, besides their tickets for admission, $2.50 which was greatly prized by the musicians.

Frost in the West.

Mr. and Mrs. Victor Minter, who some years since moved to near Broken Bow and where they have been farming since, are at this time visiting with friends and acquaintances in the neighborhood of Nehawka and in conversation with the people report that some two weeks since there was a killing frost in their part of the state.

Charming Wedding is Held at Nehawka 12th

Miss Eloise Pollard of Nehawka Wedded to Mr. Taft J. Pollard of Ashland

Before a large company of relatives and friends, at four o'clock on Saturday afternoon, Sept. 12th, at the Methodist Episcopal church of Nehawka, there occurred the marriage of Miss Eloise Pollard, only daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Julian J. Pollard of Nehawka, to Taft J. Pollard, son of Mr. and Mrs. T. O. Pollard of Ashland, Nebraska.
Mrs. Ernest Giles, at the piano, rendered a short prelude of appropriate music, which was followed by Carrie Jacob Bond's "I Love You Truly," sung by Miss Elizabeth Jane Sheldon, cousin of the bride. The bridal party then entered the church to the lovely strains of Lohengrin's Wedding March and proceeded to the altar, where in a beautiful setting of greenery, lighted tapers, and baskets of pink gladiolus, green hydrangeas and colorful asters, the ceremony took place. Robert McConaha, close friend of the bride and groom officiating.
The bride's gown was of turquoise blue embroidered net, complemented with shell pink girde and slippers. She carried an arm shower bouquet of pink roses, tied with pink tulle and ribbons.
The maid of honor, Miss Ruth Palmer, and the bride's maids, Misses Virginia Pollard, Beatrice Chapman, Verle Stone, Charlotte Hansen and Jane Sheldon, wore summer gowns of pastel shades and carried arm bouquets of pink roses tied with blue tulle.
Lyle Hobard of Hastings, Nebr., a college class mate of the groom, acted as best man. Ushers were Vilas Sheldon II, Randal Switzer, Carl Pierce, Quinton Palmer and Dr. D. E. Hansen.

After the ceremony, to the triumphal notes of Mendelssohn's Mid-Summer Night's Dream, the bridal party left the church, going immediately to the home of the bride's parents where a reception was held for all guests.

The tea table was lovely with center bouquet of pink roses and blue delphiniums, and white tapers tied with blue tulle. Misses Marion Tucker, Vilas Sheldon and Raymond Pollard presided at the tea table, being later relieved by Mrs. Mollie Pollard, Miss Evelyn Wolf and Mrs. D. C. West, all of these ladies but Mrs. West being cousins of the bride.
The Misses Leona Pollard, De Lene Carper, Harriet Stone and Katherine Stone, acted as waiters. Assisting through the room were Mrs. George Sheldon, Cousin of the bride, and Mrs. Leo Sheldon, both of Ashland, John Steffen and Frank Lemons.
Mrs. Vilas Sheldon had charge of the house decorations which consisted of vases and baskets of autumn flowers in the rooms and on the grounds. Mrs. Walter Wunderlich and Mrs. George Pollard were responsible for the setting at the church.

After the reception the bride and groom left for a short motor trip. The going away gown was a jacket ensemble of brown ermine manteau, with brown Princess Eugenie hat and other accessories to match.

Mrs. Pollard is a Nehawka girl, having been born and reared in that place. She attended the Nehawka grade schools, and received her high school education in Long Beach, California, where she graduated in 1928. She then entered the University of Nebraska, at Lincoln, where she was of Chi Omega sorority. The past year she has been employed by the Sheldon Mercantile Co.

Mr. Pollard graduated from high school in Ashland, Nebr. He attended the University of Nebraska for one year and then entered Aviation School in San Diego, California, where for special merit he was awarded the coveted gold "wings" and a life membership in the National Aeronautical Society. Deciding to center upon the engineering branch of aviation, he entered Tri State, at Angola, Indiana, specializing in aeronautical engineering and is at present a senior in that department.

JUBILEE DAYS

Nebraska City, Neb.—September 15.—(Special to The Journal)—The program for two big jubilee days in Nebraska City, marking the opening of three new paved highways, has been completed by the Chamber of Commerce. Dates are Sept. 22-23.

The Highway Opening ceremony will be held the second day at Hayward Park, after a monster decorated float parade. M. M. Vaughn, mayor of Nebraska City; Dr. R. C. Danley, Hamburg, Iowa; Roy Cochran, state highway engineer; L. M. Martin, Iowa highway engineer and Gov. Charles W. Bryan of Nebraska are included on the program.

Twenty free acts, appearing twice a day, have been arranged for the celebration. They include acrobats, clowns, trained ponies, monkeys, goats, impersonators, etc.

Two championship drum corps of the American Legion, from Tecumseh and Auburn, will appear in the program. Ten bands will compete for $150 in prizes in the greatest band concert ever staged in this part of Nebraska. Horseshoe pitchers will throw the shoes for $50 in prizes and various communities in Iowa and Nebraska will compete for $300 with decorated floats in the monster parade.

There are no entry fees in any of the events and outsiders have been invited to compete.

High interest is being shown in the baseball tournament in which Burr will play Talmage and the Nebraska City Eagles will play the Plattsmouth high school, except Coach Fred Rother, who was unable to be in attendance.
The members of the faculty present were Principal Robert Foster Patterson, Gerald Kvasnicka, Russell Reeder, L. L. Sterrett, Harold Jordan, while Superintendent E. E. Bailey, president of the Rotary presided.

Each of the members of the faculty were introduced and received a hearty greeting from the friends as Nebraska City feels that surrounding communities should rejoice over the opening of U. S. 75 south and north from here and No. 2 east in Iowa and has issued invitations to every community and individual within driving distance to take part in this monster celebration.

SCHOOL FOLKS AT MEETING

The weekly luncheon of the Plattsmouth Rotary club Tuesday was featured by the presence of the male members of the faculty of the Plattsmouth high school, except Coach Fred Rother, who was unable to be in attendance.

Each of the members of the faculty were introduced and received a hearty greeting from the friends as a number of the members have been here for several years and all for the past year. The members of the party responded with a few words of appreciation with the exception of Mr. Sterrett who said his greeting in song, Glenn Woodbury serving as the accompanist. Mr. Woodbury also was heard in a piano number.

With the opening of the school year the Rotary is following the custom of having as honorary members, two of the high school, one senior and one junior, and for the month of September the members are William Hinrichsen, senior, and Donald Bushnell, junior.
