GREENWOOD

Mr. and Mrs. Ray Lamb of Papillion spent Sunday visiting the Howard families.

L. R. Zink of Sterling was calling on his old friends, Mr. White and Mr. Bucknell.

Mr. and Mrs. E. S. McNurlin of Omaha visited for a short time on Sunday with Mr. and Mrs. Ben Howard.

Mrs. Katie Woodruff, Mrs. Dora Leasley, Mrs. Ralph Lapham and Mrs. Harry Leasley were shopping in Lincoln on last Thursday.

Mr. and Mrs. F. G. Gustafson of Lincoln and Mr. and Mrs. John Gustafson were guests of Mr. and Mrs. Gus Sorman on last Sunday.

Mrs. Ella Marshall and Miss Catherine Coleman were guests for the day on last Sunday at the home of Mr. and Mrs. W. P. Bailey of Ashland.

Helen Marvin is at home this week. Her ankle which was so badly sprained is improving some at this time although she is still having to use crutches.

Fred Ethrege and Walter E. Pailing were called over to Plattsmouth on last Saturday where they had some business to look after at the county seat.

Miss Hazel Tubbs, a cousin of E. L. McDonald and a very close friend of the late Clarke Clymer, was down from her home in Omaha to attend his funeral.

Sunday visitors at the Johnson home were: Mr. S. H. Loder, Mr. and Mrs. Ira Loder from Lincoln and Mr. and Mrs. H. Maunbeck and daughter, Vanice, from Ashland.

Wayne Landon and wife were looking after some shopping and also visiting with friends in Lincoln on last Tuesday, they drive over to the big town in their car.

Word has been received that M. E. Petersen has accepted a position with O. F. Anderson, who was also formerly located in Greenwood and who is now in the automobile game at Wahoo.

The Delzeno family, who have been living in the John Armstrong property, moved out of town on Monday.

Mr. and Mrs. E. L. James and family of Omaha spent Sunday at the O. F. Petersen home.

Ray Borden has been very poorly for some two weeks resultant from a very severe attack of the flu. He is receiving the best care and treatment and it is hoped he will soon be in his usual health again.

Phil Hall was at Fremont last Friday night at a banquet of ex-service men where Col. Hall made a talk in regard to the relief of the drought stricken areas of northern Nebraska where the Veterans organization are helping in the relief situation.

O. C. Swanson, living southeast of town, was in for some materials and paint for the remodeling of his chicken house, he making some improvements so that he can give the houses better ventilation and also keep them warm to foster the production of eggs.

Edward Montgomery and Frank Wilton are assisting in the building of a house at the home of W. E. Palmeter, between Greenwood and South Bend, replacing the one which was burned some two months ago.

Mr. Palmeter is working to get the house so that he can live in it this winter.

On last Sunday the members and friends of the M. E. church enjoyed another all day meeting. After the morning church services a basket dinner was served in the church dining room. There was a good sized crowd present. At 2 o'clock in the afternoon the Nye family entertained with a musical program.

The King's Daughters class met with Mrs. E. L. McDonald on last Friday afternoon. The usual business meeting was held, after which the remainder of the time was spent with fancy work. A lovely lunch was served by the hostess. It being Mrs. Mable Newkirk's birthday, they had a birthday cake for her. The next meeting will be with Mrs. Minnie Rouse, Dec. 4 at her home.

More Frost Than Ducks.

Early last Wednesday morning, Col. Phil Hall, George Trunkenbuck and Earl Stradley of Greenwood and Captain Andrews and Captain Renking, both of the 17th Infantry at Fort Crook, arranged to go before the coming of day so as to be there at the proper time to the Platt river where they had erected blinds and to hunt the festive duck. But few of the party were able to get a shot at the birds but all sure did get their amount of frost for it sure was chilly before the sun came up.

Some Chicken Thieves.

Some one who wanted chicken worse than they did the selection of the proper way to obtain them, went to the home of Charles Martin south of town where they thought there was no one at home and with sacks endeavored to secure some of the flock of Mrs. Martin. Mrs. Martin, however, was there and made her appearance and chased the thieves away and it was good that she did not have the trusty shot gun loaded or the marauders would have cause to have found a doctor in a short time.

Has Car Damaged.

While Gust Brackeage was driving along the highway following a truck, and with another truck ahead of the one which he was following, the first truck stopped which caused the other one also to stop, thus allowing Mr. Brackeage to strike the one in front of him, damaging slightly the car which he was driving. R. E. Mathews, however, is making the damages as good as new.

Home from the West.

Grant Peters who has been in the western portion of the state during the fall, returned home last week and reports that the potato picking season has closed. There was not as heavy a crop of potatoes as usual, still the prices have ruled low. Many of the potatoes were frozen in the ground. The first cool spell with frosts was heaped with pleasure, as it cleared the fields of green vines, but when the weather came with temperatures of only ten above zero, the potatoes were frozen in the ground and that put an end to the work, therefore Grant returned home.

Making Fair Progress.

Mrs. W. E. Newkirk who is still at the Bryan Memorial hospital at Plattsmouth where she is being treated for the injury which she sustained when she fell at the home of her daughter in Murdock some time since, is reported as making fair progress. Her many friends in Greenwood are hoping that it will not be long until this good woman shall be able to be out again and enjoying life.

Feeding Four Hundred Cattle.

The Woods Brothers are at this time having on feed at their ranch near Greenwood, some 400 head of cattle which they are preparing for the market. They received a car load of cotton seed meal which they are mixing with the other feeds for the cattle and are leaving nothing undone to give the cattle the best opportunity to develop into the very prime of beef cattle.

