 WHY worry and wonder whether you'll find your radiator frozen solid one of these mornings? Don't do it! Let us put in the correct mixture of anti-freze—today—so you'll have THAT off your mind!

MURRAY GARAGE
 A. D. BAKKE, Prop.

Murray

Ernest Schomaker and son, Arnold, completed their corn picking Friday, Dec. 4.

Mrs. Henry Vest has been very poorly at her home in Murray for the past several days and is still in a very serious condition.

Edward Murray and wife were attending court in Plattsmouth during the early portion of this week as well as visiting with friends.

Lee Nickles of Plattsmouth was a visitor in Murray on last Monday, driving down in his car to look after some business matters for a time.

Harry Knabe was a visitor in Murray on last Monday from his home near Nehawka and was looking after some business matters while here.

W. O. Troop and wife were looking after some business matters in Plattsmouth during the fore part of this week and were attending court while there.

Little Margaret Campbell, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Fred Campbell, has been quite ill for some time but is reported as showing some improvement late.

The Hon. Troy L. Davis, state representative, stopped on his way home from Plattsmouth where he was looking after some business matters for a short time on last Friday.

Mrs. Henry C. Long, who has been so ill for so long with a severe and aggravated attack of shingles, is feeling slightly improved but is still kept in her bed by the troublesome disease.

George Nickles received and unloaded a car of Brickettes a great portion of which was sold and a portion placed in his bins along the tracks for the supplying of the trade.

Mr. Alfred Nickles is reported as being rather poorly at this time and is staying during his illness at the home of his mother, Mrs. Mary Nickles, where he is being cared for by his mother and sister, Miss Bertha.

Mrs. Wm. Sporer, accompanied by her son, Martin Sporer, was over to Omaha on Monday afternoon of this week where she went to consult her physician, Dr. Davis of Omaha, who is a specialist and who is treating Mrs. Sporer.

W. B. Banning was a visitor in Murray for a short time on last Friday stopping here to see his friend, George E. Nickles, as he was returning from Plattsmouth. Mr. Banning has just filed for nomination for state senator.

There was joy at the home of Mr. and Mrs. James Baker who reside west of the city of Murray when it was announced by the attending physician, Dr. R. W. Tyson, that a son and heir had arrived. The young man and mother are doing very finely.

Herman Wohlfarth, road overseer for the district surrounding Murray, was a visitor in Plattsmouth on Monday of this week where he was looking after business for the county. Mr. Wohlfarth has a very fine workman to assist him with the work on the roads in the person of C. W. Allen.

Charles V. Barrows was a visitor in Omaha on last Monday where he went for a truck load of gasoline, which he is selling very rapidly. Treating the people right is the very best business practice and sure Chuck knows the knack of giving all their full measure of service and goods for their money.

There was joy on last Sunday morning when the stork brought a young son to the home of Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Minford. The mother and young son are doing very nicely and while every care is being given to the father, it is confidently expected that he will get along all right, but at this time he is quite a bit overcome with sheer joy.

Entertained at KFNF.
 Miss Mildred Schomaker and Miss Lois Gannaway of Plattsmouth, Neb., picked up their guitars and headed toward Shenandoah, Iowa, and entertained at radio station KFNF, Henry Fields Seed Co.

Presenting Nice Display.
 The store room of Tutt and Brubacher have been during the past week displaying their store room up in holiday colors and with the Christmas goods which they have lavishly displayed, makes the place a bower of beauty and promises a very fine place to secure your holiday supplies. Drop in and see how fine the place looks.

John's Vision on Patmos

This last book of the Bible is looked upon by most people as being full of mystery and cannot be understood. But his title says, "It is the revelation of Jesus Christ," hence it is understandable. The spirit of God will illumine the understanding of those who earnestly and sincerely seek the light. Jesus himself as man did not know the will of God in its entirety (Mark 13:32), but as time passed on the Father revealed his will to the Son (John 5:20) and now he passes this knowledge on through John to the churches. As time passes on God will raise up men who will, like the prophets of old, bring to the knowledge of the church, the will of God. No one need to waste his time in speculations. We can understand enough of this book now how to live to have a good record to show when all men shall be judged (Chap. 20:12). The revelation is a fitting close of the Bible.

