Burlington Veterans Hold Pleasant Time

Local Men Who Have Served Long in Burlington Banks, Hold Meeting at Hayes Home

From Thursday's Daily

Altho the Burlington has discontinued its shop work in Plattsmouth, there are some twenty veterans, that is those who have had twenty or more years of service, still residing in Plattsmouth. Last evening thru the call of the Secretary-Treasurer, Charley Carlsson, a meeting was held at the home of the president, R. B. Hayes and wives were invited to join in the social hour. A business meeting was held with the question paramount as to whether to continue the local organization. It was decided to continue and officers were elected for the ensuing year. Mr. Fred Morgan being elected president and Mr. Carlsson to continue his office as in the past.

During this time the wives adjourned to the kitchen where a "talk fest" preceded the organization of a "kitchen auxiliary" and the preparation of refreshments. When the business session was over, the ladies joined the men and served sandwiches, doughnuts and coffee, and discussed everything from home management and city government to the strategy of great railroads, until finally a motion to adjourn arrived.

Regrets were expressed over the serious illness of one member, John Wickman, and he was voted a message of sympathy. Mr. Henry Mauzy was among the missing as he and his wife are in California again for the winter. Mr. F. Buttery and S. S. Gooding are in Omaha and others were detained because of illness, age or weather conditions. The meeting was held just in time to have Mr. W. C. Tippers and wife with the gathering as they are leaving Friday afternoon for several weeks in California. All seemed to enjoy the evening so much that it was suggested the meetings be held quarterly rather than just annually or when some special matter need attention, and that more of the eligible men be urged to join.

Were it not for the happy friendships formed when at duty for the betterment of life, what a dreary, unsympathetic world this would be in which to spend three score and ten. All hail to him who brought "Peace on Earth, Good Will to Men."

ENJOY FINE MEETING

On Wednesday afternoon the Social Workers Flower Club was most charmingly entertained at the beautiful country home of Mrs. Fred Nolting. The assistant hostess being Mrs. George Mumm. There was a large attendance at this meeting and one new member, Miss Velma Fulton, was taken into the club.

As everyone had been made happy in the morning by seeing "Santa", the same Christmas spirit remained with the members throughout their meeting. After the business meeting, which was presided over by the president, Miss Helen Johnson, a most enjoyable Christmas program was given in which Mrs. Mike Kafitz was favored by seeing a very beautiful poem, which brought out the story of Christmas.

Little Charles and Charline Spangler, children of Mr. and Mrs. Everett Spangler, also gave some beautiful Christmas selections, which were enjoyed by everyone present.

After the program a delicious two course luncheon was served, Mrs. Everett Spangler assisting.

At a late hour all departed wishing each and everyone a very "Merry Xmas."

The next meeting will be at the home of Miss Helen Johnson.

TRUCK CATCHES AFIRE

From Thursday's Daily

This morning one of the large trucks used by the McMaken Truck Line was burned while the truck was enroute to Omaha with a load of walnut logs.

The truck left here shortly after 8 o'clock and when it had reached the south approach of the Lafayette overhead crossing, the driver, Harry Jordan, discovered that the truck was on fire. The driver made every effort to get the fire checked but being unable to do so, with the assistance of several of the residents nearby, had the cargo of logs unloaded.

The truck was destroyed with the exception of the tires and the wreckage was later brought on into this city.

INSTALL REFRIGERATION

The Coronado apartment house in this city is to have a system of refrigeration installed in a large number of the apartments in the next few weeks. The contract has been made with Jess Wurga, local representative of the Frigidaire company, by which Mr. Wurga is to place ten of the Frigidaire in the apartment house as soon as possible. These refrigeration plants will be placed in the different apartments as an added comfort and convenience to the residents.

APPRECIATED REMEMBRANCE

James Rebal, one of the well known residents of the city, has remembered two of his sons with presents that will assure them an all year around pleasure. Mr. Rebal has had the Journal sent to Edward Rebal at Orange, California and Raymond Rebal at Great Falls, Montana, so that the sons can keep in touch with the events in the old home town where they were born and grew to manhood. Edward Rebal is now in charge of a grocery at Orange while Raymond Rebal, who was with the Journal for several years, is engaged in his trade as linotype operator at Great Falls.