Mrs. Dudley Clouse Poorly.

Mrs. Dudley Clouse who has been rather poorly for the past more than a month, still remains quite sick and every care and the very best of medical attention is being given that she may have every opportunity to regain her health. Her many friends, and they are numerous, are hoping that she may soon be well again, and out and enjoying being well again.

Funeral of Clarke Clymer.

Clarke Clymer, son of Mr. and Mrs. Pearl Clymer, and one of the very best of young men, honest, industrious and always wishing to do what ever possible for his fellow men and with friends by the hundreds, was taken with a sudden attack of appendicitis and was rushed to the hospital where he underwent an operation for relief. The appendix had burst, thus making the treatment very difficult. He was pleased by having the presence of his uncle, E. L. McDonald, with him at the time of the operation and afterwards. There was a very strong friendship between these two as was also between the lad and his parents. Following the operation he rallied for a time, and had hopes of recovering but soon his condition grew very grave and it was feared that he would not survive. He, however, while realizing the fact, made preparations for the disposal of his effects and gave his graduation ring to the mother which he requested her to wear in memory of him. While fighting against the inevitable, he still with a strength of young manhood, fought off the grim monster until as the day was closing Sunday, passing to the great beyond, of which he said a number of times he had no fears of entering as he had lived a life free from evil while here.

At the time of his departure he was surrounded by the family and relatives dear to him and whom he was bidding good-bye forever. Clarke was a graduate of the Greenwood high school and while a very active worker, was very popular with his many friends here. The pall bearers were selected from his young school mates. The funeral was one of the largest in Greenwood for many a day, the services conducted by the Rev. Dr. Walter Aken, pastor of the Methodist church in Lincoln, and was held on Wednesday afternoon of last week. The interment was made at the beautiful Greenwood cemetery where the body will rest until the time when it is called to join that spirit which was fashioned in the image of that God whom he loved and served. The services were held at the Christian church in Green-

Cooper-Greer.
On last Saturday afternoon at 3 o'clock occurred the marriage of Miss Caroline Cooper, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Warren Cooper of Milford, and Charles Greer, son of Henry Greer of this place at the Methodist church in Milford. Rev. W. A. Fowler read the marriage lines, preceding which there was a prelude played by Miss Gwendolyn West of Lincoln, violinist and Mrs. Harold Nye of Lincoln organist. Lloyd Watt and Mrs. W. A. Fraser, both of Lincoln sang. Miss Ruth Cooper, sister of the bride served as maid of honor and the Misses Eva and Elinor Cooper as bridesmaids. Vernon Greer, brother of the groom, was best man. Barton Cooper, a brother of the bride and Norman Peters were the ushers. Following the ceremony there was a reception at the church. The couple will reside in Lincoln at 1525 No. 31st. Mr. and Mrs. Greer both are graduates of the University of Nebraska and Mr. Greer is taking post-graduate work at the University this year.—Gazette.

Death of Well Known Lady of Near Avoca

Mrs. Anna Wilhelmina Kunz, Called to the Last Reward—Funeral Held at Avoca

Mrs. Anna Wilhelmina Kunz was born near Wyoming, Otoe county, Nebraska, September 25, 1869, and passed away at Avoca, November 19, 1931, having reached the age of 62 years, 1 month and 11 days.

She was baptized in infancy and at the age of 14 years was confirmed in St. Luke's Lutheran church of which she was a faithful member as long as her health permitted.

She was united in marriage to John Kunz on October 18, 1887. To this union 12 children were born, seven boys and five girls. Caroline and the younger brother proceeded their mother in death several years ago. The children living are Henry of Yakima, Wash., Mrs. E. H. Havice of Gen. Kans., Adolph, George and Mrs. John Brinton of Elmwood; Eddie of Beaver Crossing; Mrs. Herman Truedenburg of near Avoca, John William, Harry and Mrs. Clara McCann who have been living at home. The deceased lived on a farm most of her life. In 1918 they moved to Avoca, residing there for seven years. They then moved to near Syracuse, remaining there until her husband's health broke down when they returned to Avoca to their former home, where Mrs. Kunz passed away.

The children were ever upon her mind throughout her whole life, and she ministered to them in time of trouble and sickness regardless of herself.

She experienced all the numerous hardships of pioneer life and regardless of all, she met them with a smile.

Her health for 25 years had been failing gradually, yet she never complained. On Thursday at 9:20 a. m. the Good Master called her to rest. Those surviving her, besides the children named, are 21 grandchildren, also a sister, Mrs. Chris Haefner of Hitechock, Okla., five half sisters, and three half-brothers.

Funeral services were conducted at Avoca Monday, at 2:30, with Rev. O. W. Rezer officiating and the body was laid to rest in the Union cemetery of Otoe by the side of her father and brother.—Elmwood Leader-Echo.

PROBE TRUNK CORPSE TALE

The three deputy state sheriffs who went to Butler county Wednesday to investigate a Bellwood farmer's report that he had seen a man leading what appeared to be the body of a small child into a trunk attached to the rear of an automobile, returned to Lincoln Wednesday night without having verified or disproved the report. State Sheriff Endres said.

Sheriff Endres said the deputies, Benton, Peter and Hufish, made an investigation in the county but were unsuccessful. They did not talk with J. C. Nicholas, the Bellwood farmer who made the report. The deputies investigated another case while in the county but Sheriff Endres declined to discuss the results.
