Mrs. Charles Edwards who has been so ill at her home with Neuritis is still suffering greatly and although slightly better is still kept to her bed by the malady.

Mr. and Mrs. Frank Edwards and Mr. and Mrs. John Fischer and the boys Sunday school class enjoyed a picnic at Nemaha after the church services last Sunday.

The Sunday school rally program and social will be held on Friday evening at the basement of the M. E. church. All are requested to bring sandwiches for your family.

The Ladies Aid met on Wednesday afternoon at the church basement with the following hostesses, Mesdames Godbey, Frisbee, Mullen, Skinner, Stewart and Nita Mullen. The Pythian Sisters were enjoying their regular meeting on Thursday of last week, and after the regular business was transacted of course they had a social time and refreshments served.

George Braun and the wife of South Bend were over from their home and were visiting with the parents of Mrs. Braun, Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Yeager, and also meeting their many other friends here.

L. D. Mullen and John B. Skinner were out in the county on last Wednesday getting the cribs on the property of Mr. Mullen in condition for the reception of the corn crop which is very anxious to be gathered, and stored.

Charles Godbey was out to the farm last week and with the assistance of Carl Christensen was piping some water from the tank to convenient places on the farm making it as handy as possible to look after the farm work, believing that this is best for the worker on the farm needs all the conveniences which he can have.

W. H. Warner, who believes in always having his machinery in the best condition so that there is no hitch when it needs to be used, was last week working on his threshers which he has stored in the sheds on the W. C. Timblin place and has them stored in the dry and ready to go at any time. Billie was out seeing on last Wednesday that everything was in shipshape for use.

Sheriff Bert Reed was a visitor in Alvo last week, passing through and stopped to converse with his many friends here on his way, gave a very fine compliment to the hustling little city when he said that of all the places in the county was as peaceable as this town he would be out of a job. But this is different for there are many places in the county which is giving the officers much trouble.

Mrs. E. A. Bellinger of Morrill, a cousin of Mrs. C. H. Kirkpatrick, arrived in Alvo last Saturday for a visit at the Kirkpatrick home for a short time. While Mrs. Bellinger was well acquainted here forty odd years ago she has not been here for many years, not since the town of Alvo was established. She has been visiting with her sister, Mrs. Fred Gardner of Plattsmouth for three weeks.

Find Corn Damp.
Some of the farmers were picking corn last week but after having gotten some in the cribs thought best to wait awhile for there will be much good weather and no use hurrying the crops, for it is better to let it dry some yet.

Met With Mrs. Kitzel.
The Woman's club of Alvo met last week at the home of their member, Mrs. Wm. Kitzel, where they enjoyed a very fine program as well as a sociable afternoon and were entertained by this estimable hostess for the club with a delightful luncheon.

Visiting and Hunting.
On last Wednesday morning Philip Nickel and Walter Nickel departed by their car for Valley county where they have been visiting since with relatives and friends as well as looking over the country. They are remaining until the hunting season opens for pheasants where they will endeavor to get their's.

Has Fine Barber Shop.
Alvo is to have one of the very finest barber shops in the western country and preside over by one of the finest of young men and an excellent barber, Carl Rosenow, who last week moved into the new shop which has been under construction for some time by A. B. Stromer, the owner of the property. The room has been entirely refitted and constructed with excellent lighting and with water pressure and hot and cold water. This is a barber shop which can be favorably compared with any in the west, whether in large or small towns and there you will find gentlemanly treatment and the very best of work.

Game Last Week.
In the ball game of last week which was played in Alvo between the home team and the team from Louisville the result was that the local boys were the winners by the score of 12 to 6.

Will Be Rare Treat.
The DeMolay band of Lincoln have arranged to come to Alvo by invitation of Simon Rehmer and give an open air concert on October 14th or 15th of this week which will be free. Be sure and be in town to enjoy this concert which is a most worthwhile one. Remember the date and the occasion.

United States Moves to Prevent China-Japan War

Japanese Rush Warships to Shanghai, Warn Chinese; League of Nations to Meet.

A new tide of war feeling was sweeping Japan and China today. President Hoover called a cabinet meeting to discuss means of mobilizing world opinion against war.

The League of Nations council has been called into session next Tuesday at the request of China.

Japan, after warning China to check hostile demonstrations, charged the Chinese with violating international pledges.

Aldrich, secretary, president of the league council, addressed a fresh appeal to China and Japan to take no action which might tend to aggravate the situation.

Washington, Oct. 9.—The American government is preparing to make a definite move in the Manchurian situation, and indications are it will seek to mobilize world opinion against further Chinese-Japanese hostilities.