Mrs. E. H. Westcott Member State Washing'n Group

State Regent of Daughters of American Revolution on Washington Bicentennial Commission

Mrs. Edgar H. Westcott of Plattsmouth, state regent of the Nebraska Daughters of the American Revolution, is one of the members of the Bicentennial Commission for Nebraska, recently appointed by Governor Charles W. Bryan, to arrange plans for the observance of the Two Hundredth Anniversary of the birth of George Washington, February 22, 1932. Nearly every state in the union has now such a commission, and all are hard at work.

At the request of Mrs. Westcott, each of the fifty-two D. A. R. chapters in Nebraska has requested its local newspaper to publish a special George Washington edition on February 22. The majority of the newspapers of the state are already planning for this special edition.

A replica of a rare bust of George Washington is being presented by the United States Bicentennial commission to the Governor of each state in the union. Congressman John H. Morehead now has charge of the bust for Governor Bryan. Presentation exercises have already been held in three states. Governor Morgan F. Larson of New Jersey, Governor Doyle E. Carlton of Florida, and Governor Ross S. Sterling of Texas have been presented with busts, the official presentation being made by the representatives from the respective states. The busts of which these busts of George Washington are replicas, was executed 139 years ago by Joseph Nollekens, the famous English sculptor.

JURY ACQUITS MILLER

From Friday's Daily

The jury which took the case of J. P. Miller, under consideration Wednesday night after a trial lasting three days, acquitted him on both counts of the indictment charging illegal operation of a radio broadcasting station at Ashland. The verdict was opened and read at 9:40 Thursday morning, having been sealed and returned just before midnight Wednesday. Miller was tried on but two counts of the indictment—one charging that he sent programs across the state line from an unlicensed station, the other that he operated the station without a license of any kind, either operator's or station's.

This is the first case of the kind to be tried in Nebraska and one of very few in the country, and was of particular interest to the bar. In ruling on several points that arose, Judge Munger analyzed the statute and found some ambiguities in it, under which several of the seven counts of the indictment failed to stand up. For instance, the law says call letters shall be assigned by the department of commerce but doesn't make it necessarily an offense to use such letters without such assignment. Hence to it was shown that Miller had adopted the letters KMRS for the Ashland station without any formality, that charge in the indictment was eliminated from the jury's consideration.

HAS WRIST FRACTURED

From Friday's Daily

Mrs. Carl Kopsichka, residing on Wintersteen Hill, was the victim of a very painful accident last evening that will cause her a great deal of inconvenience for some time. She was working around the home and fell, alighting in such a manner that the wrist of the right arm was fractured and causing the victim of the accident a great deal of pain. The many friends of this estimable lady will regret to learn of her misfortune and trust she may soon be able to over the effects of the accident.

OMAHA PEOPLE WED HERE

The marriage of four Omaha parties occurred here Thursday afternoon, one couple, John G. Anas and Miss Veda Pratt, being joined in wedlock at the home of Rev. C. O. Troy, pastor of the First Methodist church. Mr. Anas is a well known confectionery of Omaha.

John Swartz and Miss Gertrude Knoblauch were married at the office of Judge A. H. Duxbury, where the wedding ceremony was witnessed by a group of the friends of the contracting parties from Omaha.

Campaign for Charities Has a Fine Response

Report of Mrs. Frank Mullen, Chairman of Finance Committee Gives Results of Drive

The result of the solicitation campaign for the Associated Charities in this city has been very successful and despite the general conditions that have prevailed over the past months, the response both in cash and other donations has been very fine. The committee has had response in very part of the city and residents have answered the call of need in the true American spirit, giving to the utmost in either money or supplies that have been equally acceptable.

Mrs. Frank Mullen has been chairman of the general committee while the solicitation has been by appointed committees and women who have been untiring in their work. Mrs. Mullen has asked the Journal to express her appreciation of the generous response of the people, to the committee who has conducted the active solicitation and to the press for its support, the most hearty thanks.

