COMPULSION IS FAVORED
Washington—Legislation to make unemployment insurance compulsory was advocated before a senate committee by a merchant, a welfare worker, and an economist, all prominent in their own fields. Edward A. Filene, Boston merchant; Jacob B. Koppf, of Philadelphia, executive director of the Federation of Jewish Charities, and summer Slichter, Harvard professor of business economics, agreed before the senate unemployment insurance committee that legislation was desirable.

Republican and democratic members of the committee exchanged sharp words during the hearing, indicating that feeling engendered by organization of the group has not subsided. Makers of Danish Pioneer Butter

It is a well known fact that no one industry within the limits of this section has made more rapid progress as an important industrial factor during the past decade than the THOMSEN-SLATER BUTTER CO., of Omaha, which is one of southeastern Nebraska's most valued industries.

Ever since this concern first started in business, their plant has been continually improved due to the rapid increase of the business, until today from every standpoint it is the equal of any similar industry in the country. Their butter is sold over many retail counters throughout the country, thus doing more to advertise the dairying advantages of this section than any other enterprise.

Their well known butter is conceded to be the perfection of American creamery manufacture and art. They supply the dealers all over this section and have a very extensive patronage among those who prefer the best butter.

To give our readers an adequate idea of the large operations of this concern we will state that they transact business with thousands of farmers who supply them with cream and they pay out hundreds of thousands of dollars each year for their supply.

The production of cream is a proposition that ought to appeal to every farmer even of a small farm, as a well known fact that this mode of farming builds up land, at the time making the producer more money than he can make by straw farming, and then he gets paid along in cash.

This up-to-date establishment Omaha is adding much to this section as distributors for Danish Pioneer Butter.

We should all join in complimenting the management of the THOMSEN-SLATER BUTTER CO., of Omaha, upon the valuable service they are rendering the public and particularly the farmer who has cream sell.

TARGET PRACTICE URGED
Toronto—Communists were advised in a document introduced at the conspiracy trial of nine radicals to spend their evenings hurling stones at a target twenty-five paces away. Just before the prosecutor rested his case, he introduced a set of instructions confiscated by Sgt. John Leopold of the Canadian mounted police during the seven years he acted, in disguise, as a communist officer. One section reviewed a clash between the radicals and police, and said: "They (the communists) don't even know that the tactics of street fighting. They don't even know how to box. One policeman broke up dozens of sections of proletarian self defense because our comrades waved their arms about aimlessly. It is not enough to pick up a stone and throw it. But it is important that that stone should hit its target and not merely hit its target but that some

INQUEST REVEALS NO IDENTIFICATION OF "TORCH VICTIM"

Brainard, Neb., Nov. 5.—An inquest here today failed to shed any light on the identity of the man whose body was found in the smouldering ruins of a country school house near here early yesterday.

His slayers are not known, and only the slimmest clues guide the quest of Sheriff Roberts and County Attorney Hranac.

An automobile bearing a license issued in Cloud county, Kansas, was seen near the school house before it was burned yesterday, and in the auto were three men. Two are vaguely described as young, and the third is believed to have had a mustache.

Highway 15, leading north from Concordia in Cloud county, Kansas, intersects Nebraska highway 16, between Brainard and David City, Neb.

From available information investigators deduce that the crime was a sordid murder of a hitch-hiker for the few dollars of change in his pockets, with the burning of the school as an attempt to conceal the crime.

Not long afterward a car raced into David City. It ran into a blind road, turned about hastily, and sped out of town. After that no trace of the car has been found.

At Lincoln tonight the sheriff's office had a report that the body might be that of H. F. Ireton, who left there two months ago to find work in the west.

Ireton was said to have carried a suitcase such as found near the body.

Sheriff Roberts said Otto Holesovsky, undertaker, told them the mortuary garage where the body had been kept, was entered last night.

When he closed the place for the night, Holesovsky said, the body was covered completely with a sheet. This morning the sheet was partly removed.

HEBRON TURNS IN 7-0 VICTORY OVER FAIRMONT
Hebron—Hebron high defeated Fairmont here 7 to 0. Hebron scored early after a series of line plunges and a pass to Clay, end. It was an important win for Coach Pallett's gridders as Fairmont is one of the leaders in the South central Nebraska conference. Hebron is the only team to hold Fairmont scoreless this season.

Torch Victim Was Shot Before Body Burned in School

Brainard, Neb., Nov. 5.—Complete mystery continued early today to veil the identity of the man who was first shot to death and then burned in the little schoolhouse of District No. 8, two miles north of here, Tuesday night.

