Funeral of Mrs. D. A. Young is Held Today

Services at the G. C. White Home and the Interment Made at Young Cemetery.

From Wednesday's Daily
This afternoon at 2 o'clock at the home of Mr. and Mrs. G. C. White on North 11th street, the funeral of Mrs. David Andrew Young was held. The service was attended by a very large group of friends and old neighbors of this loved pioneer resident.

Rev. H. G. McClusky, pastor of the First Presbyterian church, had charge of the religious services, bringing in his message of hope many comforting thoughts to the members of the bereaved family who are to miss the loving care and sympathy of the mother, now gone to the eternal rest.

During the service the Presbyterian male quartet composed of H. G. McClusky, Frank A. Cloldt, R. W. Knorr and L. D. Hiatt, gave two of the old hymns, so well loved by the departed lady, "Jesus Savior Pilot Me" and "Now the Day is Over." Frank A. Cloldt gave as a solo number, "No Night There." Mrs. H. F. Goos served as the accompanist for the musical numbers.

Following the service at the home which was in charge of the Sattler funeral home, the cortege took its way to the Young cemetery south of this city, near the old home where for so many years Mrs. Young had made her home. The body was laid to the last rest beside those of the family circle who have preceded the departed lady in death. The pall bearers were selected from the relatives and old neighbors, they being Alva Long, Murray; Alvin Range, Charles Kennedy of Omaha; Ralph Kennedy, Murray; Donald and Douglas Ellington, Omaha.

LOCAL NEWS

From Monday's Daily
John Carnack and family of Omaha were here over Sunday visiting at the Carl Kunsman home.

Wallace Chalburg, who is engaged with the Lincoln Light & Power Co., of Lincoln, was here over the week end visiting with his friend, Clarence Troy.

Mr. and Mrs. Harry Royal and Mr. and Mrs. William Derieg, of Lincoln, were here Sunday to spend the day visiting with Judge C. L. Graves, father of the ladies.

A. H. Weichel and William Bornemeier, of Elmwood, were in the city for a short time today looking after some business matters and while in the city Mr. Weichel called at the Journal to advance his subscription.

AIRSHIP TO BE EXAMINED

Washington—An examination of the Akron—the title, "Queen of the Skies," was decided upon by the house naval committee. Despite testimony by Rear Admiral Moffett, chief of the navy bureau of aeronautics, that she is the "best airship ever constructed," the committee agreed to study the justice department's file pertaining to the sabotage of which Paul F. Kassay was accused while the vessel was under construction and to scrutinize materials used in the airship which the machinists' union once said were defective.

While the committee was doing these things, however, Admiral Moffett, as the first witness in the investigation of reported defects in the ship, held the facts that she was 19,000 pounds overweight, and three knots slower than specifications do not materially affect the performance of the ship or her radius of action. He insisted too that "some psychological something" is responsible for criticism of the vessel which he said is "airworthy" in all respects.

Smith will Call on Gov. Roosevelt for a Conference

Going to Albany Soon and Intends to Visit His Successor to the Governor's Office.

Albany—Franklin D. Roosevelt, who announced himself a candidate for the democratic presidential nomination, ad Alfred E. Smith, who has maintained silence regarding his own presidential intentions, will meet at Albany soon. The meeting will be the first between them since Governor Roosevelt placed himself squarely in the presidential picture. Smith has let drop no word of his attitude toward the Roosevelt candidacy. Neither he nor Mr. Roosevelt has taken official cognizance of often repeated reports of hostility between them.

The news of the expected meeting came from Governor Roosevelt himself. He said he had heard from Mr. Smith that the latter would be in Albany within the next week or two to visit his daughter, and that he planned to call on the governor at that time. With a pile of congratulatory telegrams regarding his Saturday announcement on the desk before him, Mr. Roosevelt was asked by newspaper men if he had received one from Mr. Smith. He answered by saying he had not found opportunity to read all of the messages.—State Journal.

PICK 5 DISTRICT DELEGATE BASIS

Lincoln, Jan. 26.—Secretary of State Frank Marsh indicated Tuesday he would follow the suggestion of Attorney General C. A. Sorenson in determining the strength of Nebraska delegations to political conventions in June on the basis of five congressional districts.