The report of Mrs. Mullen and the list of donations made to the different committees is given below. Miss Tressa Haley Honored by Friends

Event Held at Home Economics Department of High School—Guest of Honor Weds Soon

From Friday's Daily

The home economics room of the high school was the scene of a very delightful gathering last evening, a large number of the young people of Plattsmouth were invited to join in a miscellaneous shower in honor of her, forthcoming marriage.

Miss Haley is to be married on Saturday, December 26th at Holbrook, Nebraska, to Mr. John Vinmar, of Newark, New Jersey, they leaving immediately after the wedding in the evening. Mr. Vinmar has been engaged in chemistry work at Elizabeth, New Jersey, taking up his new position on January 1st.

The evening was very pleasantly spent in Bingo by the ladies, prizes being won by Helen Gilmore and Grace Pilney.

The guest of honor was showered by the members of the jolly party with a large number of very handsome and attractive gifts that she will long cherish as tokens of the circle of friends in Plattsmouth.

At an appropriate hour dainty and delicious refreshments were served.

The resignation of Miss Haley from the school work here brings much regret, not only from the student body but the community at large. Miss Haley has been one of the outstanding teachers of home economics in the state and in the two years that she has served in the Plattsmouth schools she has proved most efficient in her work as well as a lady of charm and personality that has made her many friends.

HAULING FROM MINES

In the past few weeks there has been noticeable a large number of trucks, loaded with coal passing through this city, a number of local truckers being pressed into service in hauling this coal from Iowa into this locality. The coal is secured at the mines in southern Iowa and hauled in a short time over the paved highways to eastern Nebraska for distribution.

The truckers with their supplies of coal have been crossing the traffic bridge at this point and distributing the coal in the communities in this section of the state. The coal is secured at the mine price and trucked in, escapes the freight charges. A great deal of the coal that has come through here has been disposed of in Sarpy county.

Holiday Vacation in Schools and Colleges

Young People Start Trek Homeward for Gals Holiday Season to Last Over New Year's Day

From Friday's Daily

The activities of universities, colleges and schools over the land are terminating today for a period over the holidays, most of the schools closing from today until Monday, January 4th, when the activities will be resumed.

The event of the opening of the vacation was made the occasion of a homecoming at the Plattsmouth high school this afternoon, a large number of the alumni of the school being present to enjoy the opportunity of meeting with the students of 1931.

The homecoming program was presided over by Miss Madge Garnett, president of the student council of the high school.

The members of the high school enjoyed the singing of the Christmas carols led by Miss Cora Williams, supervisor of music, the high school orchestra furnishing the accompaniment for the songs.

The members of the alumni and the friends of the school were welcomed by Miss Helen Schultz of the class of 1932 and the address of welcome was responded to by Edgar Westcott, '28 now a senior at the University of Nebraska.

Mrs. Gilbert Hinz, '31, was heard in one of her always delightful vocal numbers, a treat to the members of the school who have missed the talented singer of the last year's class. Canon Pettey, rector of the St. Luke's Episcopal church, gave a fine address on "Christmas in Legend and Literature," a most scholarly covering of the impression of the Christmas spirit on the world's progress.

Miss Leona Hudson, '30, who is an outstanding figure in the musical department of the State Teacher's college at Peru, was heard in a brilliantly rendered vocal offering.

Charles Nowack, '30, who in his school days was one of the leaders in the musical work at the high school, was presented in a piano number that was most warmly received by the old school friends.

A one act play, "A Christmas Chime" was given by the young people of the school, a most entertaining and delightful offering. The playlet was given by Mary Ann Rosenkrans, Gertrude Valley, Edward Egenberger and James Nowack.

The homecoming was one of the most pleasing given in recent years and one that the students and alumni enjoyed to the utmost.

ENTERTAIN AT HOME

The residents of the Nebraska Masonic Home had a very pleasant treat afforded them Thursday afternoon when the young people of the musical department of the city schools, under the direction of Miss Cora Williams, presented a program.