Verse 4—The salutation, which sounds the keynote of the book by proclaiming to the distressed church the eternal power of God, the omnipresent and penetrating energy of the spirit and the redeeming Lordship of Christ who will return to overcome his enemies. "John," the author of the fourth Gospel, had authority to speak to the seven churches. "Seven," the number which signifies completeness. The seven churches stand also for the whole church of Christ. "Seven spirits," i.e. the Holy Spirit in His complete working. Compare Chap. 4:5, 5:6, "Faithful Witness," see Chap. 1, 2, Psalms 89:27 and John 18:27. "Firstborn," i.e. the first born of the dead to enter life; compare Col. 1:18 and Psalms 89:27. "Washed us," i.e. loosed us as the Redeemer of Slaves by his own blood. "Kings," to be a kingdom, i.e. a society under his Kingship; compare Ex. 19:6 and 1 Peter, 2:9. "Priests," to offer spiritual sacrifices; see Heb. 12:15 and 1 Peter 2:5. "Unto God," belonging to God and engaged in His service. For doxologies addressed to Christ compare Romans 16:27; II Thim. 4:18; Hebrews 3:21 and 1 Peter 4:11. "Behold," from Dan. 7:13; "Cometh" at the judgment, Math. 24:26, 26, 64. "Every eye shall see Him," from Zach. 12:10; John 19:37. "Alpha and Omega," the eternal God, Chap. 21:6; Isa. 44:6. "The Almighty," i.e. He who rules over all; the God of the Universe, Amos 4:13.

Verse 9—Tribulation and Kingdom and patience are all found in Business Changes Hands.

 The Rock Creek filling and service station which has been operated for some time past by G. M. Minford with the assistance of Van Allen, who is surely a hustler for business, on Monday of this week changed hands and is being operated by Charles Muttz, who has leased the place and will continue to give the very best of service and will be joined by his brother in a short time. They both will work at the station and will be there at all times to care for the wants of the traveling public. Mr. Van Allen has a number of very enticing offers, and as yet has not decided just which he will take.

Always at Work.
 A. D. Bakke of the Murray garage has been at the stand during the past nine years and with the exception of only two days during the entire time he has had plenty of work to keep him and his workman busy. These two days the roads and the weather was so bad that it was almost impossible to get about. With fair treatment has always representing things just as they are, has kept this garage to the forefront and doing a good business, whether the times have been good or bad. He has his share of the business and work.

Celebrate Thanksgiving Dinner.
 At the home of Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Sporer was celebrated on last Sunday, Dec. 6th, the deferred Thanksgiving dinner which is the practice of this family to hold at this season.

Obituary
 A. Belle Swarthout was born near Springfield, Ill., April 22, 1854, and passed away at the home of her son, November 17, 1931, at the age of 77 years, 6 months and 26 days. Mrs. Swarthout came to North Platte in 1875 and with her sister conducted a dressmaking and millinery shop in the old log building now located in the city park. On Dec. 11, 1879, she was united in marriage to Harvey I. Swarthout, who passed away Jan. 19, 1896. To this union four children were born, two sons and two daughters, Mrs. Irene Parker, Seattle, Wash.; Mrs. R. N. Ranson, Tekamah, Neb.; Mrs. A. O. Swarthout of North Platte. One son, Carl A. Swarthout of Minden, La., having passed away May 9, 1929. She also leaves twelve grandchildren to mourn her death. Mrs. Swarthout united with the Presbyterian church at an early age and during her early residence in North Platte she and her husband were active in work of the church.

of the year. There was there for the occasion the entire family, consisting of Chester Sporer and family, Martin Sporer and family, Charles Sporer and also Mrs. Terrace Pitman of Omaha, who has been stopping in Omaha for some time past.

Making Trip Via Water.
 Lee Webber and Hiram Grueber departed on last Monday evening for a trip via the Missouri river, their first destination being Kansas City, and after that they will continue on down the river to St. Louis and after a stop there will go up the Mississippi for a ways. They have a boat which will serve them very nicely for the trip and this will afford them to see much fine country.

Gets Opossum Monday.
 On last Monday Wm. "Curley" Reeves was out in the county and as he was passing along the road near the home of A. D. Rhoden he saw an Opossum climbing in a hedge and as the growth was so thick that he could not get at the same "Curley" shot the animal and brought it home for a feast.

ORGANIZE GREGG CLUB

A new organization has made its appearance in Plattsmouth high school with the formation of a Short-hand Club. This organization is composed of students of the first and second year shorthand classes, and has for its purpose the creation of further interest in shorthand work and stenography. Interest will be stimulated by awarding merit certificates to members who achieve certain requirements and it is planned to have speakers representing the various professions appear on the programs.

This organization gives the commercial students an opportunity to further their education in shorthand outside of the formality of the regular class room, and doubtless will be an incentive to better work in the commercial field.

The officers selected are: Helen Warga, president; Eleanor Swatek, vice president; Helen Davis, secretary and treasurer; Mata Schackneis, reporter. Mr. L. L. Starrett, for the past two years a teacher of commercial subjects, is the sponsor of the club. There are forty-four students in the department and they plan to meet once a month.

The president appointed a committee of five to draw up a constitution and by-laws for the club. This group is composed of Eleanor Swatek, chairman, Donald Bushnell, Helen Schulz, Grace Pilney, Floyd Shanholtz. They will also prepare a calendar.

The special committee for this month is Irene Simons, chairman, Helen Woolcott and Henry Donat.
