WEEPING WATER

Pete Miller is assisting at the Lustral Hotel and as well making his home there.

Miss Leone Wade was a visitor in Plattsmouth on last Tuesday afternoon where she was looking after some business matters for a short time.

Carl Hoffman and little son of near Elmwood were in Weeping Water on last Tuesday and were looking after some business while in town.

F. E. Stander of between Manley and Murdock was a visitor in Weeping Water on last Tuesday afternoon and was looking after some business matters.

Andrew Schliefer of Manley was a visitor in Weeping Water on Tuesday, coming to pay his last respects to his friend Charles Joyce, and attending the funeral.

Oscar L. Hoffman who has been quite poorly with something like the flu, is reported as being better and is able to be down town. It is hoped that he may soon be in his usual rugged health.

Charles L. Long of Murdock, was a visitor in Weeping Water on last Tuesday, coming over to attend the funeral rites of the late Charles Joyce who was killed in an auto wreck on last Saturday.

Elmer Keifenberg and wife and their son of Bellevue were in Weeping Water for Thanksgiving day and were guests at the home of Mr. and Mrs. John S. Williams, where all enjoyed the occasion very much.

On last Saturday night Miss Vera Williams and her friend, Joseph Vance, both of Omaha, arrived in Weeping Water and were the guests of Miss Vera's parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. S. Williams for over the week end.

Dr. Tuck was called to Plattsmouth on last Friday to appear as a witness in the case of Phillip Schaeffer and the Pipe Line company and while there also visited with his many friends and calling on Dr. G. L. Taylor, veterinarian, while in the county seat.

Showing Some Improvement.
Mr. Ewing Nelson who was so severely injured in the accident when the car in which he was riding and in which the driver, Charles Joyce, was killed, and who was taken to the Clarkson hospital, and whose life was despaired of for a time, is reported as being some better at this time and hopes are entertained that he may recover from his injuries. He was very severely injured and suffered great loss of blood which produced a very weakened condition but with some slight improvement hopes of his recovery are entertained.

On Wednesday of this week Chris J. Elgaard with his car took the mother and sister Ella, over to Omaha to visit the young man. His many friends, and they are many, are hoping he may soon be able to return home.

Businesses Change Location.
Hans Johnson who has been located in the Philpot building east of the Dowler service station and garage, moved to the room next west of the Nebraska State bank, the change in location being effected following the closing of the day's business on last Saturday. R. G. Speak, the jeweler and watchmaker, who also occupies the place with Mr. Johnson, also moving. The two firms are nicely located and have excellent places for their respective businesses.

Business Houses Honor Dead.
The business houses of Weeping Water in honor of one of their highly respected citizens, Charles Joyce, the owner of the fleet of trucks which has helped keep Weeping Water to the fore, and who was highly honored

THE FUNERAL HOME

Modern conditions and standards of living have called into being an entirely new kind of institution for meeting a universal human need—The Funeral Home.

Planned for the specific purpose which it serves, it offers greater efficiency and greater convenience than was possible in the past.

We are proud to be able to offer the communities which we serve the use of such an establishment.

remainder of the week at the home of her parents in Beemer, returning in time to take up her duties at the school Monday morning.

Dr. D. E. Hansen was a visitor at Omaha for the Thanksgiving day and took dinner with the parents and visited for the day. On his return he was accompanied by his brother, Warren Hansen who came remaining for the remainder of the week.

Nelson Berger, who has some 70 acres of corn yet to pick was over to Plattsmouth on last Monday morning where he secured some help and returned to tackle the corn remaining in the field which he is anxious to get out as soon as possible.

Miss Ellen Rose, who is teaching in the western portion of the state was a visitor in Nehawka and at the home of her parents for Thanksgiving and the week end and after having enjoyed the visit here very much returned to take up her work in the schools.

Charles R. Troop of Plattsmouth was a visitor in the neighborhood north of Nehawka on last Monday and with a new man whom he had hired to assist in the picking of corn was also himself trying out the game, especially in Iowa and Nebraska. Many melting snow. He has quite a bit yet to gather.

Mrs. George Troop, who has been near Denver in a sanitarium, where she has been receiving treatment, was enabled to return home on last Thursday, and is for the present stopping with her sister, Mrs. Kenneth McCarthy and is showing some improvement, which is very pleasing to her many friends.

Uncle Herman August who has been one of the old settlers about Nehawka for many years and who is past ninety years of age, is quite ill at this time at the home of his daughter, Mrs. Louis Plybon and is being cared for by the daughter. He has been showing some improvement of late and it is hoped that he will be better soon and be able to be about again.

Broadcast Excellent Program.
The Nehawka band, composed of twenty-six pieces, were over to Shenandoah, this time to the Earl May studio where they gave on last Sunday a very fine program and which was enjoyed by many people not alone in Nehawka and the vicinity but throughout the nation, and especially in Iowa and Nebraska. Many of the numbers on the program were dedicated to some friend of a member of the band. Many of the inhabitants of Nehawka were over to enjoy personally the very fine rendition of the numbers, while others at home kept tuned in on the station.

Still at Hospital.
Lawrence Smith, the son of Mr. and Mrs. Herman Smith, who went to the hospital several weeks since and who has been receiving treatment is at this time while somewhat improved, still at the institution and is hoping the time will not be long until he is able to get back home for he sure has had enough of hospital life.

Rabbits Were Lost.
The report became current that a number of common ordinary rabbits were lost during the recent snow storm and so that they might not perish with either hunger or cold John Hicks and Albert Wolfe volunteered to go out and see if they could find them. They took their guns along, but what for we did not inquire.

O. J. FEE IS RECOVERING

Sioux City—Attendants at a hospital here Tuesday night said they saw a "marked improvement" in the condition of O. J. Fee, Sioux City business man and former Lincoln, Neb., resident. Physicians said he probably will be discharged from the hospital late this week. Fee was carried badly about the head, arms and body last Sunday when gasoline which had spilled in the rear seat of his automobile caught fire from sparks from the exhaust pipe.