Joseph Shouse, chairman of the Democratic executive committee, Monday advised Marsh the national committee fixed the basis of delegations upon the former congressional apportionment.

Of contrary opinions, however, are Arthur F. Mullen, Omaha, Democratic national committeeman, and Tom S. Allen, Lincoln, chairman of the state committee, both of whom advised Marsh they believe the delegations should be based upon five districts.

Wm. H. Bornemeier in Race for Representative

Resident of Elmwood Precinct to Seek Republican Nomination in 6th District.

William H. Bornemeier, of Elmwood precinct, one of the republican leaders of that portion of Cass county, Monday afternoon filed as a candidate for the republican nomination in the sixth representative district. Mr. Bornemeier is a member of one of the largest and best known families in western Cass county, residing a short distance north of the town of Elmwood in Elmwood precinct.

This is the first political experience of Mr. Bornemeier as he has not before been a candidate for public office, but feels that he would appreciate the choice of the people as a member of the state legislature and to assist in the making of laws.

W. H. Porter, of Union Files for Sheriff

Will Seek Nomination on Democratic Ticket for Position — Old Union Resident.

Another entry has been made into the race for sheriff, W. H. Porter, well known resident of Union, having entered his name as a seeker of the democratic nomination for the office.

Mr. Porter is one of the long time residents of Liberty precinct and Union, a most popular and highly esteemed resident of that community. Mr. Porter has been an active member of the democratic party over a long period of years, serving faithfully in the party organization of that section of Cass county.

This filing makes the entries two apiece for the position with a large number of other candidates wavering as to getting in or not for the big marathon in April. H. Sylvester of Weeping Water is the other filing on the democratic ticket.

DEATH OF NEWSPAPER VETERAN

William A. Keithley, who died Sunday at his home at Talmage, Nebraska, was buried Tuesday afternoon at Syracuse.

Mr. Keithley had been connected with various publications in this section of the country for more than half a century and had published papers in Syracuse, Palmyra and Talmage in Otoe county. More than half a century ago he was employed as a printer on the Nebraska City News.

In 1883 Mr. Keithley was located in Plattsmouth, where he and at one time published a small daily paper here, "The Morning Mail," which was short lived. While here he was married to Miss Martha Vass, who preceded him in death a great many years ago. He was later married a second time and is survived by the widow, two sons, a stepson and a nephew, who was adopted as a son.

DO YOU WANT CHICKS

The W. F. Nolte Hatchery, Myrard, Nebraska, is now in operation and hatching eggs at a price which with the cheapness of the eggs all can have early chicks. The price has been reduced from February 4th to March 2nd to the extremely low price of one and quarter cent per egg, or fifteen cents per dozen. Do not let this opportunity slip if you want early chicks.

Wedding of Miss Margaret Stander to Oscar Humm

Impressive Ceremony Held at Home of the Parents of the Bride at Louisville.

A wedding of much interest and importance to the many friends of the family occurred at the home of Mr. and Mrs. P. C. Stander at high noon on Monday of this week, when their daughter, Miss Margaret Grace became the bride of Oscar Humm, of Belleville, Illinois, son of Mr. and Mrs. Gottlieb Humm, of Pawnee City, at a simple ceremony conducted by the Rev. Dr. Oscar W. Low, minister of religious education of Plymouth Congregational church of Minneapolis. Dr. Low is a brother-in-law of the bride.

The impressive double ring Episcopal service was used. His little daughter, Lucretia, seven, was junior bridesmaid and performed her part charmingly. She wore a period dress of white tulle with a sash of pink and blue velvet and carried a bouquet of Johanna Hill roses.

Her maid of honor was her sister, Miss Dorothy Stander, who wore a becoming gown of blue triple sheer material of period style. She also wore a Roman gold rope necklace and carried a bouquet of Talisman roses.

The bridegroom was attended by his brother, John Humm, of Monmouth, Illinois.

The bride's mother was gowned in a wine colored crepe dress. Before the beginning of the wedding service, another sister, Miss Edith Stander sang "At Dawning" by Cadman, accompanied on the piano by her sister, Mrs. C. A. White, who also played the bridal chorus from Lohengrin.