President Hoover had the subject up with his cabinet during a long session Tuesday.

Immediately afterward, Secretary Stimson turned his entire attention to the problem. Expectation of early action was apparent at the state department.

A president in mobilization of world opinion against hostilities was set some time ago when Mr. Stimson asked the signatories of the Kellogg-Briand pact for renunciation of war to express themselves against a threatening conflict between the soviet and China.

While there was no definite information on the proposed move, it was explained that the administration would most likely prefer not to make an active move against Japan to bring a halt to the hostilities. Such a move as that, it was said, would involve a sharp note to the Japanese.

It was felt that a mobilization of world opinion against continuance of the hostilities would serve a good purpose.

HAND OF MORGAN IS SEEN

New York—Interest in the part J. P. Morgan is playing in current international financial developments was heightened Thursday night by the news printed in a Paris newspaper that he conferred during the day with Governor Moret of the Bank of France. During the recent developments here and abroad, Mr. Morgan has been in Europe, puffing at his pipe, smiling in his usually kindly way at questioners, and maintaining, with one exception, his customary spry-like attitude.

For several weeks prior to Great Britain's suspension of the gold standard the banker was in his London office. The day after the announcement he broke for the second time in his life his rule never to grant newspaper interviews. He said Great Britain's action was "a hopeful and not a discouraging event."

When Lord Reading, British foreign minister, went from London to Paris to discuss international financial matters with Premier Laval, who will sail soon to confer with President Hoover, Mr. Morgan was on the same train.

DECLINES "GOOD BEATING"

Omaha—Eldredge Stratton, Omaha, Thursday was invited into the private office of District Judge H. Rhoades "to take a good beating." Stratton declined the judge's pressing invitation.

Stratton was arrested Wednesday after his estranged wife had reported that their small son had been kidnapped. The boy was found with Stratton a few hours later. Testimony revealed that Stratton had consistently annoyed his wife with false telephone calls that sent police racing to her apartment, attempts to force her employer to discharge her, and threats of violence to her.

The testimony filed Judge Rhoades that, chin quivering and voice trembling, he poured forth a condemnation that caused Stratton to pale and spectators to stiffen and stare. The judge wound up by inviting Stratton to come into his private office and try to keep from getting a good beating. A half hour later Judge Rhoades sentenced Stratton to three months in jail.

Various Types of Cattle to be Show Feature

Ak-Sar-Ben Stock Show at Omaha Will Be Great Chance to See Various Types of Cattle.

"Why is it that some cattle have horns and some do not?" This is a question asked by a school girl who wrote Secretary Gardner of the Ak-Sar-Ben Stock Show for information to use in an essay.

Adjusting his horn-rimmed spectacles and looking wiser than Solomon, Mr. Gardner called over the entry price and a school girl as his stenographer and dictated enough information to fill an encyclopedia.

"Among other things Mr. Gardner said: "Nature originally provided all bovine quadrupeds with horns as a means of defense against their numerous four-footed and other enemies. The development of hornless cattle is the work of man."

"Every man of middle-age, or more, who spent his boyhood or young boyhood in the middle west can well remember the great herds of Texas long-horn steers that were trailed up from the winter ranges in the Lone Star state each spring to the buffalo-grass ranges of Nebraska, Colorado and Wyoming, where they fattened for the eastern markets."

"The horns were open and coyote and wolf numerous, those long horns were needed. But in the late 80's, when the range country began to be settled and herds of cattle were necessarily under closer control, the once-necessary horns were decided nuisances. They always were a source of trouble and expense when stock was shipped to market. Cattle with horns were not so difficult to handle in the wide open spaces, but in close quarters quarters they presented a serious problem."

"So the horns had to go and man, by calling scientific breeding to his aid, has developed the various types of short-horn and of hornless or polled breeds. All of them will be on display at the Ak-Sar-Ben Stock Show from October 31 to November 6 at Omaha."

PREPARE FOR LAVAL VISIT

Washington—Problems of great international moment will be discussed by President Hoover and Premier Laval of France on the afternoon and evening of Friday, Oct. 23. In arranging the program of the visiting statesman the state department assigned that portion of his stay to intimate conversations with the chief executive.

The French premier will become a white house guest at 3 p. m. on that day, and the only scheduled interruption of the conference is an informal dinner with Mr. and Mrs. Hoover. After spending the night at the white house the premier will become the house guest of Secretary and Mrs. Stimson at their estate. On both Saturday and Sunday opportunity will be afforded for informal conversation with the state department chief.

The premier, accompanied by six experts of the foreign office and other ministries, will be met at quarantine in New York harbor on Thursday, Oct. 22, by the mayor's reception committee. At the battery, Secretary Stimson and the French ambassador will meet M. Laval after which the party will be escorted in automobiles to the city hall for an official reception by Mayor Walker.