The concert at the Home proper was held in the dining room and was participated in by the first ward child's band, the harmonica band, composed of the boys of the fifth and sixth grades of the Central building, the high school glee club, junior boy's quartet, the junior girls' sextette as well as the senior girls' sextette.

Later the harmonica band visited the Infirmary of the Home and gave a short concert that was much appreciated.

The entertainment was one that all appreciated to the utmost and provided a most enjoyable time to the residents of the Home.

UNDERGOING TREATMENT

Jergen Schroeder, one of the old residents of Cedar Creek, is at the Methodist hospital at Omaha where he is undergoing an examination and treatment. Mr. Schroeder has not been in the best of health for some time and it was decided that it would be best to have him examined by specialists in order to try and determine the cause of his illness. The friends are trusting that the patient may soon return home relieved of his illness.

VERY PLEASANT OCCASION

Mr. and Mrs. Ralph H. Meisinger, residing in the vicinity of Cedar Creek, are rejoicing over the arrival at their home Monday of a fine son and heir, who tipped the scales at ten pounds. All are doing nicely and the event is bringing a great deal of pleasure to all of the relatives. It is needless to say that Adam Meisinger, paternal grandfather of the young man is feeling very proud of the new arrival.

UNDERGOES OPERATION

Raymond, young son of Mr. and Mrs. William F. Evers, was operated on Wednesday at the Clark hospital at Omaha, the operation being to relieve him of a mastoid from which he has suffered for some time. The little lad was doing very nicely at the last reports from the hospital.

TAKES OVER SERVICE STATION

Jennings Seybert, who has been at the Continental Oil Co. service station here for the past several weeks, Wednesday took over the formal management of the station and is now in full charge of the business of this large and attractive station at 6th and Vine streets.

Mr. Seybert has been quite successful in his handling of the affairs of the station and was requested by the company to take over the entire management. The station is growing in popularity and under the able management of Mr. Seybert and his efficient force of assistants should make a great progress in the future.

Pipe Line to Omaha Passes West of City

Will Extend from Near Mynard North to South Omaha to Serve Packing Plants

Representatives of the Missouri Valley Pipeline Co., and the Northern Gas Co., who are distributors of the natural gas in this section of Nebraska, were conferring with the board of county commissioners here Wednesday in regard to their pipeline extension.

The natural gas line is projected to South Omaha where the packing plants at that place are endeavoring to secure this modern fuel for the use of the different plants located there.

It is expected that the main line will be tapped near Mynard and extended north, passing some three miles west of this city, the line crossing the west side of the county farm and thence on to the Platte river. The company has not fully decided on the methods of carrying the pipeline over the Platte river, whether the lines will be laid on one of the present bridges, a new special pipeline bridge built or the lines laid under the river as the Continental company has done with their line across the Missouri river.

The work on the line is expected to start as soon as the arrangements can be completed at Omaha for the use of the natural gas.

AGED MAN HAS STROKE

From Friday's Daily

Robert Willis, 65, who has made his home here for the past few years, was stricken Wednesday evening at the family home on West Rock street, he suffering from a paralytic stroke that has made his condition very grave. Mr. Willis was formerly a resident in and near Nehawka for a number of years. Later Mr. and Mrs. Willis moving to this city where they have since resided. The many friends from the county will greatly regret to learn of the condition of Mr. Willis and trust that he may soon be able to recover from the effects of the severe illness.

IMPROVES OFFICE

The office of the McMaken Transfer Co., in the Wetenkamp building, has been greatly improved in the last few days and the business office of the company made very attractive by a thorough cleaning as well as being repapered and repainted. The office occupies the front part of the building while the rear section is devoted to the repair shop for the fleet of trucks that are maintained by Mr. McMaken.

GOES TO PACIFIC COAST

James C. Coleman departed Tuesday for the west coast where he will spend the winter season. Mr. Coleman will go to Los Angeles, California, where he has a brother residing and from there will go on to Oregon, visiting relatives there for some time. Mr. Coleman expects to return home in the spring and will then move in the south part of the city.