Although virtually no clues whatever have been uncovered either as to the identity of the victim of that of his murderers, an inquest will be held at 2 o'clock here today, County Attorney Hranac said.

A doctor answering an early-morning call, and two other men have reported seeing a car driving slowly toward the schoolhouse shortly before the fire, which destroyed the building, was discovered. But nothing definite has been discovered to link this car with the crime.

Tell of Strange Car.
Richard Cabela and Emil Horacek, both of Brainard, told Hranac that while they were driving from David City to Brainard about 2:30 o'clock Wednesday morning they passed a 1930 gray-green Ford coupe with a Kansas license beginning with the number 36, about three miles west of the schoolhouse. They noticed peculiarly slow the car was moving, they said. They could not be sure how many men were in it, but thought there were two or three.

Dr. O. C. Kreyborg of Brainard, who also saw a car driving very slowly toward the school a short time later while he was responding to a call a mile east of there, and who performed an autopsy on the body of the victim late Wednesday afternoon, said the man had been shot, apparently with a large caliber bullet, straight through the heart.

Man Had No Teeth.
His description of the body follows:
A man probably more than 45 years old, five feet, four to six inches tall, weighing 135 to 150 pounds; slender-bodied but muscular, with broad shoulders; thin-faced and small-boned; with dark brown hair streaked with gray; neck size 15, chest size 36, hat size about 7 1/4 or 7 1/2. The face is unrecognizable, the eyes burned out; the legs burned off above the knees and the hands burned at the wrists. The remains of the body show no scars.

The man appears to have been wearing blue serge trousers, a gray shirt and lumberjack with brown and green plaid lining.

The man had no teeth and no false teeth were found in or about the ruins of the school. Dr. Kreyborg said it was evident that the man's own teeth had been pulled 15 or 20 years ago and that he had been wearing false teeth.

Skull Fractured.
The man's skull had been fractured in two places, when the brick chimney of the schoolhouse toppled down upon him during the fire.

A fiber suitcase, nearly destroyed by the flame, was found near the body. Scorched clothing within it included three shirts of white cloth, two knitted neckties, and there was an oval drinking cup; a tin of pipe tobacco and several pipe cleaners. A razor strap and a straight-edge razor were in the valise.

Identifying marks had been burned from the shirts and neckties.

Apparently a blanket had been wrapped about the man's head.

CHILD RESCUED FROM DROWNING IN A TANK

Within thirty minutes' life was restored. Parents of the child could not say how long it had been in the water.

July Wheat Bid Up to a 70-Cent Close

Chicago, Ill., Nov. 4.—A belated rush in the Chicago grain pits sent prices skyrocketing today, adding in a few minutes as much as 3 cents to the recent gains in the price of wheat.

The clamor of this spectacular bull charge was echoed in Wall street and on other grain marts throughout the world. For the first time since last May a wheat future sold in the Chicago pit for 70 cents. July closed at 70 to 70 1/4, the highest figures of the day.

The reaction of yesterday continued to ease the market today and at one time all wheat contracts were a cent and more below yesterday's final quotations. Then with only about 15 minutes to go, a flood of buying orders poured in and trading became fast and furious.

As the final bell rang December wheat was selling at 64 1/4 to 64 3/4 cents, March at 63 1/4 to 63 3/4 cents, and May at 62 1/4 to 62 3/4 cents. The net gain for the day was from 2 1/4 to 3 cents. Corn had given an even better account of itself. Its gains were from 2 1/4 to 3 1/4 cents; December closing at 44 1/4 to 44 3/4 cents and May at 49 to 49 1/4 cents.

Wheat was 20 cents and more higher than October 5, corn as much as 14 1/2 cents and oats around 6 cents. It was estimated that the value of the farmers' holdings had been increased in the last month by almost 375 million dollars.

There was no outstanding news to account for the late rally. Reports that Europe would be a heavy importer continued and there was also talk of drought in the southwest, but the market acted out of all proportion to this news. It appeared to be a speculator's market, bid up by those who wanted in at almost any price.—World-Herald.

CITY MANAGER RULE ENDS

Cleveland—The city manager form of government, which unexpectedly came into effect in Cleveland in 1921 while party politicians were busily engaged in private wars, has been overturned in the tenth year of its rule when city managers fell out among themselves. Cleveland, the largest city in the United States to try the plan, will have a mayor next Monday instead of a city manager as a result of the election. Adopted with high hopes of substituting business management for partisanship and spoils in city government, the system withstood seven attacks in ten years, but fell under the eighth assault when it was claimed the plan had been circumvented by politicians and had lent itself to a disguised form of partisan administration.