PROWLERS ARE REPORTED

The night police have been kept busy in the past few nights in answering calls from various parts of the city where householders have reported prowlers around their places of residence. The prowlers are thought to be local characters as was the person who attempted to hold up Miss Alice Smith near her home on North Eighth street last week. While no depredations have been reported, it will be well for the dwellers of the residential section to maintain a careful check on persons that may be seen or heard around their homes at night. The officers are taking care to keep the streets as well as possible and hope to be able in time to effect the capture of the person or persons who may be doing the prowling.

Strong Support of Credit Plan is Given Hoover

Banks With Deposits in the Billions Are Expected to Stand Behind Corporation.

New York—Virtually unanimous support from banks thruout the country with total deposits of more than $42,000,000,000 was regarded as assured Friday night by the committee of New York bankers which has completed the plan for creation of the credit corporation to bolster the banking structure. The committee, which is headed by Mortimer N. Buckner, president of New York Clearing House association, held almost continuous sessions thru the day and received numerous favorable telegraphic responses to the plan, which was wired to nearly 400 clearing house groups Thursday.

Incorporation papers were ready to be filed in Delaware for the new institution which proposes to raise $500,000,000 thru the sale of debentures, and is authorized under the plan to increase the amount to $1,000,000,000.

The names of the twelve directors, to be chosen on the basis of one from each federal reserve district, and Mr. Buckner's name was widely mentioned as a probability.

The directors will have over to revise the plan of operation to some extent as occasion arises. It was explained that it would be empowered to deal with local situations. It was explained that procedures would have to be varied in different states to comply with state laws.

The corporation will have authority to make loans in maturities up to one year, based on suitable collateral. The rates of interest on such loans will be determined by the directors of the corporation. It was hoped the rates of interest will not be higher than the rediscount rates of the federal reserve banks of the various districts.—State Journal.

LABOR ASKING BEER, NOT END OF DRY LAW

Will Support Eighteenth Amendment at Vancouver Meeting—Support Textile Strikers

Vancouver, B. C., Oct. 9.—Organized labor's demand for 2.75 per cent beer crystallized today at the American Federation of Labor convention and committeemen indicated resolutions for outright repeal of the Eighteenth amendment probably would be sidetracked.

Matthew Well, chairman of a labor committee working for congressional sentiment to change the Volstead act, explained that 2.75 per cent beer would be of the same strength as the Canadian draft brew sold here, and not the "dishwater" some delegates had thought.

"By 2.75 per cent beer I mean about 3.10 per cent by volume," he said. "Just like the ordinary Canadian beverage, I am not referring to bottled beer or the stronger ales."

Talk Behind Closed Doors.

President William Green, who also favors legalization of 2.75 per cent beer; W. J. McDonough, head of the Building Trades union, and other leaders indicated most discussion of resolutions dealing with alcohol would take place behind closed doors of the resolutions committee. However, leaders of the "wet wing" girded for a possible battle on the convention floor shortly.

The committee is expected by both wet and dry leaders to report favorably on that section of the executive council's report favoring 2.75 per cent beer. The committee also is expected to report non-concurrence on resolutions advocating repeal of the Eighteenth amendment and repeal of Volstead act.

McDonough said discussion of the building trade council resolution to compel carpenters, electricians and bricklayers to get into the department or stay out of the federations would be taken up next Tuesday.

Applaud Textile Strikers.

The convention applauded today the "courage and perseverance" of 25 thousand striking textile workers in Lawrence, Mass., and approved continuation of the drive for a five-day week in private industry and government service.

Green reported an organizer had been dispatched from New York to assist the Lawrence strikers, who he said "are standing steadfastly for decent wages and the American standard of living." The convention voted to telegraph a message of support to the strikers.—World-Herald.

PAY TRIBUTE AT MORROW BIER

Englewood, N. J., Oct. 7.—Dignitaries of the nation came to Englewood, a hushed and grief-bowed community Wednesday to pay a nation's tribute to the bier of Dwight W. Morrow.

The funeral setting was as simple and quiet as the United States senator who in four years had risen to heights of statesmanship would have wished it.

The service at the First Presbyterian church at 3 o'clock was for the public, especially Englewood neighbors among whom Morrow was a friend and champion for 26 years.

Services of burial were made known. The family requested there be no intrusion during the interment at Brookside cemetery.

Heading the national, foreign and diplomatic dignitaries were Calvin Coolidge and Vice-President Charles Curtis, the latter representing President Hoover. Secretary of State Stimson represented the diplomatic corps, in which Mr. Morrow served brilliantly as ambassador to Mexico.

