The Old Year Had Its Good and Bad Points

Like every year, 1931 had its good points and its bad ones. To some it taught valuable lessons from which they will profit in the future.

Here in our place of business we feel that it has given us valuable experience that will enable us to better serve our patrons during 1932. It has also taught us that LOYAL FRIENDS mean much to us.

We wish you much happiness, good health and prosperity for 1932 and sincerely hope that we will see you often.