After the service, a wedding breakfast was served, the table being decorated with ivory crystal and the flowers of the wedding party used as a center piece. The ceremony was witnessed only by the immediate families of the couple and a few near relatives and friends.

The bride's going away dress was a most becoming shade known as American Beauty and gold silk crepe with hat, coat and shoes of brown.

The bride is a member of one of Cass county's oldest and most prominent families. She was graduated from the Louisville high school in the class of 1932 and later from the Wesleyan university at Lincoln in the year 1926. The groom is a graduate of the Pawnee City high school and also was graduated from Tarkio college at Tarkio, Missouri. They both taught school at Edgar, where their acquaintance began which culminated in their marriage last Monday.

During the last two years or more, the bride has been in charge of a tea room in Minneapolis. She is a young lady of refinement and culture and is generally loved by her many friends for her sweetness of character and high ideals. She has also had practical training and counts among her many accomplishments that of being an excellent housekeeper and will make an attractive home for her husband.

The groom is a member of a prominent and well known family in Pawnee City and is a young man of sterling worth and good business ability. He is manager of a Kresge store at Belleville, Illinois, where he and his bride will go to housekeeping in the near future. They left here for a short time in Kansas City and from there will go to their home in Belleville.

Other out-of-town relatives present were Mr. and Mrs. Gottlieb Humm, parents of the bridegroom, and his brother-in-law and sister, Mr. Walter Stewart, of Pawnee City; a brother and wife, Mr. and Mrs. Ernest Humm, of Chicago; a sister, Mrs. J. Russell Dugan and son Donald, of Alliance, Ohio, and Frank Stander, brother of the groom, of the Wesleyan university, at Lincoln.—Louisville Courier.

CIVIL WAR VETERAN ILL

William Balfour, one of the civil war veterans of Cass county, is critically ill at the home of his son, Carl Balfour, in Nebraska. The reports from the bedside of Mr. Balfour are to the effect that the recovery of the aged man is not expected.

Mr. Balfour is well known in southeastern Nebraska. He has been guest of honor at many public functions in past years and is one of the remaining members of William Baurner post of the G. A. R. at Nebraska City. He is 86 years old, will be 87 on April 5.

PLEDGE DROUTH AID MONEY

Omaha—Nineteen Omaha business men, meeting Tuesday at the chamber of commerce, agreed to underwrite the sum of $5,000 which is to be expended for livestock feed to be shipped to the Nebraska drouth area without delay.

Plans were made to raise a much larger amount, possibly as much as $50,000, within the next two weeks. The business leaders named W. Dale Clark, president of the chamber, as chairman of the campaign committee which is to fix quotas and complete organization of the committee Wednesday. The money will be spent under the direction of A. D. Majors, president of the Omaha Livestock exchange, and H. L. Van Amburgh of the Union Stockyards company.

PASSING OF A VETERAN
The death of John Briggs, former police chief of South Omaha and also ex-county commissioner of Douglas county, has recalled to many here the memory of this fine, jovial and wholesome gentleman. Mr. Briggs has been a frequent visitor here in the years of his residence in Omaha, as well as having served in the army with a group of the Plattsmouth men.

Mr. Briggs, at the outbreak of the war, became a member of the Sixth Nebraska infantry and was assigned to the machine gun company of that regiment in which a number of the local men were members. He served as first sergeant of the company from the time of its organization until the divisional re-organization at Camp Cody, New Mexico, in October 1917.

In this company were: Floyd Stone, Henry Soennichsen, Richard Wells, Emil Finder, Matthew Jirousek, Maldon Brown, Otto E. Lutz, Edgar Glaze, Percy Warthen, Frank Smith, Albert Kearns, Dan Cooney, Arthur Sampson, Carl Wohlfarth, of this city; Roy Wade and Albert E. Cool of Elmwood; James R. Applegate, Frank Meade, Bruce and George Wolfe, of Union; Harry Johnson and Lloyd Gilmore, of Murray; Ernest and Warren Trumble, and Roy Vickers of Eagle.