Twenty-five United States senators arrived at Newark to attend the services. They were Senators Keam, Moses, Watson, Robinson, Borah, Fletcher, Ashurst, Pittman, Sheppard, Walsh of Montana, Harris, Glass, Reed, Copeland, Fess, Frazier, Bingham, Schall, Walsh of Massachusetts, Tydings, Wagner, Hastings, Goldwater, and Walcott.

Representative Wilson of Connecticut headed the delegation from the house.

Mr. and Mrs. Lindbergh, in the orient, sent word early Wednesday they were cancelling their vacation plans and would sail at once for home.

TALK ABOUT FEEDER LOANS

Omaha—Led by United States Senator E. D. Carey of Wyoming, representatives of member banks of the federal reserve branch at Kansas City, met here Friday to discuss conditions affecting the livestock industry and to provide means for financing feeder loans.

After the conference, L. H. Earhart, managing director of the Omaha branch, said that the member banks had reiterated confidence in the industry and had indicated a willingness to place funds for feeding purposes at the disposal of experienced feeders and stockmen worthy of credit and to render every reasonable assistance to correspondent banks.

Securities are Higher; Grains Also Advance

Bonds, Especially Rail Issues, Also Draw Eager Buying—Corn, Wheat, Cotton Higher

New York, Oct. 8.—Swift progress in the national program to mobilize credit for a revitalization of business was accompanied by eager buying of securities in Wall street today.

The uprush in stocks was almost as swift as that of Tuesday, prominent issues closing with average advances of $5 or more. Bonds also attracted enthusiastic buying, particularly the railroad issues.

The cheer quickly spread to the commodity markets, and wheat and corn futures were quoted 2 cents higher in the Chicago pit. Despite a large increase in the government's monthly crop estimate, cotton finished the day with net gains of 40 to 50 cents a bale.

Among the day's constructive developments were:

1. Completion of the 500 million dollar bank credit corporation.
2. Increase in the New York Federal Reserve bank's rediscount rate from 1/2 to 2/8 per cent, in an effort to make bank lending more profitable, and give banks a new stimulus to aid trade.
3. Drop of 171 million dollars in brokers' loans for the stock trading week ended Tuesday, reducing the total to $1,001,000,000, the lowest in years, and indicating that an enormous volume of necessities selling which had been hanging over the market had been absorbed.
4. Announcement by the chairman of the New York state joint legislative committee on banking that they would seek legislation to liberalize regulations regarding bonds which may be held by trustees and savings banks, which may lift a huge burden from the market for railway bonds.
5. Announcement by the Automobile Chamber of Commerce that leaders in the industry expected the national mobilization program launched by the federal administration to result in improved business in 1932, and lead the way to restoration of prosperity.—World-Herald.

SCIENCE FIGHTS INSANITY

Ann Arbor, Mich.—Insanity may now be yielding to the assaults of science, attacked by physical chemists, Dr. Wilder D. Bancroft of Cornell university, chemist of note, has presented evidence to show that some forms of insanity may be caused by either one or two chemical conditions affecting the brain and nerves and that these forms of insanity likewise have responded to neutralizing chemical treatment. Dr. Bancroft told of his researches at the eight annual meeting of the American Chemical Society, which ended Saturday night at University of Michigan. He outlined evidence which indicated insanity could be produced in normal persons by administration of chemical compounds, and that some insane persons could be relieved and made at least temporarily sane by administering the same compounds.

STRIKE COMES TO AN END

Wilkesberra, Pa.—A miner's grievance committee called off a strike of 29,000 employes of the Glen Alden Coal company, and twenty-two mines, idle since mid September, will resume operations Monday. The strike followed alleged discrimination against members of the United Mine Workers of America.

An agreement, negotiated by John L. Lewis, international president of the union, calls for non-discrimination; reopening of all affected mines; and creation of a $25,000 relief fund for miners and their families.

SCENE OF HUNT SHIFTS

Denver—The search for Pete Peterson and W. J. Beamer, who escaped from the Denver county jail here Tuesday, turned to central Kansas Thursday after two men robbed a bank at Gorham. Acting Chief of Police Williams of Denver said police information here was that one of the men resembled Peterson in a general way. The police chief pointed out that the robbers had escaped from Gorham in a machine with a Colorado license plate and similar in appearance to a machine which the jail breakers stole here and used in this escape.

Russell, Kas.—Three men strode into the Bank of Gorham, at Gorham, ten miles west of here Thursday with drawn guns, forced employes to lie on the floor and escaped with $1,500 in cash and securities.