FEELING VERY WELL

Dr. J. S. Livingston, who is now at the home here, is showing much improvement and the pleasant surroundings of the home and the care of the wife, is progressing steadily to a return to his old vigor. Dr. Livingston has had the pleasure of many visits from the friends during his illness, both at the hospital and since returning home.

Mr. and Mrs. A. V. Vetarsnek and Daughters.

We take this means of expressing to the many dear friends and relatives who so kindly assisted us at the time of the death of our beloved daughter and sister, for their kind words of sympathy and floral and spiritual offerings. Their kindness will never be forgotten.

Plattsmouth stores offer every buying advantage you will find in the city—and they don't hike the prices at Christmas time like a lot of city stores do. Read their ads in this paper and buy here at home where your money isn't removed from circulation.

Platters Open the Season with 43 to 11 Victory

Rummel Rolls Up a Total of Twenty Points Against the Visitors from Louisville

From Thursday's Daily

If the opening contest of the basketball season can be taken as a criterion for the season the Plattsmouth basketball quintet should have a very brilliant year. The opening game last night with Louisville resulted in a 43 to 11 victory for the locals.

The brilliant floor work of Forbes and the bullet-like shooting of baskets by Rummel, featured the game. The Platters after the first few moments showing excellent team work in both the defense and the offense. The Louisville team started a show of strength that pretended rough going for the Plattsmouth aggregation, but a foul by Randall on Forbes gave the locals a free toss and the first score but a few seconds later Johnson of Louisville scored on a side shot to have a one point lead. Plattsmouth advancing the ball down the floor, Forbes leading the attack, passed to Rummel who dropped in a side shot and then the scoring spree was on. The first quarter ended with the tally 9 to 4 for the Plattsmouth five.

In the second quarter the Platters increased their lead with plays on which Rummel was at the receiving end and made good five tries for field goals while Henry Donat, acting captain, sunk a field goal and Arn a free toss. The score at the half was 20 to 7 for the Platters.

After the half time and the conferences of the teams and their respective coaches, the Platters returned to the floor fired with new zeal, Rummel scoring from under the basket for two goals, Donat, Knofficek, Robinson and Forbes each scoring from the foul line for baskets, while Forbes also made good one of the penalties on Jackman, leaving the score 33 for Plattsmouth and Louisville 11. Merriam and Sundstrom each having scored a field goal. In the last stanza of the session Louisville was held scoreless while Rummel secured two more baskets and was then replaced by Mynard McNealy, who to show that he was a worthy substitute also annexed two baskets for the Platters and Louie Knofficek, moving to forward, rang up one.

Randall and Jackman, two of the Louisville first string men, drew penalties that retired them from the game, Randall going out in the first quarter.

In the preliminary, Nehawka high school took the measure of the second string Platters, coming from behind to win 16 to 13. The scores of the Platters were made in the opening half of the game when Porter and Armstrong showed their effectiveness against the foe.

The main game was refereed by Principal Armstrong of the Weeping Water high school who did a very fine job of handling the contest.

The tabulated score of the game was as follows:

Plattsmouth	PG	FT	PF	TP
Arn, f.	0	1	1	1
Rummel, f.	10	0	0	20
McNealy, f.	2	0	0	4

The extension department of the state university is arranging to hold a sewing machine clinic in this city soon, providing that there can be at least twelve machines arranged for. Mrs. R. H. Anderson is in charge of the plans for the clinic and desires that anyone having a machine that can be used at the clinic, get in touch with her not later than December 22nd. The clinic is absolutely free and to secure it there must be twelve machines secured. Anyone having machines is asked to call Mrs. Anderson at once.

AN APPRECIATION

I wish to thank the Farmer's Mutual Insurance Co., for their very prompt handling of the claim on the fire loss on my farm buildings, also I wish to thank the neighbors who assisted as far as possible to check the fire. The fine spirit that they have shown will long be gratefully remembered. CHARLES E. TROOP.
